

Marriage To The Mafia Boss - Chapter 41

. Chapter 41 - The Wrong Room And Result

Unfortunately, Luo Han Zheng is releasing his urge into Lu Xi without knowing the consequences that come after touching Lu Xi. Lu Xi tries to stop him, but she fails to do it. He pushes her onto the sofa and thrust her body when she feels a sharp pain in her lower body.

She can't hold any longer when she screams in agony for the pain. Han Zheng is kept moving his body in rhythm with his body. Lu Xi really feeling the pain at an excruciating level in her body, but it gets dissipate with the lust feeling in her body after a while.

The trace of blood hymen is flowing out on her thigh to the sofa. However, it did not stop Han Zheng to use her body over and over again. Lu Xi feels the ultimate feeling in her life where her moans come out from her mouth to changes her scream.

Luo Han Zheng is using her body to satisfy his body lust and make the drug disappear after the whole day with her. He spends the night with her on the bed without realising the woman identity.

Lin Yan is going to the room after a long talk with the Star management about some job. They are going to give all Lu Xi jobs toward Lin Yan. They expect her to be in the company to talk about their current job. Her manager will inform her about her schedule.

She wants to put her focus on brother Han Zheng and make him listen to her again. She wants to retire as the boss madame and do not want to work forever. She needs to make herself get pregnant with brother Han Zheng baby and kick Meng RU Ya out from the house of Luo.

The problem arises and all of her hope smash into the ground to find the room empty. There is no drunk brother Han Zheng in the room. She goes around the room and does not find him. Lin Yan tries to call his phone, but no one answering the phone.

She is getting confused where his location and she can't make the hotel to show her the CCTV to find brother Han Zheng. She only can scream her lung out to vent her anger. It seems lately her luck really bad, and nothing is going her way.

Meng Ru Ya is coming home in the night from the hospital. She tries to go back on track after her marriage with brother Han Zheng. However, he rarely gets home from work as her father starts to delegate some work toward her husband.

Out of a sudden, Meng Ru Ya is getting tired when she takes a quick shower before coming down for her dinner. As usual, her father is going abroad to do some business trip. She is all alone inside the house, and she gets used to it. She is sitting at the dining table when the maid is serving the home-cooked meal.

Out of a sudden, she wants to throw up and the feeling is wheeling up to her throat. She is running to the nearby toilet to put out the vomit. She can't wake up from the toilet with the severe vomiting. The maid is really worried and called the ambulance to bring her to the Qing university hospital. She got admitted to the wardroom when the maid is calling to Mr Luo Han Zheng. However, she cannot reach the young master.

Out of the blue, she decides to call her master and informs her about the young miss condition. He got angry and call the father Luo straight away to find justice. No one can find Luo Han Zheng and he does not answer his phone.

Father Luo is calling his wife and taking her to the hospital. If this princess daughter-in-law is calling her father and they decide to end their collaboration then it will be the end for the Luo Corporation in the capital. Father Luo is calling Lin Yan to find his son when she also did not know his location.

Father Luo is really angry with his son behaviour. He is changing after Emma decide to abandon him and their marriage alliance. He has become so quiet and out of focus lately. He even sleeps at home sometimes after work as if he did not have any wife in their home. After married, it was decided that the newlywed live in Meng Mansion as Father Meng is always abroad most of the time.

They are arriving in the hospital and going to the VIP ward straight away to find unconscious Meng Ru Ya with the IV line in her hand. Her maid is waiting in the room far away from the resting Meng Ru Ya.

They can't tell anything about her vomiting but manages to stop it for now. They are going to send her for an MRI, but they have to wait for her pregnancy test from the lab. They manage to put her to sleep after giving her some medication for her gastric.

In the lab, there is this two-blood sample on the table ready for checking when some new intern spills her tea toward the sample and make the label to be ruin. Apparently, the intern really scares of her mistake and hide it by print out the new label. She put the wrong label on the blood and leaves without people find out about her mistake.

It is not taken a long time for the result to be upload to the central system of the hospital computer under the patient's name. the doctor comes to the room and swap her medication to the one safe for pregnancy.

Meng Ru Ya actually is not pregnant. She only gets a bad case of stomach bug from the late lunch in the street vendor. Hence, the fault of the interns makes her be pregnant. She still did not know her pregnancy as if only Luo Han Zheng's parents listen to the doctor explained.

Mother Luo is really happy to hear the news about her daughter-in-law pregnancy after the marriage. They are making phone calls to Father Meng to inform him about her pregnancy. Everyone inside the room is feeling ecstatic about her pregnancy.

They are deciding to accompany their daughter-in-law overnight in the hospital in place of their missing in action son. They are sleeping on the couch and checking on their daughter-in-law condition for the whole night.

They were not agreeing with their marriage alliance even though her father company can help the Luo Corporation to go up. She is different from Emma who is able to take care of Han Zheng in every aspect. It is a pity that they have to go their separate way and it really hit their son really hard.

The sun is rising early today, and Meng Ru Ya still not yet wake up from her sleep. She was on night duty for two days in a row and continue to the morning shift before she went home. It is normal for her to catch up on her sleep.

Father Luo is going home to go to the company while madame Luo still stays in the hospital. Her maid is sending her some change clothes and some necessities for Meng Ru Ya.

Luo Han Zheng and Lu Xi just finishes their sexual intercourse in the morning. They had entangled each other body, and sleep in the bed together. Lu Xi feels on cloud nine with all their sexual intercourse the whole day yesterday and She take advantage of his body as well.

He is handsome and he comes from well off family. His clothes are coming from an expensive brand and his appearance look neat. She is hitting a jackpot in place of her body. She thought that she loses her virginity to the heir of the Lim family, but she is wrong. She loses her virginity toward this man on top of her body.

She will use this man in place of her lost virginity. She cannot just let it slip from her grip. She might get thrown away by young master Lim, but heaven blesses her with the new man who is looking better than young master Lim.

She might be retiring early from the entertainment industry and hug his thigh really close inside her arm. She will not leave him alone and leech on him for the rest of his life. She drifts to sleep under the man-body.

Han Zheng tries to open his eyes when he can hear his phone ring. His mind was gone due to the condition inside his body. He feels someone under his naked body. He opens his eyes to see the famous star, Lu Xi under his body naked with all the bite mark all over her body.

He decides to roll over his body when she snuggles her body closer to him.. He does not want to get his phone and tries to remember everything from yesterday.
