

Chapter 1357 Conflict At The Exhibition

The cosmetics exhibition was held in Zayden today.

Trevor wore a neat black suit. He was accompanied by his assistant and Sheena, the director of the design department.

They came to attend this cosmetics exhibition as the representatives of Severich.

Trevor had a confident smile because of the mysterious new product he brought.

When they arrived at the entrance of the exhibition hall, Sheena was stopped by a man.

"Hey, Sheena! I'm glad to see you here."

The man was in his forties with a pair of gold-rimmed glasses. He had thinning hair and a hypocritical smile.

He added, "How have you been? As far as I know, Severich hasn't launched any new products recently, right? Ha-ha! Is this the new general manager of Severich? He looks very ordinary. And he is young. I'm afraid he will find it difficult to lead the company into making good achievements."

Sheena couldn't help frowning when she heard the man's words. She glared at him discontentedly.

"Cormac, you don't need to worry about our company. It's our responsibility."

While listening to their conversation, Trevor couldn't help raising his eyebrows slightly.

He knew Shining Company. It was a competitor of Severich.

Seeing Trevor's expression, the assistant explained in a low voice, "He is Cormac Shaw, and he is a hypocritical person. Although he always wears a smile, he has a wicked heart. They have been competing with our company in Zayden for many years. This time, they plagiarized our new product. Then they promoted and listed it first."

Trevor nodded slightly and was about to say something.

But at this moment, a familiar figure approached them with a smile and stopped beside Cormac Shaw.

It turned out to be Jonah, who had disappeared for some time.

"Ha-ha! Dragon, Sheena, long time no see. How are you doing recently? I'm afraid that if Severich can't offer any decent new product, the cosmetics exhibition will be a great show for Shining Company. And the Shining Company will shine brightly and become the most outstanding at the exhibition," Jonah said sarcastically with a sneer.

Sheena's frown deepened even more. Obviously, it was Jonah who stole Severich's design work and forwarded it to their competitor, Shining Company.

She was so angry that she stomped her feet and shouted, "Jonah Cruz! You used to act like a nice guy in Severich, and I was almost deceived by you. I was so wrong to think you were a good person. How dare you steal the company's confidential information and sell it to our competitor. You are the most shameless person I have ever met."

Jonah smiled playfully and waved his hand.

"Ha! What are you talking about? Be careful with your words. Otherwise, I will sue you for slander."

Cormac stretched out his arm, put it on Jonah's shoulder, and smiled.

"Don't misunderstand us. Jonah and I are just good friends. He doesn't work in Shining Company. And since we are old friends,

I invited him to this exhibition."

Jonah and Cormac looked at each other and smiled.

While smiling, Jonah glanced at Trevor.

But deep inside him, he despised Trevor. After all, Trevor was the one who kicked him out of the company. So since he had a hard time, he couldn't let Trevor have a good time too.

Trevor sneered, "You look smug."

"Humph! You are so stubborn." Jonah looked at Trevor disdainfully and snorted. "You can't even produce a new product. Without me in Severich, I'm afraid it will decline."

Then, he walked into the entrance of the exhibition center side by side with Cormac, laughing wildly.

"Sir..." Sheena called out softly, looking at Trevor.

Trevor also looked at her, smiled, and said confidently, "Don't worry. Let them be happy for a while. Their happiness now will be replaced by embarrassment later."
