

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 947

"Yeah, it was them." Justin nodded.

"However, they were instigated by someone else. The Light-Shadow Killers are infamous in the kickboxing circle and have done many dirty things. Recently, I found that there's a mastermind in the dark who's been ordering them all along."

Alexander looked at him and pondered.

"You're saying that Ms. Riggs is the mastermind?"

Nodding, Justin assured, "My sources should be reliable."

"She's capable of this?"

Alexander heard about this back then, and he could guess his uncle's outlook on the situation.

All these years, the number of people who tried to seize power from Alexander at the Russell family's residence had only increased.

They had pulled many tricks to do that as well.

a home should have, so he avoided going back there and meeting all those people unless it his blood relationship with the Russells and his grandfather's last words before he passed away, Alexander made sure that they could live wealthy lives without worrying about their financial situation, but that was the most he could had become more aggressive in recent years, treating him as a blind man and playing all their tricks, whether in the dark or those could threaten different now because Alexander had Lily in his life, in everything he

fine, but if they hurt the people he cared about, they appear out of nowhere. Also, the Riggs family had been staying low for decades but managed to get back on their feet in just a decade. That's not something an ordinary person would be able

he continued,

worry that's not all she wants. I'm sure the little benefits your uncle gets would be the top choice if they wanted to plan an arranged marriage with the Russell family. She could not adding, "Don't worry so much. I promise you I won't allow anyone to hurt Lily and our child, no a more at ease now

said, "I'll be heading back now. We'll talk again decided to invite slightly strange, it left Ralph wanting