

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

Chapter 123 - Emma's Angry

'Grandmother Lin, are you coming?' Han Zheng is asking her politely.

'My mood has crushed with this matter. You take Emma to go and make sure to take care of her,' Grandmother Lin is going back to her room. She is feeling down to know the whole situation earlier.

Vito is ignoring Sophia and try to catch his wife outside the house when she is ignoring him. she is entering Han Zheng's car and locking the door.

Han Zheng is looking smug at his loved opponent face before he enters the car. Vito tries to knock and open her side of the door but failed to do it. he is literary wants to break open Emma's side of the window but the car is moving away.

Sophia is coming and try to restrain him not to follow the car. However, he yanked her behind and get into the car with Max.

‘Miss, I really envy you. Do not provoke his love to madame Emma,’ Ai Jia is left behind to help Sophia stand up from the ground.

‘Who are you to tell me about my action!’ Sophia is yanking the help from Ai Jia.

‘I am telling you when we are all growing up together. You will get hurt in the end,’ Ai Jia is telling her out of goodwill.

‘I do not care as long as I can be on his side. my father is grooming me as the first lady of the Mancuso Family and no one can change the state of that,’ Sophia is telling him smugly.

‘I know about your grievance because of your father death but you always know about boss personality. No one can get closed and he did not care about anything. If he has eyes on you and accepts the relationship between both of you, he will not come back to C city and marry Madame Emma,’ Ai Jia tries to talk her out.

‘I am sticking to my plan and I will take back my reign. No one can really take back my initial planning,’ Sophia is leaving Ai Jia speechless. She is leaving the mansion to Man Mansion to make sure about the plan.

Ai Jia is going to the office to deal with his work with Andrea who is praying about the gossip that happens in the morning.

Andrea is laughing in his office to hear about the crazy Sophia act in the Lin mansion. He is well aware and knows her habit of always getting her wishes. The best part of all is Vito always granted her wishes. Vito and the whole elders in the Mancuso family spoiled her to the top of the world because of her mother sacrifice to the Mancuso family.

Mr Pesci is giving her daughter to the Mancuso family, and she has been groomed as the madame of the Mancuso family. Vito never cares at all for the small matter as long as he can establish his reign and survive the calamity.

‘We are going to have a good drama,’ Andrea is telling all of them in the room while sitting back with his coffee. EXO is closing his computer and standing up.

‘I am going. Let me know if you want me to do something,’ EXO is getting all his stuff into his backpack.

‘Stay! You are not joining the mixed up. your job is restraining Sophia if you want to help Emma. She will be hurt with Sophia nature,’ Andrea is stopping EXO to leave the room.

‘No one knows her plan. Why do we have to deal with psychopaths and sociopaths? Poor Emma,’ EXO is sitting back to think about their enemy lately.

‘Ai Jia can find out her plan. They are having a good relationship,’ Andrea still laughs out to remember everything.

‘If you think about getting torture included in the good relationship then I am having a really good relationship with her,’ Ai Jia is making a comment for their relationship.

‘Wait for a second, is this the little daredevil Sophia? I hear about her mischievous reputation,’ EXO is asking them because he joins them a bit later in time.

‘You are right, and she is one of the apples of the elder eye. No one can find fault in her mischievous deed. If our boss gets the Devil king reputation then she is the princess from hell. No one dares to irritate the princess if they do not want to be Mancuso’s enemy,’ Andrea is explaining to EXO.

‘Apparently, She is grieving her father’s death, and she is not in her right mind. This is more dangerous rather than her in the right mind. Do you remember about her anger because I break her handmade mug for her boss accidentally? I almost died from her torture, and I lost four of my fingernails,' Ai Jia is informing them about her nature of cruelty. He is showing his left hand who has unperfect nail growth.

'Jeez, it was because of her. I thought boss enemy kidnap you at that time until Max is rushed to get your position. I still remember that you have to stay in the hospital for almost a month to recuperate and she gets sent to the training camp,' EXO is asking him about her cruelty.

'I know and I feel scared for madame to deal with a monster like that. I hope boss can stop her,' Ai Jia is gushed out a breath to think about her method to hurt someone.

'We only can pray for the best. Let's deal with another maniac for now and let's boss deal with her,' Andrea is telling them before going back to his laptop.

He already sent his staff to counterattack Su Jin in court by sending the defamation paper about her allegation when the owner of the university is Emma Lin.

In the car to the movie studio, Han Zheng is sitting in the back car and looks at Emma solemnly. She is looking at the window outside.

‘Boss, Mr Vito is speeding behind our car. do you want to stop or speed up to lose them?’ Long Jin is asking him.

‘What do you want to do?’ Han Zheng is looking at the frail girl on his side. He really wants to hold her inside his arm and disappear with her.

‘Can you take me to the park? I want to eat their ice cream sundae in the cafeteria inside the Delta park,’ Emma is looking at him. Han Zheng is nodding to her request. It means her heart is in turmoil to sit there and eat the ice cream.

She always goes there when she is sad or angry. He is smiling to remember her old habit.

They are going to the amusement park when Han Zheng is helping her to exit the car. Vito tries to catch her when there is a line in front of him.

Han Zheng is escorting her to the cafeteria in the middle of the amusement ground. They are sitting on the corner table facing into the view of the merry go round.

Emma is ordering the Delta sundae. It is the biggest ice cream bowl as the trademark of their amusement park. There are three flavours of ice cream with fresh fruit, chocolate and peanut.

‘Get the sundae with an extra wafer for her,’ Han Zheng is instructing the waitress for their order.

‘How do you know?’ Emma is asking him with curiosity.

‘I am always known about all your habit. You are always the only one in my heart,’ Han Zheng is holding her hand. Emma gets startled by all the sweet words from him and takes her hand back.

Emma is putting both of her hands on top of her thigh to avoid another touch from him. The waitress is serving the ice cream with a set of spoons and a plate of wafers on the side.

Emma is looking outside and sees Vito searching for her. she is hiding under the table to get out from his looks.

Emma is still angry to get deceived and slap early in the morning with her love rival. The best part is her husband never told Emma about her existence.

‘He is gone already,’ Han Zheng is bending over to tell her under the table.

Emma is getting up to her original position and sitting down. She is getting the spoon and eating the cold ice cream. However, her eyes look empty.

Han Zheng is looking at her softly when he decides to turn off his phone. He decides to accompany this girl today.

Vito is looking and searching at her in this big entertainment park. He can’t lose her anymore over a misunderstanding.

Vito is instructing Max to let every visitor empty the park. It will be easier for him to comb through this whole park. Max is having a headache hearing about his boss wishes.

‘Boss, how about we go to their camera room and feed EXO to trace Madame location? It will be easier rather than going around the circle like this,’ Max is telling his advice to his boss.
