

Chapter 1698 The Leader Of The Union

Golden Tooth was scared to death so much so that he broke into a cold sweat. Enduring the extreme pain in his body, he stood up and quickly said in a pleading tone, "Raven, I'm sorry, I'm ready to lead the way and take you to find your man. Please, spare me! You can ask me anything and I'll do it!"

Trevor snorted coldly. Golden Tooth was a ruffian who would do anything to survive.

With another snort, Trevor ordered coldly, "Lead the way."

Golden Tooth took Trevor straight to the back room inside the villa. It was in this room that the people he had caught this morning were locked up.

He had discovered this room this very day after he helped the members of the Black Gold Union lock up the people they caught this morning here. He could use this information as leverage to save his own life.

The light in the back room was dim, and an iron net divided the room into small cubicles.

The people locked inside the room had their hands tied up and their mouths taped.

Looking at all these innocent people, Trevor frowned deeply.

He grabbed the key hanging on the wall and opened the locks of the cubicles. In a fit of anger, he destroyed the iron net, and ultimately released everyone.

These people were so grateful and happy to be free at last that they cheered and thanked Trevor earnestly as they rushed out from the sinister room.

Trevor walked deep into the back room and at last, he saw Esteban. When his eyes fell on the little boy, he breathed a sigh of relief. "Are you all right?" Trevor asked gently.

Tears welled up in Esteban's eyes when he saw Trevor. As soon as Trevor removed the tape on his mouth, Esteban apologized guiltily.

"Raven, I'm sorry I let you down."

The poor boy felt so bad he was struggling hard to hold back his tears.

Trevor sighed and comforted Esteban, "It's all right. Your safety is the most important when you carry out any task."

Esteban nodded heavily. "I know."

At last, he couldn't hold back his tears any longer and they ran freely down his cheeks.

Esteban was deeply moved by the fact that Trevor had come to save him.

He grew up in an orphanage and had never seen his parents. Now, he had regarded Trevor as his family.

Alas, Trevor had no idea what was on Esteban's mind. He looked around to make sure there was no other prisoners in the back room. After confirming that everyone had been freed, Trevor turned back to Esteban and said, "Let's go."

Esteban's sharp eyes soon fell on Golden Tooth who was hiding in a dark corner. As soon as he saw the man, he shouted, "You want to hide yourself!"

Golden Tooth was startled. He turned around in a hurry and tried to escape from the room.

Unfortunately for him, Trevor was quicker. He caught up and slapped him hard.

The few remaining teeth of Golden Tooth were almost all broken.

Trevor sneered, "It seems that you are not lucky, buddy."

Fearing for his life, Golden Tooth begged for mercy over and over and again. He barely had any more teeth left, so when he spoke, it was hard to get what he said. Trevor couldn't hear him clearly at all.

Annoyed, Trevor punched the thug heavily in the belly, knocking him to the floor. The pain was so intense that Golden Tooth passed out at once, with blood flowing from his mouth.

Trevor had achieved his goal. He taught Golden Tooth a good lesson and avenged Esteban.

Not long after the two of them left, Crocodile, the leader of Black Gold Union, returned to the villa with the union elites.

Crocodile was utterly shocked when he saw the messy villa and his gang members lying on the ground. He roared angrily, "Fuck! Who did this? Who had the nerve to mess up with Black Gold Union? Whoever it is, he's a dead meat!"

Sensing something, Crocodile immediately rushed to the back room with his men.

He was even more shocked by what he saw there. The iron net of the back room was completely broken, and the people he'd locked there were nowhere to be seen.

The only person in the empty back room was Golden Tooth who wriggled on the floor like a maggot.

Upon seeing the man on the floor, Crocodile's face darkened as he asked, "Tell me, what happened here?"

With tears all over his face, Golden Tooth sobbed, recounting what Trevor had done to Crocodile, albeit with a lot of exaggerations.

When he was done, he added on purpose, "When he left, he said that Black Gold Union is a group of losers and that he will kill to the very last one of you guys!"

Crocodile's face twitched and he had a hard time restraining his anger. He immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed a number. As soon as the call was connected, he ordered, "I want you to kill someone for me. I'll send you the details later!"

The man on the other end of the phone had never seen Crocodile so angry, so he quickly agreed to take the task.

After hanging up the phone, Crocodile turned to look at the door of the back room and announced to his men, "There is a guy who seems to think too highly of himself. He dares to provoke me! He's a dead meat! I've already asked the second top killer on the golden list to deal with him!"

Hearing that, Golden Tooth was overjoyed.

The people on the golden list were all hardcore killers with astounding fighting skills. They were as powerful as the killers of Mobius! The person ranked second on the list was definitely one of the best killers in the world.

Thinking of that, Golden Tooth cursed in his heart, "Brat! You are dead!"

The excitement, however, caused Golden Tooth to feel even more pain on his wounds and he howled in pain.

Crocodile glanced at him in disgust and said coldly, "Loser! Take this piece of shit out and deal with him!"
