

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 910

Lily's name was constantly being looked up, even more so than during the time of her previous lawsuit with Nathaniel. The fact that her name was being connected to him once more annoyed her.

Even so, it was not anything extreme. People were just comparing the past with the present and expressing how they felt about it. Lily was initially branded a plagiarist and a liar and accused of stealing other people's work. All of her accusers now appeared to have received a slap in the face.

Nathaniel, on the other hand, went from being the president of MN Inc. to being shunned by the general populace. He was rumored to take over as chairman of the Tanner Corporation, but instead he wound up in jail. It was definitely worthwhile to remember these momentous events.

It was absurd to think that this was all actually happening, and even TV shows were less dramatic than reality. Their entire relationship was on display for the world to see, and now Lily had her devoted followers.

"Society" were all extremely popular. Her name alone accounted for more than half of the most popular her phone so she could avoid all the heat in peace. The netizens were going wild on the Internet, and someone even suggested that she take over the Perfumers' Society. After all, industry. The more one read about her, the whether for good or bad reasons. It all started because she did not want to let a piece of paper prove her worth. She would not have gone to such lengths if the Perfumers' Society had not be expected that Lawrence's sense of smell would decline with age. On stayed on top and did not care about the young perfumers whose lives he could have ruined that power and money really blinded faced in public