

Chapter 1744 Finally On Board

The gang leader's face froze. He didn't expect Trevor to have a pass.

He clenched his fists and sniffled. "Who knows if your pass is genuine or not? I have to check it carefully first."

Trevor didn't say anything and casually threw the pass to the man.

The gang leader carefully checked the pass two times, and when he was done, his face was gloomier.

The pass was authentic.

Would he really have no choice but to let Trevor go?

That would be a humiliation.

He couldn't let that happen.

Then suddenly, he thought of something and frowned. With a sly smile, he gave the pass back to Trevor. He had decided to deliberately delay Trevor and the people who were with him.

"Sorry but we're all new recruits here. We don't know anything about passes. But one of my relatives is from the Mobius Wolf faction. I'll ask him if he knows about it."

Trevor's face darkened and he was starting to lose patience. Despite the fact that he had a pass, this man still refused to let them leave. Bearing his annoyance, he squinted at the man and asked with a sneer, "What's the name of that relative of yours?"

Hearing Trevor's question, the gang leader smiled awkwardly.

He thought that Trevor was scared, so he raised his head and said arrogantly, "Goose!"

Trevor just needed to know the code name of the person. Without saying a word, he pulled out his cell phone and scanned the list of Wolf faction members that Lone Wolf himself had given him. Naturally, he found Goose's information bar at the bottom.

Trevor sneered and slowly read out the information on his phone. "Goose, thirty years old. He has joined Mobius six years ago. He is skilled with long knives and..."

Trevor read out all of Goose's information, even the name and address of his mistress.

The gang leader was shocked and exclaimed in confusion, "How do you know so much about Goose?"

Trevor looked at the man with disdain and said calmly, "I don't only know everything about him but also about you. I know everything there is to know about you."

Upon hearing that, the gang leader's face turned pale. Panicked, he wanted to ask other members of Mobius to help him.

However, when he glanced around, he found that there was not a single official member of Mobius at the port.

Trevor guessed what the man was thinking and said with a snort, "No need to look for them. They were all mobilized to crush the Black Gold Union!"

The gang leader was overwhelmed with fear at this time and asked in a trembling voice, "How, how do you know?"

With a faint smile, Trevor walked up to the man and patted his face. Then, he said in a chilling voice, "Because I'm the deputy leader of the Wolf faction! Do you still want to know why I'm leaving the city?"

The gang leader's eyes widened in shock and his mouth was hanging open. He couldn't believe the man in front of him was the deputy leader of the Wolf faction. He was so scared that his whole body was shaking.

At this moment, he was full of remorse. How on earth could he offend such a powerful person?

He was so frightened that he could hardly breathe. He directly knelt down to Trevor and begged for mercy.

"I... I'm sorry, sir. I was so blind that I didn't recognize you. Please forgive me!"

Trevor was in a hurry to leave with the association members, so he didn't want to cause any more trouble. He just sneered and asked, "Can we leave the port now?"

The gang leader dared not say no, and respectfully asked Trevor and the people following him to get on the ship.

The association members were stunned.

They couldn't believe they were really going to get on the ship now.

After confirming that everyone was on board, Trevor was about to get on the ship too.

At this moment, a stern voice suddenly came from behind.

"Raven, stop!"
