

Chapter 891 The Famous Magician

"I should take this with me. It might be useful someday."

Trevor sneered as he pocketed the photo.

He left the parking lot and then met up with Luisa at the entrance to the theatre.

"Let's go. I bought us some popcorn." Luisa held up a big bucket of popcorn with a smile.

Trevor grinned back at her. He had bought them front-row seats so that they could have a good view of the performance.

The two of them entered Emerald Theatre and took their seats.

When it was time for the performance to begin, exciting music played and a loud voice introduced the star of the show.

"Let's all welcome the famous magician, Albin Riley!"

The audience applauded, but Trevor raised an eyebrow.

The famous magician who was onstage right now was no other than the man he crossed at the parking lot!

At the moment, Albin was wearing a special costume for the performance. He looked energetic and had a big smile on his face.

No one would have been able to tell that he had nearly gotten into a fight before this.

He performed some magic tricks which won a lot of applause.

When the atmosphere started to get warm, Albin inadvertently glanced at front row where Trevor was sitting.

His gaze sharpened and his expression became a little sinister.

Albin did not forget what had happened in the parking lot.

If he had not been in a hurry because of the show, he would have given Trevor what he was due.

He had not expected to meet Trevor during the performance so of course he wanted to exact revenge.

Albin looked at who was sitting next to Trevor and saw Luisa. He cheered up and became excited.

Albin assumed that Luisa was Trevor's girlfriend. If he flirted with Luisa onstage, Trevor was surely going to get mad.

The more Albin thought about it, the more excited he became. With the audience's gaze on him, he pretended to be serious and said, "For my next trick, I need a volunteer."

Before he even ended his sentence, the audience responded warmly. Many people raised their hands in hopes of getting to go onstage with Albin.

Albin pretended to look around and consider his options, but he then pointed at Luisa and said, "You there in the first row, please come up on stage and help me with my next trick."

Trevor smiled and shook his head.

Albin clearly wanted to get back at him.

Seeing the aggressive look in Albin's eyes, Luisa instinctively shrank in her seat. She held onto Trevor's arm and politely refused, "I didn't raise my hand so you'll have to ask someone else to perform with you."

Albin smiled confidently and snapped his fingers in response.

A spotlight was pointed at Luisa, attracting everyone's attention.

"Let's all give a hand for this beautiful lady!" Albin grinned triumphantly.

The spotlight trick was one that Albin had used many times before to make an unwilling audience member come up onstage.

The audience applauded encouragingly, but it actually placed psychological pressure on the person in the spotlight.

Trevor saw through Albin's dirty plot and sneered. He stood up and said in a loud voice, "My girlfriend is shy, so why not let me take her place?"

Albin was taken aback by Trevor's brashness.

However, a new idea formed in his mind.

It would be nice if he could embarrass Trevor onstage and make him look like a fool. This was how Albin planned to punish Trevor!

After quickly forming a new plan, Albin replied confidently, "Okay, come on up then!"
