

Chapter 1850 Try To Get A Loan

Lenard was finally taken to the hospital.

Ruben soon learned that Lenard had broken ribs, and he rushed to the hospital to check on Lenard.

When Lenard saw Ruben walk into his ward, he seemed to have found a savior. He said in an aggrieved voice, "Dad, it was not a good idea! Not only was I unable to discover Raven's true identity, but I ended up in the hospital. I'm so pissed. Dad, you must help me get revenge! You... Ahem..."

Lenard's agitation affected the injury to his ribs, causing him to cough painfully.

Ruben was also a little anxious.

He had been fighting Luisa and Raven for a long time, but all his attempts so far to get the upper hand had been in vain.

Ruben's face twitched and he muttered in a low but stern voice, "It's been a long time that I told the collateral family members that you would marry Luisa. We'd better get that done fast, or else we will become the laughing stock of them."

Lenard felt helpless. He looked at his father and asked anxiously, "What should we do now?"

Ruben frowned and thought for a while.

"It seems that there is only one way. When you recover, you have to propose to Luisa in public. She is a materialistic girl, right? Just show her how rich the Sanderson family is, and she will most likely to agree to marry you."

He kept explaining his plan. "Even if Raven would be present, he would have no more reason to come between the two of you, and it doesn't matter if he is Trevor or not. All you have to focus on at this point is to take Luisa away right in front of Raven."

Hearing his words, Lenard immediately became excited. He gave his father a thumbs up and said in admiration, "Dad, your plan is perfect. I will spread the news of my intention to propose to Luisa. The more people come to see the proposal, the better! By some happy coincidence Collen has been released from the police station. I will ask him to spread the news."

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Zoie suddenly called Luisa to ask for help.

As soon as the call was connected, Zoie's anxious voice rang out on the phone.

"Miss Burke, after purchasing Severich, Newmere Cosmetics was left with a large financial deficit. We urgently need a loan to solve this problem, and it's urgent. But I've been to all the banks in Dreles and they don't think we will be able to pay back the loan this time. There isn't a single bank that is willing to lend us money. What should we do?"

Trevor was standing next to Luisa when Zoie called, so he heard what Zoie said clearly. As soon as Zoie finished speaking, he said casually, "I can invest more money in Newmere Cosmetics. Don't worry."

Luisa shook her head almost immediately. She thought it was not appropriate for her to let him invest more and more money in her company. She looked at Trevor and said seriously, "I had set up the company to help you in need. Now, how can I ask you to invest more money in my company? It is wrong! I can't take your money, even if that means I will lose the company!"

Trevor knew he couldn't persuade Luisa, so he had to find another way. After thinking for a while, he said, "I understand how you feel, but I'm pretty sure you don't want to see all your efforts go to waste, do you? How about you go to the bank in Zayden to get a loan? That would be more reasonable business wise. What do you think?"

Luisa hesitated for a while but finally agreed with Trevor.

She did not want the development of Newmere Cosmetics to slow down or stagnate. So she nodded reluctantly and said, "Let's go try to get a loan!"

Luisa and Trevor thus went to the Sanderson family's private bank together.

But they ran into an unexpected person there, Collen.

When Collen saw Trevor and Luisa, a look of shock appeared on his face and resentment welled up in his heart. He muttered angrily, pointing at Trevor, "It's all your fault! It's because of you that I was arrested!"

He stepped forward and stood right in front of Trevor.

"What a coincidence! You are here too. Are you here for a loan because the money for rebuilding the orphanage is not enough? You came to this bank to beg for money, didn't you?"

Before he could get any response, he added, "By the way, Raven, I have some good news. Do you want to hear it?"
