

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 978

This man had a strong presence.

Heather had seen all kinds of men and had dealings with many of them, but not one was like him.

Even from afar, she could feel his presence, and he was the center of attention in a room full of people.

She narrowed her eyes at him, and for some reason, she had developed an interest in him.

Alexander had, of course, heard of Heather's name.

The Riggs family was secretive and had always been low-profiled until Heather took over as head of the family.

They became stronger to the extent of becoming one of the stronger families in the martial art scene.

The Riggs family had also expanded their wealth and connections in the business industry.

The eldest daughter of the Riggs family was known to be a genius in kickboxing, and she had already managed to defeat numerous well-known fighters.

was too powerful, so had to face numerous challenges proposed by fighters every her future partner was interested in Heather's wealth and important figure in the family, so why him? She should have chosen him if she was interested her hands that why she picked Ralph over him? Alexander could not yesterday, and she showed up personally today, asking to as he followed Heather's gaze and saw that she was heart skipped a beat in panic. He intentionally prevented Heather from meeting Alexander as he worried she would change her mind. He would not be able to compete smiled charmingly and acted like nothing was wrong, "I'm sorry, I forgot to introduce you. This is my down the stairs toward them and looked at his hand

her aunt instead of Ms. Riggs. We're getting married soon, too, but they've already registered their marriage. I think

"Oh, really?"

smiled, took Alexander's outstretched hand, information to prevent Heather from being