

Chapter 1882 Braden Archer

The driver was Connie Archer, the eldest daughter of the Archer family.

Her chin raised high with an air of smugness, Connie outright blamed Trevor and Luisa for her recklessness.

The fact that the driver was a lady didn't affect Trevor's mood in any capacity and he said sternly, "You almost hit this lady right here. You should apologize! We are here to visit the master of the Archer family. You better behave yourself or I will complain about you directly to him!"

Hearing Trevor's words, Connie sneered and said, "You are here for my father? He is not feeling well these days. He definitely doesn't have time for losers like you. Now get out of here at once. This is the Archer family's domain. From the way you look, I guess you are a beggar. You have nothing to do here!"

With a snort, Trevor cast a glance at Connie and said coldly, "Wait a minute, the master of the Archer family isn't feeling well? In that case, I am even more willing to see him. I happen to be a doctor. I can examine your father and perhaps even cure him."

It was no surprise that Connie didn't believe Trevor at all. How could a loser like him have any medical skills? She didn't want to listen to any more word from him and retorted with disdain, "All the top doctors in Clouauro have tried to treat my dad, but they have all failed. Do you think you can succeed? That's so ridiculous! Now, get out! You probably want to extort money from us, right?"

All this while, Luisa had been quiet. However, when she saw how rude Connie was to Trevor, she couldn't keep her calm any longer.

Luisa was so angry she felt dizzy again. She covered her forehead with one hand and said weakly, "Why must you despise us for no reason? We must be confident enough in our medical skills to say we can cure your father. Besides, we are here to visit the master. What right do you have to stop us from entering? Get out of our way!"

Trevor looked at Luisa's face and noticed that her condition was getting worse. He held her arm and said with concern, "Luisa, are you okay? How about I take you to rest first?"

However, Luisa shook her head firmly and said in a low voice, "No, thanks. Let's go inside."

They were still standing at the gate of the Archer family residence, and Trevor couldn't treat Luisa there. So, he had to support her.

Seeing how weak Luisa looked, Connie sneered.

"He can't even cure you. How can I trust him to cure my dad? You two are clearly liars! I'm sure you want to extort money from my family! Get out of here now! If you don't, I'll call the security!"

Connie's rude attitude exasperated Luisa who was about to retort angrily again. But before she could lose her temper, Trevor comforted her in a hurry, "It's okay. Let me take you back to have a rest first. Your health comes first. We can come to visit some other time. Don't lower yourself to talk with her."

Seeing that Trevor and Luisa had finally decided to leave, Connie put on a complacent expression and made fun of them.

"Are you running away? As I guessed, you two are crooks and you wanted to extort money from us. You didn't expect to run into someone as smart as me, did you?"

Trevor ignored Connie and calmly walked away with Luisa.

Before the two of them disappeared from sight, Braden Archer, the master of the Archer family, came out and hurriedly stopped Trevor.

"Wait a moment! Wait a moment!"

Seeing that Trevor stopped, Braden quickly approached him and whispered, "I'm Braden Archer, the master of the Archer family. Ronald contacted me. If there's anything you want us to discuss, I'm willing to discuss with you!"

Trevor nodded and said gratefully, "Thank you very much."

He then took Luisa's hand and they walked back towards the house of the Archer family.

Connie was stunned by what just happened and she asked with a puzzled look on her face, "Dad, why did you come out to invite the two liars in?"

Upon hearing what his daughter said, Braden's face suddenly darkened. When he came out just now, he heard her talk arrogantly to Trevor and Luisa.

He didn't want to comment about it at first, but now Connie dared to be rude to his distinguished guest again, which pissed Braden. The old man shouted angrily, "Who are liars you are talking about? They are the distinguished guests and it is an honor for our family to welcome them. You were so arrogant that you have offended them. Can't you be polite for once in your life? Now, apologize to them!"
