Chapter 231: Do You Like It?

After everyone left, Zi Yi smiled at Lu Jingye. "What do you want to know? As long as you kiss me, I'll tell you."

Lu Jingye looked into Zi Yi's eyes that were flickering with a crafty glint. He knew she was sure he would never do it. All of a sudden, he grabbed her waist with one hand while holding the back of her head with another and pressed down on her lips.

"Tell me."

Zi Yi widened her eyes in shock.

The next second, her lips were pried open.

At that very moment, Lu Jingye thoroughly allowed Zi Yi to feel his enthusiasm.

Zi Yi felt as if countless fireworks exploded in her mind.

Their kiss lasted for quite some time before they separated from each other.

Due to the aftereffects of the kiss, Zi Yi was breathless as she leaned against his chest. Listening to his faster-than-usual heartbeat, the corner of her lips curled up.

Just then, a deep voice sounded from the top of her head. "Do you like it?"

"Yep~"

Zi Yi tightly held onto his waist as her heartbeat followed the frequency of his, and their breathing intertwined with each other's.

Some time later, Lu Jingye asked, "Yiyi, how did you get acquainted with my Mother?"

Zi Yi remained in his embrace and slowly recounted how they met each other.

Lu Jingye could not restrain the smile creeping on his lips after listening to the story.

He never expected that this young lady would manage to handle his mother so easily.

However...

"Sister Song, huh?"

"Hehe." Zi Yi had also thought that he would mention the way she addressed his mother. She swore that she had unintentionally called her as such and she merely continued afterward.

"I mean, auntie looks really young and I can't possibly bring up that I'm your girlfriend when we met for the first time. I'll call her Auntie Lu in the future then." She did not wish to scare her future mother-in-law away.

Lu Jingye tightened his grip on her waist and said, "My mother won't dislike you."

He only released her some time later.

To be honest, Zi Yi was not too worried. "Isn't it better this way? Auntie feels guilty for keeping it a secret from me, and so she will stand on my side in the future."

Lu Jingye could not restrain himself and stroked her head. "I won't let anyone make things difficult for you."

"No one is capable of doing such a thing." Unless she willingly allowed them to do so.

She did not wish to continue this conversation. Zi Yi pulled his hand and swung it back and forth. "Lu Jingye, are you going back to work today?"

Lu Jingye looked at the young lady's expectant expression and softened. "I'll stay and accompany you and my mother."

Zi Yi was overjoyed. She pointed at the cherry trees. "I want to eat cherries."

The cherry tree near where they stood had been more or less destroyed by the fight earlier. However, the forest was pretty big and the cherries in other places were still in good condition.

Lu Jingye released her hands, picked up the baskets they had thrown away earlier, and passed one to her before holding her hand again.

What happened next was, Lu Jingye was responsible for picking the cherries while Zi Yi was responsible for taking the cherries and placing them in the basket.

Lu Jingye was tall and had long legs, so he could reach the cherries that grew at the top. Those that he picked were all large and red. The greedy Zi Yi could not resist and sneaked one into her mouth.

It just so happened that Lu Jingye saw her actions when he turned around.

He then said disapprovingly, "There are bugs on cherries. Eat them after washing them."

Zi Yi blinked her beautiful eyes and ate the cherry without the slightest guilty conscience before she said, "The bugs inside the cherries are rich in protein, so it doesn't matter if you eat some."

She continued chewing after having said that and smiled at him. "The cherries are delicious."

Lu Jingye's temper disappeared in an instant.

In the end, they only made their way back after he had picked two and a half baskets worth of cherries.

On the way back, Zi Yi glanced at Lu Jingye who was carrying one basket in each hand, and asked, "Do you think Auntie will feel awkward if she sees me now?"

Lu Jingye turned towards her and said affirmatively, "You're very good, so it will be fine. My mother likes you a lot already."

Zi Yi smiled in response.

Chapter 232: Yiyi Cannot Call You Sister Song

When Zi Yi and Lu Jingye returned to the temple, Mrs. Lu was not resting inside her room. One of the bodyguards informed her that she had gone to meet Master Huihe.

Lu Jingye carried the cherries inside and got someone to submerge some of them in a bowl of saltwater. "Eat them only after they've soaked for a while."

Zi Yi nodded. "Then let's go find Auntie."

Thus, the two of them headed towards Master Huihe's yard.

When they arrived, Master Huihe seemed to have said something to Mrs. Lu, as her joyous voice could be heard from outside.

"Is that so? Then I can rest assured."

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye met gazes before they continued making their way inside.

Just as they arrived in the middle of the yard, they encountered Mrs. Lu and Master Huihe coming out from the hall.

Master Huihe came up to them and greeted them by raising her clasped hands.

Lu Jingye followed her movements and returned a greeting.

Upon seeing them, Zi Yi also did the same.

Master Huihe looked towards Zi Yi and said, "You have an excellent face, and you're someone blessed with wealth."

Zi Yi's lips curled up slightly and she asked, "Master, could you tell me when will Lu Jingye and I get married?"

"Ahem..."

Mrs. Lu did not expect Zi Yi to be so straightforward.

On the other hand, Lu Jingye understood her very well. She had obviously asked on purpose.

Master Huihe laughed in response. "Then it'll depend on both of your intentions."

Zi Yi nodded in satisfaction and did not ask further.

Mrs. Lu spoke up at that moment. "Master Huihe, we shall not disturb you then."

Having said that, she turned to Zi Yi and Lu Jingye. "Let's go."

As such, the three of them left the courtyard.

Mrs. Lu sneaked a few glances at Zi Yi after they left. She seemed to have something to say but had no idea where to start.

Lu Jingye saw her behavior and said, "Mother, don't worry. Yiyi doesn't take it to heart about you lying to her."

Zi Yi nodded and said, "That's right. I like Auntie very much. Although I can't call you Sister Song in the future..."

Mrs. Lu was amused by her. "Since Little Zi likes calling me as such, in fact, it doesn't really..."

“No.” Lu Jingye interrupted her. “Yiyi cannot call you Sister Song.”

He was very insistent on this.

Zi Yi glanced at Lu Jingye’s old-fashioned personality acting up again and went over to hold Mrs. Lu by her elbow. “Auntie Lu, you and Lu Jingye look like you two are similar in age. Other people would think that you’re siblings when you hang out together.”

Mrs. Lu was delighted by Zi Yi’s words and reached out to pinch her cheeks.

The delicate skin under her fingers made her feel like touching it longer. At the same time, the awkwardness disappeared and what remained was her fondness for Zi Yi. “Our Zi Yi is good at speaking. Take a look at that brat over there, that mouth of his is hard to like.”

Speaking of him, she asked, “Little Zi, how did you start liking him?”

Zi Yi glanced at Lu Jingye and giggled. “I like his personality.”

Mrs. Lu’s fondness for Zi Yi increased upon hearing her answer.

“Auntie, Lu Jingye and I have plucked plenty of cherries, and they are soaking right now. Let’s eat them when we get back.”

“Sure,” Mrs. Lu said with a smile. “Aren’t you a couple? Why are you still calling Jingye by his full name?”

Zi Yi did not think of this point. She turned and looked at Lu Jingye.

“Then I’ll call you Jingye? No, it won’t do. I should have an exclusive name to call you by. I’ll call you Ah Jing then!”

Lu Jingye looked at her with a gentle gaze and felt that she could call him whatever she wanted.

Chapter 233: When a Son is of Age, He No Longer Listens to His Mother!

Mrs. Lu explained Ouyang Yu’s condition to Zi Yi, while they ate cherries. “Ouyang Yu broke her lumbar spine. When I returned to the temple, Mrs. Ouyang had already left with her.”

Zi Yi originally intended for Ouyang Yu to get beaten by her bodyguards and expose her in the end. She never expected the situation to escalate to its current severity. However, at the thought of that mother and daughter pair’s scheme, she did not feel sorry for them in the slightest.

The three of them remained at the temple until after four in the afternoon, before they then left.

Mrs. Lu pulled Zi Yi’s hand when they arrived at the car park. “Little Zi, come and accompany me in the future whenever you’re free.”

Zi Yi obviously would not reject her offer. “Sure, Auntie Lu!”

After they chattered for a few more minutes, Zi Yi headed for her racing car.

Mrs. Lu’s complexion paled at the sight of her racing car as she thought of its speed.

She said to Lu Jingye in worry, “Jingye, Little Zi’s racing car speed is extremely fast. Are you sure it’s safe?”

Lu Jingye explained and said, "There's no need to worry. Yiyi has won the international racing competition and it's not a problem for her."

"But... the speed of that car of hers is too fast."

She was still worried.

Just then, Zi Yi drove the car over to them and asked, "Jingye, do you want to take my car?"

Mrs. Lu was just about to tell her not to drive and take her car instead.

However, Lu Jingye responded first and said to Mrs. Lu, "Mother, I'm going back to work first. I'll leave all the bodyguards with you. I'm taking Yiyi's car."

Having said that, he gave orders to a bodyguard beside him. "Protect my Mother well."

He then headed for the passenger seat of Zi Yi's car. His long legs entered upon opening the door and he sat inside.

Zi Yi waved at Mrs. Lu. "Auntie Lu, then I'll be leaving with Ah Jing~ Bye!"

Following that, the car shot out with a roar.

Mrs. Lu: "..."

Zi Yi drove straight to Lu Jingye's company underground car park.

Lu Jingye was originally holding an important international conference call today. After receiving an anonymous message, he made arrangements for people to protect her. However, he never expected to receive a call, informing him that a group of killers had made their way there. In the end, he had no choice but to leave the conference call and rush there in person.

Right now, he had to return and continue with the meeting.

Before he alighted, he said, "Yiyi, thank you for today."

Zi Yi tapped his lips. "Who wants your thanks?"

After saying that, she felt that she had suffered some losses and immediately changed her tune. "If you really want to thank me, give me a kiss."

She anticipated that an old-fashioned man like him would never kiss her at their current location and deliberately unfastened her seat belt as she moved her face closer.

Looking at the beautiful face in close proximity, Lu Jingye's eyes darkened.

The next second, he reached out his hand and held the back of her head, then cradling her face with his right hand, he quickly sealed her lips.

...

Sometime later, Zi Yi looked at the tall figure alighting from her car and the corner of her lips rose uncontrollably.

...

A week had quickly passed by.

It was finally the date where Zi Yi and those directors had agreed on for the examination to take place.

Early in the morning, Zi Yi made her way to Metropolis University.

During that time, Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui were already waiting for her in front of the school building. Upon seeing Zi Yi walking over, they immediately surrounded her.

Dou Xiangling was still somewhat worried. "Yiyi, do you really intend to take so many different exams?"

Zi Yi calmly nodded. "Yes. Taking one or several exams doesn't make a difference to me."

Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui: "..."

There was a big difference, alright?!

They were worried that excessive concern would dampen her fighting spirit and so, Dou Xiangling said, "Focus on your exams. Later on we'll be waiting for you here."

Dou Zerui added. "After you're done, we'll go out for some delicious food."

Zi Yi glanced at the duo who were obviously more nervous than her and said, "Don't worry. I will finish the exams quickly."

After that she headed towards the office building.

Upon hearing what she said, the two who stood outside the building were even more worried.

Chapter 234: Examination (1/2)

When Zi Yi walked into the building, she did not expect to see a large group standing in the hall.

Besides the dozens of directors she met the previous time, there were also some other people.

At her arrival, all of them looked at Zi Yi with a complicated gaze.

One of them asked, "Student Zi, have you really thought it through, taking the examinations of so many subjects today?"

Zi Yi nodded confidently. "Yes."

Another director shook his head and politely advised. "Student Zi, let's put it this way. Your situation is very unique and it is impossible for the university to easily allow such a special case. Therefore, there will be numerous out of syllabus questions in today's examination. If you are unable to score the passing mark, you can only follow our arrangements."

Zi Yi still had a confident expression. "Okay."

They did not expect her to be so firm despite all that they've said and so, no one continued to advise her further.

Following this, one of them led Zi Yi upstairs.

Similar to the previous time, she came to the second floor. However, the room she entered this time was a big conference room.

There was only a single table and chair, two middle-aged men and 360-degree surveillance.

The expressions of those two middle-aged men looked very stern. One of them was wearing glasses and the other had a sharp gaze.

The person who led her here stopped at the door and said, "Student Zi, you can enter. These two are your invigilators for today."

Having said that, he turned to leave while Zi Yi entered the room.

She went over to the table of the invigilators and greeted them with a calm expression. "Good morning."

The bespectacled middle-aged man spoke up. "My name is Chu Hong and he is Shen Wenyuan."

He did not reveal their position to her.

However, Zi Yi had browsed through the names and positions of all the directors when she got back and knew that they were both Vice-Principal.

Chu Hong continued to say, "You will be taking eight consecutive exams today, each of which lasts for an hour. You will only have a ten minute break time between each paper and half an hour break for lunch at noon. The exam will end at 9.30 p.m. You can choose to give up if you are unable to endure such a high-intensity pace."

Shen Wenyuan added on. "If you choose to give up, you can only follow the school regulations."

Zi Yi did not expect the examination to last so long and was about to speak up.

However, Shen Wenyuan continued to speak with a straight face. "One should act according to one's ability. Even if you are a genius, you have to understand that knowledge is slowly accumulated, and learning several subjects at a time might not produce good results. At that time, you might end up not excelling in any. Would you be able to live up to the expectations of the teachers who taught you then?"

After Shen Wenyuan said his piece, Chu Hong added. "Student Zi, you should have understood our Metropolis University's culture of producing talented individuals. Even though you are the first to score full marks in our Independent Enrollment exam, it can only be considered your first step in M.Uni. A single discipline here covers a wide range of knowledge and there are many who have excelled in a single discipline and graduated to become a talent.

In the end, Shen Wenyuan said, "We'll give you the final ten minutes to think about it. Once you take the exam, there are no chances of regrets."

Seeing that they have finally finished their long-winded talk, she said, "I won't regret it."

The two Vice-Principals: "..."

They seem to have encountered a stubborn student today.

Shen Wenyuan's expression became even sharper. "If that's the case, then let us begin."

"Hold on, I wish to shorten the examination time. I only need 25 minutes for each paper."

"Are you sure?" Both the invigilators were shaking their heads in disappointment deep down.

Not only was this student ambitious, but she also had impractical thoughts.

"I'm sure."

"Alright then."

Chapter 235: Examination (2/2)

When Zi Yi started the examination, everyone who was aware of this started to discuss it with each other.

"What a pity. I was originally very optimistic about this student. I didn't expect her to be so ambitious. I will not accept this kind of student."

"At least 30% of the questions in a paper are not in the syllabus for her education level. Even if an M.Uni student were to attempt it, they might not possibly complete it in under an hour. However, she requested 25 minutes for each paper? Is she here to play around?"

"I think a student who doesn't take exams seriously will not pay much attention to their studies in the future."

Zi Yi's examination had already shocked the entirety of the high-level management in the university and even those from the Ministry of Education knew about it.

The surveillance in the examination room was in fact, to allow them to spectate her.

The majority of the people were pessimistic about the exam and only a minority were spectating.

In particular, when they heard that she only needed 25 minutes for each paper, even those who were spectating had shaken their heads in disappointment.

However, when the examination started, all of them turned silent.

The moment Zi Yi started writing, her speed did not seem like she was attempting those questions. Instead, it was like...

"If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I would have thought that Student Zi was copying the answers. How could there be a student who answers questions at such a fast speed!"

"The first question is correct!"

"Same for the second question!"

"The third..."

While looking at Zi Yi's paper, all of them subconsciously held their breaths as time passed.

In particular, when the person who was responsible for checking the answers said that her answer was correct, their hearts felt like they had been hammered on and they could not calm down even after a long time.

...

Just as Zi Yi was attempting the fourth paper, the M.Uni headmaster convened with the deans from all faculty for an emergency meeting.

Everyone was sitting in the conference room and the screen behind the headmaster was currently broadcasting the image of Zi Yi completing the papers rapidly.

The headmaster asked, "What do you all think about this student?"

Dean of the School of Technology: "The questions are all set by professors from each faculty based on the college entrance examination papers over the years. I heard that some of them had included college-level questions, but this Student Zi was unexpectedly able to answer all the questions. She can no longer be described as a talented individual."

Dean of the School of Science: "Our school welcomes such a student."

Dean of the School of Economics: "A talent like her should develop towards economics."

Dean of School of Liberal Arts: "Such a beautiful female student can represent our M.Uni and how could she not be a student of literature!"

...

Only the Dean of the School of History sat there without care while he thought to himself proudly deep down, "Continue fighting all you want. After all, Student Zi wishes to major in Ancient Chinese Language and Archaeology and you're all only minors!"

Without the anxiety of fighting for the student, the Dean of the School of History was able to think further. "Headmaster Yuwen, I don't think right now is the time for us to consider what Student Zi should be studying. What we should focus on is if other international universities would fight with us for Student Zi before school starts if they come to know about her."

His words were like a basin of cold water that splashed onto everyone.

"You're right, other than famous universities abroad, we also have a few famous universities in our country. Even though we are the capital's top university, what if some other universities use underhanded means and promise her benefits after knowing about this?"

"That's right, a student like her would definitely become a great talent in the future and we cannot let someone intercept just like that."

...

Therefore, after Zi Yi lived up to her expectations and quickly completed the eight papers, she was once again invited to the headmaster's office on the fifth floor, before she left the office building.

Chapter 236: Was This Considered as Being Threatened?

It was already past four o'clock in the afternoon when Zi Yi finally walked out of the office building.

Unexpectedly, Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui were still standing there waiting for her.

The duo immediately went up to her upon spotting her walking out.

Only the senior management knew of the examination results and it was not publicly made known. Therefore, they only knew Zi Yi requested to shorten the exam timings and were unaware of how she fared, nor the fact that the headmaster had invited her in for a discussion.

Dou Zerui hastily asked, "How did the exams go?"

Zi Yi rubbed her stomach and answered, "You can treat me to something delicious now."

Dou Xiangling smiled. "I told you so. Our Yiyi is the smartest. Let's go! What would you like to eat? I'll treat you."

"I want cake and milk tea."

"Okay!"

And thus, the trio left. However, not long after, Dou Zerui's phone suddenly rang.

He glanced at the caller ID and said, "It's from dad."

Dou Zerui and Dou Xiangling were siblings and their father was Dou Zhiyuan (Zi Yi's Third Uncle).

Dou Zerui answered the call.

The call lasted for a short period of time, as Dou Zerui responded with several yeses and said in the end before he hung up, "Alright, we'll be right there."

After hanging up the phone, Dou Zerui looked at Zi Yi and happily said, "Yiyi, my father and uncles have already booked a room in a restaurant. They asked us to go over."

Zi Yi looked at him with her lips pursed.

Dou Zerui knew of the cold treatment Zi Yi received in the past, and right now, she was definitely unwilling to go over. "It should be because they got to know of your examinations today. Don't worry, they won't scold you."

Zi Yi was originally hesitating on if she would go over. Upon hearing what he said, her expression tensed up, and she said, "I'm not going."

Dou Xiangling felt like smacking her forehead.

Her brother clearly knew Zi Yi had 'feared' those Uncles of hers and yet, he had deliberately mentioned it. Wasn't he simply making her even more unwilling to go?

Dou Xiangling pulled Zi Yi's hand and said, "Yiyi, there must have been some misunderstanding in the past. Why don't you explain it to them?"

Deep down, Zi Yi thought that there was nothing to explain. The original owner turning a deaf ear to her Uncles' advice and sided with Zi Xu to ruin the Dou Family's reputation was a fact. Using Dou Family's reputation to trample on others in the S City was also real. Not to mention, it was also true that she also angered her grandfather to the extent of his heart problem relapsing.

How was she to explain?

Could she say that she wasn't Zi Yi?

Wouldn't she be asking for a beating instead?

Just as Zi Yi was complaining deep down, her phone rang.

Taking out her phone, it was an unknown caller. Somehow, she felt that the call was from one of her Uncles.

Dou Xiangling glanced at the caller number display and reminded her. "Yiyi, this is Eldest Uncle's phone number. Quick, answer it."

Zi Yi lowered her eyelids for two seconds before she answered the call.

A stern voice sounded from the other end. "Come over with your cousins at once. Otherwise, we will directly come over to M.Uni to fetch you."

After saying his piece, he hung up.

Zi Yi: "..."

In the end, Zi Yi, who was hesitating on if she should go, followed the duo to the restaurant.

Inside the room sat three of her Uncles.

Dou Xiangling whispered to her, "Fourth Uncle went to M Country to attend the International Economic Exchange Conference."

Zi Yi nodded and politely called out after she entered the room, "Eldest Uncle, Second Uncle, Third Uncle."

"Sit." Dou Jingning pointed towards the seat opposite him.

The table was capable of accommodating up to 15 people and yet they only had a few people here. Zi Yi managed to see through the thoughts of her three Uncles in a glance.

She sat down with a calm expression.

Just as Dou Xiangling was about to sit beside Zi Yi, she was stopped by Dou Zhiyuan.

"Zerui, Xiangling, sit over here."

Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui met gazes. Even though they were worried if Zi Yi could withstand the aura radiated by their uncles or not, they dared not go against them.

Zi Yi glanced at the dishes that were already served, then at her Uncles who had stiff expressions on their faces.

It was her first time being in such a situation and she found it rather novel.

Just then, knocking sounds could be heard.

Soon after, a staff member walked in with a steaming clay pot that was the size of a person's face.

The second she glanced over, she saw the staff member tripping over his own feet. He lost grip on the pot and the bowl was about to land on her Eldest Uncle and Second Uncle.

The staff was frightened to the extent that he dared not utter a single word and could only widen his eyes in horror.

Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui had also seen what transpired.

The both of them simultaneously shouted in horror. "Eldest Uncle, Second Uncle, move away!"

Dou Zerui had stood up while he shouted, as he wanted to push away Dou Xiaoyong who was sitting closest to him.

However, how could there be time for him to move away in such a situation?

And so, the steaming clay pot of soup was about to splash onto the two of them.

At that moment, Zi Yi suddenly stood up and swiftly threw out two circular balls.

The balls moved behind them and exploded concurrently, forming a barrier around them, which had blocked the boiling soup from splashing onto them.

Everyone saw the soup flowing down the barrier. The first to recover their senses was her Second Uncle Dou Xiaoyong and then it was Third Uncle Dou Zhiyuan.

The both of them looked at the circular balls floating in the air with an excited look as they suppressed their surging excitement.

Dou Xiaoyong asked, "Who gave you these things?"

Zi Yi snapped her fingers and they returned to their initial shape, before returning to her hands.

"I made them."

"Impossible!"

Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan did not believe her.

Zi Yi glanced at them without a care for explaining. She pointed at the staff member and reminded him. "Shouldn't we settle this issue first?"

The staff member was scared silly upon accidentally letting go of the soup pot. However, he recovered his senses upon getting pointed at and shuddered as he said while trembling, "I-I... It wasn't deliberate."

"Bring your manager over."

This was a serious mistake committed by the staff member and if it weren't for Zi Yi, Dou Jingning and Dou Xiaoyong would be seriously injured.

The manager arrived shortly afterwards.

When he saw that they were from the Dou family, he was also scared silly.

“Dear professors, I’m sincerely sorry about this. This is our staff member’s mistake.”

Having said that, he shouted at the staff member, “Clean up the floor!”

The staff member hastily left to grab the cleaning equipment, while the manager continued to apologize.

The Dou Family were not unreasonable people. However, the manager was not spared from a lecture before he was then allowed to leave.

Without any more outsiders in the room, Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan looked at Zi Yi.

She took out the two circular balls and calmly explained the principle of creating them.

The creation had involved knowledge of mechanics and physics, and her explanation greatly aroused their enthusiasm. In the end, the three of them started to discuss academic topics.

Dou Zerui could not help but chuckle at the scene. “It seemed like our worries were redundant.”

Dou Xiangling’s lips could not help but curl upwards as she said, “Yiyi is really amazing.”

Speaking of this, she added, “But Yiyi mentioned she was hungry when she finished the examinations. Should we remind Dad and Second Uncle?”

“Do you think our reminder will be effective?”

The sibling duo turned to Dou Jingning who was sitting quietly while listening to their conversation.

Just then, he said aloud, “Let’s eat first.”

Chapter 237: Even If They Are Your Uncles, They Can’t Bully You

After the meal ended, Zi Yi’s uncles did not immediately leave.

In order to express their apology, the manager had personally served them their tea and desserts.

After the door was closed shut, Dou Jingning was the first to speak up. “We’ve witnessed the whole process of your examination today. We are well aware of our niece’s capabilities. Therefore... who are you?”

The moment he said that, Dou Zerui and Dou Xiangling looked at him in shock.

All three elders of the Dou Family had serious expressions on their faces. The sharpness contained in their gazes were as if they could see through Zi Yi’s inner thoughts.

Zi Yi chuckled in response and calmly answered, “If you don’t think that I’m Zi Yi, then who am I?”

“I heard that Zi Xu had invested all his liquid funds and now those funds are tied up in unfruitful projects. If I were to find out that Zi Xu arranged for you to approach and obtain something from us, don’t blame me for being rude.”

“What can I obtain from you?”

Zi Yi cocked her head to the side while her smile deepened. "Your reputation? So in order to make use of your reputation, I went to M.Uni and took the examination for eight different degrees? Since I am capable of such a feat, would I still need your reputation?"

Speaking of this, Zi Yi revealed traces of indifference. "Since you've already done your investigation, you should know that I was chased out by Zi Xu. As for the reason behind it, I'm sure you are also well aware. Despite all that, I did not approach the Dou family. What do you think you possess that I would want to make use of?"

After she said that, she directly stood up.

"Thanks for the dinner. Goodbye."

"Stop right there!"

Dou Jingning did not expect Zi Yi to have such a temper. He furrowed his brows and looked at her. "Sit down."

Zi Yi did not heed him. She remained standing and looked at him with her lips pursed.

Dou Jingning felt a sudden headache coming on.

He knew what she said was right. Most importantly, if that brother-in-law of theirs knew of Zi Yi's capabilities, he would never have chased her out and left her to her own devices.

His earlier question was asked out of instinct. He instinctively felt that their niece did not have such capabilities.

However, he could be sure right now. Zi Yi's stubborn character was exactly the same as before.

"I apologize for what I said earlier."

Zi Yi never expected an apology from Dou Jingning and all of a sudden, her anger dissipated.

And so, she sat down. Then it was Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan's turn to ask questions.

Dou Xiaoyong asked, "You never liked studying before. How did you suddenly get such good grades?"

Zi Yi's fingers tapped on the table and she answered in an unserious manner, "Disliking studying doesn't mean I'm not good at studying. In any case, I have the Dou family's scholarly genes and as long as I wish to learn something, I will easily acquire proficiency."

Dou Xiaoyong unexpectedly liked that answer of hers.

However, Dou Zerui who was sitting at the side while keeping quiet, had nearly spat out his tea.

Whereas Dou Xiangling did not know whether to laugh or cry.

They felt that their cousin was talking nonsense in a serious manner.

Dou Zhiyuan asked, "Then why are you suddenly interested in studying? Moreover, you wish to take on so many different subjects."

Zi Yi looked at the three of them and answered seriously, "I like it."

Zi Yi's three Uncles: "..."

Just then, Zi Yi's phone suddenly received a notification. Taking a glance at it, it was unexpectedly from Lu Jingye.

Lu Jingye: [It's going to rain tonight. Don't stay out too long.]

Zi Yi smiled. She felt warm deep down inside.

Even when he was swamped with work, he would still send a message to remind her. Should she try to act cute with him?

Thinking of this, Zi Yi quickly typed a response: [I was captured by my big devilish Uncles. They are thinking of eating me.]

Lu Jingye: [Where are you?]

Zi Yi: [Are you coming to save me?]

Lu Jingye: [Yes. Even if they are your Uncles, they cannot bully you.]

The smile on Zi Yi's lips deepened and she gave him her current location.

Immediately after, she looked up while putting her phone down. Upon seeing five pairs of gazes locked onto her, she restrained her smile and looked back with a taut expression.

The Dou family members: "..."

Why did they have a feeling that they were bad people?

Zi Yi said to her three Uncles, "If you dislike me, you can just pretend that I don't exist."

Zi Yi's three Uncles: "..."

"I won't appear in front of grandfather and anger him, nor will I ruin your reputation. What I did in the past was truly too much and I won't ask for your forgiveness. If it were me, I wouldn't forgive myself too... If you are still angry, you can just treat it as if I don't exist."

She did not have feelings for the Dou family and it was better to draw the line.

Her three Uncles turned pensive at her words.

They never expected that the niece who used to be so ignorant would suddenly become so... alienated from them.

Whatever she had done during this period of time had indeed never involved the Dou family.

And so, the three of them began to re-examine this niece of theirs.

In the end, everyone remained silent.

Zi Yi was not fond of such an atmosphere and so she said, "If there's nothing else, I'll be going back first."

Having said that, she left the room.

Her three Uncles did not stop her.

Just as she walked out of the room, Dou Xiangling chased after her. "Yiyi, are you angry? I..."

Zi Yi stopped and looked at her as she said, "I'm not angry. They are considered strangers to me and I don't really care about strangers' attitudes towards me."

All of a sudden, Dou Xiangling had no idea what to say.

Zi Yi waved at her and said, "I'll be leaving first."

After which, she left. When she walked out of the restaurant, she discovered it really was raining.

She recalled Lu Jingye mentioning he was coming and took out her phone, with the intention to send him a message. However, a car had coincidentally stopped in front of her.

The windows rolled down and revealed Lu Jingye's handsome face.

Unexpectedly, he was in the driver's seat.

"Yiyi, get in."

Zi Yi kept her phone, walked over to the passenger's side, and got in. She looked at him in surprise. "How did you get here so quickly?"

"I just happened to have an appointment nearby."

Zi Yi smiled. She pointed at her racing car and said, "My car's still here."

"Open the automatic lock. I'll get the bodyguard to drive it back for you."

Zi Yi nodded and unlocked the car. Lu Jingye contacted his bodyguards through a communicator and drove away.

"Where are we going?"

"Where would you like to go?"

Zi Yi looked at the weather and said, "Why don't we go home? I previously arranged for the robots to deliver some alcohol back home. It's suitable to drink some alcohol during such weather."

Lu Jingye suddenly turned to glance at her but said nothing. He turned the steering wheel and drove in the direction of home.

Very soon, they arrived at Zi Yi's villa. When the housekeeper heard the sounds of their arrival, he came out to welcome them with umbrellas.

"Second Young Master, Miss Zi. You're back."

The housekeeper passed one umbrella to Lu Jingye.

He took it and held it above Zi Yi.

Zi Yi glanced at the umbrella and simply held his arm and they both headed towards the backyard together.

Looking at their backs, the housekeeper smiled knowingly and did not follow behind them.

Upon arriving at the back yard, and walking into the living room, Zi Yi went to fetch two bottles of alcohol, while Lu Jingye was putting away the umbrella.

When he saw the two bottles in her hands, he walked over and said, "Only one bottle. Put the other one away."

Zi Yi refused. "There's two of us. How is one bottle sufficient."

After that, she smiled and winked at him. "Are you worried that I might do something to you if I get drunk?"

She then placed the bottles to one side, walked closer to him, and held his neck. Immediately after, she planted a kiss on his lips.

"Even without alcohol, I already want to do something to you."

After which, she planted another kiss.

However, she suddenly smelled the faint scent of blood emanating from him. Her expression stiffened and she hastily asked, "Why do you have the scent of blood on you?"

Chapter 238: The Scent of Blood on Lu Jingye

Lu Jingye was surprised that her nose was so sensitive. He held her waist and stroked her head. "I'm fine. It's just a small cut."

Zi Yi did not believe him. "Liar. You would've already dealt with the wound if it was a small cut. How could there still be the scent of blood?"

She raised her hands with the intention to unbutton his shirt.

Lu Jingye stopped her hands. Seeing that he could not win against her, he said, "I'll do it."

He then released her and started unbuttoning his suit jacket along with his shirt, to reveal a broad, and firm chest.

Zi Yi subconsciously gulped at the sight of his chest and stretched out her hands.

However, Lu Jingye caught her hands and covered her eyes while he whispered, "Are you thinking of checking my wounds or my chest?"

Zi Yi moved his hands away and tightly stared at his chest as she said seriously, "Of course it's... both."

Lu Jingye: "...'

He took off his shirt and revealed his back to her.

Zi Yi spotted the wound on his back at once.

The wound had been treated and a large band-aid was applied over the wound. There were only some traces of blood at the edges.

It was indeed not a serious injury, but Zi Yi was still very angry.

She gently touched the skin near his wound and asked sullenly, "Who injured you?"

Lu Jingye turned around and held her hand. "They have already been disposed of."

Zi Yi's expression slightly eased. She suddenly thought of something. "Where are the two circular balls I gave you?"

"They were in my car."

"Why didn't you bring them along with you? I used special materials in their creation and they would have formed a protective barrier when you threw them into the air. Neither knives nor guns can hurt you."

Lu Jingye tightly gripped her hands. He didn't expect those items to have such a wide usage and said, "Ok. I'll bring them along with me in the future."

Only then, was Zi Yi satisfied.

Lu Jingye released her hands and put his shirt back on.

Zi Yi turned around and grabbed a glass; she then said as she poured the alcohol, "Since you're injured, you shouldn't drink."

Having said that, after she poured a cup for herself, she took a sip. Just as she was about to turn around and speak, her lips unexpectedly touched his Adam's apple and she could not help but laugh.

Lu Jingye looked down at her lips that turned ruddy and glossy from the drink and gulped. He then turned around and went to fetch two chairs. After they sat down, he asked, "What did your Uncles do to you?"

Zi Yi explained to him what had transpired during the dinner with her Uncles.

Lu Jingye was silent for a moment before he said, "The professors don't like the previous Zi Yi. However, you are you. They will definitely like you."

Zi Yi was amused by Lu Jingye. She held the glass with one hand and wrapped the other around his neck as she moved to sit on his lap and leaned her head on his chest.

"How do you know if they will like the current Zi Yi? At that time, my Eldest Uncle asked me the same question you asked me."

"Because you're different from her."

Zi Yi looked up at Lu Jingye.

From the very beginning, this man had already determined that she was not the real Zi Yi.

"Lu Jingye."

"Hmm?"

“Since you already had the idea that I wasn’t the real Zi Yi, why did you still poke your nose into my affairs?”

Lu Jingye looked at her and remained silent.

However, Zi Yi smiled. Her slender fingers reached out and gently touched his Adam’s apple.

While Lu Jingye’s eyes darkened, she giggled. “You must have fallen for me ages ago.”

Afterwards, she complained. “Your mouth says one thing while your heart does the other... mph!”

Her lips were suddenly sealed.

Lu Jingye tightened his grip on her waist and discovered that moments like this were the only time where she was the most obedient.

...

The next day. When Zi Yi woke up and came downstairs, she did not see Lu Jingye and so, she walked out of the living room.

She just so happened to see the housekeeper walking in from the front yard.

“Housekeeper, where’s Ah Jing?”

“Miss Zi, Second Young Master is in the front yard.”

Zi Yi took large strides and walked in the direction of the front yard and saw Lu Jingye talking to a bodyguard.

When she came closer, she heard him say, “Prepare the car.”

Afterward, he turned to look at her.

“Ah Jing, you’re leaving?”

“Yes.” Lu Jingye walked towards her and said, “I’m going on a business trip for a few days.”

Zi Yi was a little surprised. “You’re still going on business trips during this time?”

“Yes. It’s just to another province. There’s something important that I must personally resolve. What present would you like?”

“You didn’t even tell me which province you’re going to. How would I know if there’s anything I want there.”

Lu Jingye’s lips curled up. “I’m going to Qinghai Province.”

“Qinghai? What’s there?” Zi Yi suddenly thought of something. “The cashmere there seems pretty good. Bring some with you for me, when you come back. I want to lay down a cashmere carpet in my bedroom.”

Lu Jingye nodded. “I’ll get someone to send you a truckload when I get there.”

Lu Jingye did not eat breakfast. He left after having a short conversation with Zi Yi.

He had directly gone to the helicopter and before he got on it, Lu Jianlin gave him a call.

Lu Jianlin spoke in a solemn tone. "Protect yourself well. That medicinal ingredient is that Clan's prized medicine. Don't force your way if you are unable to obtain it. I'm only giving you five days' time. You must return after five days."

Lu Jingye was silent for two seconds before he responded with a single word, "Okay."

...

In the following days, Zi Yi continued staying in the bar. She would tell them she was preoccupied whenever someone looked for her.

Three days later, a robot from the racing club contacted her and informed her that someone insisted on meeting with her. He would not leave no matter how they chased him away.

In the end, Zi Yi drove to the club.

As soon as she parked the car, she saw a person running in her direction.

However, before he could come closer to her, he was stopped by a robot.

Zi Yi alighted from her car and sized up the man standing before her.

He looked to be around in his twenties and had a fair and handsome appearance. However, his eyes revealed unconcealable pride and arrogance, similar to a fierce snow leopard that appeared beautiful but was dangerous at the same time.

While Zi Yi checked him out, the man did the same.

"You're Zi Yi? The boss of this racing club?"

His voice sounded arrogant. Zi Yi glanced at him with indifference and said to the robot, "Throw him out."

"You--"

Zi Yi looked at him and said, "You're acting so arrogantly despite looking to others for help. Isn't this simply asking to be thrown out?"

His eyes flashed with anger, but it had dissipated soon after. "I'm sorry."

Zi Yi motioned for the robot to stop.

"I heard you're here to join my club as a racer?"

"That's right." The man met her eyes and said, "My name is Zhou Shijin. I have two years of racing experience. I don't need a salary, but I must participate in the international racing competition in October."

"Ha!" Zi Yi sneered. "Why should I accept you? Based on your arrogant personality that is simply asking for a beating?"

"You--"

“Dear young master. I advise you to go back and continue living like a young master. My place doesn’t welcome someone like you.”

Zhou Shijin stared at Zi Yi and said sullenly, “I won’t leave.”

Chapter 239: How Ridiculous

Zi Yi glanced at Zhou Shijin for several seconds before she turned around and headed towards the club.

Zhou Shijin tagged along behind her.

In fact, when he was looking at her back, he felt like backing out.

This woman looked younger than how she appeared on the racing competition broadcast. Could he really win this bet?

However, no matter what, he had already made his way here and he could not possibly return just like that.

And so, with Zhou Shijin following behind Zi Yi, they arrived at the stands near the racetrack.

When Zhou Shijin entered the racing club, he already started to have doubts. In the end, he could not help but ask, “Why is there not a single soul here?”

Zi Yi coldly responded, “Aren’t you one?”

Zhou Shijin: “...”

“Aren’t you here to sign under my club as a racer? I’ll give you a chance.”

She snapped her fingers in the air and very soon, a robot drove out a racing car.

When Zhou Shijin saw the robot alighting from the car, his eyes widened in shock.

Zi Yi pointed at the car and said, “Complete two laps with the car. If you are able to accomplish it, I’ll let you remain.”

Zhou Shijin looked at Zi Yi with discontentment. He felt that she was humiliating him.

Asking him to complete two laps around such a simple racetrack was simply a joke.

Seeing that Zhou Shijin remained standing in the same position, she added, “If you are able to alight from the car feeling intact, you can stay.”

“What do you mean?” Zhou Shijin finally growled at her discontentedly. “I am a racer, how dare you humiliate me like this!”

“Humiliate?” Zi Yi laughed. Her laugh was similar to a light breeze and a clear moon.

Zhou Shijin’s heartbeat sped up unconsciously.

However, Zi Yi’s expression sank immediately after. “If you think I’m insulting you, you can leave right away. I don’t need any racers for the time being.”

“You...” All his thoughts were thrown into the bin. He walked towards the racing car as he fumed in anger

Upon reaching the car, he turned and looked at Zi Yi while speaking in an extremely arrogant manner, “I will make you apologize to me.”

Zi Yi narrowed her eyes. “You talk too much nonsense.”

After that, she sat down on a chair and took out a tablet from her pocket.

Zhou Shijin took a deep breath and got in the car while fuming with anger.

The robot standing beside him reminded him. “This is your first time driving the car Master has modified. It’ll be best to drive at the lowest speed possible.

Zhou Shijin: “...”

He felt that not only was he belittled by Zi Yi, but even her robot was also doing the same thing.

Zhou Shijin wore the helmet, put on his seatbelt, and stepped on the accelerator to the max, reaching the maximum speed possible.

The moment the car roared out, Zhou Shijin regretted his actions.

Zi Yi was looking at the racetrack and the moment she saw a virtual shadow of the car, she shook her head and said to the robot, “Activate the emergency plan and prepare the medical robot.

Robot A: “Yes, Master.”

The robot sent out a signal.

In the blink of an eye, the car that was about to fly off the runway as it sped, crashed into a protective barrier which had quickly appeared around the racetrack.

Bam!

The car flipped over after a crashing sound was heard.

At the same time, the medical robot team appeared near the car.

Two robots flipped the car while the other robot retrieved Zhou Shijin who had fainted out of the car. Placing him on a stretcher, they brought him away.

Zhou Shijin felt that he had a dream. He dreamt that he had entered a sci-fi movie... He was driving a racing car at the speed of light and as time passed, he could not control the steering wheel all of a sudden and was directly thrown into a vast sea of stars.

“Heugh...”

Zhou Shijin suddenly opened his eyes and unexpectedly, a few robots appeared in his line of sight.

He thought he was still dreaming and immediately shut his eyes, before opening them again.

Just then, he heard a robot turning its head to say, "Master, he has regained consciousness. His heart rate is normal and he is experiencing a slight hallucination."

After which, the robots retreated.

Zi Yi came over and checked out Zhou Shijin, who was still sweating cold buckets, and said with indifference, "You did not pass the test. You can leave now."

Zhou Shijin's brain short-circuited momentarily before he suddenly bounced up and asked, "What was the highest speed the car could go?"

His heart rate sped up again after he asked that question. It was as if it was about to come out from his chest.

Zi Yi glanced at the ECG beside him and pointed. "You better control your emotions. If you suddenly die of cardiac arrest, I won't be responsible."

Zhou Shijin felt a little out of breath. He hastily took deep breaths to control his emotions and it took him a while before he slightly calmed down and looked at Zi Yi.

Zi Yi gave him a number.

However, Zhou Shijin unexpectedly fainted out of excitement.

Zi Yi: "..."

Zi Yi said to the robot beside her, "Throw him back into his car. Don't let him enter in the future."

"Yes, Master."

Zi Yi left the racing club and headed home.

The moment she reached home, the housekeeper said, "Miss Zi, the cashmere carpet Second Young Master bought for you has arrived."

Zi Yi was a little excited. "Where is it?"

The housekeeper pointed at the two large trucks parked outside the courtyard which minimally contained five tons of cashmere carpets.

"..."

Zi Yi remained silent for quite some time before she muttered, "Not only can I lay carpets in my villa, it seems like Ah Jing's villa can also have cashmere carpets all around."

The housekeeper smiled delightfully at her words.

...

It suddenly started raining for the remaining two days. Zi Yi's underground basement just so happened to finish being constructed, and she had been cooped up in the basement for the past two days as she planned the layout of her lab.

After finishing the layout, what remained was the purchasing of equipment.

However, the various equipment she needed had a hefty price tag.

“It’s time to earn some money.”

Her fingers quickly tapped on the keyboard and a string of codes were soon generated. She had intercepted the communication between several groups of hackers.

She discovered that someone had paid a high price to form a team and attacked the Lu Group.

Zi Yi went over and spectated the fight for a while. Seeing that the Lu Group’s security department could fend off these hackers, she retreated and went to the black market transaction area.

The President of the UP Group who had paid her to hack into Lu Jingye’s personal computer, Rick, was still looking for her.

However, not only did he explicitly release a notice, he even paid others to search.

Zi Yi’s lips curved up. “You really don’t know the phrase ‘giving up’. What kind of deep hatred do you have with Ah Jing?”

She was suddenly curious. She quickly hacked into Rick’s personal computer and scanned through all his folders and files.

She discovered an album in an encrypted hidden document that said, ‘To My Favourite Younger Sister.’

Upon opening the album, it contained photos of a young girl’s different growing phases, and her appearance resembled Rick’s.

As she looked through the photos, she unexpectedly found one with Lu Jingye inside.

Lu Jingye was standing up straight while he had a polite and alienated smile on his face.

The young lady had deliberately lent in his direction with a happy smile on her face.

Before this, all her photos were full of smiles. However, she no longer smiled after that.

In the end, it was a wedding photo of his sister lying alone in a crystal coffin.

There was a sentence written in D Country’s language: My dearest little princess Aisha. As long as it’s something you like, your brother will help you achieve it at the expense of everything.

Zi Yi: “...”

Chapter 240: Mrs. Lu Buying Clothes for Zi Yi

Zi Yi felt inexplicably uncomfortable. She merely pondered for a few seconds before hacking into Lu Jingye’s personal computer.

Her mood turned for the better after she did so. Other than a few confidential documents, there were some photos of her.

Obviously, those were taken in secret.

Zi Yi smiled and grunted. "Hypocrite. Obviously, you had fallen for me a long time ago but you're still pretending to be a gentleman."

She admired her own photos for a while before exiting his computer. At the same time, she added another layer of protective firewall and hacked into Rick's computer.

"Since you're being unfriendly to my boyfriend, I'll let you suffer some bleeding first.

Rick was currently in a meeting and upon seeing his computer screen turning black, he immediately guessed the culprit.

Even though he was unhappy about it, he still signaled to his subordinates. "The meeting will be on hold for half an hour. Everyone, leave the room."

No one dared to object. They packed their belongings and left.

As soon as the door closed, a sentence appeared on his screen.

[I'll accept your order.]

Rick felt inexplicably excited, but he did not reveal it. He stared at that sentence with his eagle-sharp eyes and said, "You just have to connect my computer to his personal computer with all the contents decrypted. I will look through the rest myself."

Zi Yi clicked her tongue and typed: [Okay]

Rick immediately sat upright and placed his fingers on the keyboard in preparation.

Another computer interface appeared on his screen, followed by a series of dazzling programs.

A minute or so later, the program disappeared and his computer was connected to Lu Jingye's.

Rick started flipping through Lu Jingye's computer in excitement.

However, as he continued checking through the folders, his expression turned ugly.

"Impossible. It's impossible! How are there only project materials on his computer? Did you make a mistake?"

[There's no mistake. This is his computer.]

"Impossible!"

Rick slammed his hands against his office table and roared in anger. "How could there only be documents in his personal computer! It must be your lack of skills and you did not successfully hack it, thus you casually hacked into another computer! XXXXX"

Following that was a series of offensive words.

Zi Yi's expression turned chilly. Without a single word, she directly made his computer crash and transferred away 10 billion from his account.

In the end, she sent him a provocative message on his phone. "Since you think my skills are lacking, I have taken 10 billion from your account. Come and find me if you can."

The moment Rick saw the message, he immediately called the bank and checked. The results made him turn red from anger.

Unsurprisingly, on the top of the bounty list in the black market was a wanted order to track her.

“Hehe... then slowly wait as long as you can.”

While Rick was hospitalized due to anger, she used the 10 billion to purchase tons of precision equipment that were unavailable on the common market. At the same time, she bought some materials for her robots.

A day passed by very fast.

The rain did not stop even when it was the next day.

Zi Yi planned to continue staying cooped up at home, when she suddenly received Mrs. Lu’s call.

Mrs. Lu had also been busy for the past few days and now that she finally had free time, the first person she thought of was Zi Yi.

Over the phone, she said, “Little Zi, if you’re available, hang out with me and we can buy some clothes~”

Without a doubt, Zi Yi would definitely have time.

When she drove to the location Mrs. Lu sent her, Zi Yi realized it was a private design studio.

The design studio had a fashionable interior design. Not only did it have a spacious lawn in the middle of the city where land prices were extremely expensive, but it also had a wide car park. From this alone, the status of the owner in the clothing industry could be seen.

Zi Yi headed inside with an umbrella in hand.

Near the door stood two bodyguards and it was obvious they belonged to Mrs. Lu.

The moment Zi Yi approached, one of the bodyguards said, “Miss Zi, Mrs. Lu is waiting for you inside.”

Zi Yi nodded, put down the umbrella, and handed it to the bodyguard before she entered.

What welcomed her was a bright and well lit hall.

The interior of the design studio was very fashionable. Mrs. Lu was currently in a conversation with a woman that appeared to be in her thirties on the sofa.

The moment they heard footsteps, they turned to look at her.

“Auntie Lu.”

“Little Zi, you’re here. Quick, come over here.”

When Zi Yi approached her, she first introduced her to the other woman. “This is a junior from my family, Zi Yi.”

The woman was extremely surprised to hear how Mrs. Lu introduced Zi Yi. She hastily stood up and reached out her hand. “Hello, Miss Zi.”

Zi Yi returned the handshake and said, "Hello."

The woman then introduced herself. "I'm Ouyang Juan, the chief designer here."

Zi Yi nodded in response.

Ouyang Juan did not continue sitting down and stood there while waiting for Mrs. Lu.

Mrs. Lu smiled and said to Zi Yi, "The clothes we wear are all designed by Designer Ouyang and her team. I have asked her to make some summer clothes earlier. Now that you're here, let Designer Ouyang make some outfits for you too."

Whenever Mrs. Lu met her, Zi Yi was wearing casual clothes. It just so happened that she hadn't met Zi Yi for several days and started to miss her, and so, she asked her out with the intention to buy some clothes for her.

Zi Yi felt that she already had plenty of clothes. However, since Mrs. Lu had brought this up, she did not reject her.

After which, Ouyang Juan measured Zi Yi's size and could not help but praise her aloud. "Not only is Miss Zi beautiful, but you also have a perfect body proportion. In fact, you would look good no matter what you wear."

Mrs. Lu was even happier than Zi Yi upon hearing the praise. "Then you can design even more beautiful styles of clothing for her. For girls, it doesn't matter if we have too many clothes. What we should be afraid of is not having anything suitable to wear."

In reality, no matter how many clothes Zi Yi had, it would be insufficient in Mrs. Lu's point of view.

After everything was finalized, two hours had passed.

Zi Yi and Mrs. Lu left the shop after confirming the dates to collect the clothes.

Just as they left, another car drove in. A woman wearing ten centimeter high heels strode into the shop.

The moment Ouyang Juan saw a customer, she went up to greet them. "Welcome, Miss Dongfang.

Dongfang Yao looked around the entire hall arrogantly and asked, "Did Mrs. Lu come earlier?"

"This..."

"Why? You dare avoid my question?"

Looking at the overbearing Dongfang Yao, Ouyang Juan was unhappy but she did not dare to ignore her.

"Yes, Mrs. Lu was here."

"Who else did she come with?" Dongfang Yao directly sat down on the sofa and threatened her. "You better tell the truth. Otherwise, I'll make your store disappear in the capital."

Ouyang Juan was shocked. "Miss Dongfang, you... aren't you making things difficult for me?"

Dongfang Yao sneered. "Well, I am making things difficult for you. Are you going to keep your mouth shut? If you don't reveal her identity right now, I'll get my brother to send people over."

She narrowed her eyes and leaned towards her. "Do you think if a designer disappears, Mrs. Lu will send people to look for you?"

Ouyang Juan turned pale and subconsciously took a step back. "I-I'll talk. I-It's a very beautiful young lady. Her name is Zi Yi."

"It's her?!"
