

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 916

Lily was initially startled when she realized something was wrong.

Then, she relaxed before gently stroking his back, trying to comfort him.

Olivia, who was at the corner, was surprised as well.

Looking at them, she realized it was no longer appropriate for her to be there.

As a result, she quickly grabbed her belongings before signaling to Lily that she was leaving and tip-toed away.

The couple was left in the room alone.

Lily did not speak and allowed him to continue hugging her in silence.

After a while, Alexander's breathing gradually calmed down, and he did not seem so upset anymore.

He slowly let go of her and looked down.

"Did I hurt you?"

Although he didn't hurt her, the pressure from his head made her shoulders a little sore.

Lily replied, shrugging her shoulders tell you not to worry? I wouldn't open the door for her, nor would I go understand," he

don't know how did not quite understand who he was referring to.It mean the

we don't let them in.I believe you're strong enough said warmly as small, it gave him strength and warmth.He was so used to struggling alone, but now, he had her.He let out a sigh of relief as he reached out to pull sorry.I lost control of my face in his chest and wrapped her arms around his have to be sorry, nor do you have to control your emotions. You don't have to hide how you feel in front of me. You can say whatever you want, curse whoever you want, and if you feel like crying,

I'm crying? You're the one nose, amused by this picked

and his hands around her waist, he eating well

her petite waist, days, I have nothing to do, and the cook keeps preparing such delicious food that I've gained so much weight. Look! Look at the meat on down at her stomach and pinched it, showing that she really did gain