

Mr. Warner Your Ex-Wife is Brilliant by Paula Chapter

Chapter 404

Jane went back to where Zane and Zac were still drinking.

They immediately noticed the absence of their sister

“Mommy, where’s our sister?” Both of them asked anxiously.

Jane snapped out of her daze and answered with a depressed expression, “I lost her.”

It dawned on her. She was not only worried, but she

It was not long before she finally realized how careless she was. Now she was blaming herself.

If she hadn’t been careless, she wouldn’t have lost Zoe.

But whoever took Zoe away and for what purpose was also alarming.

Jane’s first suspect was the Reincarnation Path organization, but then why would they choose Zoe?

Just when Jane was at a loss, the person in charge of the amusement park came and took her to the monitoring room to check the footages.

The surveillance system of the amusement park was not damaged, fortunately. They were able to find the footage of when she was waiting for Zoe in the bathroom as well as the cleaning staff who came and left.

Jane also suspected the cleaning staff of possibly carting her daughter away. He or she was captured clearly in the footage.

However, the other party was wearing full uniform, a hat, and a mask, so she couldn’t see the whole picture clearly.

Afterwards, they checked all the surveillance cameras of the amusement park and watched the cleaning staff's activity route throughout.

Sure enough, after the cleaner came out of the bathroom, he or she pushed the cart and left the amusement park.

Afterwards, he or she got into a black car. The surveillance camera was able to capture the license plate number of the car, and the person in charge of the amusement park immediately sent someone to call the police for investigation.

After confirming that Zoe was taken away by the cleaner, Jane didn't have the heart to stay in the amusement park anymore, so she took Zane and Zac back.

Because the investigation took time, Jane had no other choice but to wait for news.

When Drake arrived, the police station hadn't found any follow-up information.

But Zoe, who woke up, found herself in a clean room at the moment.

She sat up slowly, and after being in a daze for a while, she recalled what happened.

She remembered that she went to the bathroom with Mummy, and then, when she walked out of the cubicle to go out and find her, someone covered her mouth and nose.

She wanted to scream, but she couldn't make any sound. In the end, she slowly lost consciousness.

Guessing that she was probably kidnapped, Zoe panicked and began to check the surrounding environment.

Mommy taught them that when they encounter danger, they must first keep calm and then find a way to escape.

When her brother was kidnapped, he was able to come back safe and sound, so she must be able to do the same!

After cheering herself up in her heart, Zoe got up and got off the bed, walked to the door, and gently picked the doorknob with her hand.

Unsurprisingly, the door wouldn't open.

Zoe didn't give up either, and turned her gaze to the only window in the house

Not tall enough, Zoe dragged the chair towards it, then stood up on it to reach the window.

She was able to see trees outside, but before she could see more of the surrounding environment, the door was opened and several figures walked in.

Seeing Zoe looking out the window, the several people were slightly taken aback. The young man who was pushing a wheelchair in said coldly to Zoe,

"You want to escape?"

Zoe looked at the two people who came in. There was a young man and an old man on a wheelchair.

The old man was about sixty years old. His hair was already white, but his whole person could give people a feeling of looking at a wise person instead of anger.

Zoe studied the two of them, and after confirming that she didn't know them at all, she asked them as coldly as she could with her milky voice.

"Who are you and why are you kidnapping me?"

The men were surprised at this. Instead of crying, she was sensible enough to find a way to escape and even ask them for information. They couldn't help but have a high opinion of her.

Such a young child, facing strangers and an unknown future, could still behave calmly. They couldn't decide if she was brave or just naïve.

"Are you sure she has the same blood type as Ceddie, and could replace his heart?"

"Dad, when she was in a coma, I had someone draw her blood, and it's true that their blood type matched."

"Besides, she is about the same age as Ceddie, so the heart transplant operation may be fine," the young man said slowly.

"Good." Hearing the young man's words, the old man in the wheelchair was very excited.

After waiting for so long, there was finally a suitable candidate who could aid in the operation of his grandson.

"Arrange the operation as soon as possible." The old man glanced at Zoe and nodded in satisfaction.

"Well, when the foreign doctors come to pick me up. I can arrange the operation right away," the young man confirmed.

Afterwards, the young man pushed the old man out of the room

Zoe didn't make a sound when the two were talking. From the few words they said, she also guessed that the person who kidnapped her wanted her heart.

But if that happened, wouldn't it mean that she had to die?

Thinking of this, Zoe also panicked. How could she die? Mommy and her brothers would be very sad if she died.

Thinking that he would die, Zoe couldn't help crying. In seconds, her tears began to burst out.

After crying for a long time, she forced herself to calm down.

She couldn't just sit and die and wait for her death. She did not want to die at all!

For a moment, she began to think of ways to escape.

As time went by, there was still no news of where Zoe could be. Jane began to fidget in her place.

The license plate number had been checked out, and it was revealed to be fake so they couldn't use it as a clue.

Drake used his connections to check the route monitoring of the entire capital, looking for the trace of the car throughout the process.

However, because the investigation was intensive, it was taking a long time.

During the waiting time, Jane was very anxious. Her sons were just beside her and they were as worried for their sister.

A day later, the police station finally determined the final parking location of the car, and then launched a detailed search.

Meanwhile, after quite some time, Zoe finally saw a figure again. It was a servant who brought food.

The servant was about to leave after putting down the food, but Zoe immediately looked at her and spoke sweetly.

"Auntie, I want to go to the bathroom. Can you let me go to the bathroom?"

Zoe already had a sweet face and aura to start with, so when she requested with such a childish voice, the servant couldn't help but feel her heart melt. There was no way to refuse such an innocent face!

Anyway, she was a child, so she couldn't possibly think about escaping. With that in mind, the servant agreed.

"Alright. Be good then and I'll take you to the bathroom," the servant replied softly.

"Okay, Auntie. I will behave."

Zoe pretended to be obedient and nodded.

Afterwards, the servant took Zoe out of the room. She seemed obedient, but secretly, she kept looking at the surrounding situation.

It seemed to be a luxurious villa. The decorations were just as beautiful as those in Silverbourne.

Suddenly, Zoe noticed a child in the living room. She had doubts immediately when she looked at the boy more clearly.

Could that child be the “Ceddie” that the men were talking about?
