

Chapter 1285 The Way To Save Him

---

"What should we do? Dragon, hang on!" Jaime was in a panic and at a loss what to do.

Trevor was dizzy, and his vision was blurred.

He gritted his teeth and said decisively, "There should be a first-aid box on the boat. Bring it to me."

Jaime had no idea what Trevor planned to do, but he did as he was asked and hurriedly took out the first-aid box over.

"Here you go. However, it contains no antidote," Jaime said as he handed the box to Trevor.

Trevor's ears were buzzing so much that he couldn't hear what Jaime was saying.

He forced himself to calm down and open the box.

He soon found what he was looking for—a knife, medical alcohol, and hemostatic powder.

There were also painkillers, but Trevor couldn't use them.

Bess, Asho, and Jaime didn't know how to deal with the wound, so Trevor had to stay sober and do it himself.

Trevor quickly disinfected the knife with the medical alcohol and, without hesitation, began to cut off the skin surrounding the wound.

"Ah!" A loud scream escaped Bess' mouth.

"Dragon! Don't you feel the pain?" Bess asked, covering her mouth with her hand. The bloody scene made her squeamish.

Trevor gave no reply. His teeth were clenched as he struggled to endure the pain.

The severe pain temporarily dispelled the dizziness Trevor was feeling. His face was pale, and he was soaked with sweat.

He tried his best to keep his hands steady amidst the waves and winds as he cut out the flesh on his shoulder that the poison had gotten to.

Jaime and Asho both watched him, their eyes full of shock and admiration.

They didn't dare make a sound for fear of distracting Trevor.

Trevor finally finished cutting out the contaminated flesh surrounding the wound. His shoulder and arm were covered in blood.

He sprinkled the hemostatic powder on his shoulder, causing his body to shake in pain.

The combined effect of the poison and blood loss left Trevor feeling very weak. He was barely able to pick up his wet phone.

Luckily, the phone was still working.

Trevor dialed Madison's number and said, his voice barely audible, "Help! I'm in Corden. I've been poisoned..."

Trevor passed out halfway through his sentence.

He fell into Bess' arm as he lost consciousness.

When Trevor finally regained consciousness, he found himself in an unrecognizable place.

"You are finally awake! Madison! Sally! Dragon is awake!" Bess exclaimed excitedly.

Madison and Sally soon came over.

Sally heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Bess told us what

Chapter 1285 The Way To Save Him 🎁 +120 Points at most happened. You were careless, and it almost cost you your life.

Fortunately, the wound was treated in time, and the poison wasn't quite potent. Otherwise, you'd have been dead."

Madison shook her head and said, "We rushed to Corden overnight after receiving your call. I heard from Asho that you had a fight with the Murray family. Is this related to the matter you are investigating?"

She knew who Trevor really was.

Trevor smiled weakly, struggled to a sitting position, and said, "Thank you. You are right. However, I see this as an opportunity since I survived it. Mobius and the head of the Murray family think I'm dead. Maybe they'll act more recklessly from now on. I'm in the dark, and they're in the light. This might be my chance to get them!"

Madison sighed and said, "I won't try to change your mind. But be careful."

Bess said firmly, "Dragon, if you have a plan, just tell me. I will listen to you!"

Trevor took a good look around and found he was in a hotel room. He became worried that the Murray family would find this place.

Noticing Trevor's worried expression, Bess said, "There's nothing to worry about. Jaime booked the room, and the hotel is not a property of the Murray family. We should be safe."

Trevor heaved a sigh of relief and began to explain his plan to deal with the three Mobius members and the Murray family.

After some discussions, the plan was finally decided upon.

Asho and Bess left the hotel and pretended to have just come ashore. They immediately went to the police station to apply for police protection.

According to Trevor's estimation, the news would soon get to the traitor in the police station, Edlin.

Once Edlin got the news, the Murray family would get the news.

Chapter 1286 Perverts

Things developed as exactly as Trevor expected.

Edlin was pleased when he learned Asho and Bess had gone to the police for help.

He immediately reported it to Richard, who wasted no time informing his father, Ferrell.

However, Ferrell wasn't that pleased with the news and frowned.

"Mobius shouldn't get involved now that the police are on the case. Richard, take the mole with you and catch Bess and Asho. We should stop them from divulging any information. The connection between the Murray family and Mobius should remain a secret. We must capture Asho and Bess to silence them. Otherwise, we will have to kill them."

Richard nodded ominously. "Got it."

Stroking his beard, Ferrell darted his eyes on his son's injured arm and added, "I remember Aldwin knows how to fight. Take him with you."

Touching his broken right arm, wrapped in a cast from around his neck, Richard said coldly, "Don't worry, Dad. I'll make sure Asho and Bess keep their mouths shut."

After excusing himself, Richard set off with Edlin and Aldwin to Trevor's apartment.

Edlin informed them that Asho and Bess hid there while waiting for the police's approval of their appeal.

Having thought of something, Aldwin ran his tongue over his lips and egged on Richard.

"I heard Bess is Dragon's girlfriend. He came to the party as her boyfriend, didn't he? But he's already dead. Why don't we have some fun with his girlfriend?"

Richard squinted his eyes. "Bess? Well, I have to admit she's pretty attractive."

Aldwin rubbed his hands excitedly. "Oh, she damn is! We shouldn't let this chance slide. I'll fuck her after you do."

The two looked at each other and smiled lasciviously.

Edlin shuddered on the inside as he overheard their conversation and pretended he wasn't listening.

When the three arrived at Trevor's apartment, they heard movement inside.

"Huh! Gotcha!" Richard sneered and forced the door open with a slam.

Startled by the noise, Asho and Bess both turned their heads toward the door.

Bess's eyes widened in fright. "Richard! Aldwin! Why are you here? How did you find this place? Fuck off! You are not welcome here! Get out!"

However, Richard, Aldwin, and Edlin walked inside and closed the door, ignoring her words.

When he looked around and didn't see Trevor, Richard touched his broken arm and snorted. "Looks like Dragon did die of poison. That bastard was sure lucky. He died so easily!"

Aldwin laughed grimly. "Bess, I advise you to cooperate. This apartment is so remote. No one will come to save you even if you shout. Why don't you be obedient and have some fun sex with us?"

Rage surged inside Asho. He glared at Aldwin and roared, "Disgusting perverts! She's your cousin!"

Richard and Aldwin exchanged glances before erupting in

They had malicious expressions on their faces as they strode over.

"Cousin? And so? It's more exciting to have sex with her!" Aldwin licked his lips and leered at Bess's big bust and slender waist.

Richard sneered smugly, thinking it was Bess' honor to have this chance to sleep with him.

Petrified, Bess stepped back and warned, "Don't come closer! Perverts! Damn you! You will be punished!"

However, Aldwin found her futile resistance hot. His lust grew even more as he watched the fear on her face.

As they backed away in vigilance and fright, Asho and Bess got closer and closer to the door of the master bedroom.

---

"What? Is this the master bedroom? I bet this was probably Dragon's room!" Aldwin laughed lewdly. "Well, Bess, I didn't know you would like to have sex here. You must be excited to do it on your boyfriend's bed, isn't it?"

Richard laughed out loud and jutted his chin toward the bedroom.

Aldwin understood immediately. He hurried over to the closed bedroom door.

Richard walked toward Bess and said arrogantly, "You should feel honored I want to have sex with you. So behave yourself. I may allow you and your father to leave. Otherwise, today, you both will meet your maker!"

However, when Aldwin pushed open the door, they were shocked to their very core.

There were several guns pointed at them.

Kermit, the police director, stood inside. His face was expressionless when he said, "Go on. I'm listening."

Aldwin fell to the floor in fear. He almost pissed his pants.

Although he had practiced martial arts for many years, nothing prepared him for guns pointed at his head.

The arrogance slipped from Richard's face. His eyes filled with fear.

Astonished, he looked at Edlin. Like a wild man, he flew into a rage and punched him in the face.

"Damn you! How could you betray us?"

"What?" Edlin was knocked to the floor. He covered his bleeding nose and shouted in pain. "No! I didn't! I don't even know what the fuck is going on!"

Edlin curled on the floor in fear and despair.

Kermit was here with several armed policemen. It seemed as if he was well prepared.

Edlin hadn't gotten any news about it.

That only meant that Kermit did it without telling him.

Edlin panicked.

It only meant one thing. His cover had been blown long ago!

Richard was furious and wanted to kick Edlin.

"Enough!" Kermit yelled sternly.

Richard looked on gloomily. He grabbed Edlin and used him as a temporary human shield.

Richard pushed him towards the bedroom and rushed toward the door.

He was so quick the police were taken aback. By the time they got into action, he had opened the door to escape.

However, Richard came face to face with a person he had never dreamed of running into.

"Dragon? Why are you here? Aren't you supposed to be dead?"

Horrified, Richard took a couple of steps behind. His eyes widened in disbelief and color drained from his face as if he had seen a ghost.

Trevor's was expressionless. He ignored Richard's questions and punched him in the face.

Why was Trevor still alive? It had nothing to do with Richard.

Caught off guard, Richard was knocked to the floor.

Trevor looked down and sneered, "You know what? I haven't liked you for a very long time."

He moved forward slowly like a panther stalking his prey. "I was in a hurry to leave the yacht before. So I didn't get the chance to deal with you. But now I have time."

Trevor suddenly kicked Richard in the stomach.

"How dare you plan the trampling accident? You don't deserve to live!"

Richard felt he was going to vomit. But Trevor didn't stop. He kicked again.

"You're a beast. You even wanted to rape your own cousin!"

Trevor continued to kick.

"You think you're cool now that you mingle with Mobius?"

Trevor, one by one, reminded Richard of his crimes.

Kermit stood silently and calmly.

He wasn't afraid to stop Trevor, but the truth was that he didn't want Trevor to stop.

Richard started to howl and curl in pain. He looked miserable as he spat out blood.

But these two scums of the Murray family deserved it.

Chapter 1288 The End Of The Murray Family

---

Only after Trevor grew breathless from kicking Richard was he satisfied.

"Ahem!"

Richard coughed blood. He supported his body with one arm as his legs twitched uncontrollably.

Although he was in pain and badly thrashed, his eyes held anger. He looked like a feral wolf.

Richard threatened through gritted teeth, "Dragon! You're going to die! Mark my words! This time, you've thoroughly pissed me off. The Murray family will see to it that your death is brutal. I'm not ashamed to admit that I couldn't beat you. However, that's not an issue now. My family background is a thousand times greater than my capability. Take a close look at these cops. In a few days, they will kneel and bow their heads in respect when I leave."

As soon as Kermit heard these words, his face grew ugly in anger. However, he knew there was truth in what Richard spoke.

The Murray family was one of the three super families and had a lot of influence. Had Trevor not been present, the police wouldn't have dared to arrest Richard.

Although Trevor was well aware of the Murray family's influence, he sneered.

Richard saw Trevor's expression and glared at him. "What the hell are you laughing about? Once my family gets ahold of you, you will be forced to lick my shoe! I'll see to it that you do it!"

Trevor couldn't help laughing. "Do you really think that's Chapter 1288 The End Of The Murra 🎁 +120 Points at most possible? I wonder whether you will still be this confident when you won't have the Murray family backing you."

Richard snorted. "Oh, you're so stupid! Do you really think the police have the guts to do anything to the Murray family? The mayor, the governor, the councilors... If the Murray family is willing, the pressure can come from anywhere. No one will be able to touch me!"

Trevor slowly sat on his haunches and bent forward. His face was inches away from Richard's.

"What if Klein is in the picture?"

Although his voice was low, in Richard's ear, it seemed to boom like a clap of thunder.

Klein!

Richard's pale face grew frightened. The arrogance on his face changed to panic.

Other members of the Murray family might be oblivious about Klein, but Richard was going to be a trainee of Mobius. He was well aware of Klein.

"No... Impossible..." Richard's face twitched in horror.

The terror he felt when he realized Trevor was alive was nothing compared to what he felt now.

He never thought he would come face to face with Klein.

Klein was a mysterious organization established by the army, and the Murray family wouldn't want to have a face-off with them.

It was established only to deal with Mobius!

Trevor didn't give him time to think much. He quickly straightened up and waved his hand.

"Arrest him and keep him in solitary confinement."

The police immediately dragged Richard and Aldwin away.

Even Edlin, the spy, was handcuffed. His face was pale.

He lowered his head in despair because he knew he was done for.

The police wouldn't spare him. Traitors were hated the most.

Regardless of the Murray family's fate, they wouldn't bail him out. Once exposed, he would become worthless and a liability to them. They could even kill him!

Kermit approached Trevor with something on his mind. He hesitated at first. Then he asked in a low voice, "Sir, is Klein really going to take any action? I mean no offense, but there was truth in whatever Richard said. Once the higher authorities apply pressure, my seniors will give me orders to release these people."

Trevor looked at Kermit and smiled easily.

He was a very thoughtful person.

By now, Klein would have gathered the army near Corden to monitor the Murray family's manor. As soon as they received the order, they would attack.

On the yacht, Trevor had collected evidence that the Murray family was hand in glove with the Mobius. Along with the accusations of bribed police officers, the Murray family under the leadership of Ferrell was definitely doomed.

Truth be told, Kermit was worried about his position.

If the Murray family was safe, they would pressurize him through various channels. He would even lose his position.

Trevor assured Kermit by patting his shoulder gently.

"Don't worry. They will not have a chance. Your contribution has been great."

Although Trevor didn't say it clearly, Kermit heard what he implied. He finally smiled happily.

There was no doubt that the Murray family would be destroyed today.

There was no need to worry about Richard and Aldwin's arrest.
