Chapter 136: Let's Play

Zi Yi had a habit. For those who disliked her, she would never beg or think of ways to change their mindset.

Especially because this was trouble caused by the original owner, so it doesn't concern her in any way?

In the face of her cousin's coldness, she merely nodded with indifference and answered Dou Xiangling, "I'm fine."

She unfastened her seatbelt and alighted from the car.

"Yiyi, what are you doing?"

"Returning the car to you."

"There's no need, you don't have any form of transport right now. You can drive my car back."

She hesitated for a moment and asked, "Yiyi, why don't you return with us?"

Zi Yi shook her head.

Dou Xiangling wanted to say something, but Dou Zerui warned her with a stern expression, "I don't care if you mess around outside. But if you dare use our name to cause trouble, don't blame me for being rude."

"Brother, why are you saying this?" Dou Xiangling looked at Zi Yi out of concern. "Yiyi, you..."

Zi Yi narrowed her eyes and revealed an indifferent expression. "If there's nothing else, I'll be leaving first. I'll get someone to drive the car back to the art gallery you stopped at earlier. Remember to pick it up."

Having said that, she stepped on the gas and drove away to her home.

"Yiyi..."

"Why are you calling for her?"

Dou Zerui held her back. "Have you forgotten how grandfather's condition declined? People like her can't differentiate good from the bad. No matter how well you treat her, she won't appreciate it."

"Brother, I can feel that Yiyi is not such a person."

"How is she not? If she wasn't, how could she have done such things to anger grandfather?"

"Yiyi is still young."

"Young? Ha... You claim that she's young, but that father of hers definitely isn't. Doesn't this reflect his wild ambition? You better cut off all contact with her. Otherwise, that selfish uncle of ours will cling onto our Family again like a leech."

Dou Zerui was worried that this was a plot of Zi Xu's, deliberately making use of Zi Yi. After all, in his mind, Zi Xu was a vile person who would do something like that.

As for that cousin of his, she was a puppet brainwashed by the Zi Family.

Dou Xiangling frowned unconsciously. She still did not believe that Zi Yi was bad.

...

When Zi Yi drove back to Lu Jingye's residence, the housekeeper was anxiously standing in the yard waiting for her return.

The moment he saw the incoming car, he hastily went over.

Once the car door opened, the housekeeper asked with concern, "Miss Zi, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Zi Yi passed him the car keys. "Get someone to deliver this car to Xi Ci art gallery and inform the owner of the place that this is Dou Xiangling's car."

"I understand."

The housekeeper took the keys, called over a servant, and instructed him to deliver the car.

Zi Yi headed inside and the housekeeper, who followed behind her, said anxiously, "Miss Zi, did you encounter a few groups who wanted to take you away?"

Zi Yi tilted her head and looked at him.

The housekeeper explained. "The few bodyguards Second Young Master sent over had discovered that you hadn't driven your car. They went to check it and discovered that it was tampered with."

"I'm fine."

She did not have any intention to elaborate further and directly headed for the second floor.

The housekeeper looked at her back view, thought about it, and decided to call the Second Young Master.

After Zi Yi went upstairs, she quickly investigated who the people were behind the attack today.

Sometime later, Zi Yi sneered as she looked at the name list of the masterminds. "Let's play."

While she said that, she rapidly tapped on the keyboard.

Very soon, a series of codes had generated various types of viruses.

In less than a minute, those bosses who sent people to 'invite' Zi Yi had received a phone call concurrently.

"President, our R&D department was hacked and all the confidential information was leaked."

For a period of time, several large automobile companies fell into panic.
