

Mr. Warner Your Ex-Wife is Brilliant by Paula Chapter 345

Chapter 345

“Although Spirit focuses only on casual clothing, we can also produce some high-end dresses and wedding dresses. I’ll design my own wedding dress and make them in my studio. Of course, I know what kind of wedding dress I want. I don’t need to look for another design team,” Jane said.

Hearing this, Drake thought for a while, but he didn’t mean to deny the girl’s request.

Jane continued, “thank you for asking Daniel to take care of the company when I was away. Bentley company started as a decoration project, and later it then involved in some other industries. I’m planning to merge Bentley with Spirit, and directly establish a listed company. In the future, the company will focus mainly on clothing design, supplemented by decoration engineering. We can enter other industries as well so the company will expand and develop even more.”

Whether it is Spirit or Bentley company, it is still not enough compared with Warner Group. But Jane wanted to stand side by side with Drake, so naturally she wants to take her career to a higher level.

After hearing Jan’s words, Drake had no objection, but was worried that she would devote too much energy and time to work and would not have time to accompany him and the children.

“If you want to do it, of course I’ll support you.”

After speaking, Drake took out his mobile phone and tap in it in a short while.

Afterwards, Jane heard the notification beeping on her mobile phone. She picked it up and looked at it, and then saw that Drake transferred one billion to her account.

Looking at the huge sum of money, Jane was stunned, “Why do you give me so much money, I don’t need your money.”

If she wants to merge the company and expand it, she must need a lot of funds, but she doesn’t plan to ask for Drake’s money.

“This money is not mine, you forgot that car race.”

Of course, Jane still remembered the car race between Drake and Giovanni. He won one billion from that fool, Jane thought. But still it was Drake’s money.

“That’s because you won the money. Why are you giving it to me?” As she said that, Jane wanted to transfer back the money to his account, but Drake held her hand.

“I won this money because of you... If you think it’s my money and don’t want it, then consider it a bride price.” He said lightly.

The one billion dowry gift is really too much, Jane couldn’t help but lament.

Before Jane could recover, the phone beeped again, and then another 1.6 billion funds arrived in the account.

“What are you doing?” Jane looked at the Drake with a puzzled face, why did he transfer so much money to her again?

“My dowry for you!” Drake replied as a matter of fact,

“There are only liquid funds and assets in my account. Afterwards, I’ll asked Daniel to draw up a share transfer letter, transferring 10% of Warner’s shares to your name. By the way, the place where we live now the Platinum Villa, I also put it in your name, these... are all my betrothal gifts for you.

Hearing the man’s nonchalant words, Jane was dumbfounded.

He... what does he want to do with such generous gifts all of a sudden?

“Drake, do you have a fever?” Jane stretched out her hand and touched the man’s forehead, a little unsure if the man in front of him was really Drake who was known as Silverbourne’s cold-faced Hades.

Holding Jane’s hand on his forehead, Drake took it directly into his arms.

“I feel sorry for you at the beginning, but now I just want to give you the best of everything.”

Hearing the man's deep and touching words, Jane felt a little complicated in her heart. She could hardly believe it, but it would be a lie that she wasn't moved.

After regaining her senses, Jane immediately waved her hand to express that she didn't want those things.

"Please don't transfer those shares to me, I don't want them, and I'll transfer the money back to you, if you really want to give me a bride price, do it normally.

She felt like this large sum of money was thrown down at her in order to kill her with it.

Besides, although she isn't very rich now, she has her financial freedom. She can still spend a few million casually, and she doesn't need so much money from him.

As she said that, she was about to transfer the money back to him, but Drake stopped her again.

"Fine if you don't want the shares, but you must accept the money. This is my heart for you, and this is what I owed you." Drake said seriously.

She had already given birth to three children for him, and he felt guilty for only giving the bride price now.

When the two of them received their marriage certificate, let alone a wedding, there's not a cent of dowry either.

Andrew asked Drake for money, but at that time Drake was still angry because the man planned everything that happened to them back then with Jane.

It's already good that Drake spared him, how can he give him the money? Getting a marriage certificate with Jane is already enough for him.

Now that the misunderstanding had been cleared up, Drake doesn't to be stingy, he just wanted to give Jane the best of things.

Jane fell in a daze with the man's attitude, seeing that he was firm about it. She decided to keep the money for the time being.

Forget it, as long as he doesn't do anything wrong to her, they won't be separated and he's bound to take care of her. But if he do something to be sorry for himself, hmp, then don't blame her for distancing herself from him and deny him of his children.

Thinking of this, Jane didn't worry anymore, and plan to gave bonuses to her subordinates with ease. Afterwards, they ate together and when they're done, Jane get back to the company.

Now that she have decided to make the company bigger and stronger, of course she have to put in a lot of effort and hard work.

Chapter 345

However, not long after Jane arrived at the company, the office got a call from the receptionist.

"Ms. Jane, someone from the Bentley family is looking for you at the front desk."

Bentley company's original front receptionist was replaced by Daniel, and the current front desk officers are completely under Jane's orders.

Therefore, whoever comes to the company to look for her, either business or trouble, Jane will definitely know about it immediately.

And the members of the Bentley family mentioned by the front desk at the moment were obviously Andrew and others.

Bentley company is now completely under Jane's name, it's all thanks to her thoughtful husband.

Regarding Amy's decision to sell her shares to her, Jane unceremoniously felt glad with it. She couldn't be bothered with her.

Speaking of Amy, Jane almost forgot that Drake had mentioned to her that Amy is now completely under her disposal.

He said that she can deal with Amy in whatever way she wanted. Just wait for her to deal with that woman, Jane thought. She had heard also that Annie will be brought back from abroad. Well, it would be good if she can meet the both of them together who wanted to harm her so badly.

Therefore, she didn't pay much attention to it. It's probably because of Amy that made Andrew and Rosaline come here.

"Let them come up." Jane ordered to the front desk on the other side of the line.

Soon, Andrew followed by Rosaline came to her office.

Seeing the two of them, Jane was stunned for a moment. After not seeing Andrew for a while, he had changed so much. He became thinner and emaciated a lot, and his eyes looked dull. What happened to him? She thought.

On the contrary, Rosaline, whose charming face full of tricks looked lively.
