

Chapter 1820 Lenard's Accosting Skill

After talking for a while, Trevor and Luisa went to dinner at a luxurious restaurant which was owned by Sanderson Group.

The restaurant was the epitome of luxury, and everything inside was sumptuous and fancy.

Trevor and Luisa went to a private box and sat there. When they were ordering, the door of the box was suddenly opened.

It was Lenard!

Trevor squinted at Lenard with a cold face.

He was actually curious to see what Lenard had in mind this time.

As soon as Lenard saw them, he waved his hand and pretended to be surprised. However his eyes remained fixed on Luisa. He laughed awkwardly and said, "I'm sorry. I came to the wrong box. Oh, Luisa is also here. It must be fate that made us meet again so soon. Anything you order is on me. After all, this restaurant belongs to my family."

Luisa simply ignored Lenard and continued reading the menu.

Trevor turned to look at Lenard with a faint smile on his face, and he appeared to be mocking Lenard silently.

Lenard felt so humiliated that his face blushed. However, he didn't give up so easily and tried to engage a conversation.

"Luisa, it's a rare chance for you to come to Zayden. There are several good resorts here. How about I take you to visit some of them? There are also several new luxury brands in the Jade Mall. You can find lots of new stuff there. Do you want to go shopping?"

Luisa still didn't answer.

At this point, the atmosphere in the box was extremely awkward.

Lenard felt so embarrassed and he wanted to leave here as soon as possible. However, on second thought, he changed his mind.

It would be more embarrassing for him to leave like this! If he left abruptly, those two would definitely laugh at him!

He suddenly thought of something and said mysteriously, "Did I tell you I'm a good friend of Trevor's? I come to you because there is something I want to tell you about him!"

For Lenard to resort to such a tactic, he must be clearly desperate.

Trevor suddenly became interested by what he had to say, and she looked at Lenard with an amused look in her eyes.

When did Lenard become friends with Trevor?

Luisa stared at him curiously too.

Since he came here, this was the first time she looked at him.

Lenard cheered up at once and was very excited.

He had finally found a way to get close to Luisa.

Thus encouraged, he went on with the lies.

"It would take me at least three days to recount all the things Trevor and I did together. Let me tell you the latest one. You know that Trevor is good at identifying antiques, right? So, a few days ago, he and I went to the antique market and we bought a lot of treasures at a low price..."

The more Lenard spoke, the more excited he became, to the point where he almost believed his lies.

Luisa listened to him with a smile on her face, and she didn't interrupt him at all.

Trevor, on the other hand, was at a loss whether to cry or to laugh.

It was true that he went to the antique fair with Lenard, but the rest of the story was all made up. Lenard was really good at telling lies. He would mix them up with some bits of truth to make them more believable.

For a moment, the atmosphere in the box seemed very relaxed.

After a while, the food Trevor and Luisa ordered was brought to the table.

When Trevor and Luisa were about to eat, Lenard cheekily sat down as if to dine with them. He even wanted to sit next to Luisa!

He was so full of himself!

After sitting down, he continued to tell his fabricated story, hoping to be able to fool Luisa.

Seeing that Lenard was immersed in his lies, Trevor suddenly asked, "It seems that you are very familiar with the eldest son of the Sanderson family. Did you help him hide?"

Lenard's face froze upon hearing that. Looking at Trevor's cold face, Lenard suddenly remembered something.

Mobius was still after Trevor! By talking about Trevor and even claiming to be friends with him, wasn't he looking for trouble?
