

Chapter 1868 Lennon

After performing needle techniques, Trevor said with a smile, "I gave her first aid. Now you just gotta wait for the ambulance."

The ambulance sent by Zayden Hospital arrived shortly.

The rescue doctor was none other than Kane Welch who initially didn't believe in Trevor's medical skills.

But now that he knew Trevor's ability, he couldn't boast anymore. He even greeted Trevor upon getting off the vehicle.

"Did you call the ambulance?"

With a nod, Trevor pointed at Nola.

"The injured person is there. Take her to the hospital as soon as possible. Do not to pull out the silver needle from her body. Otherwise, it will be troublesome!"

Although Kane was unaware of the effect of the silver needle, he had witnessed Trevor's magical medical abilities, so he agreed without hesitation.

"Okay, I'll keep that in mind."

When Nola was lifted, Kane recognized Nola who came from the Wright family. His eyes lit up and an idea came to his mind.

His future would be secured once he got close to the Wright family.

Soon, the medical staff got off the ambulance and carefully lifted Nola into it.

Trevor had to stay and hand over the SUV owner to the police, so he didn't follow them.

Jasmine didn't know much about medicine, so she stayed and waited.

On the other side, when the ambulance arrived at the hospital, it drew the attention of many other doctors.

They noticed Nola's weak vital signs, like she was going to die any moment. This made everyone nervous.

However, they discovered that, while Nola's physical condition was not alright, she could maintain her current state without getting worse.

This was not something that could be done simply. The more serious an illness, the more likely it was to worsen.

Even the entry-level doctors were aware of it, as were the others there. They all asked Kane, "Kane, how can you keep the patient's vital signs?"

Kane triumphantly grinned and stated shamelessly, "Well, I recently learned about the silver needle treatment. I can treat illnesses no matter how difficult they are with the silver needle."

One by one, the doctors commended him. Kane savored his vanity.

It was an excellent opportunity for both fame and wealth. Who would know what he was capable of as long as the truth was kept hidden?

It appeared that he would have a chance in the selection of the hospital vice director.

At this moment, Lennon Wright, Nola's father, finally arrived at the hospital.

Despite the reality that he was merely a collateral member of the Wright family, he had a strong sense of authority.

But, for the time being, he was simply a worried parent.

Lennon anxiously approached Nola and held her hand. His voice trembled as he said, "Nola! You..."

He then turned to the doctors, "Doctors, how is my daughter? Is she in danger?"

Kane walked out with excitement and confidence.

"Mr. Wright, don't worry. We have checked Miss Wright's condition. Although she is seriously injured, her condition has stabilized."

Still worried, Lennon said with doubt, "Really? Don't lie to me! I got the news that Nola's car crashed. Is she really okay?"

In fact, someone sent him a photo.

Nola's Mini car was completely ruined. The fire had almost burned the car down.

Seeing that Lennon was still skeptical, a doctor beside him said with a smile, "To tell you the truth, Mr. Wright, Miss Wright was severely injured and on the verge of death. She had a concussion, cerebral bleeding, and multiple fractured ribs, and her chances of survival were slim."

He pause before explaining further, "But she was lucky today to meet Kane, who was dispatched with the ambulance and used his magical medical abilities to stabilize Miss Wright's injuries! We examined Miss Wright's body when she was brought here; her body index had stabilized, and she was practically out of danger! That's why we are not in a rush to perform an operation. We have time to come up with the best plan."

Hearing this, Lennon finally breathed a sigh of relief. He came to his senses and asked, "Who is Kane?"

Kane acted righteous with a smug look.

"It's me. It's our duty to save lives and heal the wounded. You can relax, Mr. Wright."

Lennon eagerly held Kane's hand, brought out a ten-million-dollar check, and handed it to him, saying, "Thank you. Please save my daughter!"

Kane was beaming from ear to ear. When he glanced at the check on his hand, his eyes widened in shock.

Wonderful! The Wright family was truly rich!

He promised repeatedly, "Don't worry, Mr. Wright! I will do all in my capability to save your daughter!"
