Chapter 126: You're Good Looking and Good at Cooking

When Lu Jingye heard footsteps coming down the stairs, he said to the other party, "That'll be all."

After which, he took the earpiece out and looked towards Zi Yi.

When she walked over and sat down, she found out that tonight's dinner was a seafood feast.

She suddenly recalled that the original owner seemed to be allergic to eating several types of seafood at the same time. In the end, the chopsticks in her hand traveled around the dishes before she took them back in the end.

"What's wrong? The dishes are not to your taste?"

"That's not it. I have an allergic reaction if I eat several types of seafood together."

Even Zi Yi herself found it weird for such an allergy constitution to exist.

Lu Jingye said nothing but nodded his head as he stood up and walked towards the door.

"What are you doing?"

"I'll get the housekeeper to remake the dishes."

Zi Yi sighed and subconsciously pulled his clothes.

Lu Jingye stopped and Zi Yi said to him, "There's no need for that. I'll just stick to one type of dish."

Having said that, she let go of his clothes.

Lu Jingye glanced at her and still walked away in the end.

Very soon, the conversation between him and the housekeeper could be heard. "In the future when Zi Yi is here, refrain from cooking a seafood feast... Also, prepare another few non-seafood dishes."

"I understand."

Lu Jingye came back and met gazes with Zi Yi's sparkling eyes.

Zi Yi looked at him and said with a smile, "Lu Jingye, you should be rather fond of seafood. If I stay here for a long time, wouldn't you have to stop eating seafood?"

Lu Jingye did not reply to her question. Instead, he said, "There's a biopharmaceutical research institution under the Lu Group. You can inform me about your allergy information and I will have them research some allergy medicine for you."

Zi Yi blinked. She remained silent for a few seconds because she was trying her best not to laugh out loud.

Lu Jingye looked at her with his deep eyes.

Zi Yi held her chin with one hand, while blinking her charming phoenix eyes, and gazed back at him. "Lu Jingye, I realized that I like you more and more, what to do?"

Lu Jingye asked with a calm expression, "Do you know what liking someone means?"

"En..." Zi Yi poked her cheeks and said after thinking for a moment, "You're good-looking and good at cooking."

Lu Jingye pursed his lips and lowered his eyes. She did not know what he was thinking, but based on his expression, it was obvious that he was telling her that he does not wish to continue this conversation.

Zi Yi: "..."

Did she say something wrong?

"Lu Jingye." Zi Yi reached out and poked his arm.

Lu Jingye merely gave her a sideways glance without saying anything.

Coincidentally, the housekeeper along with the maids had walked in and served the dishes.

When the dishes were placed down, Lu Jingye said, "Eat."

After that, he picked up the chopsticks and started eating.

When dinner ended, Lu Jingye headed for the study room on the third floor.

Whereas Zi Yi went out to walk around, to help digest the food. As she walked around, she subconsciously took out her phone and started checking the security system of the villa.

Based on its current standards, it was really pretty good.

However, she still detected a loophole that existed due to her racing cars.

Two bodyguards just happened to walk past and Zi Yi hastily called for them. "You two, wait a moment."

The two bodyguards walked over to Zi Yi and stopped when they were a one-meter distance away from her.

"Miss Zi."

Zi Yi pointed to her car. "That tree is too close to my car. Cut it down."

It was a landscape tree and was the height of a normal person. In fact, it was at least a meter away from her car and it did not seem to be affecting the car.

The two bodyguards looked at each other and felt that she was simply looking for trouble.

The housekeeper who coincidentally walked out saw Zi Yi together with the two bodyguards and hastily walked over.

Zi Yi saw him walking over and said, "Your arrival is timely. Let them cut down the tree."

Without any hesitation or opposition, the housekeeper immediately signaled to them. "Go and cut down the tree."
