

Chapter 1861 An Encounter In The Hospital

Luisa was quickly taken to the hospital.

After emergency treatment, all her vital signs were stabilized. However, she hadn't woken up yet.

Trevor and Balfour were standing at her bedside and both looked very worried. The atmosphere in the ward was quite heavy.

Although his face was covered with bruises, Balfour didn't care about himself. Looking at Luisa, he said remorsefully, "Luisa, please wake up... It's all my fault..."

Trevor also felt very depressed. However, he comforted Balfour and said softly, "Don't worry. I will wake Luisa up!"

Balfour choked with sobs upon hearing that. He wiped his eyes and turned to look at Trevor. He said with a sigh, "Stop worrying about Luisa. You have stabbed someone in public. You might go to jail for a long time. Think of a way to protect yourself!"

However, Trevor was not worried at all. Staring at Balfour, he gently held the man's face in his hands and said in a deep voice, "You're a man. You should be strong. As for myself, I'll turn myself in. Don't worry about me. Cheer up! You should be strong and not let others see your weakness! Luisa is still unconscious right now, and she needs you to be strong for her!"

Balfour said nothing. Trevor's hands pressed against his face hurt a little due to the bruises on his face. But despite this, he didn't complain and just stared at Trevor blankly.

Trevor, on the other hand, planned to tell Jasmine about the situation so that together they could figure out a solution as soon as possible.

With that in mind, he dialed Jasmine's number.

The phone rang a few times.

Trevor listened carefully and suddenly realized that the ringing came

He turned around and was stunned to see a figure that looked like Jasmine. He raised an eyebrow and muttered in surprise, "Is this just a bizarre coincidence?"

When the phone was finally connected, Trevor asked slowly, "Are you in Zayden Hospital?"

Jasmine, on the other side, was stunned by the question and she asked in confusion, "How do you know? What's the matter?"

Without saying anything, Trevor trotted forward and patted back of the woman who looked like Jasmine. When the person turned around, Trevor found it was really Jasmine.

The woman was stunned. Judging by her expression, Trevor felt she was in a bad mood.

Looking at the serious look on Jasmine's face, Trevor asked with concern, "Why are you here? Are you sick?"

Jasmine sighed and said worriedly, "I'm here for one of my colleagues. He was accidentally shot during the training. He has lost a lot of blood and has been taken to the emergency room."

When Jasmine mentioned her injured colleague, Trevor immediately thought of Luisa who was also unconscious. He sighed and comforted Jasmine, "Health is the most important. Since your friend has been sent to the emergency room, the only thing we can do is to pray for him."

Trevor's words managed to comfort Jasmine and she calmed down a lot. After calming down, she asked, "By the way, why did you call me? Is anything the matter?"

Trevor hesitated. Just when he was about to answer, the door of the emergency room was opened from the inside and a doctor walked out with a sad face. He sighed helplessly and said to Jasmine, "The patient has lost too much blood and his vital signs are plummeting. I'm afraid we can't save him! You should be mentally prepared!"

Hearing what the doctor said, Jasmine couldn't hold back her emotions again. Her eyes suddenly turned red, and tears welled up in them. She looked at the doctor sadly and begged, "Doctor, please save him at all cost!"

The doctor could understand how Jasmine felt at this moment. However, he just shook his head helplessly.

The thing was, the doctor knew very well there was very little chance they could save the patient. In such a situation, it was useless to do anything.

After all, if the patient died on the operating table, the doctor's operation success rate would drop!
