

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

Chapter 122 - Sophia Pesci

Sophia is walking out from the plane out from Milan. She has to lower herself and catches the first plane that leaves Italy to see her fiancée.

It is morning time in C capital when she arrives at the airport. She is really tired and angry to hear about Vito decision to live in C city.

She was busy becoming the same level as Ai Jia in the Mancuso clan and getting all the approval from the senior member of the clan until she stopped all her effort to hear about Vito moving all his resources into C city, his mother birth country.

Some of the elders in the Mancuso family do not pose an agreement with Vito's decision to operate from the C city. They are supporting Sophia to bring and persuade Vito to go back to Italy.

Sophia is a beautiful goddess from Italy. Her family is one of the ancient families who are just below of Mancuso Family. Her parent is agreeing to hand their only daughter as a bride for the Mancuso family head.

Her father is helping Vito on the secret to achieve his position on the top and make her position as the madame of the Mancuso family. She did not know until her father died last week and spill all his work on his death bed.

She has to persuade him and make him her husband in holy matrimony as planned by the elder in the Mancuso family.

She is going out from the airport with the sun piercing through her eyes until she needs to wear her sunnies.

The driver from the Mancuso family branch in the C city come and pick her up. they are going to the Mancuso mansion on the hill of the C City.

Sophia did not know that Vito is spending his day in the Lin mansion. She is arrived in the mansion to find the empty mansion. It makes her really angry and smashed the expensive vase and everything that can be smashed.

Sophia has endured all sorts of training to match Vito and reach his position. However, she finds out about his romantic relationship with a young girl in this city from the maid.

She lashes out to Vito's master bedroom to find half of the walk-in closet full of the newest luxurious women stuff.

'Miss Pesci, please no one can enter the master bedroom. If the master knows this thing then I will be doomed,' The young maid is pleading to this lady in front of her.

'What is this mess and how dare you to let a stranger get into the master bedroom!' Butler Alfred is entering the room. He is getting a little setback to see Miss Sophia Pesci inside the room.

'Alfredo, you are here. Where is your master? You dare to leave the old mansion and manage this house in a foreign land. Do you think that old man like you is able to receive capital punishment?' Sophia is telling him with all her authority voice. She has been regarded as the madame of Mancuso in the old mansion by the elder when Vito is still not married.

'Miss Pesci, what brings you here? As you know, the master bedroom is always off limit for you even in the old mansion. I will escort you to the guest room,' Alfredo is telling her to get out politely.

‘I am the mistress of Mancuso’s head and I have the right to go to my husband room. You are only a butler in the house, and you do not have the right to tell me. Where is my husband?’ Sophia is telling him with her stern voice.

‘I really do not know. You might want to ask Mr Ai Jia as his assistant. Do you need anything, miss?’ Alfredo is opening his hand and asking her to go out of the master room.

Sophia is walking out of Vito’s room as instructed. She is understood about butler Alfred warning because Vito never likes someone to touch his belonging.

She is going to take her handbag to the family room where the maid has already cleaned up all the mess. She is pressing AI Jia phone number to find about Vito’s location. Ai Jia is startled and mention Vito’s location in the Lin mansion.

Sophia is smiling cunningly to know about his location when he straight away goes to the mansion.

Ai Jia is in panic inside the mansion and he paces back and forward in the staff room.

‘What are you doing? It seems like you make a grim mistake,’ Max is sipping his coffee.

‘the witch miss Sophia Pesci is coming to this mansion. She seems to be angry on the phone. What should I do?’ Ai Jia is spilling the news to Max and Li Na.

‘Why don’t you tell your mistake to Master?’ Max is telling him calmly and eating his breakfast.

‘Do you want me to get killed? We did not think so much with her when the master ask her to get trained in the deep forest in Greece. What makes her come out? She supposedly finished next year,’ Ai Jia is calculating her training timeline.

However, there is already commotion in the front of the Lin mansion when Sophia tries to get inside the house and the Sun’s bodyguard tries to stop her.

Ai Jia and Long Jing are going outside to see and settle the commotion. Sophia saw Ai Jia and get him to settle the problem.

‘Ai Jia, how dare them not to let the mistress of Mancuso come inside to meet with her husband?’ Sophia is telling them so loudly.

It won’t take long before grandmother Lin and Grandfather Sun are walking down the stair and look at the commotion.

‘What is this in the morning?’ her authoritative voice comes out.

‘I am sorry to disturb you in the morning madame. my name is Sophia Pesci, and I am going to get my husband back to Italy. This is the family token for mistress in the Mancuso family which bestow to me,’ Sophia is speaking so eloquently in front of the elder.

‘You are Mr Pesci’s only daughter? I remember about you when My late son come to visit me with your father. How is your father?’ Grandfather Sun is asking her.

‘Father is passed away last week, and I find out that Vito is moving his operations to this country which got a huge commotion and concern from the elder in Italy. As his mistress, I am going to bring him home,’ Sophia is informing them about her main visit.

‘let them come inside. I never know if Vito has been married before when we bestow their marriage,’ Grandmother Lin is telling them.

Luo Han Zheng is coming down from the guest room. At least, Lin Yan is not at home due to her morning meeting.

His assistant is telling him clearly about everything when he is smirking to see heaven really bless him.

Emma is getting ready with her clothes and going down after putting on the tie for Vito. She can hear the commotion from the open window.

They are going down the stair to see everyone gather in the family room with their serious face. Emma is walking inside the room when Sophia is getting up and slapped her so loudly.

‘How dare you to steal the patriarch of the Mancuso family and bewitched him to stay in the C city?’ Sophia says after she slapped him. it makes Vito expression get darker in the minute and he is boiling inside his body.

‘Who are you?’ Emma is talking back with her murderous stare to the beautiful European girl in front of her.

‘Are you fine?’ Vito is holding his wife body when she shakes her husband goodwill.

‘I am Sophia Pesci the mistress of Vito Mancuso. This is the proof of seal as the legal mistress of the Mancuso family,’ Sophia is giving out the stamp as the head of household in the Mancuso family. Her father is stealing it from the old madame to secure his daughter position as Vito fiancée.

‘I am his legal wife. How are we going to settle for this problem?’ Emma is asking for the solution to the whole problem in front of her.

‘Have you married Vito?’ Grandfather Sun is asking her a simple question.

‘Our wedding supposedly take place after my training, but my father is passed away after Vito moved the whole operation of the family into C city. I am asking him to fulfil the whole promise so my father can rest peacefully,’ Sophia is telling everyone about her position in the Mancuso clan.

‘Shut up! I never promise anyone about the marriage. That token was supposedly stored with my mother urn which will bestow to my wife from the Lin patriarch. Do you know the rule for deceiving the head of the family?’ Vito is stopping all her euphoria.

‘I am not interested to become someone concubine or lead a harem. You deal with your love interest. I am going.. Han Zheng, are you going to take me to the set?’ Emma is getting her handbag.
