Chapter 127: Lu Jingye, Just You Wait

When dusk fell, Zi Yi returned to her room.

Tonight was the phase of closing the net for the stock market war that the big organization had planned a few days ago. Therefore, she would also be taking advantage of the crisis and obtain the New Energy Company.

On the surface, the business industry appeared calm without any ripples. However, waves were raging wildly in the dark and the wind and rain were approaching.

The boss of that big organization never expected so many companies would take advantage of the opportunity and interfere. At around 1 a.m, they finally invested a massive amount of funds.

Several other companies had immediately followed suit.

Thus, a few companies had started a stock market war.

As the war without any smoke intensified, an invisible force infiltrated.

“Good timing.”

When Zi Yi discovered that invisible force, her fingers rapidly hammered the keyboard and very soon, she got her hands on the New Energy Company.

At the same time, several other companies had discovered that invisible force. Just as they wanted to join in, a senior executive in D Country’s UP Group suddenly exclaimed, “President, it’s bad! The biopharmaceutical company under our company has been acquired. It’s also been acquired at the lowest price.”

“What?” When the brown-haired, blue-eyed man seated at the highest seat heard this, a bloodthirsty glint flashed past his eyes. “Who was it? Immediately investigate!”

He was the only one allowed to seize other’s assets, and no one has ever dared to snatch things from his mouth.

As long as he found out who it was, he would definitely make them pay a painful price.

When his subordinate found out the culprit, their expressions had changed. “President, it’s the Lu Group.”

The atmosphere suddenly became unusually quiet.

A strong scent of hidden gunpowder floated in the air.

Smack!

The coffee cup fell to the ground. The coffee splashed all over the floor while the cup was smashed into pieces.

Rick’s subordinates could only shrink back and they dared not even breathe.

“Lu! Jing! Ye!” After Rick had squeezed out the name from his mouth with a fierce expression, he sneered and said, “How dare you snatch my food away? I’d like to see how capable you are.”

Having said that, he took his phone and walked out.

“President, we have successfully acquired UP Group’s Biopharmaceutical Company.”

A subordinate’s report sounded from the headphones. Lu Jingye calmly stared at his computer screen that reflected countless curves.

His gaze landed on one of them and after which, he said, “Time to stop.”

The moment Lu Jingye closed his laptop, his phone rang.

It was from an unknown number.

Lu Jingye swiped to answer and directly called out the other party’s name. “Rick.”

Rick’s voice was grim and murderous. “Oh? You’ve managed to guess that it was me!”

Lu Jingye’s voice was calm. “It’s not difficult to guess who you are.”

“Pfft! You still have that attitude as if you know everything.”

“Thanks for your compliment.”

“Ha! Do you think it’s that easy to snatch something away from my mouth?”

“How would I know if I don’t try?”

“Then you better be prepared to regret your actions.”

“Since I’ve already done it, I do not intend to regret it.”

“Good. Lu Jingye. Just you wait.”

Lu Jingye looked at the disconnected call, calmly stood up, and walked to the window.

As he opened the curtains, the moonlight poured in.

Lu Jingye’s line of sight unconsciously looked towards a window on the second floor and discovered a faint light coming out from there.

He frowned soon after.

She hasn’t slept yet?

He then took out his phone and dialed a number.

The young lady’s crisp and sweet-sounding voice came from the other end. “Lu Jingye, why are you calling me instead of sleeping in the middle of the night? Could it be that you discovered you’re fond of me and can’t sleep”
