

Chapter 1522 His Cute Girlfriend

Trevor didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he saw the nervous faces of Luisa and Balfour. It was as if they stood guard against thieves.

He put down the tableware and wiped his mouth.

"You misunderstood. I considered several aspects before finally concluding. First, we both are on the same route. Right? Luisa lives next door. You have to go to the office, and even I've got to go to work. So we have to travel the same route."

Trevor cracked a joke to ease the tension in the room. He continued, "Second, Luisa has just recovered from her illness and is still weak. It's too risky for her to drive on her own. Balfour, as her brother, I know you're worried about her safety, right? Besides, I have some medical skills. I can give Luisa timely treatment if she falls ill again. Third, Luisa, I can help you avoid a situation like what happened at the supermarket."

Trevor's words seemed to be reasonable, confident, and convincing.

Luisa and Balfour exchanged looks but didn't refuse.

Balfour was still sitting on the fence. However, after giving it much thought, he couldn't find a reason to say no. So he could only mutter in a low voice, "Dragon, don't play tricks, or I will not spare you."

Trevor only smiled and didn't say another word.

The next day, Trevor became Luisa's exclusive driver.

He opened the door of the white Chevrolet car, smiled, and stretched out his hand in welcome. "Please get in the car."

Luisa sat in the back seat of the car. She felt a bit awkward.

After Trevor drove some distance, she grew restless. She took the initiative to break the silence.

"Dragon, you've helped me so many times. I really appreciate it. I know you're a good person. But let me tell you that you don't need to be with me. You deserve a better woman as your partner. We can't be together."

Trevor suppressed a giggle as he held the steering wheel.

When he glanced in the rearview mirror, he noticed that Luisa looked very serious.

To cover his giggle, Trevor coughed lightly and teased, "But what if I just like you?"

Luisa bit her lip and didn't know how to respond to that.

She couldn't make out whether he was just joking or using a joke to express his feelings for her.

Luisa swallowed and said firmly, "Although you're a good person, I don't think you're as good as my boyfriend."

Trevor smiled and asked, "Your boyfriend's name is Trevor Sanderson, right? What if I'm better than him?"

After that, he couldn't help but cover his mouth with his hand and snicker.

Luisa snorted in an unladylike manner and folded her arms across her chest. It was obvious she was pissed.

Through the rearview mirror, Trevor clearly saw Luisa's reaction.

He couldn't help thinking that his girlfriend was so cute.

Trevor didn't dare to let on that he was laughing, or she would get angry.

Again he pretended to cough and tried his best to hide his happiness. "We have almost reached."
