

Marriage To The Mafia Boss - Chapter 36

Chapter 36 - The Commotion

Emma is waiting in the lounge room in the first-class area. Vito is taking her to the area where they have their exclusive access. It is so quiet in this area when the staff is taking their order. Vito is ordering his coffee when Emma is asking for a cappuccino from the staff.

‘You can order your breakfast also,’ Vito is offering his wife for getting some the breakfast because they were rushed to get to the airport. Apparently, it is already late in the afternoon because their loving activity makes them sleeping in.

‘I will go and see the buffet,’ Emma is standing up and check on the buffet. She might become from a rich family, but she never steps into a first-class lounge. She needs to check the price before she orders the food. She does not have a lot of money to spend even though she comes from a well-known family. She does not have the heart to ask for money from her grandmother. She paid good money for her job but at the moment, she has been missing from work.

‘Madam, Boss said you can eat everything in the buffet as it is free,’ Ai Jia is tapping and inform her politely. Vito is busy meeting with Andrea in the corner of the lounge.

Emma is nodding in courtesy toward her husband assistant but really cheer up inside her heart content to see the delicious various food on the buffet.

‘Mr Ai, what is Vito main business line?’ Emma is asking her husband assistant before he left back to his side.

‘Boss mainly business is property and e-commerce. However, he got his hand in every industry at the moment. He just buys universities and hospitals to be added to the company portfolio. He still numbers one of the richest persons in the world,’ Ai Jia is answering her question politely. He is excusing himself to go back toward his boss position.

‘Boss, I have confirmed with the CS Airlines CEO for this route they are changing it to B787-9 Dreamliner so you can use the first-class on these eight hours straight to Surabaya airport,’ Ai Jia is reporting to his boss.

‘Wait a second. You ask the CEO to swap the plane to get into your standard of travelling! You are the best, boss. Wow.’ Andrea is making comments in amusement for his boss domineering acts.

‘Have you sent the letter to sue the client for defaming Qing University hospital and my wife? I want you to send it to my uncle also and ask for the maximum penalty. Leave my sister-in-law for my wife,’ Vito is instructing toward his right hand.

‘You are not aware of the middle east condition supported by the underworld family in Albania. It is a matter of time before the war broke out and our competitor in Russia will get the benefit on it,’ Andrea is reporting the important problem that arises to the boss.

‘Get an appointment with the defence ministry of the head of alliance and talk with Jason about this thing. Someone is playing behind our back again. I have told them to stop supply any weapon to the middle east!’ Vito is telling Andrea about his plan. Now, he has to clean up after the Albanian royal prince. He must be losing some bet or get sneak out by one of the women from the middle east again.

‘get me...’

‘I am waiting for confirmation from Brian for the position of the Albanian crown prince, and you will be in meeting with the King of Albanian around ten pm tonight,’ Andrea already cuts his boss instruction. Andrea is well aware of his boss way of thinking. Vito is looking at his wife who is happily eating the food from the buffet. His eyes glue to his wife and do not think about the work at all.

‘Boss, time for boarding the plane,’ Ai Jia is telling his boss about the time. However, he told him to delay the plane when he sees his wife still eating the food.

Emma is in heaven to see such expensive food everywhere. But she just realises the call to board the plane to Surabaya already announced by the airport. All passengers need to go and boarding the plane.

Emma is putting her fork down and drink the cocktail quickly. She already finishes one glass of cocktail made by the bartender before she asks for the second glass. It has been a long time since she was reborn to feel this relaxation.

‘Vito let’s go. We have to board the plane,’ Emma is asking her husband after she is finishing the whole cocktail.

‘How many glasses did you drink?’ Vito is standing up and holding his wife on his arm when she is hugging him so happy.

‘Two...’ Emma is showing two fingers with her cute face inside Vito’s arm.

Andrea is stopping AI Jia to hold up the plane after seeing the dog food in front of him. He can’t suffer this kind of affection alone. He needs to get someone to be with him all the time when he makes a cross sign on his body.

‘Get used to it, Mr Ricci,’ Ai Jia is advising him about the whole scenario in front of them.

‘Do we have to sit with them in the first class?’ Andrea is regretting his decision to come on the trip with Vito.

‘No, we are sitting in the business class while the couple will occupy the whole first-class cabin for themselves,’ Ai Jia is smiling at his bright idea. He had enough with all of their love PDA since the marriage alliance. It seems their boss fall in love head over heels with his wife.

‘Good job. I will treat you to your favourite snack when we are back in this town in one piece,’ Andrea is going to follow their boss to the gate. As a first-class passengers, they got pick up with a bungee car to the gate. They are becoming the public attention while sitting in the bungee car inside the airport and getting an escort to the gate.

The airport staff is welcoming them and escort them to the first-class cabin where the stewardess is welcoming them. They are going to their seat in the middle row in the second row. Meanwhile, Andrea is going back to the business class area with Max and Ai Jia.

Vito looks at his assistant and right-hand knows their place and leaves them alone in the first-class area when some voice in the stewardess area makes a big complaint.

The newcomer artist in the entertainment industry is going on a working trip. She wants to be first-class as her status as a famous artist. She does not want to sit in the crowd while her agent manages to secure her some business class seat.

She can see the first-class is empty and she wants to be in the first-class when the stewardess refuses her entry. No one can enter or use the first-class by the instruction from the CEO because of Vito presence inside this flight. Vito is the biggest shareholder in CS airlines which make him the direct owner of the company. Anyway, Vito is spending his money to buy the whole seat in the first-class for him and his newlywed wife which the stewardess is aware of it. The stewardess is serving them with a hot towel after they take their seat and two glasses of champagne.

‘Can you give me a bottle of water for my wife and take away one of the champagnes?’ Vito is asking the stewardess without any expression while he is handing back the full glass of Dom Perignon.

The stewardess is nodding to acknowledge his request when he is covering her wife with a blanket. Suddenly, a high pitch voice comes toward their seat when the artist is barging into the first-class area. Max is launching at

‘Sir, do you think it is not too much to book the whole seat only for yourself and your wife?’ Lu Xi is screaming after her body gets hold of Max. Vito is ignoring her presence and sign into Max to take her away.

‘Are you a deaf or pig? Even you miss, are you not over possessive like your stupid husband?’ Lu Xi is launching an attack toward them. She is famous in the industry for a character that is hard to deal with. Lu Xi is a rare talent in the industry but her attitude really not on par with her talent. Many people actually detest her and do not want to work with her if her backup is not the young master Lim. She gets really hard to deal with after manages to climb into his bed.

‘I will make a call to my boyfriend, and he will make sure to deal with you and the company!’ Lu Xi is screaming tries to get out of Max’s hand.
