

Multi skilled 154

Chapter 154: Lu Jingye, Your Ears Are Red

The scent of alcohol wafted around the tip of his nose.

There was also a faint fragrance of a young lady.

The soft touch was accompanied by a heat that was influenced by alcohol.

Lu Jingye narrowed his eyes and concealed the darkening in the depths of them. He clenched and loosened his hands, before he finally grabbed her shoulders and pushed her away from himself. In the harshest tone he could muster, he said, "Don't mess around."

Zi Yi looked at him with her beautiful eyes. She suddenly realized that the tip of his ears were red and she smiled.

"Lu Jingye, your ears are red."

Lu Jingye's expression finally broke down. He released his grip and covered her eyes with his hands.

Two seconds later, he let go of the somewhat drunk Zi Yi and turned to leave.

Zi Yi subconsciously pulled his clothes and put on a pitiful expression. "Lu Jingye, you're not going to take care of me?"

Lu Jingye looked at her small face, then sighed and said, "I'll go prepare a cup of fruit juice for you to sober up."

"..." Zi Yi slightly opened her mouth and asked after a long time, "You think I'm drunk?"

Having said that, she wanted to stand up but was pressed down by Lu Jingye on her shoulders.

"Sit down, don't move."

He then headed towards the bar.

Zi Yi no longer tried to stand up. With her hands propped on her chin, she looked at Lu Jingye walking to the bar counter. No matter how she looked, she felt that he was extremely charming.

Lu Jingye only managed to find two lemons after searching high and low.

Zi Yi looked at the lemons in his hands and hastily said, "I don't eat lemons. They're too sour."

Lu Jingye glanced at her, then took out his phone and dialed a number.

"Deliver some oranges."

Zi Yi continued to stare at him.

Whereas Lu Jingye stood behind the bar counter with no intentions of coming out. He asked, "I heard that everyone from the bar and racing club has left. What are your plans?"

Evidently, Zi Yi has a plan. However, she did not wish to answer him honestly. Instead, she pointed at her cheek. "If you kiss me, I'll tell you."

Lu Jingye looked at her with his pair of serious eyes.

Zi Yi was unhappy with his reaction. "Old-fashioned! It's only a few months before I turn eighteen. Why can't I become your girlfriend now?"

Lu Jingye's fingers twitched. He asked a question instead of replying, "If you encounter someone similar to me in the future, will you like him?"

"How could there be someone similar to you in this world? You're nosy and old-fashioned. Other guys would not react like you whenever they look at me."

Lu Jingye could no longer hold back and raised his hand to flick her forehead.

"Ah!" Zi Yi was startled by his actions. "What are you doing?"

Lu Jingye did not reply. He stared at her with his pitch-black eyes.

She felt somewhat unhappy about it.

Just then, Lu Jingye's phone rang and he took it out to answer the call. "Send them in."

Zi Yi subconsciously turned to look in the direction of the door.

As expected, she saw a bodyguard entering with a bag of oranges.

Lu Jingye took the bag and the bodyguard left.

Zi Yi then looked at Lu Jingye who was juicing the orange for her. She stood up and said, "Lu Jingye, I will make you change your mind before my birthday."

Lu Jingye glanced at her for two seconds before he shifted his gaze back to the juicing machine.

After the orange juice was prepared, he poured a cup and passed it to her. "Drink this cup of orange juice first."

Zi Yi looked at him for a moment, then grabbed the cup from his hands and downed it in three gulps. After placing the cup aside, she walked around the bar counter, wanting to jump into his embrace.

Lu Jingye was already prepared. The moment she pounced, he pressed his wide hands against her shoulders and restrained her on the bar table.

He lowered his eyes, looked at her, and said some words that even he did not believe came out from his mouth, "If you continue to be naughty, I won't be your boyfriend even after you've reached adulthood."