Chapter 397

The man walked into the mansion and looked at the magnificent place with greed. The butler frowned.

Jane received the man in one of the mansion's living rooms. She didn't like the sight of the man and felt a little regret for her quick and careless decision of letting the man come inside her home.

The man looked at her, his eyes wide open and full of lust.

Jane was getting uncomfortable under the man's scrutinizing gaze, so she cleared her throat, effectively catching the man's attention.

"Forgive me, your photos on the internet didn't give justice to your beauty. I didn't expect you to be this gorgeous. I was a bit enchanted there, you have put me under your spell."

The man laughed and looked even more lewd, causing Jane to question his honesty, hell, even his sanity.

"Who are you?" She patiently asked.

"Greetings Miss Bentley. My name is Carlos. It's a pleasure to finally meet you." The man's eyes never left Jane's body.

Jane's discomfort was intensifying with every second she spent with the stranger.

“Carlos, my people told me that you have something to show me. Something valuable, can you tell it to me in detail?”

Jane didn't want to beat around the bush, for she didn't want to be in the same place with the man much longer.

The man sat down, seemingly sensing her urgency, took his phone out, and put it on the center table. He looked at her and sneered.

“I'm sure that you'll be interested in what I'm about to show you.” He then held the phone again, searched for something there, and showed her the screen.

Jane watched the video that was being played, and when she realized what she was watching, her jaw slackened and her eyes grew wide with shock.

Finally, she snatched the phone from Carlos' hand and continued watching the video.

When the video ended, she was so furious she was seeing red.

“Tell me, what do you want?” Jane put the phone in front of her and did not bother to return it to the man.

Carlos was watching her, watching the video. He never thought that she would be able to finish watching it, but she did, and he admired her more for that. Her bravery is something else.

He had been secretly filming such videos for a long time, and it was the hottest video he had ever filmed so far.

And Jane was able to maintain her composure while watching it. It was a video of her assistants being molested by two big men, probably Adolf's men.

“I'm just a normal person. You, on the other hand, are not. I know that you're not just a pretty face, you are also smart. I think you have an idea of what I want in for this video.” Carlos said without a hint of embarrassment.

Jane grated her teeth, of course, she WS

But the man in front of her was obviously another bad person. From the angle of the video, it could be seen that the camera was hidden in the dark.

“I have a question. Where did you get the video

The man smirked, “This is my job, of courom? Do you have any other copies?” Jane asked can have all of them if the price is right.”

I'd be making copies. But we can always negotiate. You “How much do you want?” The man is more cunning than she.

“Ten million!” The man arrogantly said.

Jane nodded without a second thought.

“All right.” She just wanted to get rid of him as soon as she can.

Seeing that the woman had agreed to his request so easily, Carlos felt a pang of regret, he should’ve asked for more.

Jane immediately asked for his account number, she had no time dallying around. The man’s stare is getting into her nerves.

She sent the money right there and then. Carlos’ phone beeped, an indication that he received the money. He smiled from ear to ear and Jane despised him even more.

“I now own the video and I don’t want to see it anywhere else.”

Carlos was still staring at his phone. He’s having a hard time believing that he was ten million richer now. Oh, the things he can do with the money.

He realized what Jane told him and nodded eagerly.

When the man left, Jane immediately called for Thea and ordered her to look into Carlos’ background. She doesn’t trust him at all.

The result of the investigation was already in Jane’s hands on the evening, of the same day. Her people’s efficiency never disappoints.

“The man’s name is Carlos Wilde, and he is well-known in his field. The various candid videos he posted have a high click-through rate at a certain site.” Thea read them all out loud for Jane.

“Candid videos?” Jane was stunned.

“Yes. He installs hidden cameras in random hotel rooms and records the activities of whoever was using the room without their knowledge.” of business Carlos does.

Jane didn’t need to hear it all to understand what kind of ath

“He never intended to target Adolf, it just so happened that he used the same room where Carlos installed his camera. We don’t even know if anyone else had seen the video before he came to us.”

“I found out that before he came to see you, he went to find Adolf first,” Thea said angrily.

“And? How did Adolf treat him?” Jane immediately asked.

“I didn’t find out about it, but I don’t think he treated him well you,” Thea answered.

otherwise he wouldn’t have come to

“But even though he gave you the video, he’s still a bad person,” Thea said, considering the information she had obtained.

“I know.” Jane agreed. The first time she laid her

Zane was pleasantly surprised to see his mommy look for him. He ran to her and hugged her.

“Zane, Mommy needs your help!”

“What is it, Mom?” Little Zane will do anything for his Mommy.

“I need you to help me hack into someone’s computer.” Said Jane, Zane is a genius when it comes to gadgets and technologies.

Half an hour later, Zane successfully hacked Carlos’ computer.

Carlos left some traces in the video he sent her, and Zane used those traces to penetrate his computer.

Jane sent him back to his room immediately after completing the task. After all, the contents of the computer were not meant for children to see.

Zane did not ask any further questions as he obediently went back to sleep.

Jane went through the files one by one, and just like she thought, his computer was filled with photos and videos of different personalities in an uncompromising situation. Some were filmed in a hotel room; others were in various places. The man is an utter creep.
