

Multi skilled 134

Chapter 134: Miss Zi, Please Come With Us

When Zi Yi said that, both Dou Xiangling and Qin Yuqiao were surprised.

Deep down, Qin Yuqiao felt an inexplicable distaste.

They only met once and yet they had already become intimate. Yet, her wallet had been bled heavily that day from purchasing clothes and shoes worth millions for Zi Yi, and yet she was still distant from Zi Yi.

Zi Yi reached her hands out towards Dou Xiangling. With her beautiful phoenix eyes, she stared at her. "Cousin, give me your car keys. I'll drive."

Dou Xiangling subconsciously handed the keys over.

The two then headed for the white-colored car.

"Hey..." Qin Yuqiao called out. "Xiangling, Yiyi, where are you going?"

While she said that, she fished out her keys and hastily headed for her car.

"Let me tag along."

Dou Xiangling glanced at Zi Yi, but Zi Yi remained silent. She merely went for the driver's seat, opened the door, and sat inside.

After Dou Xiangling fastened her seatbelt, Zi Yi said, "I drive rather fast, please do inform me if you cannot take it anymore."

Immediately after she said that, she drove off.

Qin Yuqiao who followed behind her could only look on helplessly as the car in front of her drove further away from her. She could only hit her steering wheel out of anger.

While driving, Zi Yi checked the rearview mirror. Soon, she saw a car following them.

She curled her lips and said to Dou Xiangling, "Sit tight."

Following that, she stepped on the accelerator to the maximum. On the busy road, she swerved left and right. Very soon, she left the street.

After she had shaken off the car following them, Zi Yi asked, "Are there any art galleries that you know of in the vicinity?"

"Yes."

"Tell me the address. I'll send you there."

Dou Xiangling saw Zi Yi's expression and seemed to have connected it to something. She passed her an address first, before asking out of concern, "Yiyi, are you being followed?"

Zi Yi did not expect her to figure it out so quickly. She did not conceal anything and responded with an affirmation.

Dou Xiangling wanted to say something, but Zi Yi interrupted her.

“It’s not convenient for me to shake them off with you around.”

Dou Xiangling frowned slightly and asked again, “Do you know who they are?”

“I know. I won the championships in the International Racing Competition. There are many people who are jealous of my winnings.”

Dou Xiangling no longer said anything, but the frown on her face deepened.

Soon, Zi Yi sent Dou Xiangling to the art gallery. She originally intended to alight from the car but Dou Xiangling stopped her and said, “Yiyi, you should drive my car. Be careful.”

Zi Yi thought for a moment and nodded.

After Dou Xiangling alighted and saw Zi Yi driving away, she hastily took out her phone and made a call. “Brother, hurry and send some bodyguards to trace my car... I can’t explain it well right now, but just hurry up. Otherwise, it’ll be too late.”

Zi Yi drove the car towards a remote street, and after numerous twists and turns, she arrived at a relatively serene riverside.

There was evidently more than one party following her. The moment she stopped, several cars had arrived at her location.

Zi Yi quickly alighted and glanced at those cars. With a curl of her lips, she headed for the forest by the riverbank.

She continued walking until she was out of the woods and arrived at a wide beach.

Soon, those following her had caught up.

Zi Yi turned around and looked at them with an expression of indifference.

One of the men spoke up. “Miss Zi, please come with us.”

“What if I say no?”

“Then I can only apologize in advance.”

Having said that, the man walked towards her.

Clearly, he wanted to force her.

Just as Zi Yi was about to take action, she heard the sounds of an object piercing through the air.