Chapter 172: Zi Yi, Don't Go Too Far!

Before Qin Yuqiao said something, the two young ladies beside her were enraged.

"Qiaoqiao has been so humble to you and yet, you don't appreciate it!"

"That's right, why don't you take a look at what kind of status you have."

Zi Yi suddenly laughed, but her eyes were cold. She looked at Qin Yuqiao and said, "If you like acting, act in front of someone who is willing to accompany you. Don't try to look for your sense of existence here with me."

"You..."

One of the young ladies wanted to push Zi Yi out of anger, but Zi Yi raised her hands to block her.

Qin Yuqiao acted as if she wanted to stop the young lady's hands that were headed for Zi Yi, and ended up hitting Zi Yi's blocking hands. In other's point of view, it was Zi Yi who fiercely gave her a push and caused her to fall to the ground.

"Ah... uwuhhh..."

"Qiaoqiao, how are you?"

"Zi Yi, why did you push Qiaoqiao! From saving you the previous time, her injuries are still yet to recover. Not only are you ungrateful, you even treated her this way!"

Looking at the trio who had perfect cooperation, Zi Yi's lips curved up.

Everyone in the main hall looked over and started to point fingers at Zi Yi.

Even the manager came out.

In the end, everyone was accusing Zi Yi of the act.

Just then, He Chao entered the restaurant and witnessed the scene. He asked He Fei who had an ugly expression on his face. "So this is the woman you like? It seems like her character is lacking?"

He Fei clenched his fist and looked at the scene. He gritted his teeth and said, "Yiyi is not that kind of person."

The moment he finished speaking words, he immediately stepped forward.

However, He Chao held him back by his shoulders.

"Since you don't believe it, then don't go up and greet her first. Let's hear how she explains."

He Fei was stunned for a moment and felt that it was a feasible idea. He believed that Zi Yi was capable of resolving this issue and so, he acquiesced to He Chao's suggestion. "Ok."

Zi Yi looked at Qin Yuqiao being helped to her feet by these two women, while having tears in her eyes. Whoever sees that appearance of hers would feel that she had been wronged.

“Yiyi, I didn’t know you hated me so much.”

After Qin Yuqiao said that, she spotted the two men walking over from the corner of her eye, and intensified her acting. “Yiyi, I truly regard you as my younger sister, but I didn’t expect you to reciprocate like this. I...”

“Hold it.” Zi Yi’s patience finally ran out. She took out her phone, swiftly typed out some codes, and said in a calm manner, “The area you and your two female friends were standing at was just right under the surveillance camera. This restaurant’s CCTV records sound too. Should I pull out the video of what you said earlier for everyone to hear?”

Zi Yi’s question was not a question but instead, a statement. After she said that, she directly hacked into the surveillance camera and pulled out a video of them.

“Qiaoqiao, isn’t she the one who caused you to be hospitalized?”

“Hmph! An unappreciative woman. If it weren’t because my brother wanted to recruit her into our entertainment company, I wouldn’t have wanted to keep in touch with her. How is a girl from a small merchant’s family deserving to be my friend?”

She added on. “However, I’ve found her to be an eyesore for a long time. Why don’t we embarrass her today.”

Zi Yi stopped the video recording.

The gazes of the spectators towards the trio had also changed. Immediately after, they started pointing their fingers at them.

“They’re too much, they actually bullied this girl by relying on their status.”

“They are young ladies of high-society and yet they trick people however they want. In any case, they have their fathers as their backing.”

“Ha! This woman is such a green tea b*tch. This type of bullying and deliberate framing should be exposed for everyone to see!”

Zi Yi looked on coldly at Qin Yuqiao’s expression that was turning pale and asked, “I also have the video where you fell down earlier. Should I pull it out for everyone to see?”

“Zi Yi, don’t go too far!”

Qin Yuqiao turned red from the accusation and was flustered. At the thought that their conversation was released by Zi Yi and would spread out in the future, which would cause her reputation to be damaged, she covered her face, turned around, and ran out.

She had to let her brother delete all those videos posted on the net!
