

Chapter 864 Harmoni's New Idea

---

"Are you okay?"

Irene, who had come with a group of staff, approached Trevor as the wolf was taken away. Concern was written all over her face.

Trevor smiled as he waved his hands, indicating that he was fine.

At that moment, the old man stepped forward.

He and Irene expressed their gratitude to Trevor at the same time.

"Thank you for saving me again."

Suddenly, they all went still as they looked at each other in surprise.

Irene finally burst into laughter. "Grandpa, I told you a dog blocked our way when I sent my students home. It was Mr. Sanderson who helped me."

Irene's grandfather laughed upon hearing this.

"What a coincidence! This young man also came to my aid when a thief stole my phone and wallet on the train. He caught the thief."

Trevor raised his eyebrows in surprise. He didn't know the old man was Irene's grandfather.

The three of them couldn't help laughing at how coincidental it was.

"Mr. Sanderson, let me introduce myself again. My name is Irene Norris, I'm a primary school teacher. This is my grandfather, Marion Norris. He runs a company here in Mordor," Irene said, introducing herself and her grandfather.

"Please call me Trevor," Trevor replied. "Nice to meet you."

The three of them stood and chatted for a while.

When the girls heard that the wolf had been subdued, they mustered the courage to return.

Seeing Trevor safe and sound, Cecelia and Clarissa breathed a sigh of relief.

The players from the football team also began to return.

Just now, this group had run the fastest. The others were displeased with their cowardice.

Arms akimbo, Clarissa confronted Lemuel.

"I think it would be better if we went our separate ways. We girls are not fast enough to keep up with you. You'd better show your friends around."

Lemuel's face turned red and he stammered, "I... It was just an accident..."

Seeing that Lemuel still wanted to stick with them, Clarissa frowned and uttered rudely, "You promised to protect us. However, you ran the fastest in the face of danger. In the end, we had to rely on Trevor to solve the problem. You even have the audacity to return and look for us. Have you no shame? Go away! Otherwise, don't blame me for whatever I say to you!"

With an embarrassed look, Lemuel and his teammates left dejectedly.

Irene shook her head slightly as she watched the scene play out. After the team had taken their leave, she turned to Trevor and said, "Trevor, how about my grandfather and I visit the zoo along with you? I've visited this zoo multiple times. I can be your guide."

Trevor thought about it for a while before agreeing.

Harmoni froze upon seeing this.

Initially, Trevor had been with three beautiful women, Cecelia, Clarissa, and Makenna, which had put Harmoni under a lot of pressure.

Now that Irene, who was as beautiful as her, had joined them, Harmoni began to get anxious.

She had to figure out a way to get Trevor to pay attention to her.

Harmoni took out her phone and posted a selfie on social media with the caption that she was at the zoo in Mordor.

Recently, many men had tried to chat her up.

She ignored some of them but exchanged contact information with the rich ones.

As expected, the photo she had posted soon attracted a lot of comments from people, some of whom said that they would be going to the zoo to look for her.

Seeing the comments, Harmoni smiled, her confidence regained.

She grew complacent. She believed that Trevor would know how popular she was when he saw how many comments her photo got. She also believed that Trevor would pay more attention to her after comparing her with the other girls.

Competition was the best way to show how outstanding she was.

With these thoughts in mind, she happily put away her phone, ignoring the rest of the comments.

However, she failed to notice one thing.

Beckett Garza had made a comment, after which no one dared to comment again.

"Harmoni, I'm coming to look for you."

+90 Points at most

Beckett's comment was short and straight to the point.

However, the other rich men in Mordor stopped making comments when they saw this.
