Chapter 571

Chapter 571 Pick Out Gifts With You

Melissa exclaimed in her heart. She was surprised that the reporter sneaked into the company today and forgot to buy gifts.

Melissa rubbed the space between her eyebrows helplessly and muttered.

On the other side of the line, Murray seemed to imagine Melissa's expression and could not help but chuckle, "It doesn't matter. There's still time. I can go with you to buy it."

When Murray came to pick up Melissa, she was still distressed about choosing gifts. Seeing this, Murray grabbed her hand in his palm.

"Grandpa will like the gifts you chose." Murray believed that his grandfather would praise Melissa after he got Melissa's gifts because Melissa had good taste.

"But I feel that something is wrong." Melissa touched her lower jaw and thought.

Seeing this, Murray leaned close to Melissa and whispered, "I'll take you to a place."

When she got out of the car, Melissa looked at the bar in front of her with a puzzled expression.

Murray held her hand and walked in.

This was a public house with jazz music where several people talked in low voices,

However, Melissa noticed that there was a door at the end of the bar. She looked up at Murray, who was also about to take her to walk toward that door.

After pushing open the door, there was a corridor with two strong men guarding the only entrance at the end of the corridor. Chapter 571 Pick Out Gifts With You

When they saw Murray, they still kept calm.

"Where is this?" Melissa widened her eyes in curiosity.

Murray took out a card from his pocket and handed it over. Melissa looked at it and vaguely felt that it was familiar. She thought about it and said, "Is it, Zamora?"

Zamora was the largest stone gambling place that Melissa knew. She did not expect it to be here.

"Have you been here before?" Murray was a little astonished.

"I've heard of it, but I've never been here," Melissa said with a smile.

Although she had just heard of it, Melissa still remembered what she had done at that time. If others knew she did it, she would be in trouble.

Melissa suddenly understood the reason that Murray brought her here, and she suddenly had the idea of the gifts that she wanted to send Marc.

The two people walked down the stairs and finally entered the vast hall.

Melissa did not expect there to be so many people. They did not pay attention when they saw someone come in. They only focused their gaze on the stone.

As she looked around, Melissa narrowed her eyes. This was the first time she had come to a place like this, and she felt a bit excited.

"Go and pick. If you like it, buy it," Melissa squeezed Melissa's palm and said.

Melissa paused after seeing someone and turned to look at Murray, "Someone asked you to come here?"

Murray raised his eyebrows. It was obvious that he had tacitly agreed to Melissa's guess.

There was indeed a person who asked him to come here, but the reason why Murray brought Melissa here...

With your scouting ability, it would be a pity if you weren't an undercover agent." Murray suddenly felt a little helpless because Melissa always surprised him.

"Undercover agent?" Melissa was a little angry when she heard this, "Don't mention it. I met an undercover agent today."

Melissa subconsciously turned her wrist with a subtle expression.

"There is a reporter in the company today. I am afraid that he has recorded a lot of things secretly."

“Have you found him?” Murray frowned.

“No, it shouldn’t be a reporter from a company.” Melissa shook her head.

just then, someone walked toward them. Melissa looked up and saw that the person was very young and kept a smile on his handsome face.

The reason why Melissa dared to guess that someone asked Murray was that she felt someone had always watched them since they came in just now.

It was the person in front of them.

“Mr. Gibson, nice to meet you.” Although the man was smiling, his expression still made others feel cold.

Murray just nodded at him with an indifferent expression, “Mr. Tacke.”

As she heard this name, Melissa’s eyes flashed, and she couldn’t help but suspect something.

“This is Mr. Gibson’s fiancée, Ms. Eugen, right?” Robert glanced at Melissa and said.

As meeting Robert’s gaze, Melissa nodded slightly and suddenly understood.

As she had expected, this person was the head of the Tacke family, Quentin’s uncle.

All of a sudden, Melissa felt that it was a bit absurd that she met the people of the Tacke family

Back then, her grandfather had brought her to live in the countryside to avoid these noble families, but now, because of her engagement with Murray, she had come into contact with these people again.

“Ms. Eugen seems unhappy to see me?” Robert said softly, interrupting Melissa’s thoughts.

“How could that be? It is my honor to meet Mr. Tacke.” Melissa had a perfect smile on her face.

“My father and your grandfather have been good friends for many years.” Robert’s narrow eyes flashed with a hint of a smile.

Melissa didn’t answer at that moment, but Murray faintly said, “I wonder why Mr. Tacke invited me here?”

Hearing this, Robert said with a subtle expression, "Of course, it's for the things that Mr. Gibson and I want."

On the other side, Vivian, who came out of Star Entertainment, was waiting for her agent in the underground garage.

She lowered her head to play on her phone, replying to Arno. Of course, most of the messages were to accuse Arno of fattening her up.

At that moment, Vivian seemed to have vaguely heard something. She looked around but did not see anyone in the parking lot.

"It's strange." Vivian blinked her eyes. She thought he had acousma, but the subtle sounds came again

Vivian tightened her grip on her phone and walked over to the source of the sound carefully

The voices of the conversation became clearer and clearer, causing Vivian to be nervous.

"Do you still think this is not enough?"

"Don't go too far."

Vivian quietly got close and saw two people standing in the corner.

The car in front of her blocked her sight, and Vivian did not dare to eavesdrop brazenly, so she only saw a small half of the face of one of them.

"Come on, I make a lot of effort to bring you in. I have to pay more if you want to come again."

"I do it after getting payment. Haven't we reached a consensus before?"

"Anyway, I'm in the company, and I can take any photos I want. I don't need you at all. At most, I can contact the person behind you."

Vivian's eyes became sharp at these words. As she expected, there was indeed an undercover agent in the company.

As Vivian immediately turned on the recording to retain the evidence, but at this time, the sound of a car came.

Chapter 572 Let's Make a Bet

Vivian was frightened when her phone vibrated. Her agent accidentally called at this time.

However, it was too late. The two men in front of her followed the voice and came over.

Vivian gritted her teeth, turned, and ran outside without hesitation.

"Catch her!"

A man's voice came from behind. Vivian panted heavily and ran over to her agent.

Renita, who was wondering where Vivian had gone, had yet to look up when she suddenly heard the car being slapped hard. It really scared Renita.

"Leave quickly!"

Vivian's cheek appeared before the car window before she opened the car door and got in.

Not knowing what was happening, Renita turned to look at Vivian. "What's wrong with you?"

"Hurry and drive! Let's go!"

Because of the intense running just now, Vivian's face was now red, and her chest was violently heaving.

The driver immediately started the car and drove away. Vivian leaned against the window and looked back. Seeing that there was no car chasing after him, he was relieved.

"What the hell is going on? Why are you so flustered?" Renita asked with a frown.

Vivian lowered her head and told her agent about what had just happened.

Chapter 572 Let's Make a Bet

"I don't know if they have seen me or not." Suddenly, Vivian seemed to have thought of something, and her expression immediately turned bad.

Everyone in the company had a different nanny van. Even if the two men did not see Vivian, they might find her just by the car.

In an instant, a layer of cold sweat covered Vivian's palm.

"Did you see them?" Renita asked anxiously.

"No." Vivian smiled bitterly, "But if I were to hear the voices of them, I might recognize them."

Reaching out to rub her cheeks, Vivian could not help but feel uneasy.

Although Renita put on a serious face, she still patted Vivian on the shoulder to comfort her.

"I will tell Ms. Eugen about this. Don't worry."

At the Zamora Bar.

Melissa sat next to Murray with an indifferent expression, but her attention had been attracted to the scene of stone gambling in the distance.

Murray started talking with Robert.

"Mr. Gibson, we haven't interfered before. Besides, you have obtained that land. Why don't you give me those things?"

Robert was still smiling, but his eyes emitted a hint of danger.

Glancing at the few black-clothed men behind Robert, Murray remained calm, his hands crossed in front of his chest.

"We are businessmen. Businessmen put profit above anything else. Even if I don't say it, you should know."

Hearing this, Melissa at the side also remembered the matter that Murray had mentioned to her before.

Ever since Robert became the current head of the Tacke family, the Tacke family has become much stronger, leaving other families behind.

Right now, the Tacke family went against the Gibson family. Others might avoid confrontation given the strength of the Tacke family, but Murray would not.

“Mr. Gibson, I know how you got that piece of land. This can be considered a favor.”

Robert stared at Murray. Robert had long known that Murray was troublesome, but he did not expect it to be even harder to deal with than he had imagined

“Favors aren’t like this.” Murray chuckled and slowly said.

“I am determined to get that piece of land, and it is just a little cheaper now.”

“Moreover, this is reciprocity. Mr. Tacke, since you know that we do not interfere with each other, you should not cross the line. Both you and your nephew.”

Robert stopped smiling and shook the wine glass in his hand, his expression unclear.

“Mr. Gibson, I am calmly discussing with you right now.”

However, Murray ignored Robert’s words and turned to Melissa. “Do you want to give it a try?”

Murray had always paid attention to Melissa, and since he had brought her here, he wanted her to have a try.

“Of course I do. This is the first time I came to the site to watch the stone gambling.” Melissa looked excited. Murray was a little surprised, and in the next second, he smiled.

Then, Murray turned to Robert and said, “Mr. Tacke, why don’t we make a bet?”

“What bet?” Robert asked curiously.

“Since you asked me to come to this place, how can I not play?” Murray picked up a strand of Melissa’s hair and played with it at his fingertips.

“Three raw materials. Whoever offers the highest price will win. The winner will get what he wants.”

“You want to gamble on stones with me?” Robert tapped his finger on the table and asked with interest.

Murray crossed his long legs and looked powerful. “Are you scared?”

Suddenly, Robert laughed loudly, “You seem to be very confident. Since you have said so, I have no reason to refuse.”

However, just as Robert finished speaking, a soft female voice came from the dark.

“Since you want to gamble, you should play a little bigger.”

The sound of high heels stepping on the ground slowly approached. Hearing the sound, Melissa raised her head and saw a beautiful lady walking over. The lady sat on the armrest of Robert’s sofa, her chestnut brown hair hanging on the side,

Her eyes were filled with charm as they fell on Murray’s face.

“It’s more exciting to have a one–off game.” Julia curled her red lips and said with a smile.

“Mr. Gibson, I don’t know much about stone gambling, so I’ll let her replace me.” Robert turned to look at Murray.

“I didn’t expect you to know Ms. Wright,” Murray spoke indifferently,

Melissa watched from the side and sneered in her heart.

Robert definitely had a reason to make an appointment in this place. Even if Murray did not say it, Robert would still mention the matter of stone gambling

But what Melissa did not expect was that Robert and Julia had such a good relationship

Others might not know much about it, but if they came into contact with the circle of stone gambling, they must have heard of the Wright family, Julia was the most famous person in the Wright Family over the years.

When Julia was sixteen years old, she found a piece of Emerald Glassy Jade which could be considered a shock.

In the next few years, Julia also got a lot of good materials and was the youngest stone gambling master.

“I didn’t think that I would be so famous that Mr. Gibson would know me,”

Julia’s eyes lit up and she winked at Murray.

Melissa noticed it and was a bit unhappy.

“Mr. Tacke, this is unfair.” Murray looked up,

“In that case, you can also find a helper,” Robert said, but he believed he would win.

Hearing this, Murray smilingly said to Melissa, “Do you want to try?”

Chapter 573 It's All About Luck

"Me?" Melissa was confused.

Murray put his hand around Melissa's waist and whispered in her ear, "Yes. I know nothing about gambling on stones."

Hearing this, Melissa widened her eyes. She thought that Murray proposed gambling on stones because he was confident about the game. But Melissa didn't expect that he was just risking it.

"Is Ms. Eugen good at this?" Robert looked up at Melissa curiously.

Melissa turned to look at Robert, too. She gave him an inscrutable look on purpose and then held her chin with her hands, curling her lips slightly.

Not just Robert, even Julia had no idea what Melissa meant,

Robert knew that Melissa was special since she was with Murray. What confused Robert a lot was that Melissa looked younger than Julia, while she seemed to be really good at gambling on stones.

Melissa was satisfied with the way they looked at her. After a while, she said with a shrug, "It's just a gamble on stones. This is my first time trying this. It's all up to my luck."

Hearing this, Murray looked at Melissa gently,

"Is Ms. Eugen so confident about yourself?" Robert looked composed while sneering in his heart

Melissa nodded and said, "Of course."

Julia had been staring at Murray for quite a while. When she heard what Melissa said, she stepped forward and looked at Melissa with her arms crossed.

"Show me what you have gotten," Julia said.

Chapter 578 It's All About Luck

Melissa turned around to look at Murray. After a hesitation, she asked, "What if I fail?"

"I believe you." Murray rubbed Melissa's nose lovingly with a chuckle.

Julia tilted her head and sneered, "Ms. Eugen, right?"

Melissa turned around to look at Julia. She tried to remain calm, but her eyes were cold.

She didn't like the way Julia looked at Murray.

"What? Ms. Wright, do you want to give it up?" Melissa frowned.

Pressing her lips with her red nails, Julia shifted her gaze from Melissa to Murray.

"How about we bet on something bigger?" Julia proposed.

"What do you want?" Melissa asked.

"If you lose, I will stay with Mr. Gibson for a month. How about it?" Julia said.

Julia had long heard of Murray. The moment she saw him today, Julia thought that only a man like Murray was good enough for her.

Julia thought herself way better than Melissa.

She was sure that Murray would be attracted to her within a month.

Melissa's eyes darkened when she heard it. She approached Julia with a step forward,

She was taller than Julia, so she looked down at Julia with a grin and said, "Are you sure?"

"Does it mean that Ms. Eugen is okay with my proposal?" Julia's eyes lit up. She was determined to win Murray over.

Melissa's eyelashes fluttered a bit. She looked at Julia's fair neck and grabbed her by her neck.

The atmosphere suddenly became tense. Julia was frightened. She grabbed Melissa's wrist, wanting to scream.

"What are you doing?" Julia asked.

“Take it easy,” Melissa said.

She glanced at the bodyguard behind Robert with a sweet smile.

Her hand loosened Julia’s neck and moved up to pinch Julia’s cheek.

“If Ms. Wright loses, I want your life. How about it?” Melissa said.

Julia tensed up. She didn’t expect that from Melissa.

Melissa pressed her hand tighter against Julia’s skin. Her fingers had dug into Julia’s cheek.

“You...” Julia dared not piss off Melissa because she was afraid of Melissa now.

Melissa looked so much more relaxed compared to Julia. She asked, “Are you scared, Ms. Wright? It was you who wanted something bigger. Do you want to quit?”

Julia gritted her teeth. She was hesitating about whether to agree when Melissa released her hand.

Melissa dusted off the remnant of Julia’s foundation on her hand and said, “I don’t want to play it with you. Murray is not something to sell. Why should we bet on him?”

Hearing this, Murray looked at Melissa even gentler. Melissa could sense the feelings in Murray’s gaze, so she turned to blink at him.

Julia staggered a few steps back, feeling so good to breathe in some fresh air. She released a sigh of relief, looking at Melissa in horror, and said, “You...”

However, Melissa ignored Julia and walked to the stones.

She said as she walked away, “Ms. Wright, you should have something light on your face. The foundation on your neck is too much, and it doesn’t look good.”

What Melissa had just said totally annoyed Julia. But Robert coughed a bit to stop Julia

Julia bit her lips, holding back her anger. She had listed Melissa as one of her biggest enemies for her now.

“Since Ms. Eugen is so confident, we should get it started,” Julia said.

“I am already doing it. Ms. Wright, are you so good that you don’t have to pick up your stones?” Melissa sneered.

She was mean to Julia because Julia deserved it.

Julia's face turned red. She walked to the stones with a chuckle and said, "I hope that your stone is as good as your tongue."

The Wright family had been gambling on stones for several generations, so they were both skilled and experienced at this. Julia was talented at it, so she was confident.

Moreover, she swore that she would disgrace Melissa today!

However, Melissa had no idea how much hatred Julia had for her. She was just busy observing those stones.

People around were attracted because of Julia's fame in this game. Besides, Robert had done a lot of advertising about this game, so a lot of people gathered here.

Julia picked up a stone after walking for a while. When she took the stone up, she saw another great one.

At the same time, Melissa had also fixed her gaze on that stone. Julia snatched away the stone at once

"I'm sorry, Ms. Eugen, but I saw it first," Julia said with a smile.

Melissa looked away with a shrug.

Julia looked at the stone carefully. She had this feeling that this stone was really good, although she couldn't detect anything abnormal from its appearance,

Julia walked away after she made her decision. She paused a bit when she passed Murray.

"Mr. Gibson, do you really trust Melissa?" Julia asked.

However, Murray didn't bother to look at her. He had been looking at Melissa all the time.

Suddenly, someone shouted. Julia looked over and froze when she saw it.

Chapter 574

Chapter 574 I Will Win!

Melissa carried a very large stone and walked over. It looked like she had chiseled it off a cliff.

The bigger the stone was, the higher the value it had. The probability of getting valuable jadeite would be higher, and the size of the jadeite would also be bigger.

However, it was a small probability event. Most people chose large pieces of stone but did not get what they wanted.

After all, one person could be a millionaire by stone gambling, and it was also possible that he would go bankrupt.

Without more than fifty percent sure, no one would choose such a large piece of stone.

Everyone was surprised, but Melissa did not care. She calmly put down the stone.

"I'm exhausted. This stone is quite heavy," Melissa fanned herself with her hands and said in relief.

Robert's face darkened.

Julia tittered, "Ms. Eugen, it's not that you can get better jadeite with bigger stone."

Julia scornfully looked at the stone that Melissa had brought over. It was covered with dust and seemed to be moved from the corner.

Julia thought, she can't win me with it.

On the contrary, Melissa was calm. She spread her hands indifferently, "Anyway, I don't know much about stone gambling. I just randomly picked one. What if I am lucky?"

Melissa smiled. Robert, who had been watching her, felt that her smile was full of coldness.

A ridiculous thought came to his mind, and he felt that Melissa was likely to win against Julia.

However, in the next moment, Robert changed his thoughts. Not to mention the ridiculous size of the stone that Melissa had chosen, there were also small cracks on it. When the stone was cut, even if there was jade inside it, the jade might have been destroyed.

Moreover, there was no color seeping out. People might take it as an ordinary stone.

Julia, who thought she was about to win, became more arrogant. She even walked directly to Murray and smiled.

“Mr. Gibson, what if you lose? Wouldn't it be a waste of your money?”

She wanted to put her hand on Murray's shoulder, but Murray directly passed her and pulled Melissa over.

“Waste of money?” Murray sneered, “As long as she likes it, it doesn't matter to me. And don't jump to conclusions.”

Melissa had been lowering her head and sending messages on her phone. When she heard it, she looked up and saw Murray's lower jaw.

“You put so much trust in me. Aren't you afraid that I'll lose all your wealth?”

Murray lowered his head to kiss Melissa. He whispered, “Then I can only count on you to raise me.”

Melissa was shy. She reached out to touch Murray's cheek and looked at him coquettishly.

Julia's eyes darkened when she looked at their intimate interaction. She turned around and walked to the cutting table.

“Let's start.” She crossed her arms and pursed the corners of her lips.

Julia's stone was the first to be cut. She handed the stone over, but she was still a little nervous. Although she could see that there was jade in this stone, she was not sure about the quality of the jade.

After the first cut, it revealed green inside the stone.

Julia's eyes beamed with joy.

“It's green!” someone shouted.

The cutting continued, and the surrounding people all held their breaths.

Then many people gasped at what appeared in the stone.

“This is the Imperial Green Glassy Jade!”

Suddenly, the worker who was cutting the stone cried out, and even his voice was trembling.

Julia's eyes flashed, and the smile on her lips could not be concealed. She thought, the Imperial Green Glassy Jade could be said to be the best.

I will win today!

At the same time, some people nearby also began to whisper.

"My goodness, Ms. Wright is indeed the most powerful stone gambling master in the Wright family. This jadeite is priceless."

"I've never seen an Imperial Green Glassy Jade. This is unbelievable."

"Ms. Wright will be the winner."

"Look at the big stone over there. What could it be inside that big stone?"

When Robert saw this, he laughed, "Mr. Gibson, it seems that I am the winner of this competition."

Murray was not surprised. He looked down at Melissa. When he saw the dialog box on her mobile phone, he was surprised.

"My stone hasn't been cut yet. There is no need for Mr. Tacke to conclude so early, right?"

Melissa cleared her throat and spoke calmly.

Julia had already picked up the jadeite. She stood in front of Melissa and chuckled, "You lost."

When she heard it, Melissa glanced at Julia with an odd expression. She was annoyed.

"Ms. Wright, is there something wrong with your ear? Or is there a problem with your eyes? My stone has not even been cut. Why are you so sure that you will win?"

"Melissa!" Julia was irritated. She couldn't help but raise her voice.

But in the next moment, she also realized that she had lost control of her emotions. She slowly said, "The material in my stone is the most precious Imperial Green Glassy Jade. What do you think can defeat me?"

As she spoke, she walked closer to Murray and looked at him provocatively.

"If you are interested in stone gambling, you can ask me."

Melissa wanted to sew Julia's mouth. It was annoying.

“Ms. Wright, congratulations on getting such a precious thing. Can you shut your mouth and stand away? Then I can admire your masterpiece. Don’t stand here and hinder me.”

As she spoke, Melissa ignored Julia’s reaction and walked straight to the cutting area.

Julia clenched her teeth. She wanted to see what Melissa could do!

Chapter 5741 WH WI!

The worker had not seen such a large stone for a long time. He was slightly stunned and looked up at Melissa

“Are you sure to cut this piece of stone?”

“Yes.” Melissa nodded.

The worker looked at the stone hesitantly. It seemed that he wanted to cut it from the middle Wait a minute.” Melissa raised her hand to stop him. Then she touched the stone and stopped at a third of the stone.

Cut it here.”

The worker’s expression was a bit strange, but he followed Melissa’s instructions and cut.

Everyone looked at the stone, which Melissa was confident about. They all wanted to see what was in the stone.

The worker smoothly cut down the place where Melissa pointed. Everyone was stunned when they saw the cutting plane

Chapter 575 Dragon Jade

“Well..”

The expression of the guy was a little subtle, because when he cut it, what he got was still stone. There wasn't even a bit of green.

"It is just a piece of trash. I knew it."

Julia said scornfully. At first, she was nervous, but when she thought about it now, she thought of herself stupid.

"She knew nothing about stone gambling."

"Yeah. He chose such a large piece of trash."

"She should waste quite a bit of money."

However, the discussion did not affect Melissa at all. She touched her lower jaw and carefully examined the stone.

"Wrong?"

Melissa muttered to herself and pointed at the remaining half of the stone. "Then let's start cutting from here."

The guy who originally wanted to leave was slightly stunned. "Still?"

"Of course, do it." Melissa had got up and stood to the side, her face full of anticipation.

"It doesn't look like a treasure. Maybe forgive it." Perhaps it was the first time he saw Melissa come to play, the guy kindly reminded.

However, Melissa smiled at him and said, "It's alright, just cut it. There's still so much material left. Wouldn't it be a waste if we don't cut it? What if there's really a surprise inside?"

The guy shook his head helplessly and began to cut.

However, Julia sneered. "Even if you grind it into powder, you won't be able to find anything good. I will definitely win this round. Don't waste your time."

As she spoke, she turned her gaze to Murray. However, Murray's eyes were fixed on Melissa's actions.

Julia clenched her fists. She didn't believe that after Melissa wasted so much money, Murray would still like her.

She believed that Murray would belong to her sooner or later.

However, the inside of the stone was still stone.

The people watching lost their interest. Laughter came from the crowd. Perhaps it was a mockery of Melissa, or perhaps it was something else.

“Look, little girl, I told you there was nothing here. Don’t waste your time. This is just an ordinary stone. It had been put in the corner for an unknown period of time. But now you took it out. You were deceived.”

The guy chuckled. Hearing this, Melissa was not angry. She looked at the guy with her arms crossed and pointed to the rest of the material. “Please, sir, cut the rest of the material.”

People felt that Melissa was a rich fool.

Robert walked up to Murray and said, “Mr. Gibson, you have already lost. It seems that those things are mine.”

“Don’t conclude yet, Mr. Tacke! Let’s see what we’ll get.” Murray smiled indifferently.

Robert frowned in displeasure. “Mr. Gibson, are you going back on your word?”

However, just as Robert finished speaking, a cry came from the crowd who were watching the cutting.

“Goodness, how is this possible!”

This voice attracted everyone’s attention. Melissa curved her lips. The old man did not lie to her.

“Green! Green!” The cutting guy shouted excitedly. There was a faint green light in the stone.

“It’s... It’s actually an Emerald ... Dragon Jade!”

The cutting guy’s voice trembled a little. He rubbed his eyes in amazement.

“What!” Hearing the words ‘Dragon Jade’, Julia immediately went over to check.

The so-called Dragon Jade referred to jades of perfect combinations of species and color. The overall color of the jade was very evenly melted in the texture. There was no impurity to naked eyes. It was almost the most perfect jade. It was very rare.

“See, I told you I had good luck.” Melissa smiled and said.

Julia's face turned pale. She glanced at Melissa, pretending to be calm.

"Don't be happy too early. Who knows how big it is? Moreover, it is just an Emerald Dragon Jade. It is still a bit inferior compared to the Imperial Green."

"Perhaps." Melissa shrugged indifferently, indicating for the guy to continue cutting

Seeing this, Julia felt a little disdainful. She thought that Melissa was just lucky. Besides, such a jade was rare. She did not believe that such a large stone would be full of.

However, the fact gave Julia a hard slap, When the guy cut down on the edge of the stone, green appeared again,

This piece of jade was as big as a brick, and it had a pure color, so it was obvious that it was very valuable.

The people around looked excited. They even went to the corner to look for the stones. If they could find such a large piece of jade as Melissa did, they would be rich.

"Not bad." Looking at the crystal clear jade, Melissa had thought of what gift to give Marc.

Julia's expression was a bit ugly. She turned her head to look at Robert and then snorted coldly.

"Right now, we are in a draw. Although your jade is large, it's just in Emerald. It is not as precious as Imperial Green."

"Draw?"

Melissa didn't seem to agree. She picked up the leftover materials and looked at Julia.

"Says who?"

Seeing Melissa's action, Julia frowned fiercely. "Do you think there will be jade in this trash?"

"I already said that I was lucky."

Melissa handed the stone to the cutting guy again. When the guy saw this, his eyes lit up. He now felt that whatever Melissa touched would turn out to be a treasure.

For some reason, looking at Melissa's confident expression, Julia felt a little uneasy, but she forced down the feeling.

Under everyone's expecting gaze, the guy cut again.

Soon, green appeared,

"Gosh, there really is!" Someone exclaimed. Chapter 575 Dragon Jade

But the color doesn't look like Emerald!"

"Imperial Greul it's imperial Green! It's Imperial Green Dragon Jade!"

As soon as this was said, everyone present cheered. Julia turned her head, her face full of shock

How come! No!

Chapter 576

Chapter 576 Admit Defeat julia rushed over with a surprised expression on her face.

She stared at the stone, and even her fingertips that were on the table tremdleastightiy:

It was already incredible that a piece of stone could produce such a large amount of lace, but now there was a more valuable treasure hidden in the neste material

julie could not believe it. She had never seen such a thing in her life in the gambling industry

Julia thought, didn't Melissa say that she didn't understand it at all? Why is sbe so lucky?

Could it be that Melissa was hiding her ability from the start?

How is it? Am I lucky?"

On the other side, Melissa was very calm. She walked in front of Murray and wrapped her arms around his waist.

Murray intimately lifted Melissa's face and said in a deep voice, "Well, your luck scared me.

In fact, Murray had been shocked when the first jade was found.

Melissa smiled, and a dark light flashed in her eyes. "Anyway, such a thing is decided by luck"

Yet she had used a little trick.

"Impossible!"

Suddenly, Julia shouted. She turned to look at Melissa. "You must have used some tricks! That's impossible! You must have some tools to detect the components!"

GUE

As she spoke, Julia reached out to pull at Melissa, but before Melissa could do anything, Murray's cold gaze was cast on Julia, which stunned her.

"It's just a bet." Melissa smiled. "I guess this is the first time you've lost, Ms. Wright."

"You!" Julia disliked the way Melissa looked at her. She felt that the bet was completely under Melissa's control.

It was as if ... Melissa knew what she would choose and the final outcome.

"It looks like I won."

Murray raised his eyes to look at Robert, who no longer looked as arrogant as before.

He took a deep breath and chuckled. "Ms. Eugen, you are such a hidden talent!

It is really eye-opening. I wonder if you can help me pick some stones?"

Melissa's eyebrows moved slightly. She did not immediately respond. Instead, she turned to look at Murray. Then, she smiled and said, "I was just lucky today. As for choosing stones for Mr. Tacke, what do you think, Murray?"

Murray did not show Robert any respect. He held Melissa's waist and turned around, waving his hand with a bit of provocation.

"We won a big business today. If we don't go back to organize it now, someone might snatch it. Mr. Tacke, I wish you a good time."

Robert lowered his eyes and glanced at the bodyguards. He raised his hand to signal them to stop.

“See you, Mr. Gibson.”

Watching the two of them leave, Julia finally couldn't stand it anymore. She looked at Robert reproachfully. “How can you let the two of them go? They must have used some sort of method! How can...”

Gluten

“Do you really think you are that strong?”

Robert glared at her, his voice instantly became extremely cold.

“Just admit defeat.”

“I...” Julia suddenly lost her momentum. She bit her lower lip and could do nothing but give Robert a glare.

Robert left without paying attention to Julia's reaction.

“Why didn't you just make Murray stay?” Julia followed him and couldn't help but ask.

“Who is Murray? If it's that easy, why would I bother to invite him here?”

Robert lit a cigarette, and the white mist instantly blurred the look in his eyes.

“I thought that you are no longer afraid of nothing, Mr. Tacke. I didn't expect you to be afraid of someone.”

This was Julia. She had already been holding back her anger from what happened. Now hearing Robert's words, she couldn't help but sneer.

Hearing this, Robert turned to Julia and suddenly pinched her lower jaw. His fingers holding the cigarette approached Julia's cheek.

The scorching heat made Julia instantly terrified. She tried her best to shrink her neck back.

“Robert... What are you doing?”

“Julia, I don't need you to tell me what to do. You know who you are. Instead of talking nonsense here, why don't you go look for stones? Don't forget that you still owe Melissa a life.”

Julia was so scared that her eyes were red. Seeing that, Robert let go of her cheek with a sneer.

As long as Murray was still alive, the Gibson Corporation would be difficult to handle.

But what he had not expected was Melissa.

Julia stood to the side as if she had been reborn. A trace of ruthlessness flashed through her eyes.

On the other side, Melissa and Murray had already gotten in the car and were ready to leave.

In the car, Melissa leaned in Murray's arms and looked up at him. "So, you are sure to get that business today?"

Murray gently stroked Melissa's long hair. He lowered his eyes and whispered, "Robert doesn't have the confidence to break all ties with me. Although he has already taken charge of the Tacke family, he still has a lot to handle."

In fact, Murray had already arranged everything when he brought Melissa to Zamora. No matter what, he would not suffer any losses.

"Then why did you bring me here today?" Melissa tilted her head to look at Murray and suddenly felt a little curious.

"Didn't you mention before that you wanted to gamble on stones? So, I brought you here," Murray replied in a soft voice.

Hearing this, Melissa paused for a moment and then recalled it.

Suddenly, she patted her forehead and wrapped her arms around Murray's neck. "I was just saying it. You took it seriously!"

At that time, she had just tricked someone and casually mentioned it. She didn't expect Murray to bear it in mind.

"I'll take everything about you seriously." Murray kissed Melissa's forehead and smiled.

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something as he asked, "But how did you know that there was jade in the waste material today?"

Melissa had made a lot of money for him this time.

"Actually, I did a little ... cheat." Melissa slyly turned her eyes. Seeing Murray's puzzled expression, she quickly explained.

“But I didn’t use any detection instruments. I just remembered someone and asked him about something.”

In fact, in the beginning, Melissa chose another stone but it was snatched by Julia

Besides, that person had asked her to do something.

Murray frowned slightly. When Melissa was about to speak, Murray asked, “Mr. Wright?”

Melissa was surprised. She straightened up and looked at Murray, “How did you know that I was in contact with Mr. Wright? You also know Mr. Wright?”

Chapter 577

Chapter 577 You Always Surprise Me

Melissa even suspected that Murray had taken the initiative to propose stone gambling because of David.

“I actually saw your chat,” Murray said the truth, but his expression was a little subtle. “I never thought that you would actually know him.”

When Murray first saw Melissa chatting, he did not think much, but now that Melissa said it, he suddenly thought of this possibility.

However, Murray did not expect Melissa to know David.

The person they were talking about was the current head of the Wright family, Julia’s grandfather, who was regarded as the best in stone gambling. David brought the Wright family to their current position.

“Speaking of which, I got to know Mr. Wright by accident.”

Melissa recalled for a moment with a smile.

In fact, it was all because of Enoch. Melissa had met David when she was very young. David asked her to choose a stone, and Melissa picked one randomly. But it turned out to be a treasure. So, David wanted to take her as his disciple.

After that, Enoch brought Melissa to the countryside. Melissa once anonymously picked a jade of very good quality at the trade fair of Zamora. David was so angry that he almost rushed over.

This time, when Melissa helped Murray to gamble on stones, she secretly asked David several ways to choose stones, yet Julia was one step faster.

However, when David found out that Melissa was betting with Julia, he told her directly that there was a big, treasure in the stone

At first, Melissa also had some doubts, but David said that he had someone appraise it, so Melissa believed it.

However, David was probably the only one who could throw such a treasure in the corner.

“So that stone was chosen by Mr. Wright?” Murray listened, but he was still a little confused. After all, Julia was David’s granddaughter. No matter how much David liked Melissa, there was no need to do this.

“Yes. Mr. Wright wanted me to win against Julia,” Melissa said seriously.

“Mr. Wright said that Julia is very talented, but because of this, she is too conceited now. Mr. Wright is worried that she might be ruined if this goes on, so he asked me to teach her some lessons.”

Melissa won as an amateur, and even if it had something to do with luck, it would be a blow to Julia’s confidence.

Julia failed to discover something better. It must be hard for her to accept.

But Melissa didn’t have any good impressions of Julia.

If it weren’t for David, she would have diss Julia directly.

“You always surprise me.” Murray looked down at Melissa, his eyes gentle and affectionate.

Melissa smiled. She hugged Murray by the neck and leaned closer. “So, you have to treat me better. That way, I won’t elope with someone else,” she said jokingly.

Hearing this, Murray held her even tighter and closer.

“Who do you want to elope with?”

Murray leaned against Melissa’s ear. His tone was gentle but threatening.

Melissa tilted her head, her cold fingers tapping on Murray's lips, but before she could say anything, Murray kissed her.

This kiss carried a strong possessive desire. Murray wanted to rub Melissa into his bones.

Melissa narrowed her eyes and pushed Murray on the chest.

"We are in the car." Although there was a partition between the back seat and the driver, Melissa was still a little embarrassed.

Her coquettish look made Murray love her even more. "You provoked me."

Then, Murray buried his face in Melissa's neck and murmured with attachment, "I love you..."

Hearing this, Melissa gave Murray a hug. "I love you as well."

However, just as the two of them were intimate, Melissa's phone rang. It was Renita.

Renita told her what happened in the parking lot.

"What are you saying?" Melissa's face darkened. "Where are you now?"

"We have returned to the company," Renita said hurriedly.

"Okay, wait for me there. I'll go back immediately." After saying a few more words, Melissa hung up the phone.

Seeing this, Murray looked at her.

Melissa told Murray everything that Vivian had encountered.

"I'll help you investigate," Murray said calmly.

"Thank you." Melissa nodded. She couldn't help but frown. She thought it was just the paparazzo taking photos. She hadn't expected that there would be such a thing

Melissa immediately rushed back to Star Entertainment. Vivian and Renita were waiting in Melissa's office.

As soon as she entered, she looked directly at Vivian. "Are you hurt?"

"No, I ran away immediately. They were afraid of being recognized, so they didn't chase me." Vivian shook her head. But when she thought of what happened, she still felt terrified.

Melissa knocked on the table with her fingers, her expression solemn. "This is surprising."

Melissa sneered in her heart.

It seemed that she had been behind the scenes for too long. She didn't even realize such a problem was going on in the company.

Now Melissa was a little curious about who the person behind this was.

In a coffee shop not far from Star Entertainment, Adela looked at the photo in her hand with a dissatisfied expression.

"That's all?"

She placed the photo on the table and took a sip of coffee.

"That already took great labor." And the person sitting opposite Adela was the paparazzo who had sneaked into Star Entertainment.

"Didn't you say that there are your people in Star Entertainment?"

"If that's how you do things, I can only deduct the money," Adela said with a hint of ridicule in her eyes.

"How can you do that?"

The paparazzo slammed his hand on the table. He seemed to have noticed that someone was looking at him. He quickly lowered his voice. "You can't do this!"

"I just want to get something satisfactory. You took the money, so you have to take it seriously. Understand?"

Adela said as she put on the sunglasses.

"I'll give you three more days. If you couldn't meet my expectations, then don't blame me."

With that, she grabbed her bag and left the café.

The guy clenched his fists tightly.

Chapter 578 Great to Have You by My Side

When Melissa returned home, Murray was preparing food in the kitchen. Melissa took a deep breath and quietly wrapped her arms around Murray's waist.

"Murray."

Melissa rubbed her head against Murray's back. Murray couldn't hear her voice clearly.

"What's wrong?"

Murray turned his head and asked gently.

Melissa looked up at Murray. "It's great to have you by my side."

Scratching Melissa's nose, Murray lowered his head and kissed her on the forehead.

"How is your investigation?"

"We still haven't found that stealthy guy."

Melissa sighed softly, "I'm a little worried about Vivian."

The two guys might have seen Vivian's car and recognized her. If Melissa couldn't find them, Vivian would be in danger.

Melissa asked Vivian to take a holiday at home, but Vivian refused. She didn't want to delay her work because of personal matters.

Melissa could only tell Vivian to be careful.

"I feel that it is not that simple."

Melissa frowned as she shook her head,

Murray reached out his hand to comfort Melissa. He said, "I have sent someone to investigate it."

However, Melissa shook her head. "The two guys are too cautious. I have investigated it for a long time without any results."

Murray seemed to have thought of something, but he did not say anything in the end.

“Right, we’ll go back to your family tomorrow.” Not noticing Murray’s expression, Melissa nestled in his arms and looked up at him.

Murray nodded. When he remembered that Marc had called him several times today, he felt embarrassed.

“I’ve prepared a gift for Marc. I hope he will like it.” Melissa pursed her lips and smiled.

At the shooting site, Vivian sat quietly on a chair as she read the script. The heat in the studio made her face turn red.

Looking up at the sunshine outside, Vivian pursed her lips. She felt a headache when she thought of going outside.

““I’m looking for you.”

Jaylin walked over and patted Vivian on the shoulder.

“What’s wrong?” Vivian stood up and almost hit the shelf above her head, Fortunately, Jaylin reached out his hand to protect her in time

*The director wants you to go over. It’s about your performing.”

Vivian nodded and replied, “Thank you, I’ll go now.”

Before Vivian left, Jaylin hurriedly said, “By the way. I heard about what happened in the company.”

Vivian paused for a moment, walling for saylin to continue

“If you’ve met any problem, I can talk with the director. He will let you rest for a while.”

Hearing this, a smile appeared on Vivian’s face. “Why do you say the same thing to Melissa?”

Hearing this, Jaylin was stunned.

“Melissa…”

“Melissa is also worried about me. She told me to rest until the problem is solved.” Vivian stretched herself and chuckled, “You must have treated me like a child.”

Jaylin thought of something, but he did not say anything.

“I have delayed my work because of a lot of things. And I have brought a lot of trouble to others. I don’t want such things to happen again.”

Vivian sighed. "What happened startled me, but I can't hide forever. Don't worry, I will be fine. They're just two paparazzi. What can they do?"

After saying that, Vivian waved at Jaylin and left.

"Your feelings here are very important. Pay attention."

The director pointed at the script as he looked at Vivian,

"Alright, I understand." Vivian nodded with a solemn look.

After listening to the director's instructions, Vivian took a deep breath and was ready to start filming,

"Action!"

Vivian put on another expression the moment she looked up.

The artificial rainfall started. Vivian got wet. She looked up and forced a smile,

"Why..."

Vivian read her lines. But before she could finish her sentence, the director stopped her unhappily.

Vivian was in the middle of acting, but the director cut it off. Vivian turned her head stiffly.

"No, you are not in a good mood." The director shook his head, "It's far from good."

"But..."

Vivian muttered. She had tried very hard.

Seeing the confusion on Vivian's face, the director walked up to her and patted her on the shoulder. "Looks like you haven't fought with your boyfriend."

Hearing this, Vivian was stunned.

"I guessed it right. What you have to show now is the guilt and sadness after breaking up with your boyfriend. It is not only about sadness."

The director said seriously, "Because of your own reasons, you lied to him and were forced to break up with him. You feel very painful. You have to be really emotional. You have to become the girl in the story."

“Painful...” Vivian murmured.

The director thought that Vivian was terrified by what he said. He smiled and said, “Am I being too harsh on you?”

Vivian came to her senses. She shook her head and clenched her fists. “No, I am an actress. I should do my job well. I will try again.”

Vivian returned to her position and looked down at her toes, recalling what the director had just said.

Cet Bonus

Guilt and sadness...

She hadn't experienced much of them before.

She gently frowned and placed her palm on her chest.

“Action.” Vivian recited the lines again, but this time she did it well.

“I'm sorry...”

Vivian bit her lips and told the story with her performance.

She remembered what Arno said to her that day.

Vivian took a deep breath. She almost burst into tears.

“Perfect!”

The director shouted. He clapped his hands. Vivian was born to be an actress.

Vivian looked up and found someone next to the camera.

Chapter 579

Chapter 579 Eat Chocolate Secretly

Vivian had not completely gotten herself out of her emotions just now. She blinked, thinking that it was a hallucination.

Why is Arno here?

However, in the next second, Arno took the towel from Vivian's assistant's hand and put it over Vivian's head, pulling Vivian into his embrace.

Feeling the warmth, Vivian finally came to herself. She raised her face and smiled. "Why are you here?"

Because of the crying scene just now, Vivian's voice was a little hoarse, and her eyelashes were still with tears when she blinked.

She simply rubbed against Arno's chest and acted like a spoiled cat.

"I miss you." Arno gently wiped Vivian's hair and spoke in a gentle voice.

Vivian had sent Arno a message complaining that it was too hot, so he came specially to send her a small fan and ice cubes. He happened to see Vivian's acting.

"How was my acting just now?"

Vivian looked down at Arno's clothes that were soaked by her. She originally wanted to take a step back, but Arno did not let her go.

"Quite good."

Arno held up Vivian's cheek and put her wet hair to the side, "It's so good that it makes my heart ache."

Thinking of Vivian's step just now, Arno's heart sank slightly,

Vivian mumbled and reached out and held Arno's waist. She said softly, "I'm sorry..."

"What?" Arno didn't hear her clearly and asked subconsciously.

Vivian looked at Arno's face and shook her head. She tiptoed and kissed him on the chin. "I have to get changed."

Arno let Vivian go and looked at her back. His eyes were extremely tender.

There was no Vivian's part for the next few times, so she could memorize the lines in the break room.

Vivian's eyes flashed when she saw Arno come in.

In fact, she was excited about the thing in Arno's hand.

"What good things do you bring me?" Vivian took a step forward and said with a smile.

Vivian opened the bag and took out a few pieces of chocolate, a box of ice cubes, and a small fan.

Vivian had to control her weight, but sometimes she would be very hungry, so she could only eat some chocolate to replenish her energy.

Of course, she had to eat it secretly behind her manager's back. Things would go wrong if her manager found out.

Losing weight was torture for Vivian.

"Wow, you're so nice." Vivian held the ice cubes happily. The air conditioner in the break room didn't work well, so the ice cubes Arno brought were simply a life-saving item.

As she spoke, Vivian picked up an ice cube and threw it into her mouth. She frowned. "So icy..."

Seeing this, Arno pinched Vivian's cheek. "Don't rush."

Vivian dodged to the side, then quietly picked another ice cube to eat.

However, the next second, Arno grabbed Vivian's wrist.

He opened his mouth and ate the ice cube in Vivian's hand.

He raised his eyes to look at Vivian, still grabbing her wrist.

Vivian's cold fingertips touched Arno's warm lips, and her fingers tingled instantly.

She flushed slightly as she pursed her lips.

"What are you doing..." Vivian mumbled, trying to pull her hand back.

However, Arno got closer as she was pulling.

"What? What did you say? I didn't hear you." Arno said softly in his deep voice.

Vivian flinched. She was a little embarrassed by Arno's aggressive gaze and turned her head to avoid looking at him.

"I ... didn't say anything..."

“Is that so?” Arno chuckled. “Why did I hear you say that you love me?”

Hearing such nonsense, Vivian subconsciously turned her head back, but she did not expect that Arno had been waiting for this moment. He directly kissed Vivian on the lips.

The melted ice still left a chill in his mouth. Vivian gave a soft snort, and the hand that pressed against his chest—softened slightly.

“Vivian...”

Just then, the door of the break room was pushed open. When Renita entered the door, she saw two people so intimate. She was shocked and turned to leave.

Vivian widened her eyes and pushed Arno away.

Her face turned red and she could not help but cover her mouth. “What are you doing...”

Seeing this, Arno couldn't help but smile. “Sorry, it's because you're so cute,”

Vivian gave Arno a shy glance. When she looked down, she saw the ice cubes on the table, and her face became even redder.

Someone knocked on the door of the break room. Renita's voice came from outside, “May I come in?”

Vivian bit her lips and quickly went forward to open the door for her agent.

Renita looked into the room and then looked at Vivian. “Done?”

“What?” Vivian blinked her eyes innocently.

Seeing Renita's faint smile, Vivian seemed to understand what she was talking about and she immediately frowned.

“Fine. I'll stop teasing you.” Renita chuckled. “It's your part. Let's go.”

Vivian nodded. Arno also walked over. “Let's go together.”

The final shooting went very smoothly. Although Arno was watching from the side, Vivian was also in a very good state.

Soon, the shooting ended. Arno took Vivian to dinner.

“What do you want for dinner?”

In the parking lot, Arno asked as they walked side by side.

“It turns out that you are the biggest barrier on my road to losing weight.”

Vivian mumbled, “Every time I say I want to lose weight, you will take me out for dinner.”

Arno had a smile on his face, but he did not say anything.

Vivian nodded and took out her phone to search for the nearby restaurants. She did not look at the road.

Arno was used to it. He naturally held Vivian’s other hand and led her forward.

“I feel this restaurant...”

However, just as Vivian was about to look up, the sound of a car speeding over rang out. Before Vivian could see what had happened, she was directly held in Arno’s arms.

The two of them rolled to the side. Vivian saw that in order to protect her, Arno directly hit the back of his head against the pillar.

“Arno!”

Vivian was startled, but before she could react, she heard the ear-piercing sound of wheels rubbing against the ground. She looked over Arno’s shoulder and saw a car rushing towards them.

Vivian’s face turned pale, while Arno immediately reacted and pushed her to the side,

“Arno!”

Chapter 580 I’m Not Afraid of Murray

It seemed that the screech was too irritating to the ear, it attracted the security guard of the parking lot.

When the driver saw this, he turned the car around and wanted to escape the scene. Vivian ran to Arno with a shocked expression on her face.

“Arno! How are you feeling?”

Kneeling in front of Arno, Vivian was crying. She reached out and pressed Arno’s arm.

Arno held the back of his head and stood up. He shook his head at Vivian. “I’m fine.”

The security guard ran over and asked, “What happened?”

Vivian was full of worry for Arno, and she was so nervous that she couldn’t speak for the time being.

Seeing this, Arno put his arm around her shoulder to comfort her. He turned to the security guard and said, “Someone wanted to crush us on purpose. Go check the surveillance camera and see who the car owner is.”

Upon hearing this, the security guard had a long face. “Alright, I’ll take care of it now.”

“Let’s go to the hospital.” Vivian dared not waste time and drove Arno to the hospital.

“At that time, the car rushed straight at us. It was horrible.”

Vivian immediately thought that the culprit was probably one of the two people she had eavesdropped on. She called Melissa while Arno was under examination.

Cut Bonus “Okay, our company has found it out. I will never let the two people go.”

Melissa had a clue before, but she was still suspicious. Now that something like this had happened to Vivian, she had confirmed the suspect.

Vivian seemed to feel assured after hearing that. She replied softly, “Melissa, if you catch that person, you have to tell me.”

Vivian would not let the two go because Arno was hurt.

“What about Arno?” Melissa asked.

“He’s still under an examination. He hit himself against a pillar. I was so worried.” Vivian pursed her lips with a distressed face.

Just then, the door of the consulting room opened, and Vivian hung up when she saw this.

“How is it? Does your head hurt? Is your injury serious?”

Vivian looked up and saw the Band-Aid on Arno's brow. She felt heartbroken.

“It's just a bruise. It's not serious.” Arno stroked Vivian's hair and smiled.

Although Arno made light of it, Vivian was not at ease at all. She took his hand to check if he had any other wounds.

As a result, she found the wound on the back of his head, and her face sank.

“You hit your head. How can you tell me that it's just a bruise?” As Vivian spoke, she grabbed Arno's wrist and was determined to take him for a full-body examination.

When Arno saw this, he reached out to pick up Vivian and placed her on the bench in the corridor.

“I said I'm fine. Stop worrying.” Arno squatted in front of Vivian and looked up at her with a smile.

Chapter 580 I'm Not Afraid of Murray

Vivian bit her lower lip with red eyes. “You scared the wits out of me! Do you know how dangerous it was?”

“Don't cry, my princess.” Arno reached out to wipe away the tears at the corner of Vivian's eyes and then stroked her cheeks.

Holding Arno's palm, Vivian touched it with her cheek to feel the warmth from him.

“Our company has already found a suspect. I will never let that guy go,” Vivian said seriously.

Melissa hung up the phone and watched the video on the computer with cold eyes.

At that moment, someone knocked on the office door. Melissa hid the files and responded softly, “Come in.”

As soon as she finished speaking, a young man walked in. He adjusted his glasses and acted nervously. “Ms. Eugen.”

Melissa looked at him, indicating for him to tell her why he came.

“Ms. Eugen, I'm from the Planning Department. This is the report from our department for this month.”

When the young man came in, he looked around and finally set his eyes on Melissa

As he spoke, he handed over the documents in his hands.

“Why didn’t the manager come here?” Melissa asked casually

The young man was caught off guard, He paused for a moment before saying, “Ah She felt unwell in the afternoon, so she asked me to send it over ”

Melissa remembered all the young man’s reactions, but she remained calm,

. She nodded, “Alright, you may leave.”

The young man responded and then hesitated for a moment before continuing, “Ms. Eugen, do you need me to make a cup of coffee for you?”

Melissa was busy processing the documents, so she just hummed at the man’s offer. The young man put on a face of joy and he immediately turned away from the office.

“I was wondering how strong this guy could be.” Melissa snorted and dialed a number.

“Come here. I need a play with you.”

Not long after the call was disconnected, a person walked into Melissa’s office.

“What, did you find that guy?” The person Demetrius. He looked around and walked in front of Melissa.

“He went to make me coffee. He’ll be here in a while.”

Melissa propped her cheeks up with a hint of disdain on her face, “It’s been a long time since I’ve seen such a bold guy.”

“No wonder you asked me to come here. It turns out that you are looking for an actor for free.”

Demetrius snorted and looked at Melissa with his legs crossed.

“You came to my company every day even if I didn’t ask you to do that.” Melissa raised her eyebrows.

Hearing this, Demetrius took a few steps to Melissa’s desk with smiley and shiny eyes
“Will you consider hiring me? I’m okay with office romance”

Because they were going to act, Melissa did not reject Demetrius’s intikacy

She CTOSed her a n d leaned against the chair

“Forget it. I feel that you suck in acting i should find someone else,

As Melissa spoke, she placed her hand on the phone, Demetrius saw this and quickly went over. Just as he was about to say something, he looked up and saw the surveillance interface on Melissa’s computer screen,

It was from the camera at the door of her office,

The young man was cautiously standing at the door with a coffee cup

The two looked at each other. Demetrius received the message and said, “I’m not afraid of Murray,”

He deliberately said it loudly so people outside the office could hear it,

Sure enough, the two saw the man pause from the camera. He then carefully put his ears on the door.

Melissa looked up and said, “What are you going to do?”

As soon as she said this, the door suddenly opened. Demetrius took the opportunity to stand in front of Melissa. From the angle of the person coming in, the two looked to be kissing each other.
