

Mr. Warner Your Ex-Wife is Brilliant by Paula Chapter 347

Chapter 347

In just a few days, Amy was tortured so badly by this people arranged by Drake that she ate and drank in the same room, the smell before was self-evident.

This caused Amy to beg for mercy when she saw Jane, because she was really scared to death.

She's afraid that if she speaks too late, and Jane will condemn her to death, then Drake would really will kill her.

"Amy, what's wrong with you, get up, what you did to this bitch is not your fault, it's all because of her that you became like this."

"Don't be afraid, mom will definitely make the decision for you. I'll call the police now and ask them to arrest her. How can she detain you? This is against the law." Rosaline took out her mobile phone and prepared to call the police.

Before she could call the police, Jane sneered and said calmly.

"Indeed, we should call the police and ask the judge to give a sentence. What is the crime of trafficking people and send them to the other side of the ocean? Also... the sentence for intentional homicide isn't light. As for the witness she's still lying unconscious on the hospital bed. As for... colluding with criminal gangs, ohh well, this crime is even greater."

Listening to Jane's words, Amy trembled even more, because what she said was all true.

"What nonsense are you talking about? Why would our Amy intentionally kill someone?" Rosaline knew about the fact that her daughter tried to sold Jane to the other side of the ocean, but she didn't know about Amy killing someone. So she immediately retorted.

"Really, then you should ask your good daughter, what did she do to kill someone, and the person she killed is still lying unconscious on the hospital bed, no, to be precise, it should have become vegetative, in this life she will never wake up again.”

Jane was talking about Mary Morgan who was lying on the hospital bed and pretending to be her.

For Mary, Jane didn't have any ounce of sympathy. Drake also said to stop her treatment before, and just let her go.

But Jane thought that Mary colluded with Annie and Amy, so she asked Drake to keep Mary temporarily.

Just make sure that she won't die, she doesn't care about anything else.

“Mom... you can't call the police, you can't call the police.”

Rosaline couldn't understand every word that Jane said, but Amy immediately reacted and grabbed her mother's clothes, begged bitterly.

“Amy...” Rosaline also looked at her daughter in disbelief.

If she can't call the police, what would she do then? She doesn't want to let this matter go. The company was completely in Jane's hands now, and even her daughter has been tortured like this. How can she just let Jane go like this.

“Mom, you really can't call the police.”

When she finished asking her mother, Amy looked at Jane again. With a face full of pleading, “Sister,

Chapter 347

I really know I was wrong, please let me go, I promise, I will never appear in front of you again, please, let me go.”

Amy begged bitterly, Jane didn't intend to do anything to her at all, she hated the members of Bentley family, but she couldn't dare to kill them just because of hatred.

But now seeing them in such a miserable state, Jane thought that she had already achieve her purpose of seeking justice for her mother.

Moreover, from now on, they can no longer make trouble for themselves, which is a good thing.

“Since you know you’re wrong, I won’t do anything to you.” Jane said lightly.

Hearing this, Amy breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that she would no longer pay the price, but she heard Jane say again.

“I won’t do anything to you, but you won’t end well either. You should know what you did yourself, and you should know what will happened to that pharmaceutical factory under your name.” Jane said coldly.

Hearing this, Amy’s face immediately became pale again. Of course, she knew what pharmaceutical factory Jane was talking about.

It was precisely because of the pharmaceutical factory that she was able to let Andrew transfer the company’s shares to her name.

And she also invested a lot of money in that pharmaceutical factory, but her luck was way better than Charles Hoolbrook.

Charles invested the money and hadn’t gotten any profit or return, since he invested in that pharmaceutical factory.

After she invested some money, the other party not only provided her with a lot of useful medicines, but also quickly gave her money in return.

It was only the last time Amy went to talk for the drug she wanted to turn Mary into a vegetative state. Only then did she know that the pharmaceutical factory is also researching new drugs in addition to the other developed drugs.

Moreover, after she and Charles invested for the second time around, they have been successfully synthesized and sold with a profits.

Now that Jane mentioned it again, Amy’s face turned extremely pale. She was too clear about what would happen to her after such a thing would be discovered.

Jane didn't know the internal situation of the pharmaceutical factory yet, but seeing Amy's appearance, she was now sure that the pharmaceutical factory was definitely not into a good business.

"Oh, it seems that you have figured it out yourself." Jane snorted coldly.

Amy came back to her senses, and threw herself at Jane's feet again, begging bitterly.

"Sister, save me, save me, I don't want to go to jail, I don't want to die."

"I didn't take the initiative to negotiate with the other party. It was the person in charge of the pharmaceutical factory who came to me. I was forced by them. Yes, I was forced by them." Amy made a poor excuse and pushed all the blame to the pharmaceutical factory.

Jane pulled away from the person holding her leg, and took a few steps back and said in a cold face,

"I can't save you. You will pay for the sins you have committed yourself."

"Amy, what's going on, tell me, mom will definitely find a way to save you." Rosaline really couldn't stand her daughter's distress and begging appearance, and planned to help her up.

Hearing her mother's words, Amy didn't relax at all, instead her face became even more ugly, and she began to cry sadly, with tears and snot streaming down her face.

"Mom, I'm done, woo woo..."

"What's going on, tell me." Rosaline was getting impatient.

"That pharmaceutical factory is a drug factory!" Amy choked up and said.

Hearing this, Rosaline froze in place as if struck by a lightning.

Of course she knew what pharmaceutical factory Amy was talking about, and it was because of these drugs that they could live in Bentley's house without looking at Andrew's face.

As for the source of the pharmaceutical factory, Amy only vaguely mentioned it to her, saying that it was just a coincidence that she knows about it. She would never have thought, it would be a drug factory.

Jane was also slightly shocked. She suspected that something was wrong with the pharmaceutical factory, but she didn't expect it to be a drug factory.

If this is the case, then Amy is indeed doomed. Moreover, if this pharmaceutical factory is also related to the Dao assassins, then the situation is even more serious.

Thinking of this, Jane felt that it was necessary to inform Drake about it.

Immediately, she went to the other side and dialed Drake's number.
