

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 929

After getting out the ointment, Lily gently dipped a little with her fingers and applied it to the reddened area.

To Alexander, this minor injury was nothing at all, but when her fingers were pressed to his skin with the cold ointment, he had to admit that it was still quite pleasant.

A cool feeling penetrated the skin, and he was about to refuse, but he actually enjoyed it.

He stretched out his body, tilted his head back, and let her little hand slide over his belly.

However, as the ointment was slowly put on, along with a slight coolness, there was also a feeling that was hard to describe.

That fiery feeling rose from the lower abdomen all the way up, making his mouth dry.

Lily's full attention was on the place where he was scalded.

Although shocked, she was still so moved that he would rush over at that moment.

It was still his grandma and his aunt, and no matter how bad their relationship was, they were still his relatives in the end.

However, he would put himself in front of her, defend her, and go against them.

She often heard people talk about a sense of security.

difficult to pinpoint what that was, but Lily felt the most secure in nothing else at lid of the first aid kit, then gently

to separate it with out for

exclaimed, supporting the side with one hand so it would not press him matter. It's just a little injury, and besides, you're

so that she could lie

Lily struggled and

admit that mean, I can be dishonest without getting hurt?" he said with a

Lily did not reply.

did not mean

Alexander always teased her.

serious. You should just rest. I'll go back to the room!" She said and was about to get up, looking wrist and replied, "Don't stop. I'm actually seriously injured. Look, groaned as if to

over, but he wrapped his isn't there yet, but if

"How sly of you!"