

Chapter 1800 Get Ready To Fight!

Looking very calm, Trevor analyzed the situation and said slowly, "Let me tell you a secret. Tucker is still alive!"

Green Bat was shocked to say the least, and he widened his eyes in disbelief. He was so shocked that he couldn't even make a sound.

Trevor noticed the look on Green Bat's face and he continued, "You must have heard that Tucker built the Singh Group from scratch, right? At the moment, the Singh Group merely desperately needs money. Do you think a business genius like Tucker can't handle such a small thing? Listen, I really want to help you! All Cheetah and Bear care about is getting their hands on the Sanderson family's assets you own. But if you don't have any assets, they won't have any reason to attack you."

Trevor looked really sincere, and Green Bat slowly believed him. What he didn't know was that Lone Wolf had ordered Trevor to kill all of them.

However, the thought that he should hide was far too humiliating for Green Bat. He gritted his teeth and said angrily, "Our faction is not easy to deal with! If they have the gall to attack me, then I will die but I'll drag them with me."

Trevor didn't like the idea. If Green Bat died, Trevor would have a hard time claiming those shares.

However, Trevor didn't let his feelings show and just persuaded Green Bat calmly.

"Why would you have to die? I have a way to let you live a good life and make sure no one takes away your shares of the Sanderson Group. You just have to listen to me."

Green Bat nodded silently and then motioned for Trevor to continue.

Trevor smiled and explained calmly, "You people of the Bat faction are all vulnerable now. Midnight is dead, and there's no one to protect you. You don't need me to tell you in what dire situation you're in right now, do you? If you kill Cheetah and Bear, Lone Wolf will definitely make you pay dearly!"

That had always been Green Bat's biggest fear. He looked at Trevor and asked worriedly, "So what should we do?"

At this point, Green Bat had total trust in Trevor.

Trevor's eyes shone with a hint of complacency but it passed so quickly that Green Bat didn't notice. After a short pause, Trevor said in a low voice, "Well, it's clear at this point that Cheetah and Bear are only interested in your shares. One of you should give up his shares. That way they will stop having their eyes on you. The person who handed over the shares can go in hiding for a while. Not only will he be out of danger, but he can plan an attack against Wolf faction and take them by surprise."

Trevor's words made a lot of sense and even Green Bat was speechless. A ferocious smile then appeared on Green Bat's face.

After hearing Trevor's suggestion, he quickly thought of several ways to deal with Cheetah.

Green Bat thought for a while and now, he looked much happier. He agreed with Trevor's suggestion.

"If I hand over the shares, I must cause a stir so that White Monkey's shares would also be naturally taken out. Most importantly, we must make sure Wolf faction knows about it."

Trevor and Green Bat carefully hatched their plan.

After leaving the bank, the first thing Trevor did was to call Cheetah and Bear. When the call was connected, he said in a deep voice, "Come to the ancient castle of the Sanderson family! You must be prepare to fight the Bat faction!"

As soon as Trevor hung up the phone, Cheetah and Bear set out.

Trevor met the two people in front of the castle and they walked in together.

Green Bat and White Monkey met the trio in the courtyard of the castle.

Green Bat glared at the three people and shouted angrily, "You have gone too far! All this while, you have been playing tricks behind our back! Come and fight me! I dare you!"

Trevor sneered in his heart.

Green Bat really acted according to the plan.

Just as Trevor was about to accept the challenge, Cheetah stopped him and said excitedly, "Sir, I didn't help last time and I let the Wolf faction down. This time, I want to make up for my past mistakes. Please allow me to fight!"

Although Cheetah's words sounded heartfelt, he was actually thinking something else.

When he watched the fight between Green Bat and Raven last time, he noticed that the two were very weak. So, he felt it would be a piece of cake to deal with Green Bat!

By fighting Green Bat, Cheetah would earn the right to claim part of the shares of the Sanderson family that Green Bat owned.

With a hideous grin on his face, Cheetah flexed his muscles impatiently, waiting for Green Bat to announce the stipulations of the fight.
