Chapter 357

“Of course not.” Jane immediately responded.

The two chatted for a while, and then they parted ways, and Jane went directly to the company.

At the hotel, when Drake woke up, he was lying naked on the bed, and there was no sign of woman beside him.

His memory immediately returned to last night, the last person he saw was Marina James.

And that woman also used dirty tricks on him. Thinking of this, Drake’s handsome face immediately darkened, forming a black cloud.

He wouldn’t be really fooled by that woman, would he?

Thinking that he had touched a woman other than Jane, Drake felt uncomfortable all over, and thought that he was already dirty.

However, the medicine that the woman gave him made him have no memory of what happened last night. Thinking of this, Drake immediately rushed into the bathroom.

He turned on the shower, regardless of whether the water was cold or not, he just stood under the shower and let the water wash over his dirty body.

And Jane didn’t know what Drake had been acting just now. She heard Thea’s voice in the car.

“Madam, that woman was rescued last night. I took her downstairs. But before I could do what you ordered, a black car drove over and took her away forcefully and I wasn’t able to stop them.”

“Did you see clearly, who are those men?” Jane asked.

"The other party is wearing sunglasses, so I can't see their whole faces clearly." Thea's jawline was tense, and she felt guilty for failing to complete the task.

"Madam, after sending you to the company, I will immediately investigate the car last night to see if I can find any clues." Thea wanted to make up for it.

"Okay." Jane didn't object. Marina was taken away without a sound, which meant that there was someone behind her.

As a mistress, she was hunted down by the capital. How could she find a backer so quickly. In order to prevent her from becoming the next Annie, Jane felt the need to investigate the other party's background.

Three days later, in the villa, it is the weekend. The merging of Bentley company and Spirit is also coming. Jane took the advantage of the weekend to spend time at home with the children.

But Jane didn't have the mood, because she hadn't seen Drake for several days now.

In the past three days, the man has been sending messages of concern and greetings, but he never came back. Jane was a little puzzled and wanted to ask, but her self-esteem restrained her again.

He couldn't let her take the initiative to ask him, why he didn't come back, right? She isn't so short of men, is she?

Moreover, because Drake's attitude was unclear, Jane also put the matter of the wedding dress on hold.

Chapter 357

Divorce, even if she wanted to, Drake won't let her either. If they ever got divorced, the impact of it on the three children will not be good.

In this world now, there are so many couples who stayed in their marriage life mainly because of the children and appearances. As long as Drake doesn't do too much, she will be so particular about staying with him.

No matter what, she had her children already, she has her own business, and she doesn't need Drake at all to support her.

"Mommy, what's wrong with you?" Just as Jane was thinking wildly about how to deal with her relationship with Drake, Zach's call from the side brought Jane back from her immersed thoughts.

"What's wrong, Zach?" Jane came back to her senses, and looked at her child lovingly

"Mom, are you unhappy? Why are you always in a daze." Zach asked with some doubts.

"Mommy is fine, just thinking about something." Jane responded with a smile.

"Are you thinking about Daddy?" Zach asked bluntly.

Hearing this, Jane hesitated for a moment, then nodded, she was probably thinking about Drake, but she was just thinking about how to keep a distance from Drake in the future.

"Mommy, I asked Daddy. He was too busy during this period, so he didn't come back. Don't worry, Daddy won't do bad things outside. He used to be busy sometimes, and didn't come back for half a month." I couldn't see him at all!"

"But if you want to see Daddy, I have a solution." After Zach finished speaking, he added another sentence mysteriously.

Jane was amused by him, so she asked with a smile, "Oh? Then what methods do you use to attract his attention?"

"The most common thing is to pretend to be sick, or run away from home." Zach excitedly talked about the past with Jane.

Although Zach had a smile on his face, Jane felt so sad. Zach did this because he lacked love and attention from his father.

Suddenly, Jane felt guilty when she thought that she had been so busy during this time and hadn't spent a time with the three little guys.

“Zach, Mommy is so busy now that she doesn’t have time to spend with you, do you feel unhappy?”

Hearing Jane’s question, before Zach could speak, Zane who was beside him answered maturely

“No, Mommy is working so hard for us. Why do we blame Mommy? Besides, Mommy is always with us when she is free.”

Hearing this, Zoe nodded at the side as well. The two little guys grew up beside Jane. When Jane had just started her business, she was even busier than now. At that time, she spent less time with her children. But the two little ones are very sensible, and they’re not noisy at all, which made her come this far.

When Zach heard what his siblings said, he immediately said that he would not be unhappy with mommy.

“As long as Mommy is always by my side, Zach will feel very happy.”

Chapter 357

With her three adorable babies words, Jane’s heart became more resolute. No matter what, she still had three children.

Men are no big deal.

Afterwards, Jane no longer thought about Drake, but enjoyed herself to being with the three little guys.

For a while, the yard was full of laughter.

“Ma’am, Dr. Harrington is here!”

While Jane and the three little guys were having fun, the housekeeper brought William over.

Jane stopped playing with the three children, looked at William, and smiled.

“Dr. William, why are you here?”

“Well, routine inspection.” William answered bluntly.

Jane nodded, April’s morning sickness has improved a bit, but the usual pregnancy tests still needs to be done.

The villa is equipped with complete medical equipment, and April doesn’t need to go to the hospital to do all kinds of examinations, as it can be done in the villa. Jane informed William specifically before coming here.

Jane also asked April’s opinion, and April said she didn’t mind, so she let William come over.

“Let the housekeeper take you there.” Jane said.

Afterwards, under the housekeeper lead, William went directly to the medical room. Jane let the three little guys continue to play, and personally went to April’s room to escort her to the medical room.

In the medical room, William had already changed into a sterilized white coat. Seeing Jane helping April in, he wanted to step forward to help, but in the end he held back his movements.
