

Chapter 1804 Do As You Suggest

Upon seeing that Green Bat was about to fall into the trap, a happy smile flashed across Trevor's face.

He patted Green Bat on the shoulder and said seriously, "Don't worry. What I said is true. Would I lie to you? You may not trust me, but you can trust Prescott."

Green Bat pondered for a while and then murmured, "If White Monkey is taken to the police station, Bear and Cheetah will relax their vigilance. Then, we can easily counterattack."

Thinking about this, Green Bat said firmly, "Okay! Raven, we'll do as you suggest."

Trevor was a little stunned when he heard what Green Bat said just now. He hadn't expected Green Bat to come up with such strong points to back his decision.

He had to hold back his laughter and said with a straight face, "That's right! You can count on me to help you deal with Cheetah."

Trevor seemed so sincere he even managed to move Green Bat a little.

However, inwardly, Trevor was snickering. He pulled out his phone and dialed Ernest's number in front of Green Bat.

As soon as the call was connected, Trevor said excitedly, "Hey, buddy, how are you doing recently? I'll come to see you in a few days."

Ernest was also glad to hear from Trevor and he happily agreed to meet him. He guessed that Trevor must have something serious to discuss with him.

"Raven, tell me what the matter is. I'll definitely help you if I can," Ernest said enthusiastically.

This man really deserves to be mayor. He is so sharp that he immediately understood that I had something to discuss with him. Trevor mused.

Then, Trevor deliberately raised his voice and said, "Well, it's not something related to me. It is a matter concerning Zayden."

The Singh Group's current CFO has caused the company significant loss due to poor management. Besides, there is a good chance that he has been tax evading for a long time."

In fact, when Trevor was CFO of Singh Group, he secretly transferred the company's money to a private account. Now was a good time to let White Monkey take the blame for it.

Upon hearing what Trevor said, Ernest replied firmly, "I'll have the police to apprehend that criminal immediately."

After saying that, Ernest was about to hang up the phone, but Trevor continued, "There is another problem. The criminal is actually a good friend of mine. Of course I know there shouldn't be any special treatment when it comes to law enforcement. It actually breaks my heart that I reported him. I hope he will be well treated at the police station."

Ernest was confused and he couldn't help but wonder what Trevor had in mind. However, he still agreed.

"Don't worry. Since he is your friend, I will make sure he is well treated at the police station," Ernest promised.

Trevor smiled and expressed his gratitude.

"Thank you, Ernest. See you soon. Bye!"

With that, Trevor hung up the phone. He then glanced at Green Bat with a faint smile.

"You see, I didn't lie to you. The mayor is indeed my friend."

The phone was on speaker just now, so Green Bat heard all the conversation clearly.

Now, he trusted Trevor completely.

It was such a surprise to him that Raven actually knew the mayor!

Green Bat's opinion of Trevor improved a lot now and he said respectfully, "Raven, thank you! If you encounter any difficulties in the future, feel free to ask me for help. I will definitely help you."

Trevor just waved his hand casually and said nothing.

That afternoon, following the mayor's order the police rushed to the Sanderson family's castle.

White Monkey had already received instructions from Green Bat in advance, so he cooperated with the police and entered into the police car with a smile.

He even flipped the bird to Bear and Cheetah who were hiding in the corner.

Both Bear and Cheetah were dumbfounded as they watched the scene. They couldn't comprehend why White Monkey had suddenly been taken away by the police.

"How could a member of Mobius happily get inside a police car? Is this some sort of joke?"