

Chapter 1697 Overwhelm The Black Gold Union

Trevor quickly realized it was useless to mention Mobius here, as these people didn't seem to fear Mobius at all. So, he guessed he could only solve this matter by his strength.

Trevor took a deep breath, ready to throw the first punch.

Golden Tooth stretched out his hand, showing his hand where a finger had been cut off, and said fiercely, "You think you are invincible, right? Today, I will let you know how it feels when someone cuts your finger off!"

The leader of Black Gold Union was out at this time.

Golden Tooth took it upon himself to confront Trevor.

Suddenly, there was a gunshot.

Someone had just shot at Trevor out of nowhere. Debris of stone bricks flew in the air. Luckily for Trevor, the person who shot was not good at shooting, and he missed his target.

Even so, this shot made Trevor nervous.

He narrowed his eyes and looked intently at the direction where the gunshot came from, just in case the person decided to shoot again.

An annoyed Trevor roared and rushed forward at once.

In order to avoid a potential sneak attack, he ran forward in a zigzag. He ran straight towards the people of Black Gold Union, treating them as the human shields to block any bullets that might come again. The scene was a complete chaos.

The sounds of punches, screams and shouts filled the air.

The sounds of punches, screams and shouts filled the air.

Fearing that the gunman might accidentally hit him, Golden Tooth said loudly, "There are so many our companions here. Don't shoot!"

The gunman thought it made sense. He put down his pistol and joined the hand-to-hand combat.

Trevor who was originally afraid of being shot when he wasn't noticing, grinned when he heard Golden Tooth's words.

Now, he could show his full strength!

Black Gold Union henchmen were all good at fighting, but they were no match for Trevor when he unleashed his full strength.

It was only a matter of time before they were all defeated.

As Trevor threw punches and kicks, more screams and wails rang out. It was clear who was winning the fight.

The union members fell one after the other. Trevor kept punching and kicking, growing increasingly brave and fierce.

Golden Tooth had been hiding behind the crowd during the whole fight, and he couldn't believe what he saw. It was so shocking.

Seeing that Trevor had almost beaten all the people on the yard and there were only a few men left, Golden Tooth broke in a cold sweat. His first thought was to pick up the pistol the gunman had put down earlier.

Trevor immediately noticed what Golden Tooth had in mind. He took a step forward and ruthlessly kicked Golden Tooth who fell to the ground. Then, he bent down and picked up the pistol.

With a loud gunshot, the bullet hit the ground just a few inches from Golden Tooth's foot.

"I was wrong! I was wrong!"

Seeing that he stood no chance to win the battle anymore, Golden Tooth quickly went on his knees and begged for mercy.

Trevor glared at the despicable man at his feet and said coldly, "Looks like you really had a death wish!"

Then, he hit Golden Tooth hard in the face with the pistol grip.

The blow was so violent that the golden teeth in his mouth were ejected, and he spat out blood and saliva at the same time.

In extreme pain, the man screamed and fell to the ground. He almost passed out due to the pain.

Glaring at the man with an unfazed expression, Trevor asked coldly, "I'll say it again. Take me where Esteban is!"

However, after the harsh beating Trevor had given him, Golden Tooth couldn't even speak. A slight movement of his lips or any other muscle would cause him immense pain. He crawled helplessly on the ground, unable to get up.

Trevor lost his patience this time. He kicked Golden Tooth hard again
