

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 959

Their meal went by in a quiet and weird atmosphere.

Ralph could not figure her out and could only speculate carefully based on his observations. Her attitude toward him told him she was fine but looked unhappy, although she said she had forgiven him.

After the meal, Ralph tried to start a conversation.

"Heather, do you like the bracelet?"

"I —"

Hannah paused and gave it some thought.

"It's fine, I guess."

Initially, she wanted to say that she liked it, but it hit her that he bought the bracelet for Heather and not for her.

Hence, it did not matter whether she liked the bracelet or hated it.

"You don't like it then?"

He understood the underlying meaning behind her words instantly.

wears it, which shows her feelings for me. Mom was right. I should buy her something do you like? I'll buy proudly, and it made Hannah's gaze brighten successfully, but

"It's okay."

like it? I don't deserve it anyway!

be shy with me. Although I might not be as rich as you are, I say. Could Heather be the same as well? With that thought in mind, he got up without any walk after our meal. The mall is a mission in

"Sure."

around the mall side by side. It was rare for Hannah to be out sun, and are

what to talk

her head as she looked at her phone and swallowed her saliva before almost fell from the shock. He could not believe what he had to be a long way with me? Why would she bring up this topic suddenly? Is

"Well..."