

Chapter 1716 Conspiring To Crash The Black Gold Union

Midnight instructed Trevor to raid the Black Gold Union base camp.

Mobius had so many spies that Midnight had no trouble discovering the Black Gold Union stronghold. It must also be said that the latter did not really hide their stronghold. Thus, Midnight got the information with ease.

Trevor had already guessed that Midnight, who knew the workings of the Black Gold Union well, would show them no mercy now.

After Midnight told him where he was to meet the group of killers, Trevor quickly left the villa.

As soon as he left, he found a quiet and private place to call Rupert.

The phone was soon connected. Hearing the voice on the other end of the line, Trevor suppressed his glee and said to Rupert, "Midnight had arranged a group of killers to go with me and deal with the Black Gold Union! Ask the Bradley Organization to join us tonight."

Rupert was also overjoyed to hear that. "Damn! Really? How did you make it happen?"

Trevor didn't want to delve into that and simply ignored Rupert's question. "Forget about how I did it. Our urgent goal now is to discover the whereabouts of Bradley. How about this? You, along with the Bradley Organization, come here disguised as rioters and pretend to be my subordinates. During the raid, you can secretly arrest one or two leaders of Black Gold Union and take them back for interrogation."

Seeing that Trevor had actually thought of everything, Rupert immediately agreed. After they had covered all the details of the plan, Trevor hung up the phone. He was now ready to meet the group of killers sent by Midnight.

The Mobius killers were disciplined people with exceptional vigor. In less than ten minutes, all the killers sent by Midnight were already at the meeting place.

These scowl-faced, stern-looking men all exuded an aura of violence and murder. Their faces were full of bumps and scars which showed they weren't altar boys. Trevor looked keenly at the ten people in front of him and he immediately knew they were the elites of the Bat faction.

Chapter 1716 Conspiring To Crash The Black Gold Union

These killers were all arrogant and didn't seem to like taking orders at all. So even though Midnight had instructed them to follow Trevor's orders, they still showed Trevor no respect.

Trevor was surprised to see that Prescott didn't come. Apparently, Midnight didn't want Trevor and Prescott to bury the hatchet or he would have sent Prescott here too.

Trevor put on a fierce face and spoke to the group of killers. "Your lord, Midnight, has told you to follow my orders, so you better bear his words in mind. Now, you all go to the black market!"

The killers looked at Trevor with disdain. However, despite not respecting Trevor at all, these killers still followed his orders because their lord, Midnight, had instructed them to do so.

Looking at the fierce men in front of him, Trevor couldn't help but wonder how Black Gold Union would deal with them.

Meanwhile, Rupert had already informed Dominic about what was brewing, and the two sides arrived the appointed place almost at the same time.

Trevor quietly left the team to quickly hatch the action plan with Dominic.

A few minutes later, Trevor returned to the group of killers who were waiting for his orders. Standing in front of them, he shouted, "Those bastards from Black Gold Union are right in front. Let's rush in together! We'll let them have a taste of Mobius' power."

Among the killers were some who had disliked Black Gold Union for a long time and had been waiting for such an opportunity to deal with the organization. They went straight to the villa of the Black Gold Union, preparing for a massacre.

Trevor was the first to arrive at the door of the Black Gold Union villa. There stood a member of the organization brandishing a knife. He seemed to have been waiting for Trevor for a long time.

The man had a murderous look on his face, and his eyes were bloodshot. Glaring at Trevor, he shouted, "You must be Raven, right? I'll cut off your legs and tie you at the gate of the villa for a day. If you are still alive after that, I might spare your life, at least for the time being."

He was the murderer who ranked second in the golden list. His name was Demon.

Since the first time Trevor broke into the Black Gold Union villa, he had harbored a visceral hatred for Trevor and had been waiting impatiently for the opportunity to kill him. Alas, he had never had the chance to see Trevor again. Now, the day Demon had been waiting for so long finally came.

Staring at the man, Trevor grinned and said casually, "How arrogant!"

The man twisted his neck menacingly and aggressively waved the long knife in his hand.

He was about to taunt Trevor when he saw the other killers rushing over. Before Demon could react, he was surrounded by the killers of Mobius.

Demon's arrogant expression froze at once, and the ferocious look he had just now disappeared in an instant. He asked in panic, "What do you want to do? This is the territory of the Black Gold Union!"

With all the killers there, Trevor stared disdainfully at Demon and asked with a sneer, "What do you think we want to do?"

Recommended for you

Chasing Back What's Mine

"There will be no falling in love, we will only act as a loving couple when we are ...

102.3k views

Read