

Multi skilled 175

Chapter 175: You're Not Allowed to Speak to Me Like an Elder.

Time passed by very quickly.

On the evening of the 8th, Zi Yi was done for the day and was about to return. Just as she arrived at the parking lot, she saw a familiar car driving in from outside.

When the car stopped, Zi Yi looked at the tall, handsome man pushing open the car door and walking out. A joyous emotion immediately surged forth.

"Lu Jingye, you're back."

After that, she immediately pounced over.

Perhaps not expecting the young lady to be so enthusiastic at the sight of him, he blanked out for two seconds and she landed in his embrace.

A soft and fragrant body wrapped him in her arms, and his arms that were hanging from the side slightly twitched. In the end, he did not push her away.

Zi Yi withdrew from embracing Lu Jingye, looked up at him, and asked with a smile, "Why have you come back?"

"The housekeeper said that you have been staying in the racing club for the past few days and only come back to eat late at night. I'm here to take you home."

The smile on Zi Yi's face deepened at his words. She nodded and said, "I was just about to go back."

After which, she pulled his hands and led him towards her car. "Let's go in my car."

Zi Yi loved how he could remain calm when riding in her car even though she was driving at the fastest speed possible.

Lu Jingye stared at the white hands that pulled his. It was only after two seconds did he reply with a hum.

When they returned to the villa and finished their dinner, Zi Yi did not allow Lu Jingye to head upstairs.

"It's said that one day apart seems like three years, and we've not met each other for many days."

Lu Jingye's eyes flickered at her words.

"I heard you have purchased many high tech-products from the Lu Group?"

"You heard of it?" Zi Yi giggled. "What you've heard is correct. Since you promised me 10 billion, I definitely have to support your business, right?"

Lu Jingye suddenly had the impulse to rub her head.

However, he restrained himself.

He said with certainty, "You intend to transform the racing club into a brand new, high-tech robot servicing system."

Zi Yi looked at him with bright eyes.

"What's wrong?"

"Aren't you tired? Why do you like guessing so much, and moreover, you guessed it in one go."

Lu Jingye's smile deepened. So this young lady is praising him?

In the end, he could not resist the impulse and lifted his hand to rub her head. "I heard you'll be visiting your cousin's art exhibition tomorrow. Remember to sleep early tonight."

Zi Yi was a little stunned at his actions.

This man... is he thinking of himself as an elder of hers again?

Thinking of this, she turned around. When they were face to face, she pressed his shoulders and said in a solemn tone, "I'm your future girlfriend. You're not allowed to speak to me like an elder."

Lu Jingye: "..."

What was this young lady thinking about?

Seeing that Lu Jingye had not answered, she became even more certain of her thoughts. She then tiptoed and kissed him on the lips.

She took a step back and happily looked at Lu Jingye who was surprised by her actions. "On the account that you only returned today, you should go and take a rest first."

Following that, she walked towards the garage while humming an unknown tune. She was obviously in a good mood.

Lu Jingye stared at the young lady's back view and the soft touch of her lips seemed to linger on his. His eyes gradually darkened.

Early the next morning, Zi Yi saw Lu Jingye sitting on the sofa while listening to the housekeeper's report, when she came downstairs.

The two of them turned around, having heard her footsteps.

"Good morning Lu Jingye, good morning housekeeper."

"Good morning."

"Miss Zi, good morning."

After he was done with the report, the housekeeper went to ask the servants to serve breakfast.

When Zi Yi walked over, Lu Jingye stood up from the sofa.

As they headed for the dining table, Zi Yi asked, "Can I ask you a rather private question?"

"Go ahead."

“Did your younger brother manage to catch that woman that night?”

She had thought about this issue after that day. She felt that the woman was the silver fox that Lu Jingye had put a bounty of 1.5 billion on, in the black market.

Since he offered such a high price tag, that woman was definitely not easy to capture.

Lu Jingye had pursed his lips tightly at her question.