Chapter 281: Little Zi, You're Simply a Treasure!

Dou Jingning headed elsewhere with his phone to answer the call.

Dou Zerui looked at him leaving and whispered to Dou Xiangling, "Say, why did Lu Jingye call First Uncle at this time?"

How could Dou Xiangling possibly know?

Dou Zerui made a guess. "Perhaps he had gotten to know of grandfather's situation and specially made a call to check up on him. After all, he's..."

Speaking up to here, he glanced at the people surrounding him and subconsciously lowered his voice. "He's Yiyi's boyfriend."

Dou Zerui admired Lu Jingye's behavior even though he did not wish for his cousin to date him.

Dou Jingning returned very soon with a livid expression.

Everyone was surprised to see his expression.

"Eldest Uncle, what's wrong?" Dou Xiangling asked in concern.

Dou Jingning said, "Little Zi is getting attacked all over the net."

"What?!"

Dou Zerui and Dou Xiangling raised their voices.

Even the expressions of Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan sitting beside them had darkened.

They stood up concurrently and Dou Xiaoyong asked, "What did they write about her?"

Dou Jingning gave them a simple rundown.

Dou Xiaoyong sneered. "What does our family business have to do with those outsiders? This won't do, I can't watch on and see Little Zi getting attacked."

Ever since last night's incident, their attitude towards Zi Yi had changed drastically.

When they heard of Zi Yi getting attacked all over the net, they were also furious.

Someone hastily checked their social media and everyone finally discovered what had happened.

"Someone must be deliberately trolling her. The netizens were originally discussing that car of hers and later on, someone exposed her past."

"Do they simply have nothing better to do?!"

The more they talked, the angrier they got.

Dou Jingning spoke up. "All of you, quieten down."

He then said to Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan, "Reporters have flooded the hospital entrance. The three of us shall go and clarify on Zi Yi's behalf."

Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Zhiyuan nodded in unison.

Thus, the three of them headed towards the elevator.

In fact, the others had also wanted to tag along but Dou Jingning turned around and said, "Stay here. Jingye has already made arrangements down there and it'll cause more trouble than help with too many people."

Having said that, he told Dou Xiangling, "Xiangling, go upstairs and keep guard. If Little Zi comes out from the office, don't let her leave first."

Dou Xiangling hastily stood up. "I understand."

...

Regardless of how big of a commotion happened outside, the group of people sitting in the office had a serious expression. Each and every one of them had a notebook and a pen in their hands.

That's right, they were taking notes.

Zi Yi explained to them the emergency procedures for cerebral hemorrhage and the treatment plan.

The treatment method she revealed to them had overturned what they had known and all of them were flushed with excitement.

After Zi Yi finally managed to get them to understand, after much difficulty, Deputy Pang excitedly asked, "Little Zi, that medical equipment you made was able to effectively control the bleeding and... I believe that the equipment does not exist in either our hospital or the whole medical industry. How did you build it?"

Obviously, she would not say that she was from the Interstella era. In the end, she talked rubbish with a serious expression. "I like reading books related to this field and I am also interested in various medical instruments. Therefore, I had combined various medical cases to come up with it. Also, I would often purchase tools to try building it and that was how the medical equipment came about. It must have been because I was under pressure last night that I was somehow able to create it."

Elder Dou was her grandfather, and that it was normal for Zi Yi to be anxious upon seeing her grandfather in critical condition. In the end, they believed in her explanation.

However...

"Little Zi is truly talented with medical equipment. If you are interested, you can come to our First Hospital's medical equipment storage room to play around."

In any case, someone would pay for the bill even if it gets damaged.

Deputy Pang recalled the promise Lu Jingye made and did not feel any pressure when he made the suggestion.

Zi Yi glanced at Director Pang. Even though she did not know what Ah Jing had said to him, the medical equipment in this hospital was indeed pretty good. She merely pondered for a moment and agreed to it.

After having stayed up all night and skipping dinner last night, Zi Yi was not intending to speak another additional word after this.

The specialists could do nothing to persuade her and so, they allowed her to leave.

Before she left, Qiao He called out to Zi Yi, "Little Zi, are you that student who entered through M.Uni's Independent Enrollment with the top scores?"

Zi Yi responded with an affirmative.

Qiao He smiled and said, "Your medical skills are pretty good. I think that you will have a bright future if you study in the Medical School.

Zi Yi looked at him.

He added, "I am a specially appointed professor of the M.Uni's Medical School and I usually give lectures there. If you have the inclination in this field, you can come look for me."

"I'm not interested." Zi Yi did not intend to beat around the bush and she directly rejected his offer. "I'm only interested in medical equipment. I'm not at all interested in studying medicine."

Qiao He was somewhat disappointed at her reply, but he could not possibly force her. In the end, he said, "You can consider it. In fact, having medical skills is beneficial for you, your relatives, and your friends."

"Okay."

Only then did they walk out of the office and Qiao He struck up another conversation. "You're not interested in medicine but you have a vast knowledge about it. Little Zi, you're a treasure."

Just as Zi Yi wanted to reply, she saw Dou Xiangling standing in the corridor and she was obviously waiting for her.

She said to Qiao He, "I'll make a move first."

Qiao He nodded and said, "Little Zi, come over and play sometime."

Zi Yi did not feel anything after hearing that. Instead, Dou Xiangling had looked towards Qiao He in surprise.

It had to be known that Qiao He was the gold medal Chief Physician in the First Hospital and he usually had a serious attitude. He would never appear to be so enthusiastic and kind to a person.

Zi Yi merely faintly responded and came over to Dou Xiangling's side.

Dou Xiangling looked at her with a complicated gaze.

However, Zi Yi asked, "Do you have anything to eat?"

In fact, Dou Xiangling indeed had something. She took out two pieces of chocolate from her handbag and passed them to her. "If you're hungry, we can eat something at the canteen."

"No, I'll go home and eat."

Zi Yi then tore the wrapping and stuffed one piece of chocolate into her mouth and passed the other back to Dou Xiangling.

Dou Xiangling revealed a smile and took the chocolate and the both of them headed to the elevator.

After entering the elevator, Zi Yi directly pressed the first story.

Dou Xiangling's eyelids twitched and hastily stopped her. "Yiyi, you're not planning to see Grandpa first?"

Zi Yi blinked her drowsy eyes. "He's still in the ICU and the Chief Physician said he would update me about his condition. What's there to visit him for?"

Dou Xiangling pursed her lips and kept quiet for a moment as she tried her best to come up with an excuse. "Even if you can't visit Grandpa right now, you should at least greet the rest of the family?"

"I'm not going. I don't know them well."

She was truly unfamiliar with the rest of the Dou Family members. Perhaps she might even be unwelcomed if she went to greet them. She was not a fool to be a scarecrow^[1] and be a target of their criticism.

[1] Someone who just stands there.

Chapter 282: More Ruthless Than the Paparazzi

Dou Xiangling was a little impatient to see Zi Yi insisting on leaving the hospital and directly grabbed her arm.

Zi Yi stared at her for three seconds and asked firmly, "Did something happen?"

"No... huh? Yiyi, what are you doing?"

Zi Yi took out her phone. "Since you are unwilling to say, I'll check it out myself."

Dou Xiangling knew she could no longer hide things from her and could only reveal what had happened.

Zi Yi had also surfed the net to check the situation. All the negative information about her had been taken down by someone and she went to check the past history of what had happened.

"Yiyi, there's no need to worry. Eldest Uncle and the rest have already gone out to solve this matter."

"Okay." Zi Yi looked calm and there was not the slightest trace of anger on her face.

The elevator reached the first floor and they headed out together.

It was currently dawn and only the emergency entrance of the hospital was open.

The two of them headed towards the emergency entrance.

At that moment, beside Dou Jingtong who was rushing into the hospital, the remaining three stood at the entrance similar to three towering mountains. Opposite them was a group of reporters that were blocked by another group of bodyguards and police officers.

The three of them had been engaged in education for numerous years and they naturally exuded a stern aura. Those tabloid reporters who had already typed out a draft of the article dared not ask a single question they had wanted to ask.

Just then, a sharp-eyed reporter saw Zi Yi walking out and he shouted in excitement, "Zi Yi has come out!"

His words were like a switch. Those who dared not utter a single word immediately became excited and were about to rush towards her.

Dou Xiaoyong sternly shouted, "Be quiet."

The reporters were unable to enter due to the bodyguards and police officers blocking their way. They could only direct their cameras towards Zi Yi.

Dou Xiangling subconsciously blocked Zi Yi at the sight of such a situation.

Zi Yi looked at those reporters that were known as paparazzi and revealed a sneer.

She unhurriedly took out her phone and tapped on it.

Just then, someone among the group of reporters exclaimed. "Why did my camera go black?"

What followed after was a wave of commotion.

Following that, Zi Yi put her phone away and patted Dou Xiangling's stiff body. "Cousin, there's no need to worry."

Having said that, she headed towards the direction of the paparazzi.

Zi Yi glanced across those reporters who were anxiously fixing their cameras and a chilly glint flashed through her eyes.

Just then, Dou Jingning sternly asked, "Why did you come out?"

"I'm going home."

After Zi Yi said that, she took out her car keys and pressed a button.

The car park was located right outside the hospital and Zi Yi's car was parked near the entrance. The headlights flashed when she unlocked her car.

Everyone subconsciously turned to look at it.

Immediately after, their eyes and mouths widened in shock as they saw the racing car flying in their direction and parking beside Zi Yi,

"Oh heavens!" A reporter shouted all of a sudden and the others also recovered their senses.

All of them looked at Zi Yi in excitement.

One of them asked, "Miss Zi, who gave you this car? How is it capable of flying in the sky?"

Zi Yi gave him a cold stare. "What do you mean who gave it to me? I'm rich, so why do I need people to give me a car?"

When Zi Yi said that she was rich, that self-confidence of hers inexplicably made them recall the money she had earned from the international racing competition.

Rumor has it, the sum amounted to billions!

"Miss Zi, many netizens suspect that you had used special means during the competition. You..."

"Shut up!" Zi Yi sneered. "You bunch of paparazzi. Do you believe I can't make you feel what it's like to get attacked over the net?"

"Miss Zi, how could you say that? We are merely seeking the truth."

"That's right. If you talk nonsense, be careful of us exposing you!"

...

Dou Xiangling was so infuriated that she wanted to stand up and rebut them. However, Zi Yi stopped her from doing so.

She glanced at the group of reporters and the corner of her lips curled up. "Expose? If you are so capable, I think you should try to fix your electronic devices first."

At first, everyone was stunned and subsequently, they subconsciously checked the cameras in their hands. Some of them had even taken out their phones.

Their expressions changed immediately after.

"What's going on? Why did my recorder stop?"

"Mine is broken too."

"Ahh! My phone is unresponsive!"

Dou Xiangling asked in a whisper, after she saw the confused reporters, "Yiyi, did you do that?"

Zi Yi tilted her head and gave her a wink.

Gone was her previous fierce expression and what remained was a teasing one.

Dou Xiangling laughed.

Just then, her three Uncles had turned to look at her. Just as they were about to speak, Zi Yi said with a stern expression, "I haven't slept all night nor have I eaten. I'm tired and hungry right now." What she meant was that she refused to talk right now.

The words that came to their lips were forcefully pushed back.

Dou Jingning remained silent for several seconds and said, "Go and have a good rest. Come and visit your Grandfather tomorrow."

Their niece was truly different from before. They had no reason to treat such an outstanding niece with cold attitudes.

Dou Xiangling was delighted to hear that and hastily nudged Zi Yi's arm. "Yiyi, quick! Promise Eldest Uncle you'll come."

Zi Yi glanced at Dou Xiangling who was happier than her and nodded towards Dou Jingning.

Following that, she headed for her car.

"Since you're tired and hungry, you shouldn't drive." Dou Jingning then said, "Get the bodyguard to drive you home."

"There's no need." Zi Yi had already opened the door when she said that. She then turned around and said, "My car has an automatic navigation mode and I'll be traveling by air. Nothing will happen."

Having said that, she got in the car and it swiftly flew up in the skies. Under everyone's burning gazes, it flew off.

The reporters returned empty-handed and even all their electronic devices had malfunctioned. It made them feel very uncomfortable and they started hating Zi Yi as they intended to write articles to attack her.

So what if she had a few Uncles who were professors?

As long as they were fast enough, would they be afraid that they would be unable to attack her?

They did not believe people like the Dou Family members would do anything to them.

However, when these reporters made their way back, they finally understood what it meant by suffering a double loss after trying to trick the enemy. All their tabloid websites had suffered from a breach and at the same time, various illegal activities related to their companies were exposed.

Before 9 a.m in the morning, the disciplinary committee had directly paid them a visit to shut down the companies.

...

As soon as Zi Yi returned to the courtyard, the housekeeper came forward to welcome her.

"Miss Zi, you're back."

He saw the dark circles under her eyes and said with concern, "After having breakfast, go and take a nap. Otherwise, your body might not be able to stand it."

Zi Yi nodded and headed to the backyard.

Just as she went to rest, the housekeeper's phone rang. After taking a look at the caller ID, he hastily answered the call and respectfully called out, "Mrs. Lu."

Mrs. Lu had heard of what happened last night early in the morning. She originally planned to give Zi Yi a call, but was worried that she might be resting. Therefore, she got her housekeeper to check up on the contact number of the housekeeper Lu Jingye had brought with him.

After she checked up on what Zi Yi was doing right now, Mrs. Lu was about to prepare soup for Zi Yi upon hanging up. All of a sudden, she saw Lu Jianlin entering in a hurry and she asked, "Jianlin, what are you doing?"

Lu Jianlin continued walking upstairs as he said, "I'll be away for a few days. Take good care of yourself during my absence."

Chapter 283: Is My Future Daughter-In-Law Someone He Can Meet As and When He Likes!?

When Zi Yi woke up and just as she walked to the staircase, she saw a familiar figure sitting in the living room.

She was a little stunned to see the sight.

Just then, Mrs. Lu turned around and saw her.

"Little Zi, you're awake!"

Zi Yi looked at Mrs. Lu, who smiled warmly at her, in a daze.

Mrs. Lu saw her reaction and motioned for her to come over. "Here, come down quickly. You missed lunchtime and I prepared some soup for you instead. Come over and drink some first before having a meal."

Zi Yi finally recovered her senses.

She came downstairs and asked, "Auntie Lu, why have you come?"

While she said that, she made her way over and sat in the seat opposite Mrs. Lu.

Mrs. Lu poured a bowl of soup from the insulated flask and passed it to her. After Zi Yi took the bowl, she said, "I've heard of what happened last night. I was worried about you so I asked Ah Jing for your address... Are you angry that I came uninvited?"

"No."

She took a sip and said, "It's delicious."

Mrs. Lu was delighted. "There are many trolls on the net and you don't have to worry about them. Most of the remarks are based on nothing. This only proves that you're very outstanding and so, people were jealous of you and so they attacked you."

Zi Yi thought for a moment and said seriously, "Auntie Lu, other than the fact that I stole my cousin's boyfriend, the rest is true. I was indeed a notorious privileged brat."

Mrs. Lu did not expect such frankness from Zi Yi and her fondness of her increased.

"The Zi Yi I know is the one I'm seeing right now. In my eyes, you are good in all aspects. A fault that is confessed is a fault that's half redressed. You were only playful in the past and have not done anything that harmed others. Who hasn't had a puberty phase? What right do those people have to attack you?"

Zi Yi stiffened for a moment and revealed a sweet smile.

Mrs. Lu felt her heart melting. She raised her hand and stroked Zi Yi's hand and said gently, "Take your time drinking. Do bring me to view that car of yours that can fly."

Compared to how Zi Yi was like in the past, Mrs. Lu was more interested in her flying racing car.

"If it wasn't for the fact that I can't handle riding in your car, I would have asked you to take me for a ride."

Zi Yi thought for a moment and said, "If Auntie wishes to experience it, I can reduce the speed of my car."

Mrs. Lu smiled in response. "Okay!"

While Zi Yi was drinking the soup, the housekeeper had delivered her delayed lunch.

After finishing her meal, Zi Yi brought Mrs. Lu to take a tour around her courtyard.

Mrs. Lu had fallen in love with this place at first sight.

This courtyard feels really nice. Also, these flowers are blooming nicely.

While they sat in the pavilion, Mrs. Lu said, "It's so beautiful here. It must be nice spending time sitting here enjoying tea, the scenery, and reading books."

"If Auntie likes it, you're welcome to visit often."

Mrs. Lu liked to hear that.

The both of them sat for a while more in the pavilion and Mrs. Lu went to check out Zi Yi's racing car. All of a sudden, she received a phone call.

The other party seemed to have said something and Mrs. Lu replied in displeasure, "Don't think of putting your intentions on her!"

Having said that, she hung up the phone.

Zi Yi looked at Mrs. Lu and asked, "Auntie, what's wrong?"

"It's nothing."

Mrs. Lu's expression returned to normal and she smiled and asked, "Little Zi, do you like listening to music?"

Zi Yi nodded. "I'm alright with it."

Mrs. Lu happily held her hand. "There's an upcoming concert in two days' time. Why don't you go with me? I would be bored going on my own."

As Zi Yi did not have much planned for the following days, she agreed to it.

Mrs. Lu stayed at Zi Yi's villa until the evening. Before she left, she still reminded her out of concern. "Don't stay up too late. It's bad for your health."

Zi Yi nodded and said, "Ok."

When Mrs. Lu returned home, the housekeeper informed her. "Madam, the Eldest Madam, and Eldest Young Master paid you a visit today."

"Why were they here?" The call she received today, while she was at Zi Yi's place was from Lu Jingye's cousin, Lu Zhiheng.

He had somehow gotten news that she had a close relationship with Zi Yi and wanted to meet her through her recommendation.

"Hmph! Is my future daughter-in-law someone he can see as and when he likes?"

When the housekeeper heard what she said, he was shocked.

He did not expect Mrs. Lu to regard Lu Jingye's rumored girlfriend as her daughter-in-law.

After careful consideration, the housekeeper said, "Eldest Madam and Young Master Heng did not mention the reason for their visit, but... they asked about your whereabouts and what time you would return."

Obviously, the housekeeper would say that he had no idea.

"They remained here and waited until 5 p.m before they left."

Mrs. Lu acknowledged what he said. She did not wish to pay them any attention and went up to her room.

However, she had underestimated Lu Zhiheng's determination.

The next morning, Lu Zhiheng came knocking on her door while Mrs. Lu was having breakfast alone.

With the respect of a junior greeting a senior, he said, "Good morning, Second Aunt."

Mrs. Lu glanced at him and gently asked, "Zhiheng, have you had breakfast?"

"I ate before coming here."

Mrs. Lu put down the spoon and wiped her mouth with a napkin. "Your Second Uncle and Jingye are not at home. I'm also planning to make a trip to the temple. I'll be leaving after breakfast."

Lu Zhiheng nodded and smiled. "If you find it boring, I'll get Yuelan to accompany you."

Yang Yuelan was his wife.

Mrs. Lu waved her hand. "Your child is only six months old, how could he leave his mother? I'm going there for a stroll and I'll be back tomorrow."

Lu Zhiheng nodded and changed the topic. "I heard that Second Aunt and Elder Dou's granddaughter, Zi Yi, are acquainted?"

"Why do you ask?" Mrs. Lu glanced at him and did not deny or admit to knowing her.

Lu Zhiheng smiled and said, "Second Aunt, I'm sure you know that the Lu Group's automobile company is under my management. Mrs. Zi's car is capable of flying in the air with no external support and the technology used must be very advanced. I wish to meet with her and talk about cooperating."

He then glanced at Mrs. Lu's expression and continued to speak, "Moreover, Second Aunt and Miss Zi are acquainted, and she also has a close relationship with Second Brother. Even if the Lu Group does not obtain the technology, other large companies would definitely have their eyes set on it. Why don't we take advantage of this and have a discussion with her in advance?"

Mrs. Lu looked at Lu Zhiheng who made it seem like he was thinking for the benefit of the Lu Family. She pursed her lips and thought for a moment before she said, "I'm unable to help you on this."

"Why? Could it be that Second Aunt doesn't hope for the Lu Family to flourish?"

Mrs. Lu chuckled, but her tone contained slight displeasure. "Zhiheng, what are you saying? Why wouldn't I hope the best for the Lu Family? However, I have already mentioned this to Little Zi when you called me yesterday. She has no plans to reveal the technology and you can't possibly have me use my status to pressure her, right?"

Only then did Lu Zhiheng realize he had acted too hastily. He apologized to Mrs. Lu and thought of looking for Zi Yi on his own.

He did not believe that she would not be tempted by the conditions he offered.

"Then... Can Second Aunt pass me Miss Zi's phone number?"

"I'll have to ask her for her permission on this."

Just then, the housekeeper came to inform her. "Madam, the car has been prepared."

Mrs. Lu stood up and walked to Lu Zhiheng's side and reminded him, out of kindness. "Zhiheng, Little Zi dislikes being forced. So you'd better not do anything superfluous or don't blame me for not giving you a reminder."

Having said that, she headed outside the door.

Lu Zhiheng looked at Mrs. Lu leaving and sneered deep down inside.

Ha! Just say it outright that you don't wish to see me surpassing your son!

Do you think I have no other methods if you don't give me her number?

Not long after Mrs. Lu left, she received a call from Elder Lu.

Chapter 284: Master, There's a Man Looking For You

Early in the morning, Zi Yi made her way to the hospital.

Elder Dou had already passed the critical period and had been transferred to a VIP ward.

The majority of the Dou Family members had returned to rest when Zi Yi arrived.

However, all four of her uncles were present and they were clearly waiting for her.

She stood before them and called out, "Eldest Uncle, Second Uncle, Third Uncle, Fourth Uncle."

"Little Zi, come take a seat."

Dou Xiaoyong pointed at the sofa opposite of them.

Elder Dou's ward was similar to an apartment. There was a hospital bed inside and a living room on the outside. They were currently sitting in the living room.

Other than her four uncles, Dou Zerui, Dou Xiangling, and Dou Yue'er were also present.

Zi Yi sat opposite of them alone and the situation appeared as if she was about to be interrogated.

However, she did not panic in the slightest and looked at them calmly.

Dou Jingning was the first to speak. "Little Zi, you made the greatest contribution to the success of your Grandfather's operation. On behalf of the Dou Family, I would like to thank you."

Zi Yi pursed her lips and remained silent.

Dou Xiaoyong added on. "We apologize for our previous attitudes."

The four middle-aged men then unexpectedly stood up in unison.

The three Dou Family siblings were shocked at the scene.

Zi Yi had also stood up. When they had bowed to her, she said, "My previous behavior made it impossible for you to have had a good impression of me and it's normal for you to hate me. There's no need to apologize."

What was wrong, was wrong.

She could not accept only the original owner's body and not the faults she had committed in the past.

The Dou Family had already shown their magnanimity by not nitpicking on what she had done in the past.

What else could she have to say about them?

"I am the culprit for Grandfather's condition and all I can do is do my best, so why should you be grateful or apologize to me?"

Zi Yi's voice contained slight confusion.

The Dou Family members were too polite.

When her four Uncles heard what she said, they were too, momentarily dazed.

Following that, they laughed out loud.

Dou Jingning lamented. "It seems like Little Zi has truly grown up and become sensible."

Zi Yi felt a little uncomfortable at his words.

Dou Zhiyuan added. "Unless the elders are truly ignorant, no elder would truly hate the younger generation. What exists is only indignation."

Dou Xiaoyong and Dou Jingtong nodded in agreement.

Subsequently, the five of them talked a lot.

As they conversed, the Dou Family members were even clearer of her change.

In the end, Dou Jingtong could not help but ask, "Little Zi, where did you learn all these skills of yours?"

In the past, Dou Jingning and the rest had also questioned her. But she merely played dumb and brushed it off.

In fact, they all knew deep down that based on Zi Yi's previous personality of abandoning herself to a life of pleasure, it was impossible for her to learn these things at first glance.

If that was the case, they would not have painstakingly educated her in the past, as she disliked studying.

Zi Yi lowered her eyes and said, "Believe it or not, it is true that I have a retentive memory."

Her four Uncles looked at each other. Since Zi Yi had said that herself, they did not continue to question her.

Dou Jingning stated. "You can come to us for anything anytime in the future."

Dou Jingtong added, "When your Grandfather gets better, you should come and visit him too."

Zi Yi nodded. Since the Dou Family had passed her an olive branch, she did not intend to push away their kindness.

When Zi Yi came out from the hospital, it was already two hours later.

Dou Xiangling and Dou Yue'er had walked her down.

Dou Yue'er was the youngest of the Dou Family's third generation and she was younger than Zi Yi by one year. She was currently in her second year of high school and had taken a leave of absence due to Elder Dou's condition these days.

She held Dou Xiangling's hand and looked at Zi Yi from time to time, while revealing embarrassment.

Seeing that they were about to walk out from the inpatient area, Dou Yue'er finally awkwardly called out, "Cousin Yiyi..."

Zi Yi looked at her.

Dou Yue'er said, "I'm sorry for my attitude that night."

Zi Yi recalled for a moment before she remembered what had happened. She then said, "It's fine."

Dou Yue'er was elated and started talking about Zi Yi's bar. "Cousin Yiyi, I heard from Xiangling that your bar will be open for business soon. When is the official date?"

Before Zi Yi could reply, Dou Xiangling spoke up. "You're still a child, why are you asking about this?"

"How am I a child! There's only a one year age gap between me and Cousin Yiyi." Dou Yue'er expectantly said to Zi Yi, "Please choose to open for business on a Saturday! I'll be able to come and show my support then!"

Dou Xiangling flicked her forehead and scolded, "You wish! No matter when Yiyi's bar opens for business, do you think you can visit a bar before you have even graduated? If you really went there, be careful that Fourth Uncle will get you to copy the Three Character Classics and Tao Te Ching a hundred times!"

"Ah..." Dou Yue'er revealed a bitter expression. "Sis, you're so mean!"

Zi Yi could not help but release a small chuckle.

Even though she disagreed with the view that Dou Yue'er was unable to visit the bar, it was the Dou Family's beliefs and she could not comment on it. "What Xiangling said is right. Come over to play when you graduate from high school. You can play however you want then."

"Sigh, there's still one year to go."

"Hahaha..."

While they were in a merry conversation, two individuals, who were clearly bodyguards, had suddenly stopped in front of them.

"Miss Zi, my young master would like to meet with you."

The smile on their faces disappeared at the same time.

Zi Yi looked at him with indifference and unhesitatingly rejected him. "I'm not interested in meeting him."

Following that, she said to Dou Xiangling and Dou Yue'er, "You two can go back first. I'll be going now."

"Yiyi."

"Don't worry. I believe he is having ideas about my racing car's flying technology. As for whether I meet him or not, he does not have the final say..."

The entrance of the hospital was a crowded place.

In a short time, many onlookers had stopped to watch them.

Dou Xiangling was still worried. "Yiyi, get in your car first. We'll go back after we see you leave."

Dou Yue'er nodded. "That's right. If they dare to use force, we'll immediately call for help."

Zi Yi nodded. She then bypassed the two bodyguards and walked to her car.

The two bodyguards, who failed to invite her, felt the pressure as they were stared at by the two young ladies of the Dou Family and hastily left.

Zi Yi directly made her way to the club.

Knocking sounds could be heard not long after she had settled down.

Little Loli had instinctively gone to check who was knocking on the door.

Following that, she said to Zi Yi, "Master, there's a man looking for you."

Having said that, she also muttered a sentence, "He's so average looking and also brought along a few bodyguards with him. It seems like he's here to cause trouble."

Zi Yi took out her tablet and checked the surveillance outside.

Two of them were the bodyguards who had stopped her outside the hospital earlier.

She looked at the person standing in front. It was a middle-aged man dressed in a high-end suit and wearing glasses. If not for his eyes, his appearance would make him seem educated and gentle.

A sly look flashed past her eyes and she said to Little Loli, "Tell him that our bar will be open for business this Saturday. I'm busy."

"Alright~"

Over the next few days, there were several other groups of people who came looking for her.

Zi Yi got Little Loli to inform them of her opening on Saturday and that she was very busy.

Chapter 285: Master, I Want to Drink Alcohol too

The news of Zi Yi's bar opening on Saturday had spread all around the capital overnight and all the young ladies and young masters of high society were all aware of it.

All kinds of people with various schemes started to stir.

For those who wish to cooperate with her: "Since she's opening for business on Saturday, the company shall send her a big gift. I don't believe she will refuse to work with us."

"I heard that she is fond of racing cars. Immediately order a luxury racing car from XX automobile and send it to her. Tell her that it is a gift from our company to congratulate the opening of her bar."

"I heard that she is fond of playing around. Send her the gold membership cards of XX Entertainment Club and YY Entertainment Club and let her play however she likes."

"Isn't she fond of men? During the opening, bring some good-looking men."

...

The high society young masters and young ladies: "I'd like to see how she has renovated her bar in a mere month and a bit. A woman like her dares to operate a bar? Isn't she afraid of going into a deficit?"

"It's opening on Saturday? It just so happens that I've been getting super bored these days and making a trip down to her bar to relax should be fun. If I'm not satisfied with the service, see how I take care of her."

"I finally have a chance to openly cause trouble for her. Haha... you want to open a business? I'd like to see if her bar can successfully open for business!"

"Try to get her drunk. Since she's so arrogant, then we'll let everyone enjoy the scene of her making a fool out of herself in her own bar!"

“Since my family said that she is off-limits for the time being, it shouldn’t be a problem if I cause trouble for her, right? Ha! It’s really unpleasant to see a woman like her acting so arrogant, in just because she had eaten together with Second Brother twice.”

...

No matter what plans they had, since Zi Yi mentioned the bar would be open for business on Saturday, she had to make preparations.

However, there was nothing much to prepare. The AI management, robot waiters, the bartenders and even the DJs are all robots. In such a situation, she had nothing to be concerned about.

Zi Yi toured the whole bar and said to the robot following behind her, “Strengthen the safety measures. Use infrared rays for the detector and those carrying foreign items will be prevented from entering.”

Also, get the bodyguard robots to lower their strength. I don’t wish to be earning money and paying medical bills at the same time.”

Little Loli just happened to walk past, when she heard Zi Yi say that. She seemed to have received a signal and somehow felt that her Master directed that at her.

Little Loli planned to quietly sneak away.

Zi Yi saw her and called out, “Little Loli.”

Little Loli stopped in her tracks and asked, “Master, what are your orders for me?”

Zi Yi said, “Monitor those women who come here to cause trouble. Since you like acting like a green tea b*tch, you better do well.”

Little Loli was elated and directly walked over to Zi Yi. “Master, you can rest assured that I will never fail my mission.”

She even deliberately acted like a green tea b*tch and giggled.

When Zi Yi thought of her strength, she added, “Don’t cause your opponent to get injuries nor cause trouble for me.”

“I promise not to cause any trouble for Master.” Little Loli stretched out her hand and made an oath hand symbol.

Zi Yi nodded in satisfaction and walked over to the bar table. She looked at the two robot bartenders and motioned for them. “Prepare two drinks for me to try.”

“Yes, Master!”

The two bartenders started to show off their skills.

Zi Yi was sitting on the high stool Little Loli sat beside her and continuously screamed. “Waaaaaa. 05 and 06, you two are so handsome that I’m going to faint!”

Zi Yi turned to look at Little Loli.

Little Loli was so excited to the extent her cheeks turned pink. Zi Yi poked her cheek and asked, "Little Loli, what did you do to your face?"

Little Loli answered her with a foolish smile on her face. "I bought a special blush over the net a few days ago which can change color according to one's mood."

After that, she searched through her deep pocket and passed the blusher to Zi Yi. "Master, do you want to try?"

Zi Yi opened the lid and took a sniff. "The XX ingredient here is harmful to skin tissues and it will accelerate skin aging after continuous usage for long periods of time. I don't need it."

She closed the lid and passed it back to Little Loli. "But it doesn't matter for you. You can just change to a new face if your skin deteriorates."

"Hehe."

The bartender robot had quickly prepared a cocktail and placed it before Zi Yi. She looked at the different colored alcohol and picked up one to try. Just as she was about to praise the bartending robot, she saw Little Loli blinking those false pupils of hers from the corner of her eye.

"What are you doing?"

"Master, I want to drink too."

Zi Yi remained silent for two seconds and said, "You don't have wine storage installed, and drinking alcohol will cause your in-built system to go haywire."

"But... I'm so adorable looking and what if someone wants me to accompany them to drink during the opening day?"

Zi Yi "..."

"You're even thinking of accompanying customers to drink?"

"Hehe, many bars have women hired to lure men into high-priced bars. I want to be one too."

"..."

Zi Yi ended up installing wine storage for Little Loli. She was not worried for Little Loli, but because she had guessed that there would definitely be people there to cause trouble. It would be good to let Little Loli teach them a lesson.

Zi Yi stayed in the bar until 6 p.m before she was ready to leave.

As soon as she left, the boss next door seemed to be waiting for her as he called out, "Miss Zi."

Zi Yi stopped and turned to look at him. "What's the matter?"

The boss was a smart-looking and rounded person. He smiled and walked in her direction as he craned his neck to see the interior of her bar. When he realized he could not see anything, he turned his gaze to her and spoke in a friendly manner.

"I heard that Boss Zi's bar will be opening for business on Saturday. I wonder if there is anything I can help you with?"

"There's nothing," She headed to her car, having said that.

The boss immediately chased after her. "Boss Zi, there's no need to be reserved with me. I've been running a bar on this street for dozens of years and I am familiar with everything. As a neighbor, please do not hesitate to ask me for help."

Zi Yi glanced at the overzealous boss and said, "Thanks, but I don't need any help."

She then got in her car, stepped on the accelerator, and drove away.

The neighbouring boss looked at the distant car and the smile on his face instantly disappeared.

"Hmph! A woman that doesn't know what's good or bad for her. I'd like to see what you could have renovated your bar into."

If not for his curiosity and wanting to check it out, he would not have called out to her.

Each and every bar on the street were competitors and he would obviously wish that there were no customers visiting her bar.

As soon as she drove out of the street, she discovered a car trailing behind her.

The corner of her lips curled up and she pressed a button. Immediately, her car flew away.

Following that, her car flew off while everyone's eyes and mouths were wide open.

Chapter 286: Coward

For the next few days, the moment Zi Yi left the bar, she would be trailed. She did not do anything to them and directly flew away.

What remained was a wave of surprise and commotion.

For a period of time, Zi Yi and her flying car became famous in the capital, and it was those kinds of situations where she became extremely famous.

There was no longer any negative news about her that was released on the net.

However, there were even more people who were jealous of her.

"That woman is too arrogant. So what if she has a flying car? She's deliberately showing off and it's simply a vulgar claptrap to please the crowds."

Those who disliked her, wished for bad luck to befall her.

On Friday, He Fei and Ouyang Ming arranged to meet.

The plaster cast on Ouyang Ming's legs had been removed, but he still had some trouble walking. As someone who cared about his pride, he used a wheelchair.

The moment he saw He Fei, he started to make snide remarks. "The girl with the surname Zi will be opening her bar for business tomorrow. Do you regret saying that you won't meet her before catching up to Second Brother?"

If not for the fact that Ouyang Ming was crippled, he would have punched him.

This person came to mock him on purpose!

He was angry deep down and rudely said, "Look on helplessly as your bar truly becomes Yiyi's. I'm sure your heart is bleeding right now. In particular, she said that she would give you a beating every time she sees you. In that case, do you mean you can appear before her then?"

Ouyang Ming's weak point was ruthlessly exposed and he gave He Fei a kick with his uninjured leg.

He Fei was already prepared for it and he hastily retreated.

Ouyang Ming nearly fell to the ground and he hastily grabbed the wheelchair's armrest and grinded his teeth. "Her bar is open tomorrow and I'll be going as a consumer. I don't believe she would beat me up. As for you... you can only hide in the dark and look at her."

"You fking came here to ask for a beating!"

"Go ahead and hit me. In any case, my leg has yet to recover."

He Fei looked at the irritating Ouyang Ming and kicked the wheels of his wheelchair out of anger before he left.

Ouyang Ming looked at his departing back view and sneered. "Coward."

Since He Fei dared not go, as his brother, he shall go and help him check out how miserable that woman would be.

When he thought of this, he left with great confidence.

...

Saturday.

The opening hours of her bar were different from the other bars.

Her bar would be opening at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Zi Yi made her way to the bar early in the morning.

However, she had been stopped when her car arrived at the entrance of the street.

Two men in uniforms came over and one of them said, "Hello, someone reported that you had violated the traffic laws which caused severe traffic jams these days. Please follow us."

"Violation of traffic laws?" Zi Yi looked puzzled. "Can you tell me when I broke the traffic laws?"

"Has your car been flying around the skies for the past few days?"

"Yes."

“Because of your car flying in the skies, many people had subconsciously stopped to see your car and it had resulted in traffic jams and brought about serious losses to many people.”

“So they are the ones suing me?”

“That’s right. So according to the traffic law, in addition to a fine, we will detain you for a day.”

Zi Yi knew someone had done this deliberately when she heard that.

If her guess was right, after she leaves with the two officers, someone would get her out under the pretense of kindness to earn her favor.

She did not intend to follow them obediently.

Zi Yi said, “Give me a moment, let me send a message.”

They saw that Zi Yi was pretty and polite to them and so, they did not make things difficult for her.

“Sure, go ahead.”

Zi Yi took out her phone and quickly tapped on it.

Shortly after, one of their phones rang.

After that person answered the call, he said, “Yes! Yes! Yes!”

He looked at Zi Yi with a surprised gaze after hanging up the phone. “You can leave now.”

Zi Yi did not say much. After she nodded at him, her car drove in the direction of the bar.

After her car left, the other officer asked in confusion, “Why did you suddenly let her go?”

“Earlier, a higher-up called and said not to make things difficult for her.”

“Higher-up? Who is it?”

He whispered in his ear, “It’s the Head of the National Research Institution who came forward to protect her.”

The other officer was surprised. “I didn’t expect this girl, Zi Yi, to be so well connected?”

“After all, she is Elder Dou’s granddaughter. Since someone wants to cause her trouble, there would definitely be others who will help her.”

“You’re right.”

After Zi Yi arrived at the bar, she investigated who was the one who tried to cause her trouble. She asked Little Loli to pass her a tablet and quickly swiped around.

Little Loli stood before her and curiously asked, “Master, what are you doing?”

Zi Yi did not even bother to look up. “Taking care of people.”

Just then, her phone suddenly rang.

She took a glance at the caller. It was the person she had contacted earlier.

She swiped across and answered the call.

A smiling voice sounded from the other end. "Little friend, you mentioned giving the Research Institution the technology for flying automobiles. Were you serious in what you said?"

Zi Yi replied. "Yes."

"Alright then, I'll wait for you to visit the Research Institution then."

"Okay."

After which, they hung up the call.

Zi Yi appeared to be smiling, but a sly glint flashed through her eyes.

The technology of allowing a car to fly was merely a small trick and she did not plan on hiding anything. Right now, there are many people eyeing it, so why doesn't she sell it to the National Research Institution for a favor?

At around 10 a.m, Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui arrived.

"Yiyi, is there anything we can help with?"

Ever since they made their way inside, their eyes were focused on the interior and they were simply amazed.

"I suddenly have a feeling that I have entered a high-tech kingdom."

Dou Zerui looked at the robot walking by and asked, "You really don't have any human waiters here?"

"No."

"What about DJs and lead dancers?"

Zi Yi pointed at the stage.

The stage was a high platform that was more than a meter high. The front area was where the dance leader was in front and behind them was the DJ booth.

Two beautiful robots dressed in leather tops and trousers were standing there and it was impossible to see through their real identities.

Little Loli was also standing there and she said to the two of them, "I'm the lead dancer."

She turned around immediately after and unexpectedly changed her clothing. It gave off the feeling of a Loli from the 2D world coming out into the 3D world.

The two of them were amazed. "How did she do that?"

Zi Yi laughed and said, "There's a setting for it and the clothes were prepared in advance too."

The Dou Family siblings were greatly amazed.

Dou Zerui asked, "There are usually bartenders and those who prepare fruit plates in a bar. Do you have them here?"

"Over there." Zi Yi pointed towards the bar table.

The bar table was divided into two areas. One for mixing drinks and the other for preparing fruit juices and fruit plates.

There were a few robots over there on standby.

"It's so awesome. Then... what if, I meant what if... something happens? Are your robots capable of resolving it?"

"Yes." Zi Yi did not reveal the full details to them. "You'll know how, when the business opens."

Chapter 287: Open For Business

At noontime, there were continuous deliveries of flower bouquets and gifts to the bar.

Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui began to worry at the sight of the expensive gifts one after another.

"Yiyi, are you going to accept these gifts?"

Zi Yi did not even spare any attention to those gifts and said, "No."

She took her tablet and swiftly swiped.

The exterior wall of the bar became a display screen. Besides displaying that the bar is opening for business today, several rules were also written.

First: Those who sent gifts are not allowed to enter.

Second: Those carrying dangerous items are not allowed to enter.

Third: Those deliberately causing trouble will be thrown out at once.

Fourth: Be prepared for retaliation for those who are intending to frame someone.

Everyone on the street was paying close attention to her bar. The moment they saw the exterior wall transforming into a display screen, all of them crowded around it with curiosity.

When they saw those rules of hers, they started a discussion.

"This... who would list rules in such a way."

"That's right. The identities of the customers who visit are the type which cannot be offended. I'd like to see if she dares to throw them out or take revenge.

"Boss Zi is too arrogant. Isn't she afraid of people deliberately causing trouble?"

Just as they were discussing, all of them were gloating deep down and they thought: "It's best to offend everyone. I'd like to see how your bar operates then."

"What's the suspense for? I don't believe an amateur like you can possibly renovate the bar well. Perhaps the customers would leave as soon as they enter."

After they finished checking out the display screen, they said a few congratulatory words and left.

Even though they had left, they were still paying close attention to the movements around her bar.

They saw numerous famous automobile companies in the capital sending flowers and gifts. When the gifts were all returned and only the flowers remained, all of them felt jealous.

That type of jealousy lasted until 4 p.m, when Zi Yi finally revealed the name of her bar.

Only then, did they know that she had named it as <Futuristic Bar>

Before they had the chance to roast her bar's name, they saw a group of human-like robots wearing futuristic clothing coming out in preparation to welcome the customers. Those who were there to watch a show were all stunned.

"Am I seeing things wrongly? They are all robots!"

"Wtf, Boss Zi seems to have spent a fortune on this. To think she had used a group of robots to welcome guests.

"Speaking of which, those robot beauties are really beautiful."

"What's the use for using robots? No one is entering at all."

"Ha... futuristic bar? Why don't you simply name it as interstellar bar instead?"

...

Dou Zerui checked the time and was a little worried. "It's been ten minutes, why hasn't anyone arrived yet?"

Dou Xiangling was equally anxious. "Yiyi, you should have sent out invitations..."

Dou Zerui took out his phone and said, "I'll call my friends over and get them to visit."

"There's no need." Zi Yi calmly swiped the tablet and said, "There's a traffic jam on the road to our current location. They will be arriving shortly."

Dou Xiangling glanced at her tablet out of curiosity. She saw several streets near the bar displayed.

Zi Yi stood up from the sofa and said, "Come on, let's go to the main control room."

"Didn't you say they are arriving soon? Don't we have to go out and welcome them?"

"There are already plenty of robots who went out. Why should I go?"

Dou Zerui simply did not know to laugh or cry at her question. "As the boss, you have to go out to welcome the guests during the opening of a shop to give them a good impression."

Zi Yi had a confident expression. "There's no need for that. They can come if they want, I'm not forcing them either."

She headed to the control room immediately after.

Three to four minutes later, dozens of cars stopped outside the bar.

Those who alighted were basically rich second-generation individuals.

They had all come here with a mission. Regardless if they were reluctant or not, when they saw a group of beautiful and enthusiastic robots welcoming their arrival, all of them ran over in surprise and took a photo with the robots to post on their social media.

There were many who attached comments: Oh my gawd! OMFG! It's all robots here welcoming us outside of Zi Yi's bar. They're beautiful and enthusiastic!

Their social media reach had expanded rapidly. Those who had no plans to visit had rushed over.

After the first batch of customers took photos with the beautiful robots, they headed inside the bar.

What they didn't know was, their bodies had been scanned when they crossed the threshold.

Just then, someone was blocked by the infrared rays.

"Ah!

Everyone was frightened.

The man retreated in fright and asked in a raised voice, "What's going on?"

He felt like he had been stabbed by something earlier.

Just then, a robot-like manager came out and said, "Sir, I'm sorry but you are carrying prohibited items with you. There are regulations in this bar, and anyone that carries prohibited items will be refused entry."

"Rubbish! How could I possibly bring prohibited items!" Out of guilt, he shouted in a loud voice. "What is this that you've installed here? Just say it outright if you don't want to accept customers. Let me tell you, I can't even be bothered to enter this bar!"

"Why do you say that?" A sweet-sounding voice sounded from inside and Little Loli walked out.

Little Loli walked up to him and pointed at his belt while giggling. "The item is hidden within your belt buckle and yet, you're not admitting to it?"

Having said that, she removed his belt with a pull.

That guy was wearing suit pants and without the belt, it dropped to his ankles and revealed his triangular briefs.

Little Loli's surprised voice sounded. "Your little brother is so small."

Everyone present: "..."

The mouths of the trio who were looking through the surveillance cameras had twitched.

Dou Zerui said, "Yiyi, that robot of yours is too frank."

Dou Xiangling turned away. She was speechless at Little Loli's sudden actions.

Zi Yi said with an awkward expression, "This isn't my problem. She learned it by watching online dramas every day."

Dou Xiangling and Dou Zerui returned her gaze with the same awkward expression.

Little Loli took out a small medicine bottle from his belt and pretended to sniff it.

Dou Zerui curiously asked, "Yiyi, can your robot identify the drug in the bottle by scent?"

"No, but her eyes can."

Dou Zerui: "..."

What that man carried was an illegal drug. After Little Loli took a sniff, she said to the manager robot, "Manager, he is carrying X drug. Call the police."

When he heard the word 'police', he was frightened and was about to escape.

Just then, two robots dressed in bodyguard uniforms held him down.

"You can't do this. I'm your customer!"

The manager robot ordered the two bodyguards. "Send him directly to the nearest police station."

Chapter 288: WTF, Why Don't You Just Rob Us Instead!

With such a huge commotion at the entrance of <Futuristic Bar>, those who planned on scheming against the bar were frightened.

Especially after a few more customers had entered, another few people had been stopped.

This resulted in many who dared not have other thoughts.

Not long after the rich second-generation individuals had arrived, the high society young masters and young ladies had also come one after another.

The other bar owners who were paying close attention to <Futuristic Bar> were inexplicably unhappy.

Especially due to the opening of Zi Yi's bar today, all the guests who visited their bars had also come over to watch the show. That resulted in the lack of customers visiting their establishments.

The customers entered the bar, only to find out there was no deafening music, no DJ, no lead dancer nor a bartender, except for the stunning high-tech interior and robots standing there.

Everyone was immediately unhappy.

"Why are they all robots? We came to the bar to drink and dance, not to see robots!"

"Perhaps Boss Zi wants us to view a robot exhibition instead."

"Where's Zi Yi? As the boss, why isn't she here today?"

"Perhaps she was frightened by our numbers."

"Hahahaha!"

“Who said I was frightened by you?” A voice suddenly sounded and they all looked to the side to see Zi Yi, Dou Family’s Third Young Master, and Fourth Young Miss walking over.

She came over to them and said, “Today is the opening of my bar. Before you start spending, there is a need to show you the prices first. You are free to leave if you find it too expensive.”

Zi Yi was wearing straight pants, a fashionable shirt, and her hair was held up in a ponytail. She originally had a beautiful appearance and the way she dressed today made her appear even more handsome, and it was hard for them to shift their gazes away from her.

Some people were unhappy and felt that Zi Yi was looking down on them. “Boss Zi, what do you mean by that? Are you looking down on us?”

“Look at the prices first before you start wagging your tongues.”

She snapped her hand and a 6D image appeared in the air and the price list was clearly displayed.

They were all stunned at the sight of the prices.

“What the fk. Why don’t you just rob us instead!”

The <Futuristic Bar> prices were much higher than the other bars on the street. It was not merely slightly higher, but it was twice the price.

Those present were able to afford it, but they subconsciously felt that it was not worth it.

She looked past everyone’s dissatisfied expression and coldly said, “I’ve said it earlier. Those who find the prices too high can leave at once.”

She added on, “After leaving, the bar can officially begin its operation.”

Originally, there were some who had thoughts of leaving.

However, why should they leave? They had yet to find fault with this bar yet!

Zi Yi waited for a while, when she saw no one leaving and instead, saw a greater influx of customers coming in, she snapped her fingers and those price lists were spread out.

Following that, the customers widened their eyes in shock to see the price list shifting to the seating areas.

Everyone present: “...”

What the fk!

Zi Yi and the Dou Family siblings left after the price list was sent to the seating areas.

There was two seconds of silence before they saw all the robots heading to their respective positions.

When the DJ played the first song and Little Loli sang while dancing, all of their bodies subconsciously swayed along. An inexplicable excitement rushed to their brains.

There were many who went onto the dance floor to jump around.

At the same time, the bar table was already prepared.

Some women gathered around the bar and watched the bartending robots executing difficult tricks and they subconsciously screamed with excitement.

There were also some young masters and young ladies who were concerned about their statuses who went for a room. Originally, they were thinking of plotting how to cause trouble for Zi Yi.

The moment they entered the room, they saw two robots inside. A man and a woman.

“Dear customers, welcome to <Futuristic Bar>. We are Room A1’s waiters. Please let us know if you need anything.”

The group of young masters and young ladies were stunned.

“Say, what can these two robots do?”

“Zi Yi is definitely willing to spend money. To think there are robot waiters even in the rooms. There’s no one watching right now, what do you think they are capable of?”

Just as the person said that, the female robot answered, “Dear guest, you can rest assured that we can do anything except to break the law and sell our bodies. Master has said that if a customer deliberately causes trouble, we can directly chase out the troublemaker.”

“...”

The group of people suddenly fell into a dead silence.

They only recovered their senses after a few seconds.

A few men surrounded the two robots.

“Where do you think Zi Yi got these robots from? They’re too smart.”

“Could it have been provided by Second Brother?”

The women’s expressions turned ugly. Jealousy, envy, and hatred flashed past their eyes.

One of the women calmly said, “Since you are capable of all sorts of services, then go fetch us some alcohol. You shall accompany us to drink.”

The men looked at her and secretly gave her a thumbs-up.

Sure enough, women are ruthless.

If they get a robot to drink, wouldn’t it burn their internal systems?

All of them felt excited to see the scene.

A virtual display screen suddenly appeared in front of the male robot. “Customer, please order your alcohol first.”

This group of customers who would not care about the price had started to aggressively order alcohol.

After they placed their orders, someone knocked on the door a minute later and two robots had delivered their alcohol.

Thus, they began their first round.

Inside the control room.

Dou Zerui looked at the monitor and sneered. "These people are planning to destroy Yiyi's roboty instead!"

Dou Xiangling asked, "Yiyi, is it fine for your robots to drink?"

"It's not a problem. I've installed a storage device for them. As long as these people dare to spend, my robots would dare to drink."

"What if their storage is filled?"

"They will think of ways to expel it after it's filled."

Dou Zerui gave her a thumbs-up

An hour later, the words [Full Capacity, will not be accepting new customers temporarily] were suddenly displayed outside the bar.

A group of bar owners who were waiting to watch the joke: "..."

What happened to the scene where the customers would leave quickly in dissatisfaction?

When Ouyang Ming felt that he should show up, he got the driver to slowly drive him to Zi Yi's bar. He was shocked when he arrived.

"What's with the situation?"

He hastily called his acquaintances.

However, after calling for half a day and night, and trying to reach a few people, none of them answered their phones.

Ouyang Ming was so angry that he nearly crushed his phone.

He said to the driver. "Go and check what's going on!"

The driver was afraid of provoking the fire dragon behind him and hastily alighted. When he went over and tried to enter, he was blocked by the two robots standing outside.

He was shocked, but he relied on his identity as Ouyang Ming's driver and loudly shouted, "Go get your boss to come out. Our Young Master Ouyang is here, get her to personally welcome him."

The two bodyguards looked at each other and confirmed. "He's here to find trouble. Throw him out immediately."

One of them lifted the driver by his collar and threw him out.

Ouyang Ming who was sitting inside the car: "..."

Chapter 289: It's Not Their Turn to Scheme Against Me On My Turf

Everyone went wild from enjoying themselves in the bar. It was only until several hours later did they remember the purpose of their visit.

The young lady from the Shang Family spoke to the young male models she had brought along with her in dissatisfaction. "I brought you here to do things, not for you to play around. You have to take down Boss Zi tonight."

The several male models had never seen such a high-class bar before in their lives and had forgotten their motives when they entered. They only recalled their task after the young lady reminded them.

At the thought that they would be seducing the owner of this bar, they were inexplicably excited.

"Miss Shang, please rest assured. We promise to get things done," said a beautiful man, who flipped his fringe and spoke with a confident gaze.

The other male models also assured her immediately.

The woman before them promised that as long as Boss Zi fancied any one of them, she would let them enter the international modeling stage. With such attractive conditions, only a fool would reject her.

In another room with the two robots serving them, one of them suddenly took out their phones and was surprised. "Ah! Brother Ming called me at 5 p.m."

Right now it was already half-past seven.

When someone mentioned it, several of them had subconsciously taken out their phones.

"Brother Ming had also given me a call."

"Me too."

"And me..."

...

All of them looked at each other.

"Brother Ming had called so many of us. Could there be something important?"

"Quick, call him back. Otherwise, he'll get angry."

All of them were well aware of Ouyang Ming's recently short-temper. Therefore, if they could avoid provoking him, they will definitely choose not to.

One of them saw the robot who was accompanying them for drinks and subconsciously went into the washroom inside their room, with his mobile phone.

When he came out from the washroom, his face alternated between green and red. Ultimately, his expression ended up strange.

"Why is Brother Ming looking for us?"

“What’s wrong?”

That guy took a deep breath. When he recalled how he had been shouted at earlier, he felt unhappy and his tone also reflected it. “Ah Ming was stopped outside the bar and the robots had also chased his driver away.”

Everyone present: “...”

All of them were somewhat happy that they were not the ones who gave Brother Ming a call.

They could imagine how explosive he must have been.

One of the women asked, “Then has Brother Ming left?”

Another woman said, “If he hasn’t left, let’s go and pick him up. We’ve spent so much and I don’t believe Zi Yi dares to stop us.”

The guy responded. “Ah Ming has already left.”

It has been two hours and it was not Ouyang Ming’s style to wait outside.

After he said that, he glanced at the two robot waiters and said, “Go out first. We don’t need your service.”

The two robot waiters had left at his command.

As soon as they left, the guy who made the call asked everyone to come closer and whispered, “Don’t forget that we are here today to cause trouble for that Boss Zi. We can’t forget our business just because of the bar’s novelty.”

“How are we going to cause trouble? The methods I thought of cannot be executed at all. The robots here have unlimited alcohol tolerance!”

“That’s right. We were the ones who became drunk from the drinks instead. The two robots were completely fine.”

The malfunctioning they had anticipated did not happen at all.

“Say where do you think the alcohol they drank went to? Why are they completely fine?”

“I was curious too. Could it be that the robots developed by Second Brother have advanced to such great standards?”

“I’m so pissed. Other than her appearance, which part of her is worthy of Second Brother? Why did he give her his company’s robots to be waiters in her bar?”

“I feel like cleaning up that woman.”

“You women are impulsive. Could it be that Yuqiao and Xiaoyu’s lessons aren’t enough as a warning?”

When the men reminded them, the women were all taciturn.

They certainly would not repeat what had failed before.

However, they would be pissed if they did not cause trouble for Zi Yi.

“How about this?”

A gentle-looking man with gold-rimmed glasses suggested. “Today is the opening of <Futuristic Bar> and we can get Zi Yi to drink under the guise of congratulating her. I doubt she would refuse.

At that time, we’ll take turns to drink with her and get her drunk. Perhaps we can see her making a fool of herself. We’ll capture the scene and upload the videos online. Let’s see how she carries herself in the future.”

All of them felt that it was a good idea and they started to take action.

“Master, Room A1’s customers invited you over.” The manager robot entered the control room and spoke to Zi Yi.

Zi Yi was playing with an apple in her hand and just as she was about to speak, Dou Zerui frowned and said, “If my memory serves me right, those in A1 are a group of high society young masters and young ladies?”

The manager robot replied, “Yes.”

“They must have come with ill-intentions and now that they are calling you over, they must have a plan. Yiyi, don’t go.”

Zi Yi thought for a moment and asked, “Did they say why they are looking for me?”

“They mentioned that they wanted to congratulate Master’s bar opening and would like to invite you for drinks.”

“No!”

“You can’t go!”

The Dou siblings objected at the same time.

Dou Xiangling said, “Yiyi, don’t drink with them. They frequent these types of bars and they all have good alcohol tolerance. You will definitely suffer.”

Dou Zerui agreed. “It’s obvious that they have other plans. Perhaps, they just want to get you drunk.”

Zi Yi curled her lips and said, “It’s fine. It’s not their turn to scheme against me on my turf. Only I can scheme against them.”

Having said that, she placed the apple aside and stood up. “It’s boring staying here. Why don’t I go and play with them.”

Dou Zerui and Dou Xiangling looked at each other as their eyes revealed anxiety.

Zi Yi took a step forward, turned around, and said, "Watch the monitoring for me. If you're worried, you can directly check out the screen for Room A1. I'll be fine. Since they are feeling rich, I'll get them to cough up some blood today." [1]

The two who intended to follow her had stopped in their tracks.

Dou Xiangling said disapprovingly, "Yiyi, you're still young. You shouldn't drink too much... maybe I can help you with it."

Zi Yi was amused by Dou Xiangling's words and she deliberately asked, "How much can you drink?"

Dou Xiangling felt awkward at her question. As a young lady from a scholarly family, she could not drink at all.

Dou Zerui said, "Then I'll drink on your behalf. I can drink."

"How much can you drink?"

"One bottle at the very least." As for whether he would get drunk or not, Dou Zerui could not guarantee.

Zi Yi waved at them and said, "Don't worry. I'll get Little Loli to accompany me. The storage device I installed for her can automatically transform alcohol into energy. It's fine no matter how much she drinks."

Chapter 290: Throw These Two People Out

Zi Yi left the control room and she had to walk past the dancing floor.

The tracks the DJ had selected were the most popular ones, and there were numerous men and women who were dancing while screaming. They gave off a vibe like a herd of madly dancing demons.

Other than the dance floor, the other areas were also filled with crowds of people, especially the bar and fruit counter. The screams of the women were simply deafening.

Not long after she left, she saw two handsome men walking in her direction.

One of them had called out to her.

"Boss Zi."

Zi Yi stopped walking and asked, "What's the matter?"

The two men approached her and were amazed by her beauty. One of the men had even blushed.

Zi Yi found them puzzling. "If you need anything, call for the waiters. My waiter robots can solve all your problems."

Having said that, she was about to continue heading towards Room A1.

The other man stopped her and said, "Boss Zi, we are racing enthusiasts and your performance in the international racing competition was too amazing. We've always wanted to meet you in person and we're finally lucky enough to have met you tonight. I wonder if you are willing to give us face[1] and have a drink with us tonight?"

Another man had also come closer.

Zi Yi looked at them. They were dressed rather seductively, especially the guy who had stopped her. He was wearing a deep V-shaped cardigan and it was slanted to one side, and one could vaguely see his white skin and collarbone.

Zi Yi suddenly had a good idea.

She felt that this style of clothing was pretty good and she could wear them to seduce that old-fashioned guy.

However, her face remained cold. "No."

She planned to bypass them and continue walking.

When the two men saw such indifference from her, they started to panic. The V-neck man reached out to pull her. Due to his movements, his collar slipped down on one side and revealed his pale shoulders.

Zi Yi took a step back and avoided his hands.

Her expression sank and she waved her hands to someone behind her.

The manager robot approached them very quickly.

"Master."

"Throw these two out."

The men's expressions paled at her words and they were even more anxious.

"Boss Zi, we are consumers and we did not violate your rules. Why are you doing this?"

"We only wish to express our admiration for you and you can't chase us out."

The music in the hall was very loud and by this fact, no one should have noticed what had happened here. However, there were many who paid attention to Zi Yi and there were also many who wished to get close to her. The moment she came out, a lot of people secretly had their eyes on her.

When such a situation occurred, many of them had come up and surrounded her.

"Boss Zi, what's going on?"

"Boss Zi, do you need help?"

"You two over there, why are you shouting? Boss Zi doesn't want to drink with you and you're still thinking of forcing her?"

...

The crowd was all on Zi Yi's side and the two men flushed red in embarrassment. They even had the thoughts of killing Zi Yi right there.

Despite the look of grievance on their faces, they were maliciously thinking: “Perhaps you had gotten this bar using your body and you’ve done the same thing as us. What are you being so arrogant for!”

Zi Yi saw the increasing onlookers and then looked at the two before her. “Who brought in these two people?”

All of them looked at each other and none of them stood out to admit it.

Zi Yi sneered. “You better bring these two away. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude.”

As expected, there were still no replies.

Zi Yi said to the manager robot, “Immediately check who brought them inside.”

“Wait a minute!”

Just as she said that, she saw a woman walking over. She looked at the two men in surprise and asked in an angry tone, “I only brought you two here to expand your outlook and yet, you’ve caused trouble for me. Do you want the company to keep you hidden away?”

She then turned to Zi Yi and said with a smile, “Boss Zi, I’m really sorry about this. It’s my fault for not taking care of the artists under my company. They are new models that are interning at my Uncle’s company and they lacked sense for having gone against you. Please forgive them. If you’re dissatisfied, I’ll get my Uncle to stop all their activities.”

Miss Shang’s words caused their expressions to turn pale. The woman winked at them and hinted for them to apologize to Zi Yi.

“Boss Zi, we didn’t mean it. Please forgive us.”

“If we knew that you didn’t like people talking to you, we wouldn’t have come and expressed our admiration for you in racing.”

Just then, a delicate voice sounded from the side. “Oh my, handsome guys, don’t cry anymore~”

Everyone subconsciously looked towards the Little Loli walking over.

Little Loli came to Zi Yi’s side and held out two fingers to lift the man’s deep V-neck cardigan. “From the way you’re dressed, it seemed as if you came here with the intention to seduce. My sister has a boyfriend and he’s also a jealous man. She’s considered to be very kind by merely asking people to kick you out.”

Zi Yi looked at Little Loli who was speaking eloquently and planned to let her talk instead.

Little Loli got the hint and spoke up again when the expressions of the two men got paler. “If you tell us who instigated you to do this, perhaps my sister won’t be angry anymore.”

“Who would instigate them to do such a thing?!”

Miss Shang’s eyebrows jumped and she loudly said, “Boss Zi, I was the one who brought them and I truly only intended for them to widen their outlook. If you are still angry, I’ll call my Uncle at once to take care of them...”

“Shut up.”

Zi Yi finally lost patience and looked at her. “Do you think of yourself as being too smart or that I’m too stupid?”

She then said to the manager robot, “Kick them out. Our bar will not welcome them in the future.”

“Yes, Master.”

The woman was frightened. “Miss Zi, I am really innocent.”

Zi Yi had no intention to listen to her explanation and she headed towards the room.

Little Loli looked at that woman and giggled. “Miss, we have surveillance here. Do you want the manager to bring it out for everyone to admire what you had said to these handsome guys?”

The woman’s heart skipped a beat and she shut her mouth.

Little Loli added, “My sister’s eyes are very sharp. You people who approach her with a motive had better keep your thoughts to yourself. Today is the opening day of her bar, don’t give us a reason to get rough with you.”

Immediately after, she went to chase after Zi Yi and left behind a group of people who were at a loss.

When Zi Yi arrived outside of Room A1, Little Loli had chased up to her.

“Master, that woman brought along a few male models and I believe she has some plans. Should we teach them a lesson?”

“The manager knows what to do.” Zi Yi could not be bothered to do it herself.

After she said that, she knocked on Room A1’s door.
