Chapter 163: I Dare You to Utter Another Word.

Zi Yi did not particularly wish to head anywhere and so she continued to tag along with Dou Xiangling to visit other painters in the afternoon.

After Dou Xiangling was done with all of her visits, it was already five in the evening.

The trio then decided on a restaurant to dine at.

After dinner when they came out from the booth, the Dou family siblings were waiting at the cashier till to pay for the meal, while Zi Yi stood to one side as she fiddled with her phone.

Just then, a group of young men and women came in from outside while joking around.

They saw Zi Yi standing there at a glance. Firstly they were stunned for a moment before they looked at each other. Their eyes flashed with disdain, jealousy, and anger at the same time.

Thus, one of the people came up to her.

The moment the group had entered the restaurant, other customers had naturally taken a detour.

“Yo~ Isn’t this Miss Zi from the Zi family who caused He Fei to be desperately in love and caused Ouyang Ming to be hospitalized?”

Zi Yi looked up the moment she heard his mocking voice.

Following this, she looked away with indifference and continued to browse through her phone.

“What airs are you putting on?” A woman could no longer watch on anymore. She walked towards Zi Yi and held her head up high. “S!t, don’t think you can easily seduce people from our circle just with a pretty face. Let me tell you... hey, what are you doing?”

Zi Yi pressed her phone against the woman’s throat. She narrowed her eyes and said in a chilly tone, “I dare you to utter another word.”

“You... uh... cough cough...”

Huang Min had never imagined she would be threatened by a phone. Moreover, the phone had caused her to stiffen and she was unable to breathe.

She felt like crying. Did the woman cast some spell on her? She was so terrified.

“Ha!” Zi Yi laughed at Huang Min’s reaction, but the smile did not reach her eyes. “So being beautiful now means seducing people?”

Zi Yi suddenly realized that she hated people from this circle even more.

They were a group of condescending people which made her fingers itch for violence at the sight of them.

Just then, the Dou family siblings who noticed the commotion hastily strode over.

With a solemn expression, Dou Zerui said, "What's going on?"

The others had also recovered their senses due to his question.

Even though the crowd was somewhat surprised to encounter the Dou family members here, they knew that they were aloof from politics and material pursuits, and therefore detested such things. Therefore, if they knew that Zi Yi had seduced two men, they would certainly stand on their side.

A woman immediately stood out and pointed at Zi Yi while her voice was filled with anger. "This woman has not only seduced He Fei and Ouyang Ming, she even wanted to injure Huang Min."

The others all hastily agreed. "That's right."

They started listing out all sorts of evil deeds Zi Yi had committed.

The Dou family siblings got angrier as they continued to listen.

In the end, Dou Zerui shouted, "Shut up."

After which, he turned to Zi Yi. "Cousin, you say it."

Everyone was dumbfounded. Didn't the Dou family hate Zi Yi?

Looking displeased, Zi Yi spoke up. "I didn't even know who He Fei was before. It was the He family who suddenly mentioned that He Fei was insisting on marrying me. Instead, I would like to ask He Fei when have I ever seduced him?"

After which, she took out her phone and dialed He Fei's number.

The other party was connected quickly and the surprise in his voice was obvious. "Yiyi, you unexpectedly took the initiative to call me?"

Someone wanted to speak up. However, Zi Yi shot him a stern gaze, and the person was forced to retreat.

Zi Yi did not immediately explain her current situation. Instead, she asked He Fei, "Has Ouyang Ming woken up?"

"He's awake."

He Fei's voice sounded complicated. "Yiyi, I didn't realize Ah Ming was so tasteless. Not only did he make a bet with you, he even fought you too.

He deserves being hospitalized. You can rest assured that this is his fault and I will make him stop his family from taking revenge."

"Ha!" Zi Yi sneered. "He's indeed tasteless. But it's not only him who is tasteless. Almost everyone in the high-society circle is tasteless."

Zi Yi hung up the phone after she said her piece and coldly glanced at the group of young masters and young ladies.

"What else do you want to say?"
