

Chapter 879 Review At The End Of The Semester

"How unlucky!"

After going back to the yacht, Henrik was not in the mood to continue to have fun anymore.

At first, Otis almost drowned. Then, he found the bodies of seagulls and bullet holes in the karst cave.

Since he was not in the mood anymore, Henrik drove the yacht back to the wharf of Dreles.

Trevor returned home. He took out the badge and looked at it carefully.

He was not able to take a careful look at it in the cave before. It was a snake pattern with its tail in its mouth. When he first saw it, he felt it was ordinary. But now that he observed it carefully, he found it was very exquisite.

The entire badge seemed carved from a special kind of gemstone, and the pattern on it was outlined with gold and silver threads.

Under the light from different angles, the snake on the badge seemed to move around the center.

This badge was definitely not an ordinary thing.

With this realization, Trevor couldn't help frowning. He took a picture of the badge and sent it to Bradly, asking if he had seen it before.

Soon, Bradly replied, "This badge is somewhat similar to the snake badge of the Hidden Assassins, but they are not exactly the same. And the workmanship of the Hidden Assassins' badge is not so exquisite. But maybe there is a certain connection between the two. I have no clue for the time being. If I get any new information, I will immediately report it to you."

The Hidden Assassins again?

Trevor's frown deepened. But he could only wait for Bradly's new information.

Trevor couldn't do anything now but wait. He put the badge back into his wallet, shaking his head.

He told himself, "Forget it. I should not dwell on this matter for now. There are other things I need to worry about."

Trevor turned and looked at the stack of documents he needed to review on his desk and sighed.

The end of this semester was approaching again.

And in Dreles, he was even busier than before.

He worked part-time in the Byrd Group to deal with the family trial and fought against Terrance and all kinds of sinister people. He was the director of the external affairs department of Bella University, investigated Rudolph, and participated in the National University Games.

He didn't have much time left for his studies. So passing the final exam would be very challenging for him.

Trevor scratched his head in distress. He had to find a way to cope with the situation.

The next day, Trevor took his schoolbag and went to Emmeline.

He stood outside the villa and said on the intercom, "Miss Olson, I have to trouble you this time. I need your help to review for the exam."

Soon, a voice was heard from the intercom, but it sounded a little surprised.

"Oh... Trevor, is that you? Come in first."

Trevor then walked into the villa. And there, he found that Emmeline was doing yoga.

She was wearing a tight-fitting yoga outfit, outlining her perfect figure to the fullest. The collar of her yoga outfit revealed her deep cleavage, highlighting her plump breasts. Her waist was so slender that it seemed people could hold it with one hand.

Her buttocks wrapped in tight yoga pants made her look more charming and sexy. As she bent her legs, her thighs were round and flexible, and her calves were slender and straight. At this moment, her posture was incomparably beautiful, showing an astonishing tenderness. It could make Trevor unable to take his eyes off her.

Her bare feet were straightened into a sexy shape, making people fantasize. The sun shone down on her, adorning her with glitters.

"Hi, Trevor! Take a seat." Emmeline stood up gracefully and greeted Trevor. It seemed that she didn't notice he was blushing.

"Ahem!" Trevor coughed and looked away for her not to see the embarrassment on his face.

"Miss Olsson, the end of the semester is fast approaching, and I'm having a hard time reviewing. Can you help me with my homework?"

Emmeline smiled, and she looked more beautiful. "You are my student. Of course, no problem."

Looking at her smile made Trevor feel his throat dry. He said awkwardly, "I'll sort out my knowledge first. If I encounter problems and there's something I don't understand, I'll ask you for advice."

Emmeline nodded and said casually, "Okay. I'll just do yoga here. If there's anything you don't understand, ask me."

After saying this, she made another soft and beautiful posture, showing her sexy body without reservation. It was as if no one was around.

Trevor couldn't help blushing watching her, so he turned his body sideways slightly. How could he focus on studying if she kept doing this in front of him?

After a while, he abandoned the scenes in his mind and focused on reviewing his lessons.

Trevor slowly absorbed the information from the book and sorted out some difficult points and problems. Then he turned to ask her for help.

"Miss Olson, I have some questions to..." Trevor's voice trailed off because as soon as he stood up and turned around, he saw Emmeline lying on the floor with her hands covering her foot.

There was a faint trace of pain on her flushed face. She said in a low voice, "Sure, you can ask me any questions. But can you help me up first? I have cramps in my foot."
