

Marriage To The Mafia Boss -

. Chapter 78 - Luo Han Zheng Plan

It takes a few days for Bai Yu to get better in the hospital. He is losing his two hands and crippled by Vito. He vows with his own life to take acts of revenge on Vito regardless of the consequences. He is trying hard to accept his condition as a cripple man, but it seems his life turn to be in the deep abyss every time he looks at his arm.

He is recuperating back at home in his mother mansion and did not dare to come out from the house. His assistant is working from his home when he gets more frustrated to see his assistant with a full hand.

He is venting his frustration toward his assistant. It is really aggravated to see the full and perfect man stand in front of him. If Bai Yu's assistant did not think about his debt to his boss mother family, He would want to resign and leave this angry human being.

In his mansion, Luo Han Zheng is enjoying his fantasies with Lu Xi. She is becoming submissive toward Han Zheng when developing the Stockholm syndrome. His family ended his marriage with Meng Ru Ya and disposes of her of the loss of her womb. Meng Ru Ya is going back depressed at the Meng mansion.

There is a big problem in the Meng corporation when Luo Corporation snatches their valuable project. Mr Meng is having a headache know about the problem. He was thinking to relay some responsibility to his son-in-law and gradually pass the company to his son-in-law.

Apparently, His judgement is quite wrong which making him into this big problem in his company. it is not including to see his daughter get depressed at home. He has to bring justice for his daughter.

Mr Meng is going to put the hit list into Luo Han Zheng head when Vito interferes and call him into his office.

Vito does not want his wife revenge on Luo Han Zheng destroyed or get beat by someone else. He will not let him do it.

He is calling Mr Meng to come to his office to get a solution for his family and company. it is the idea of revenge from his wife to push Meng Ru Ya into Luo Han Zheng.

Sun Min as expected is watering the plantation of Grandfather Sun in the Sun Mansion. As Vito already moves the whole operation into the Man Corporation, the house security is a minimum amount to guard the house.

Grandfather Sun is going on a holiday to get Grandmother Lin to recuperate. Vito is sending them away on holiday before he sends his troop of elite hitmen. They are becoming the security guard in the Sun mansion.

As soon as Sun Min gets into his work to water Grandfather favourite flower. He is getting busy attending the plant when one of the hitmen is taking of his gun with a silencer and shot him on his head from the back.

The bullet goes through his brain and lodge to the wall when Sun Min body falls down to the plantation in front of him. The hitman goes over the body and takes the bullet from the wall to remove the trace and evidence before left.

He takes the picture as evidence to the big boss for the death of the person who dares to kidnap his wife. Vito is doing his cleaning up regarding the incident without Emma knowledge.

Mr Meng is arriving at Vito's office with the escort from AI Jia. Andrea and Max are inside Vito's office to work on various matters.

‘Don Vito, please help me to get justice for my daughter,’ Mr Meng is kneeling in front of Vito as soon as he enters the office. He can not hold his feeling anymore to see his depressed daughter and a failing business.

‘The point is not only Luo Han Zheng. Your daughter gets the poison from Lin Yan. This is the evidence for her to get the drug into Ru Ya system. You are going through hell because of your hatred,’ Vito is giving him the folder for Lin Yan deeds to Ru Ya.

‘What should I do? They are destroying my daughter life and my company,’ Mr Meng is squeezing the folder in his hand after finding out the truth.

‘The main aim and goal at the moment is to cure your daughter. How about you accompanying your daughter to the wellness facility in Switzerland to cure her depression? I can buy your company,’ Vito is offering the solution for the problem to Mr Meng.

‘I will give you all my wealth and company if you let me kill these two bastards!’ Mr Meng is still getting work up from his daughter suffering.

‘I will make sure to seek justice for your daughter. My wife also got injustice from them. I will make sure to handle them properly and make sure to seek justice for your daughter. Have I ever going back of my word?' Vito is looking at Mr Meng. He already sends someone to look and tail han Zheng and Lin Yan.

'I do not dare to complain. I believe you and I will make sure to go and make my daughter gets better. Do you want me to sign the transfer agreement?' Mr Meng is feeling a little reassure with Vito's word about seeking revenge on behalf of his daughter.

Vito is asking him to get back home and read the transfer agreement from Andrea. Vito is reimbursing his company base on the decent value and throwing a treatment trip for him and her daughter.

Lu XI is wearing only a collar dog on her neck and sitting on the floor with her hand on her thigh. She has been submissive toward Han Zheng after all the torture applies to her body. She is changing from the prideful woman into a lifeless marionette who is following all her master wishes.

Lin Yan is having the initiative to come and knock on his mansion. She is well aware of this mansion because Emma takes her to go and check the mansion after Han Zheng buys it. He wants her to redecorate before their marriage.

In this place, Lin Yan is giving all the evidence to frame her own sister. She is creating fake evidence for framing her own sister and make Han Zheng be with her. She is back in this mansion after a while.

She is bringing a favourite cake for him to eat and knock the door. The house is still the same as before when she walks inside with the help of the butler. Lin Yan is hoping to rekindle her love with Han Zheng.

She still waits for the info of Vito Mancuso before she makes her next move. For now, she only can endure and find a way with brother Han Zheng. She is waiting patiently in the lounge room when Luo Han Zheng with his impeccable neat business suit comes down from the wooden stair.

Lin Yan hates the interior of the house due to its wooden style. However, her sister, Emma loves the whole mansion to hold their real value and conserve their original looks and interior. Han Zheng seems to comply with her wishes.

‘What bring you here, Lin Yan?’ Han Zheng is asking her with his nicest tone. After all, she is still Emma’s sister.

‘I want to give you some cake to offer my gratitude for helping me with my grandmother,’ Lin Yan is giving out the basket with some handmade cake inside it.

‘Thank you. How is grandmother condition? Would you like some tea?’ Han Zheng is becoming a gentleman and leads Lin Yan into the back garden to have tea. The maid is serving them some flower tea with the cake.

‘She is in good condition after her sister takes her into the best neurosurgeon. A grandmother is having her trip with her best friend. I am all alone in the big mansion, brother Luo,’ Lin Yan is asking his pitted feeling. She knows her skill well enough to manipulate her opponent.

‘Good to hear. You are going to be busy soon enough and you will not realise the loneliness in the house. Is your sister not living in the house?’ Han Zheng tries to find out a little information for his lover.

‘She is already living outside the house and sometimes, she stays in the hospital,’ Lin Yan is answering his question. She will not tell anything about her sister to live with Vito as if she wants to pursue Vito, she needs Han Zheng to take back her sister.

‘Is she not living with the son of Man family?’ Han Zheng is taking his cup of tea and drink it elegantly while listening to Lin Yan story.

‘I am not aware of their relationship. If I know anything about their relationship then I will report it to you. Why?’ Lin Yan is asking back naively.

‘Nothing it’s just I saw them together in the hospital and he seems close with your sister.. If they do not have anything or a relationship then I would like to take my chance to pursue your sister again,' Han Zheng is putting his cup of tea on the table.
