

CHAPTER 111:

Wu Tian didn't explain so much. He continued to drink and eat meat. He looked relaxed and at ease. He didn't pay any attention to Zhao Jun, who was blocking the door outside the restaurant.

Just when he was happy to eat, Zhao Jun and his bodyguards rushed into the restaurant.

When the staff saw Zhao Jun breaking into the restaurant, they thought that the second generation of rich scoundrel wanted to do harm to boss Wu, so they all surrounded him to protect Wu Tian.

Even Dai Jun and Shen Xue became gloomy. They were afraid that Zhao Jun, a rogue, would produce any waist moths.

"Plop!"

When everyone was on guard against Zhao Jun.

Zhao Jun ran over in a hurry and knelt down in front of Wu Tian with his legs bent. He begged: "elder brother, I am wrong. Please hold your hand and let us go..."

Seeing this situation, everyone is stupid.

I didn't expect that Zhao Jun, who was still so arrogant before, knelt on the ground and begged for mercy from boss Wu.

This

What's the situation?

Even Dai Jun and Shen Xue are confused. They don't know what's going on.

"Mr. Zhao, are you talking to me? Why can't I hear you clearly?" Wu Tianqiao deliberately pretends to be stupid with two legs.

"Brother Wu, Uncle Wu, I beg you, please spare us Zhao family!" Zhao Jun again begged for mercy with his voice. At the same time, he ordered several subordinates behind him: "what are you doing? Get down on your knees."

The bodyguards were ordered to kneel on the ground.

"I didn't expect that you, the eldest son of the Zhao family, would be today." Wu Tian looks up at Zhao Jun as if he were looking at a disgusting bug.

"Sorry, I was really wrong." Zhao Junna also had the arrogance before. Now he is scared to be like a fool. He repeatedly begged for mercy and apologized.

Just received a call from my father asking if he had offended a young man named Wu Tian.

At that time, he didn't care. He told his father clearly that he had a feud with Wu Tian and wanted to destroy the boy's restaurant.

As a result, his father scolded him and told him that his Zhao group was about to be destroyed by Wu Tian. The bank stopped lending, the upstream industry chain stopped supplying goods, and the downstream dealers cancelled contracts one after another.

For a time, Zhao's group was facing unprecedented disasters, and it was likely to collapse at any time.

After hearing the bad news, he was shocked. He didn't expect that Wu Tian had such a big idea and that such a short time would make Zhao's group face a crisis.

In such a short period of time, we can see how corrupt Wu Tian is, which is a hundred times more corrupt than Zhao's group.

At that time, he was in a cold sweat.

I didn't expect the boss of Fuyuan restaurant to be such a corrupt boss. NIMA offended the boss when he was not careful.

I knew that Wu Tian's background was so corrupt that he didn't dare to offend him.

His father told him to ask Wu Tian to forgive him in any case, otherwise Zhao's group would be completely destroyed.

If Zhao's group is finished, their Zhao family will go bankrupt, and his rich second generation will have nothing.

Thinking of these, he ran to the restaurant without saying a word, and knelt down to beg for mercy from Wu Tian.

"Mr. Zhao, you were arrogant just now. How could you become a grandson?" Wu Tian didn't seem to be relieved and asked aggressively.

"I'm wrong. I'm so damned." Zhao Jun finished saying this, waved a few hard slaps on his face, confessed: "I am a jerk, I promise, I will never dare again."

Seeing this, everyone in the restaurant looked at each other.

If not see with his own eyes, kill them can't believe, Zhao Jun will be in front of the boss Wu big mouth.

Everyone is very curious. How did boss Wu tame Zhao Jun and let this boy take the initiative to apologize?

However, seeing Zhao Jun so puffing himself, the restaurant staff are particularly relieved.

"Bang!"

Wu Tian raised his foot and kicked Zhao Jun over. He reprimanded him and said, "I told you so long ago that you don't provoke me. You just don't listen. Now you know you regret it?"

"Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa!"

Zhao Jun shook his hand and slapped him hard on his face. He confessed: "I'm really wrong. Please hold your hand high and let go of our Zhao family."

In order to keep the family, he has no choice but to beg for mercy.

"This time I'll let you Zhao family go." Wu Tian said this and then turned his tone: "it's better not to have another time. If there is another time, I will let you disappear in Luzhou completely."

"Thank you, boss Wu. I promise there won't be another time." Zhao Jun kowtowed repeatedly to guarantee that he was more grandson than his grandson.

"Go away, don't let me see you again."

"Yes, I'll get out of here." After Zhao Jun answered, he really rolled out of the restaurant with people.

Seeing Mr. Zhao and his subordinates rolling pumpkin out of the restaurant, the staff were speechless.

Is this still the arrogant and arrogant master Zhao?

Why do you suddenly become so timid in front of boss Wu? There was curiosity in everyone's heart.

Finally, Dai Jun asked in his heart: "boss Wu, how did Zhao Jun suddenly become so submissive?"

"This The secret of heaven must not be revealed. " Wu Tian answered mysteriously, and then said to the crowd, "remember, if anyone dares to play wild in the restaurant, I'll let him look good."

"The boss is mighty." Dai Jun flattered and yelled.

All the other employees yelled in unison.

We all admire boss Wu from the bottom of my heart.

"Well, let's get busy." Wu Tian sent away the staff and comforted Shen Xue: "don't worry, Zhao Jun will never pester you again."

After this time, I'm afraid Zhao Jun will walk around here.

"I'm so impressed." Shen Xue looked at Wu Tian with relief, and said with emotion: "Leng is to put the shameless Zhao junxun into obedience. I'm afraid only you can do it in the world."

"I am an old doctor of Chinese medicine, specializing in all kinds of rogues!" Wu Tian said this, deliberately put a handsome posture.

"Poof!"

Shen Xue was amused by this posture and said angrily, "go and go. There is no proper shape all day."

"Hey, hey

Wu Tian grabs his head awkwardly, takes a look at the time and says, "it's late, or I'll take you home?"

"No, my kitchen is busy." Shen Xue refused politely because she was afraid that other employees would gossip.

In fact, she wanted to be with Wu Tian, but she was afraid that other employees would gossip.

"Well, you're busy. I'll go first." Wu Tian smiles and leaves the restaurant with Qinglong.

After returning home, see Long Yun is waiting for him in the living room, cold face, a very serious expression, similar to playing cards.

Every time as long as secretary long looks like this, something will happen.

"Secretary long, do I owe you money?" Seeing the stinky face of secretary long, Wu Tian couldn't help laughing.

"Young master."

Long Yun directly ignored the joke and said without expression: "the old man is looking for you, let you call him."

"I see." Wu Tian nodded and went to the study.

CHAPTER 112:

Wu Tian got into his study, took out his mobile phone and dialed his grandfather's phone. He asked, "how are you doing recently, grandfather?"

"Don't worry. I'm in good health." At the other end of the phone, Wu Zhihe's voice is sonorous and powerful.

"That's good." Hearing his grandfather's words, Wu Tian was in a good mood, "grandfather, what can I do for you?"

"Well!"

The phone pulled out a long syllable. Wu Zhihe said, "you boy, you really have the ability to make hundreds of millions of yuan so quickly. I'm not disappointed."

"You know all about it, grandfather?"

"That's nature."

"Granddad is so clever that you can't escape anything." Wu Tian couldn't help but admire him.

Like the number of people like grandfather that is really corrupt, strategizing, decisive victory in thousands of miles away.

"You are much better than several other candidates in the family. You are worthy of being the grandson of Wu Zhihe. You really did not mistake you." Wu Zhihe said this and grinned.

Listening to the voice, he was very happy at this time.

Hearing his grandfather smile so happy, Wu Tian is also very happy, but still modest way: "grandfather, I also rely on the strength of the family to achieve small achievements."

Wu Tian said that this is also a fact. If there is no family support behind, you can never make so much profit in a short time.

"That's not true." Wu Zhihe put up his smile and taught him: "you are a descendant of the Wu family. It's reasonable to take advantage of the family power of the Wu family. The older generation of the Wu family fought for the benefit of future generations. If we have energy, we should not use it."

"That's what my grandfather taught me."

"What's more, which offspring didn't use the power of the family? Other descendants borrow more power than you. This is the ability. "

"Thank you for your affirmation." Hearing his grandfather's heartfelt admiration, Wu Tian's heart was sweeter than honey.

"Boy, there's one thing I appreciate most about you." Wu Zhihe stopped for a moment and then said, "you can study carefully, train hard, and apply what you have learned. This is far behind other descendants."

"I think I'm still far from it. I need to keep enriching myself."

"It's quite good to have this awareness." When Wu Zhihe said this, his tone was obviously accentuated.

The tone of speaking to Wu Tian changed obviously this time.

If Wu Tian was just a wait-and-see attitude before, then this time he obviously affirmed and agreed with Wu Tian's ability and efforts.

Wu Zhihe has been impressed by Wu Tian's recent performance.

"Thank you for your approval." Wu Tian's tone seems calm, but his heart is full of excitement and excitement.

From the change of grandfather's attitude towards him, we can see that his performance during this period is really very good.

It seems that all his efforts and efforts have not been in vain.

"Xiaotian, you are excellent. There is no doubt about that, but..."

When Wu Zhihe said this, his tone suddenly changed: "there is no end to learning. You must be open-minded and eager to learn. Don't be proud of your achievements."

"Grandfather said so."

"Well experience, we Wu family need you such a posterity."

"Don't worry, I will live up to my grandfather's expectations." Wu Tian promised, thinking about his parents, he couldn't help asking, "by the way, how did my parents die?"

I want to take advantage of my grandfather's good mood to find out the cause of his parents' death.

"This..."

Wu Zhihe pauses for a few seconds and says solemnly: "the time is not ripe now. There are some things I can't tell you."

"Grandfather, when is the right time

"If you can make a million dollars, I'll tell you something about your parents."

"Really?"

"Of course."

"Well, I'll make a million as soon as I can." Wu Tian clenched his teeth and was cruel.

Now he is full of energy. He just wants to make money as hard as possible, to make ten billion profits as soon as possible, and to find out the cause of his parents' death as soon as possible.

"Well, that's it." With this sentence, Wu Zhi hung up his mobile phone.

Wu Tian looks at the mobile phone that has been turned off in a daze, and he is in deep meditation.

He did not know why his grandfather would not directly tell the cause of his parents' death. He did not know whether there was any secret in it.

Anyway, he must try to find out why his parents died.

At present, we can only make ten billion profits according to my grandfather.

However, it is not easy to make a profit of 10 billion yuan. There are still a lot of things to do next. He can not relax for a moment.

"Di Di Di..."

Just when Wu Tian was in a daze, the mobile phone ring suddenly rang, which scared him a lot.

I found that Li Mu was calling. Connect to the mobile phone and ask: "Mr. Li, call me so late, what can I do for you?"

"Boss Wu, I just received a notice today that Tao Biyuan, a famous old professor of economics in China, is going to give a lecture at Luzhou University. Are you interested?"

"Of course." When he heard that Professor Tao was going to give a lecture in Luzhou, Wu Tian became very excited.

He had read several books by Professor Tao before. He had a deep understanding and insight into economics, which made him deeply infected.

That's when he liked economics.

"That's it." Li Mu's hearty voice came over the phone: "my friend sent me an invitation letter for Professor Tao's lecture at Lu University. I'm not interested in this lecture. If boss Wu is interested, I'll send you an e-mail."

"Come on, send it to me." Wu Tiandu can't wait.

He had long wanted to visit Professor Tao and listen to his preaching in person.

Such a good opportunity can not be let go.

"Well, I'll send you the invitation later."

"Now." Wu Tian urged him to hang up his mobile phone.

Within a moment of hanging up, you get a message.

Open the mailbox and see the invitation letter from Professor Tao. The lecture will be held on Monday afternoon in the multimedia center of Luzhou University.

It seems that he will be able to see Professor Tao soon. At this time, he is a little excited and more expectant.

"Bang! Bang! Bang

At this time, I heard a knock on the door, then the door was pushed open, and Long Yun came in.

This woman has just taken a bath. Now she is wearing a black nightdress with lace at the hem, which is very sexy with her white legs.

Usually long Yun will not go out after taking a bath. Tonight is the first time to see Secretary long wearing a nightdress.

"Lift up the skirt." Staring at the Dragon Secretary to see a few eyes, Wu Tian holds the shelf command way.

Long Yun eyebrows slightly tight, unconsciously close legs, "young master, please self-respect."

"Since what heavy, I want to see how your leg was scratched by me." Wu Tian explained.

"All right."

"Lift up the skirt."

"Yes Long Yun in the heart is not willing, but still obediently follow.

Reach out and slowly lift up the skirt, cheek inexplicably a little red.

CHAPTER 113:

The scratch on the leg has been restored, but there are two slight bruises which are not obvious. I believe it will heal soon.

Wu Tian stares at the silt mark to see a few eyes, full face apologetic say: "long secretary, before really sorry."

"It's OK!" Long Yun quickly covered her body with skirt, and her expression on her face was slightly embarrassed.

At that time, the leg was really painful when the young master grabbed it. It was hot and stinging.

But compared with this pain, there is more shame.

Fortunately, the young master was drunk and didn't know what happened. Otherwise, she would be more ashamed.

"What can I do for you so late?" Wu Tian hastens to take back his eyes from Secretary Long's legs and be serious.

He was worried that if he looked at that leg a few more times, he would have some evil ideas.

Don't ruin his wisdom as a young master of the Wu family.

"It is said that the technology companies, live broadcasting platforms and restaurants invested by the young master have made hundreds of millions." The red clouds on Longyun's face gradually disappeared, and soon returned to the former indifference.

"I'm a secretary. I'm well informed."

"I didn't expect that the young master is so powerful that he can make so much money in a short time by investing in several projects." Long Yun's expression is still cold.

But Wu Tian's eyes are much more dignified than before.

In the past, I always thought that young master's investment in restaurants and technology companies was not serious, and he could not make any money.

Until this time, I found that the young master's vision was fierce and extraordinary. All the investments were paid back and made money.

"You came to me to tell me that?" Wu Tian is also very happy to be recognized by Secretary long.

Of course, he didn't show it in front of the secretary.

"I came to apologize to the young master." Secretary long bowed slightly and said apologetically: "I thought it was my fault that the young master spent money recklessly and blindly. I apologized for this."

After this time, she could not help but look at the young master with a new look.

"There is no need to apologize for such a small matter." Wu Tian pointed to the opposite chair, "sit down and chat with me."

"Yes

After answering, Longyun sits down in the opposite position of Wu Tian.

When she sat down, he found that the young master looked directly at her thigh, made her cheek red, and pressed his hand on his leg.

I really regret that I came here in my nightdress. I should have changed my clothes before.

Can you misunderstand the young master with such a short nightdress?

"What do you think I am?" Wu Tian just instinctively glanced at the Dragon secretary and quickly withdrew his eyes.

"Smart, bold and generous, hardworking..."

"I have so many advantages?"

"Yes."

"Then tell me about my shortcomings."

"This..." Long Yun thought for a moment and said, "the means are cruel."

"No other shortcomings?"

"Yes."

"Tell me, then, what shortcomings do I have?"

Color

"Cough..."

Hearing this word, Wu tianmeng coughed a few times, almost choked to death by his own saliva.

Although he is not a gentleman, but also a decent, did not expect in the eyes of secretary long is a lecher.

After coughing for a long time, Wu Tiancai retorted: "Secretary long, make it clear. Where am I?"

"The young master just stared at my thigh to swallow saliva, is not color?"

"That's a man's instinctive reaction. If a man doesn't respond to a beauty like you, is it normal?"
Wu Tian argued loudly.

"....." Long Yun didn't speak, but he was a little proud.

"Forget it. I don't want to talk to you. Go out." Wu Tian waved his hand impatiently and just wanted to drive the woman out.

For a long time, he always wanted to maintain the image of a good young master in front of secretary long, but as a result

Before long Yun walked out of the study, Wu Tian suddenly opened his mouth to remind him:
"remember to wear more clothes later."

"....."

Long Yun steps a meal, in the heart can not help but think wildly, is the young master really think oneself wear so little is seducing him?

It seems that we should wear more clothes in the future, so as not to misunderstand the young master.

After Long Yun left, Wu Tian was busy learning and didn't sleep until very late.

The next day is Sunday, which is the day of practice match with Wushu Club of the Institute of physical education.

Wu Tian gets up early and takes Qinglong to Gongda martial arts club after a simple wash.

Vice President Mao Wang is organizing members for training, and Gu Xiaoman is taking several members to install equipment.

"President Wu, you are here just in time." Gu Xiaoman ran over with a smile and said, "you gave me 700000 yuan. I bought all the equipment. How about it?"

"Not bad!" Seeing these brand-new training equipment, Wu Tian was very satisfied.

These equipment is very complete, everything is available, and the quality is very good. It is much better than those equipment in the Sports Institute."With this batch of new equipment, everyone is very energetic in training." Gu Xiaoman said this, but he couldn't help but propose: "president Wu, do you want to try these new devices?"

"Let's try. I won't try." Wu Tian said this and went straight to the theme: "the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education has promised to play a training match with us."

"President Wu, you really know how to joke. How can this be possible?" Gu Xiaoman naturally refused to believe it.

Don't say she doesn't believe it. Even Chairman Mao and other members have expressed doubts, and no one is willing to believe it.

The martial arts club of the Institute of physical education is the best martial arts club in Luzhou. Those people have always been on top of others. They are born with a sense of superiority.

They have never paid much attention to such small Wushu clubs as the University of technology, let alone have a practice match with the University.

"What am I lying to you for? They have promised to play practice games with us." Wu Tian looked at the time and said with a smile, "maybe they will come soon."

After Wu Tiangang finished saying this, a member of the club came running to us in a hurry, and he yelled: "president Wu, President Gu, President Mao, President Wu of the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education came with a group of members and said they would play a practice match with us..."

On hearing this, Gu Xiaoman and Mao Wang are both stunned.

They all looked at Wu Tian with that kind of surprised eyes. I didn't expect that President Wu was so powerful that he really invited the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education to come and play a practice match.

The other members were shocked by the news.

I didn't expect that President Wu could bring the most corrupt martial arts club of Luzhou to accompany them to practice.

Everyone could not help admiring president Wu secretly. They all felt that President Wu had a lot of malpractices and he had the ability to understand the nature.

"President Wu, I didn't expect you to be so good. I really invited the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education." After a brief daze, Gu Xiaoman can't help exclaiming.

"I said that if we invite them to the training match, we can certainly do it."

"President Wu, how did you persuade them?" Gu Xiaoman can't help asking out the doubts in his heart.

This is also the doubt in everyone's mind.

"It's a long story. I'll explain it to you later." Wu Tian perfunctorily said, "since they are here, let's go out to meet the landlord."

CHAPTER 114:

After that, Wu Tian walked out of the club with all the members and met the martial arts club outside the gate.

This time, the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education also poured its nest out of the hole. Ming Antai, the president of the sports college, led his own team and more than 100 members to play the training match.

The Sports Institute has a large number of people. Its members are half as many as the workers'

University, and their strength is several times stronger all day.

"President Ming, on behalf of all members of the University of technology, I welcome you." Wu Tian warmly welcomes him and shakes hands with Ming Antai.

"Thank you for being so kind." Ming Taian looks like a knife in a smile.

It seems to be smiling, but in fact it is murderous.

The purpose of bringing people here is not only to play practice games, but also to teach the martial arts club of the University of technology to let them know the strength of the Institute.

To tell you the truth, they despise the University of technology from the bottom of their heart. It was impossible to have a training match with the University.

But under the pressure of Wu Tian, he had to promise to play this training match.

He should take advantage of today's training competition to teach the martial arts club a good lesson and let the university know their strength.

"President Ming, please come in." Wu Tian made a gesture of invitation, and took the lead to walk inside the community hall.

The vice president who followed Ming Tai'an couldn't help but say, "president Wu, with the conditions of your university of technology, I'm afraid you don't even have decent equipment!"

"Don't worry, we have everything."

"Hum!"

Sun said in a low voice, sarcastically: "your martial arts club is poor, what equipment can you have?"

"You'll find out when you go in." Wu Tian was too lazy to talk nonsense and led everyone to the martial arts school.

"I'd like to see what training equipment your martial arts club has." Vice President sun quickly followed in, waiting for a joke.

Other members of the Sports Institute also couldn't help laughing. They were all talking in a low voice, saying that the martial arts club of the University of technology was the poorest martial arts club in Luzhou, and the jokes were endless.

When you enter the martial arts club, you will be totally stupid. You can see that there are brand-new training equipment on display in the martial arts club.

All kinds of equipment are available. They are much more than those in their sports institute, and the grade is much higher.

In addition to training equipment, there are several refrigerators in the museum, which are filled with all kinds of physical drinks and fruits.

I didn't expect that the martial arts school still has these preparations, which are not available in the martial arts club of their sports institute. Usually, they have to pay for water.

People can't laugh anymore. Seeing such a complete set of training equipment and living supplies, the members of the sports institute can't help but envy.

I didn't expect that the environment of the martial arts club of the University of technology is so good, which is a hundred times more corrupt than the martial arts club of their sports institute.

Wu Tian pointed to the equipment and equipment and asked vice president sun, "President sun, is our training equipment not bad?"

"No Not bad. " Sun nodded awkwardly. Now his face was blue and white.

It has been heard that the martial arts club of the University of technology is very poor and has no money to buy training equipment. The training conditions are the worst in Luzhou.

Seeing these brand-new equipment and several large refrigerators, he was suddenly dumbfounded.

The training equipment and living environment of NIMA are more corrupt than those of their sports institute. Where are the conditions hard?

Thanks to his previous ridicule at the University of technology, he felt that his face was severely slapped, burning and stinging.

"I'm going to add another batch of high-end equipment to our members in the near future." Wu Tian finished saying this and said to the members of the Sports Institute: "you can eat and drink any fruit you like. You're welcome."

"How can we share your fruit and drink?" President sun made a mockery of the occasion.

"We have plenty of fruit drinks." Wu Tian finished saying this and told Gu Xiaoman, "President Gu, go and open our cold storage."

"Good." Gu Xiaoman answered, went to pull open one of the side sliding doors, the air-conditioning came.

It's a cold storage specially adapted for members. It's full of drinks and fruits.

"Wow

Seeing so many melon and fruit drinks, the members of the sports institute made a neat exclamation.

I didn't expect that the martial arts club of the University of technology even provided cold storage for its members and made so many melon and fruit drinks.

The members of the Sports Institute were envious of death and were deeply impressed by the excellent training conditions of the University of technology.

In the past, they always thought that their sports institute had invincible malpractices. Only at this time did they find that the supporting facilities of the University of technology were 100 times more corrupt than their own.

"Please don't mention it. You can eat and drink as you like. Only when you have enough food and drink, can we have the strength to play the practice match." Wu Tian made a gesture of invitation, indicating that you are welcome.

On hearing this, the members of the Sports Institute rushed into the cold storage room, which made the members of the Industrial University burst into laughter.

Ming Antai and sun were embarrassed.

I didn't expect that their members were so spineless. For drinks and fruits, they became like wolves.

Ming Antai's face is red and red, and I feel his face has been lost.

"Cough!"

He coughed twice and pressed his anger to Wu Tian. "We're here to play practice games, not to eat, drink and drink." "Well, let's talk about the practice game. How do we play it?"

"Each side sends one person to play three games, three sets two wins."

"OK, I don't mind."

"Well, President sun, you go to war." Ming Antai made a decisive decision and picked out the strongest president sun to fight with his opponent.

He wanted to restrain his opponents in the first battle and let them know the strength of their sports institute.

As soon as I heard that the director of society sun was going to war, the side of the University of technology was frightened.

We have heard of President sun's strength for a long time. I'm afraid that there are few people in Luzhou martial arts club who are rivals.

Just when everyone was afraid, Mao Wang took the initiative to fight: "president Wu, let me play the first game with sun."

He may not have beaten president sun, but if he doesn't go to war, he will certainly make his opponents laugh.

Even if you lose, you can't be laughed at.

"No, you wait." Wu Tian shook his head and then pointed to the last member of the club, "Xiao Liu, you have extraordinary strength. You fight with President sun."

"Ah?"

On hearing this, everyone was stupid.

I didn't expect that President Wu chose the worst small six.

Xiao Liu has just come to the club. He is weak and weak. He is no match for president sun.

I really don't understand how President Wu jumped the weakest little six against President sun. Isn't this looking for abuse?

"Thank you very much for president Wu's recognition of me. I will do my best." When he heard that he could fight on the stage, Xiao Liu was very excited and ran to the arena quickly.

"See how I abuse you." With a grim smile, President sun stepped onto the arena.

Look at the silence. There's no one on the stage.

Before we started, we had already guessed the end.

President sun provocative toward small six hook fingers, "boy, today let you know our sports institute's fierce."

As soon as his voice fell, he punched him and hit him hard on his chest.

Xiaoliu can't dodge. He is shocked by this fist and falls to the ground and howls.

CHAPTER 115:

In the first round, the Wushu Club of the University of technology was defeated.

The members of the sports institute all gave out hearty laughter, clapped for the victory of their club, and praised the perfect performance of President sun.

At the same time, he couldn't help laughing at the martial arts club of the University of technology, and for a while demoted its members to be worthless.

When the members of the Sports Institute cheered and celebrated, Wu Tian just pursed his lips and laughed. He went to help Xiao Liu up and said, "are you ok?"

"I'm fine." Xiao Liu got up and patted the dust on his body. He was full of guilt and said to himself, "I'm sorry, president. I've disgraced you."

"It's OK. You're very good. You'll be exempted from the probation period and you'll be a regular member." Wu Tian patted Xiaoliu on the shoulder and said with a smile.

"Really?" When he heard that he had become an official member, Xiao Liu was very excited and bowed repeatedly to thank him: "thank you, President Wu."

"Well, you go and have a rest first." Wu Tian helped Xiao Liu to the opposite chair and sat down.

Xiao Liu was confused. He didn't understand. The challenge was a mess. President Wu not only didn't blame him, but also rewarded him in disguise.

What's the situation?

President Wu's mind is really unable to guess, small six did not ask more, sitting on the chair to continue to watch the game.

After pacifying Xiao Liu, Wu Tian went to the Ming Tai'an and said, "President Ming, congratulations on your victory in the first round."

"It's a piece of cake to deal with small groups like you. We can win every game next." The smile on Ming Tai'an's face was extremely brilliant.

In his opinion, with the strength of the Sports Institute, there is no difficulty in brutalizing the martial arts club of the University of technology, just like playing.

"Let's go on." Wu Tiandao is not in a hurry. Everything is just going according to the plan.

"Go on." Ming Tai'an said this, and then arranged for the strength of the small fat man on the stage to fight.

Wu Tian's mouth rose, and then ordered Mao Wang, "Chairman Mao, it's time for you to perform."

"President Wu, why didn't you let me go just now Mao Wang frowned and puzzled.

He didn't understand it at all. Wu didn't allow him to fight against the fierce sun, but let him fight with a little fat man with average strength.

Wu Tian put his head together and whispered, "have you ever heard of Tianji horse racing?"

"You mean..."

Mao Wang didn't understand, but Gu Xiaoman next to him brightened up: "I understand. President Wu wants to use inferior horse to their superior horse, medium horse to their inferior horse, and superior horse to their medium horse."

Gu Xiaoman told the story of the pheasant horse racing.

"Yes, that's what it means." Wu Tian nods hard.

From the beginning, he thought of using Tian Ji to fight the Sports Institute in the way of horse racing.

Because the strength gap between the top is too big, only in this way can we gain advantages and have the opportunity to defeat the opponent.

"I'm worthy of being the president. I'm really resourceful." Gu Xiaoman swung his fist and gently hit Wu Tian's chest. He couldn't help admiring him.

"Well, don't say so much." Wu Tian turned to Mao Wang and said, "it's time for you to perform. You must try to win this game."

"Don't worry, I have absolute confidence to win this game." Mao Wang said this and walked to the stage.

As soon as Mao Wang and Xiao Pang came to the stage, the atmosphere was tense.

Both of them are the mainstays of their respective communities, and their confrontation is very promising.

After a brief warm-up on the stage, the two men officially started the war.

At the beginning, Mao Wang was very brave, attacking his opponent with a strong momentum.

Xiaopang does not show weakness and keeps defensive posture.

Two people attack and defend, play hard to part.

The fight lasted for more than half an hour, and both men looked tired and ready to fight.

Finally, the two men launched an attack at the same time. Finally, they were shaken out and almost fell off the stage at the same time.

According to the rules, whoever is beaten down first will lose.

However, Mao Wang and Xiao Pang were almost knocked down by the other side at the same time, which made it a rare draw.

Although the draw, the momentum of the Sports Institute was obviously weakened a lot.

After all, they are the strongest community in Luzhou, and a draw with the weakest one naturally makes them feel shameless.

Mao Wang did not expect to draw with the other side, to tell the truth, he did not expect the other side members so strong.

He got up from the ground and walked to Wu Tian in front of him. "I'm sorry, President Wu. I've disgraced you."

"Yes, you did your best." Wu Tian patted Mao Wang on the shoulder and said with a smile.

According to the plan, Mao Wang was to win the game.

However, he never thought that his opponent was so strong that even Mao Wang only drew.

"What are we going to do next?" Gu Xiaoman asked anxiously, although she is a girl, watching the war more anxious than anyone else. "Don't worry. I have my own way." Wu Tian pacified a sentence, turned to look at the green dragon, "green dragon, the third set by you to fight, can only win."

At present, he can only use this killer mace in his hand.

"Yes Green Dragon answers, and steps onto the challenge arena.

He had a near death experience when he was fighting black boxing. For this kind of community arena competition, it was just a pediatrician.

The most powerful Hei Kui is also sent from the Sports Institute, which can be regarded as the assassin's mace over there.

Usually, the Sports Institute rarely let heikui attack, but now to the decisive game, can only avoid the use of Assassin's mace.

Ming Antai's idea is also very simple. He wants to use black queen to show his strength, so that the University of technology can see how corrupt they are.

As soon as heikui came to power, he couldn't wait to attack Qinglong.

"Bang! Bang

As a result, Qinglong only uses two moves to put heikui down, raises his leg and kicks heikui off the stage.

Although heikui is very strong, he is far from the professional training of qinglongxiang. They are not at the same level at all.

This is the end of the third game, and heikui is defeated.

Seeing this situation, Ming Antai's whole person is dumbfounded.

I didn't expect that Hei Kui, the strongest player in the Institute of physical education, was defeated by the martial arts club of Gongda. This NIMA is too bullshit.

For this result, the members of the University of technology also seemed incredible. They did not expect that the strongest black Kui in the community would lose to his opponent.

The members no longer have the sense of superiority they had before. Now they are like losing a battle. They are all looking dejected.

They originally wanted to show their strength in the martial arts club of the University of technology, but they were humiliated, which made them feel shameless.

Wu Tian smile, turned to look at Ming Antai, "Ming president, this game, you lost."

"Two wins in three games. We're just drawing now." Ming Antai gritted his teeth and yelled, "let's play the last game, and we'll win or lose."

"Well, how would president Ming compare it?"

"You and I will fight separately on behalf of our respective societies, dare you?" Ming Antai raised his head and joked loudly.

"Of course." Wu Tian did not show weakness in response to the way: "I fight you, a game will win or lose."

CHAPTER 116:

After a brief discussion, the two presidents decided to represent their respective associations in the final game, and one game was the winner.

Everyone is looking forward to the final battle. After all, this victory is related to the honor of the team, and everyone hopes that their president can win.

Under the gaze of the public, Wu Tian and Ming Antai slowly ascended the stage and stood opposite each other.

"President Wu, I have to admire your courage. How dare you fight me even with your small body?" Ming Antai sneered and looked at Wu Tian with a slight disdain.

All the members of the taixia sports institute all laughed at Wu, saying that he was the weakest martial arts president in Luzhou.

It's no wonder that Wu Tian's Hippiie tender meat is white and clean, and looks weak. No wonder it will be looked down upon.

In the eyes of the members of the Sports Institute, President Wu is a useless waste. I am afraid he will be abused by the president of the Ming Dynasty.

"Don't judge people by their appearance, or you will regret it." Wu Tian pursed his lips and burst into a confident smile.

This kind of self-confidence gives the members of the university a little comfort. In fact, we can't help but sweat for president Wu.

Although I have seen president Wu's ability before, the enemy he is facing this time is Ming Antai.

A long time ago, we heard that the president of the Ming Dynasty had great strength, and there were few rivals in Luzhou community.

This time, President Wu and Ming Antai were in a weak position.

"Today I'll let you know how good I am." After saying this, Ming Antai attacked Wu Tian.

He points his right foot on the ground and presses hard. His body quickly approaches Wu Tian and smashes it with his fist.

The force of this fist is very strong, and it breaks through the wind.

Wu Tian turned his mouth slightly. When his fist was approaching, his body moved rapidly and narrowly escaped a blow.

At the same time around the right back of Ming Antai, the left leg suddenly a spin kick, hard kick to Ming Antai footwall.

The kick caught Ming Antai off guard and forced him to step back several times.

Wu Tiangen didn't give Ming Antai a chance to breathe. He continued to attack with his right fist and smashed it hard.

One, two, three

Until the third punch, Wu Tian's fist finally hit Ming Antai's chest, shaking it back several steps.

This is not over, Wu Tian continues to force the attack, with a lightning fast momentum kick Ming Antai abdomen.

"Bang!"

Ming Antai couldn't dodge, and was directly kicked to the stage by this foot and fell down like a dead dog.

Boom!

There was a sudden uproar on the scene, but he didn't expect that President Wu was so agile that he had no strength to fight back.

Those members of the Sports Institute have long been shocked. They didn't expect that their president would be defeated by such a weak president Wu.

Through the fight just now, we all know that President Wu is not a weak, stupid boy, but a hidden expert. In fact, his strength is much higher than that of the president of the Ming Dynasty.

After watching the battle, all members of the commune were convinced.

At this moment, there was no arrogance just now. It was like a defeated rooster, and became dejected.

Let's talk about the members of the University of technology.

To see their own president's performance so brave and invincible, the members are extremely excited.

It was only at this time that we knew the real strength of president Wu. We didn't expect that President Wu was more powerful than the director of Ming society of the Sports Institute.

Seeing that their president is so strong, the members of the martial arts club of Gongda are very proud of the president who has such abuses.

Seeing Wu Tian's victory, the most exciting thing was Gu Xiaoman, who danced happily. After a long time, he couldn't help clapping and cheering: "good, President Wu is so powerful, Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa!"

"Pa pa pa pa..."

The members of the martial arts club of the University of technology came back to their senses.

They all raised their hands and clapped for president Wu's performance.

The loud applause, like a crisp slap in the face of the members of the martial arts club in the Institute of physical education, made all the members feel embarrassed.

They would have never dreamed of it if they hadn't experienced it in person.

As the strongest Martial Arts Association in Luzhou, it will lose to the weakest one.

Their strongest president will be defeated by a weak young president.

This is a great shame to them.

It took Ming Tai an a long time to get up from the ground.

At this time, Wu Tian's eyes are no longer half despised and despised, more accidents and chills.

I never dreamed that Wu Tian, who seems to be weak in front of him, is so powerful.

He had nothing to say about the fiasco.

"President Ming."

Under the gaze of the public, Wu Tian slowly stepped down and came to Ming Antai, "this game, you lost."

"You're cruel. I'll give up." Ming Taian is unwilling to bite his teeth. He didn't expect to lose to a hairy boy.

It was the worst challenge he had ever lost. "This training competition, your institute martial arts club lost." The corners of Wu Tian's mouth rose, and a smile was on his face.

"We give in."

Ming Antai bit his teeth and spat out a sentence for a long time: "it seems that I underestimated the strength of your university of technology."

"You don't underestimate us. You look up to yourself." Wu Tian mercilessly hit the road.

To tell you the truth, I have long been disgusted with the style of the Sports Institute. I think I am arrogant and arrogant. I never put anyone in the eye.

This time, they were taught a good lesson in the training match.

"Don't be happy too early. When the League officially starts, our sports institute will abuse you and wash away all the shame." Ming Antai said fiercely.

"Looking forward to the league, we'll play again."

"I'll see." Mingantai said this, and then took people to walk out of the community hall.

The members of the commune were dejected to follow out, just like the defeated soldiers, extremely weak momentum.

This defeat to the weakest University of technology is a big blow to the Sports Institute, and everyone seems to have suffered a lot of trauma in their hearts.

Seeing that the Sports Institute collapsed and left, the members of the University of technology were especially relieved.

In the past, I was always ridiculed and humiliated by the Sports Institute. Today, I finally beat the Sports Institute hard and let them taste the taste of being humiliated.

Everyone was elated.

Of course, Wu Tian, the president of the Institute of physical education, is the most meritorious person to defeat the martial arts club.

It was president Wu who helped the Institute of technology to win glory and give all members a long face.

Seeing the members of the Sports Institute go far away, the members of the University of technology all gather around and throw Wu Tianju into the air.

At the same time, he couldn't help shouting: "the president is powerful, the president is corrupt..."

The whole community hall is filled with the joy of victory, the scene is extraordinary spectacular.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Gu Xiaoman couldn't close his mouth.

She had never dreamed that the martial arts club of the University of technology could develop so rapidly that it could now compete with the Institute of physical education.

Fortunately, Wu Tian was chosen as the president of the martial arts club.

If Wu Tian didn't join the club, the martial arts club of the University of technology would always be a small one. It would be excluded and ridiculed by other organizations, and would always be at the bottom.

CHAPTER 117:

The training competition ended in this way, and the Wushu Club of the University of technology won the final victory, which severely defeated the spirit of the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education.

After the training match, Wu Tian invited Gu Xiaoman, Mao Wang and Xiao Liu to a nearby restaurant for dinner.

In the restaurant, I just met Li Meng and several students from the foreign department to have dinner in the restaurant.

"Well, isn't that the girl you like?" Gu Xiaoman recognized Li Meng at a glance.

Because Wu Tian entered the martial arts club just for Li Meng, so she was very impressed by the girl named Li Meng.

"Leave her alone. Let's eat." Wu Tian indifferent smile, with Gu Xiaoman and others into the restaurant.

"Oh Gu Xiaoman couldn't help but look at Li Meng a few more times, and followed Wu Tian to the hall to sit down.

After ordering food and asking for beer, we began to drink and chat.

Gu Xiaoman some absent-minded look around, eyes from time to time to glance at Li Meng, the heart inexplicably some jealousy of this girl.

After all, Wu Tian loved this girl so crazily before.

But she did not understand, like Wu Tian such an excellent boy, how can Li Meng despise?

At this point.

Li Meng, who is sitting at the opposite table, also sees Wu Tian. He looks back and looks at Wu Tian with his eyes on him. His heart is very sad.

Once the boy died for her.

And now

The boy took her for air and didn't even look at her.

After staring at Wu Tian for a few times, she puts her eyes on Gu Xiaoman. Seeing that the girl is so close to Wu Tian, she feels a little jealous.

If you don't miss it, she should be the one next to Wu Tian. It's a pity

Everything has changed.

The two girls have their own thoughts.

No one knows that Gu Xiaoman and Li Meng are secretly jealous of each other at this time.

"Bang!"

Just at this time, Xiaoliu accidentally knocked over the beer and fell on the ground. Hops gradually arrived at Li Meng's table.

Li Meng opposite that glasses boy immediately is not happy, pointing to small six nose to call scold: "boy, come to give me an apology."

"I'm sorry." Xiao Liu got up and apologized. Today is a martial arts club gathering. He doesn't want to be a disappointment.

"Oh, aren't these guys from the martial arts club of our university of technology?" Glasses man recognized small six and other people, deliberately Diao it: "come here, gradually to Laozi body of hops lick clean."

His ex girlfriend was poached by members of the martial arts club before, so he hated the people of the martial arts club.

"You're going too far." Xiaoliu was obviously afraid, and his voice was slightly weak.

"That's what I'm doing." Glasses man said this, directly carrying the beer bottle close to small six.

It was as if Xiao Liu had robbed his ex girlfriend, and his anger was all on Xiao Liu.

"Pa!"

Wu Tian patted his chopsticks on the table, got up and stepped in front of the man with glasses. "I think you're looking for something to do?"

Originally, I wanted to invite Xiao Liu out to have a meal, which was to compensate for the grievance that Xiao Liu suffered when he was cannon fodder in the arena.

I didn't expect to encounter bad luck as soon as I came out.

"It's none of your business if I talk to members of the martial arts club." The glasses man glared and growled impatiently.

Wu Tian's chest was firm and he replied, "I'm the president of the martial arts club of the University of technology. I'm in charge of this."

"President?" Glasses man eyebrows slightly tight, look at Wu Tian's eyes obviously more than a little deep meaning.

After hearing this, even Li Meng's mouth became O-shaped.

I didn't expect that in such a short period of time, Wu Tian became the president of the martial arts club. Is this too powerful?

I heard that Wu Tian worked in a martial arts club and was often bullied. How can he become president now?

The glasses man glanced at Wu Tian contemptuously. He couldn't help but sneer and said, "you're the president of the martial arts club. Why don't you pee?"

"I'm in a good mood today. I don't want to do it. Please keep your mouth clean." Wu Tianleng voice warning.

"Pooh!"

The glasses man spat hard on the ground, provocative way: "you this weak little trash, you are to fight with me, come on, fight here, I let you fight, do you dare to fight?"

The glasses man pointed at his pretty face and yelled.

"Bang!"

Hearing this, Wu Tian didn't need to be polite again. He smashed the past with his fist and scolded, "it's really cheap!"

This blow directly hit the glasses man and turned him upside down. Finally, he staggered and fell under the table.

Several students at the same table were instantly infuriated, and all stood up from their chairs with a fierce momentum.

Seeing this, Li Meng quickly got up to relieve the siege: "don't start, everyone is a school."

"I don't want to fight, but if they want to fight, I'll stay with them." After saying this, Wu Tian went back to his seat and sat down. He doesn't take the initiative to cause trouble, but he is never afraid of it.

"....."

Li Meng stared at Wu Tian and bit his mouth. Then he lifted the glasses man up from the ground. "If you have anything to say, don't start."

"Pooh!"

The glasses man spat hard on the ground. Instead of doing it again, he said sarcastically: "what a bullshit martial arts club, the weakest Martial Arts Association in the city, is a disgrace to our Gongda."

Several boys at the same table all followed, insulting the incompetence of the martial arts club in succession, ranking at the bottom of the city community.

After scolding for a while, the glasses man was still angry, and even more ridiculed: "the martial arts club of our university of technology is all cowards. It's a shame for our school. They waste air alive and land when they die..."

I raise my voice on purpose to let other students in the restaurant hear it.

He was the one who took the opportunity to humiliate the martial arts club. He made such a bullshit president and member a laughing stock in the restaurant and was despised by his classmates.

It worked.

The martial arts club of the University of technology is really bad. It is not welcomed by the students. It really makes the students feel ashamed.

On hearing this, all the students laughed at the rubbish of the martial arts club. It was better to dissolve it earlier.

Just as all the students in the dining room were laughing, Ma Wei girl behind Li Meng suddenly exclaimed: "everyone, look at the campus forum, there is a strong news of our martial arts club."

"Is it that the martial arts club did something shameful and was passed on to the campus network?" After a burst of ridicule, the glasses man took out his mobile phone and opened the campus network of the University of technology.

Other students have opened the campus forum to see what news the martial arts club has worth laughing at.

Open the forum, we are completely stupid.

I saw a video uploaded by the students on the forum, which was about the martial arts club of the University of technology and the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education.

After watching the video, everyone was stunned.

Members of the martial arts club of the University of technology tyrannized the martial arts club of the Institute of physical education and won the competition.

God, I didn't expect that the strongest sports club in the city would be defeated by the martial arts club of Gongda, which they thought was the weakest.

All the people present seemed to have swallowed a big jujube in their throat, choking very hard.

CHAPTER 118:

It was only at this time that we found that the loser associations in their eyes were so corrupt.

After watching the video of their martial arts club abusing the Sports Institute, the students felt a little proud.

I didn't expect that the martial arts club of our school is so corrupt.

The students at the scene saw Wu Tian several people no longer despise and disdain, they all thumbed up and applauded.

Li Meng watched the video in the forum several times.

Seeing the wonderful picture of Wu Tian fighting Ming Tai'an, the director of the Sports Institute, she felt very excited.

In the video, Wu Tian's technique is crisp and neat, without any hesitation. His every move is fierce, swift and forceful. He is really handsome and exciting.

Li Meng watched this video over and over again. The more excited he was, he was proud of Wu Tian's excellent skills.

Just when she was secretly happy, the ponytail girl behind her would come to her head and said, "do you feel very happy to see Wu Tian's skill so powerful?"

"Yes, Wu is wonderful." Li Meng nods hard. Now she admires Wu Tian more and more.

"No matter how powerful Wu Tian is now, it has nothing to do with you." The girl couldn't hold back the cold water.

"Er..."

Hearing this, the smile on Li Meng's face immediately became stiff.

Yes, no matter how excellent Wu Tian is, she has nothing to do with her.

Such an excellent man will become someone else's boyfriend, and will become someone else's husband in the future.

"I hurt Wu Tian before, but now I regret it?" Horsetail girl full of curiosity asked a question.

"I..." Li Meng regretted that his intestines were all green.

The more she saw Wu Tian's outstanding performance, the more regret she felt.

At the beginning, how could I be so stupid and abandon such a good boy? Is there something wrong with her brain?

"Tell you a secret." Ma Wei girl leaned her head over her and whispered, "Wu Tian joined the martial arts club just for you. He knew that you worshipped martial arts since you were a child, so he went to the martial arts club to sign up. He began to do chores and endure all kinds of bullying and humiliation. Only then did he have this achievement..."

"Stop it." Li Meng's nose was sour, and his heart felt like something was blocked.

All the decisions made at the beginning must have been made because of the brain drain. Now it seems too late to regret.

Look at the glasses boy again, when watching the video content on the forum, his eyes almost didn't stare out.

He thought that the martial arts club had made some shameful news, but he was still waiting to see the joke!

But I didn't expect that it was Wu Tian who led the martial arts club to win the training competition. This NIMA is too corrupt!

Thanks to his previous ridicule of the martial arts club, after watching the video, he felt his face was severely slapped, hot and tingling.

I didn't expect the new president of the martial arts club to be so corrupt, thanks to his humiliation and provocation.

If the new president takes action, he must not be tortured to death.

Thinking of this, he was scared of a short body, heart straight out of a cold sweat.

After the micro Leng, the glasses man quickly apologized to Wu Tian with a smile: "I'm sorry, I was blind before. I take back what I said and apologize to you."

Before that, I thought the martial arts club was a loser, even if I offended him, it didn't matter.

After seeing the strength of the martial arts club through the video, he understood a truth that he could not afford to be provoked by the martial arts club of Gongda.

"You shouldn't apologize to me, you should apologize to Xiao Liu." Wu Tian has no expression to remind a way.

"Yes, yes, yes."

The glasses man helped his glasses and went to Xiaoliu to apologize: "I was wrong just now. I'm really sorry."

"Forget it, it's not much." Small six big swing hand, did not put this small matter in mind.

"Nothing. Let's go first." Glasses man grinned and left in a hurry.

Li Meng turned his head and looked at Wu Tian a few times. He walked away quickly, but his face was very complicated.

After leaving the next table, Wu Tian continued to drink and chat, without affecting his mood because of the little incident just now.

After the meal, several people scattered.

Wu Tian went directly to Luzhou university to attend Professor Tao's Symposium.

When I came to the multimedia center of Lu University, I found that there were many students outside. Everyone wanted to go in and attend Professor Tao's lecture.

However, most people have no chance to attend such lectures. Only those who are specially invited and have invitation letters can go in.

It was Li Mu who got him an electronic invitation letter last night, which has the same benefit as the paper invitation.

Just about to show the invitation letter to go in, I suddenly noticed a familiar girl standing in the crowd, who was the flower of Lu University, Lin Weiwei.

Wu Tian had a meal in Lin Weiwei's father's restaurant before. He met several thugs asking for trouble. At that time, Wu Tian paid 700000 yuan to help out.

It is from that time that Wu Tian met Lin Weiwei.

Later, they did not meet, but Lin Weiwei called him several times to thank Wu Tian for his help to their family. At this time, Lin Weiwei wore a knee length school skirt and combed a ponytail. She was particularly beautiful in the crowd.

"Classmate Lin..."

Wu Tian walks over and pats Lin Weiwei on the shoulder and says hello with a smile.

"Ah

At the sight of Wu Tian, Lin Weiwei was pleasantly surprised. Her big eyes became brighter.
"Wu Tian, are you looking for me?"

"No Wu Tian shakes his head and looks at the beautiful girl in front of him. He immediately feels happy.

It is worthy of being the flower of Lu University. Her face is delicate and beautiful, and her nose is cute and cute. Especially those two big eyes are bright and moving like a spring.

"I thought you came to me!" Lin Weiwei gently smile, back her hands to her back, "by the way, thank you for helping us out last time. I will definitely try to return your 700000."

"It's OK."

"I've always wanted to find a chance to thank you. Why don't I invite you to dinner?"

"Not today." Wu Tian, with an embarrassed smile, politely refused: "I heard that Professor Tao is going to give a lecture in the multimedia center of your school this afternoon."

"Yes, Professor Tao does come here to give lectures this afternoon, but we can't get in without an invitation." Lin Weiwei shrugs her shoulders and looks helpless.

Like other students, she wanted to admire Professor Tao.

However, I heard that this lecture is not open to the public. Only special guests are eligible to attend.

She and her classmates can only look outside.

"Don't worry, I have..." Wu Tian originally wanted to take out the e-invitation.

But before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by a long legged boy.

"Wei Wei, you are here too!" The long legged boy ran over to greet Lin Weiwei with a smile.

"Well!"

Lin Weiwei reluctantly smiles and points to Wu Tian beside him and introduces: "he is my friend Wu Tian."

"Friend?" The long legged boy glanced at Wu Tian with a scrutinizing look. He puffed up his chest and introduced himself: "I'm Lin Tao, a classmate of Weiwei. I'm also the president of the student union in the Department."

When he said that he was the president of the student union, his expression was extremely proud, as if he was proud of his corrupt status.

CHAPTER 119:

"Hello!" Wu Tian smiles and says hello.

Lin Tao didn't appreciate it and asked coldly, "I think you have some eyes. Which school are you from?"

"Luzhou University of technology."

"It turned out to be a student of Polytechnic University, which was several grades lower than that of our university." Lin Tao curled his lips contemptuously, and interrogated the prisoner like, "what do you want to do in our school?"

"I'll..."

Before Wu Tian finished speaking, Lin Tao interrupted him: "if you want to pursue Lin Weiwei, I advise you to die of this heart. The students of your university of technology are not qualified."

Obviously, he is interested in Lin Weiwei. He obviously regards Wu Tian as his rival in love, and his words will be so ugly.

Next to Lin Weiwei hastily explained: "Chairman Lin, don't get me wrong. Wu Tian came here to attend Professor Tan's lecture."

"Attend a lecture?"

"Yes."

"Ha ha!" Lin Tao grinned and sarcastically said, "just like you, would you like to attend Professor Tao's lecture?"

"Yes."

"I said this classmate, do you not look in the mirror when you go out? Just like this, you still want to attend the lecture?" Lin Tao seems to have heard Tianda's joke with a smile in his eyebrows.

This kind of smile made Wu Tian very unhappy and asked, "what's wrong with me to attend Professor Tao's lecture?"

"Professor Tao is a top economic and management major in the south of the Yangtze River. Ordinary people are not qualified to listen to him. Only specially invited guests are eligible." After saying this, Lin Tao took an invitation from his pocket and boasted, "do you know what this is?"

"Invitation letter for Professor Tao's lecture."

"Yes, only an invitation is eligible to enter. Do you?"

"Yes."

"Just blow it Lin Tao is the president of the student union, relying on a lot of efforts to get this invitation.

He didn't believe that the boy from the other school could get the invitation.

"You said you had an invitation, but you took it out to let me see it," he said

"Here it is." Wu Tian took out his mobile phone and downloaded the e-invitation from his mailbox.

"Er..."

Seeing the invitation letter, Lin Tao's smile turned to be worse than pig liver. He didn't expect that the boy could really take out the invitation.

After a closer look, he was stunned and exclaimed: "you are Letters from distinguished guests. "

The invitation letter of Professor Tao's lecture is divided into two categories: one is ordinary invitation, the other is high-grade VIP invitation.

Only those with special Malpractice and economic influence can become VIP and get VIP invitation.

But I didn't expect that the boy in front of him even held a VIP invitation letter, which was several levels higher than him.

Thanks to his ridicule of the boy just now, he didn't expect that the invitation letter from the boy was more corrupt than him.

All of a sudden, I felt the whole face was burning hot, as if I had been slapped hard, and the taste was hard.

"Ah, an invitation for distinguished guests." Next to Lin Weiwei can't help but exclaim.

She did not expect that Wu Tian had an invitation letter, but it was still an invitation letter for distinguished guests. The words "VIP" were particularly eye-catching.

"According to the information on the ticket, I can take people in this invitation. Wei Wei, do you want to go in with me?" Wu Tian tried to ask.

"Good!" Lin Weiwei nods hard. She can't get such a good chance to listen to Professor Tao.

"Let's go." Wu Tian takes Lin Weiwei's arm and pushes aside the crowd towards the multimedia center.

This is the first time that Lin Weiwei was held by a boy. She felt a little embarrassed, but she didn't retract her arm.

Lin Tao stood in the same place and watched their backs go further and further. He was almost mad.

Seeing the foreign school boy take Lin Weiwei away from his side, he can only do sullen but helpless.

After gnashing one's teeth for a long time, he quickly followed the two men in.

The multimedia center is full of people, most of them famous scholars or professors, and some of them are business celebrities.

Wu Tian takes Lin Weiwei to the front row of the VIP seat, and then Lin Tao follows him, just his seat is behind the two.

Looking at the two people talking and laughing in front of him, Lin Tao's face is red and his ears are red. He wants to make Wu Tian embarrassed.

At 4:30, Professor Tao arrived as scheduled.

All the guests stood up to show their respect and love for Professor Tao.

Although Professor Tao is more than 60 years old, he does not look old at all. He is shining with glasses and has a certain spirit of immortality.

He went to the chair with a smile on his face and waved to the crowd: "good afternoon, everyone. Thank you for coming to my lecture. Please sit down."

With these words, he sat down in the chair, and all the guests were seated.

Let's start with a few topics today

After a few simple opening remarks, Professor Tao went straight to the topic and began to explain several major topics of economics and management. Everyone on the stage listened with great interest and devoted themselves to this lecture for fear of being distracted and missing the wonderful content.

Wu Tian is also very serious. It is rare to hear such a good lecture. He is more attentive than anyone else.

Professor Tao talked about three topics in succession, which won continuous applause from the audience. Everyone loved Professor Tao's courses very much.

After listening to these courses, Wu Tian benefited a lot. He felt that his ears were baptized and nurtured.

Professor Tao's content is very small, but it is very delicate. After listening to it, I feel that the whole person has enriched a lot.

After the lecture, Professor Tao said with a smile: "there is a lot of knowledge about economics and management. I randomly selected two guests to express some different opinions."

As soon as this was said, all the guests on the stage got nervous.

In this case, no one wants to be chosen.

After all, this is a professional lecture. There are many school leaders and elites at all levels on the scene. No matter who comes to the stage to express his opinions, it is just like playing a knife in front of Guan Gong.

What's more, in such a large field, for ordinary students, few people do not have stage fright.

As the crowd waited anxiously, Professor Tao selected one of the invited guests and immediately called out, "please come to the stage and explain to you."

Hearing this, the others were relieved. All their eyes fell on Wu Tian unconsciously, waiting for him to come on stage to explain to everyone.

But Lin Tao, who was sitting behind him, couldn't help gloating. He looked at Wu Tian as if he was watching a good play. He watched Wu Tian and saw how the boy would be disgraced later.

Under the gaze of the public, Wu Tian got up slowly and walked to the rostrum.

To tell the truth, he was also very nervous at this time. After all, it was the first time that he had come to such a large-scale speech. Without preparation, anyone would be nervous.

"Poof, hahaha..."

Under the stage, Lin Tao couldn't help laughing.

Seeing Wu Tian's tense appearance, Lin Tao is very happy. He can't help but put his head to Lin Weiwei's ear side and sneers in a low voice: "Weiwei, do you think this boy will be scared to pee his pants?"

"What's funny? You're nervous when you go up." Lin Weiwei white Lin Tao one eye, most hate this guy gloating at people's jokes.

CHAPTER 120:

"I just thought it was funny." Lin Tao still couldn't help gloating. He said, "Weiwei, I can't say a word later. It's really a shame. I've lost all the faces of the University of technology."

"Well, don't talk." Lin Weiwei leaves such a sentence, don't bother to talk to Lin Tao again.

To tell the truth, she is also pinching a cold sweat for Wu Tian.

If Wu Tian can't speak out later, or if he is nervous and trembling, won't he become the laughingstock of the audience?

"Let's wait for a good show." Seeing that Lin Weiwei likes to ignore her, Lin Tao can't say anything more.

Now all you need to do is wait and see.

After Wu Tian's nervous embarrassment, let's see how he humiliates the boy.

Under the gaze of the public, Wu Tian went to the rostrum. When he saw the warm smile on Professor Tao's face, all the tension in his heart instantly disappeared.

Recently, I have also experienced a lot, including restaurant owner, technology company and live platform investor.

With some big boss and big customers have contact, these let him get a lot of tempering.

And he also read a lot of books, psychological quality is 100 times better than before.

So he soon calmed down and calmed his nervous heart. He bowed slightly to Professor Tao: "thank you for giving me this opportunity."

After that, he said to the people's Congress in a generous way: "distinguished leaders, distinguished guests, and dear students."

"Professor Tao is one of my most respected scholars. After listening to his course, I have benefited a lot. Now, I would like to express some thoughts on Professor Tao's course. If there is something wrong, please forgive me."

The opening remarks of a few short sentences are capable and powerful, gentlemanly and forceful, with no stage fright.

Such a perfect opening speech can't help but make the audience look at it differently.

The guests were also worried that the students would be nervous and embarrassed when they came to the stage. At this time, they found that the student's performance was very good.

Even Lin Weiwei was shocked by Wu Tian's temperament.

She didn't expect that Wu Tian was young, but she showed a good temperament and a bit of the authority of a leader.

Lin Tao, who was waiting to see the joke, was also confused.

He thought that Wu Tian would shiver when he came to power. He could not say a word nervously, but the result was just the opposite.

After the boy came to the stage, he was generous, and his voice was sonorous and forceful, showing the demeanor of a speaker.

I can't believe that a college student can be so calm on the stage, without any stage fright in the face of leaders and guests.

Under the gaze of the public, Wu Tian went straight to the theme: "about economy and management, this is a proposition worth pondering for all mankind..."

Next, Wu Tian talked about his views on economy and management.

During this period of time, he read a lot of books on economics and management, combined with the Wu family's records of how to deal with affairs, and recent investment practice, naturally he can publish some unique insights.

When he spoke, he was passionate, like a general commanding thousands of troops. Every word was full of emotion.

Lin Weiwei looked silly under the stage.

With her eyes staring at Wu Tian and listening to Wu Tian's deep understanding of economy and management, she felt as if she had been hit by a heat wave.

I never thought that a young student could speak such a boring thing as economics and management so full of mystery and emotion.

In particular, Wu Tian's impassioned and passionate style can mobilize all the cells in her body.

Handsome.

It's so cool.

At this time, Wu Tian on the stage is so handsome and suffocating.

She has never appreciated a man with this kind of eyes. This time, she is deeply attracted by Wu Tian and her eyes are full of infatuation.

I didn't expect that the boy was so excellent.

Not only Lin Weiwei was attracted, but all the guests were deeply affected by Wu Tian's speech.

In everyone's eyes, Wu Tian's cognition is unique and interesting, his narrative style is different, and his discourse is full of love for economy and management, so that he can be so deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

Although Wu Tian's explanation is not as professional as that of Professor Tao, his language expression ability is more attractive.

Anyway, all the girls present were deeply infatuated with Wu Tian's explanation. Looking at Wu Tian's passionate performance on the stage, everyone had a feeling of falling in love.

Of course, boys are also affected by these explanations, and their bodies are full of passion as if they were ignited.

Even those leaders and experts on the spot couldn't help nodding secretly. They agreed with Wu Tian from the bottom of their hearts.

Lin Tao has been confused for a long time. He didn't expect that Wu Tian was not only a little nervous, but also explained such abuses.

He couldn't help but wonder if the boy was a student or a speaker?

It's a bit of a perversion.

The most shocking scene was Professor Tao. He did not expect that the student named Wu Tian could be so calm on the stage. Listening to Wu Tian's views and cognition of economic management, his facial expression is constantly changing, but more is gratification and joy.

"Pa pa pa pa..."

After the speech, warm applause broke out from the audience for a long time.

All the guests were deeply impressed by the speech. They all applauded from the bottom of their hearts.

After the applause, all the guests couldn't help talking in a low voice and wanted to know the details of Wu Tian.

Some people recognized that Wu Tian was a student of the University of technology, and they all thumbed up one after another, praising Wu Tian for his face.

Even a lot of leaders of Ludu are still negotiating to let Wu Tian transfer to another school, intending to dig him to Ludu.

"The above are some of my humble opinions on economics and management, which only represent personal views. I hope you can understand the shortcomings." Wu Tian bowed to the crowd and turned to step down.

Many girls got up and shook hands with Wu Tian.

Wu Tian politely waved to everyone and turned back to his seat.

Lin Weiwei stares at Wu Tian and swallows her saliva. After a long time, she asks, "Hello, are you really a student of Polytechnic University?"

"Of course Wu Tian nods hard. He is embarrassed by Lin Weiwei's burning eyes.

"Wow, your university of technology is so good. I can't help being jealous if you can teach such excellent students." Lin Weiwei holds a small face, like a fan Mei.

To be exact, in fact, she looks more like a narcissist.

"I'm not as good as you said." Wu Tian grabs his head awkwardly and turns to look at Lin Tao.
"Chairman Lin, do you think so?"

"I..." Lin Tao is eager to find a crack to get in.

At this time, he is not qualified to evaluate Wu Tian.

Originally, he wanted to see Wu Tian make a fool of himself in public. As a result, he was outstanding and became the focus of the audience. He was admired and loved by countless people. Even the school leaders praised him.

Especially to see Lin Weiwei's infatuated eyes on Wu Tian, he was so jealous.

"Chairman Lin, please give me more advice." Wu Tianqian smiles modestly. This is obviously to slap Lin Tao in the face.

Lin Tao lowered his head and couldn't even fart.
