Chapter 44: Completing Two Examinations In Advance

There were suddenly two more invigilators for today's exam.

As soon as the papers were distributed, the two additional invigilators had respectively stood on the left and right side of her table.

This caused the other candidates' thoughts to wander.

What did that mean?

It meant that there was a problem with her!

The girl seated behind Zi Yi was even secretly gloating at her predicament as she thought to herself, "See, I knew that you must've entered the list of candidates using improper means. There must have been something wrong with the paper you handed in yesterday. Well, I hope you get thrown out soon."

However, the girl continued waiting to no avail. After half an hour, the two invigilators standing behind Zi Yi asked at the same time, "Student, have you finished the paper?"

"Student, do you want to check through your answers again?"

Zi Yi packed up her pencil case and said, "I'm done checking."

She headed outside the exam room after she finished speaking.

The two invigilators collected her papers, said something to the original invigilator, and unexpectedly went out

Just as Zi Yi reached the bottom floor of the building, voices sounded from behind her which caused her to stop. "Student Zi."

Zi Yi stopped in her tracks, turned around, and waited for the duo to approach her.

The middle-aged teacher wearing glasses asked, "Student Zi, you seem to be in a hurry. We've noticed that you always hand in the paper after half an hour and leave?"

Zi Yi looked at them. She could not discern their intentions for calling out to her. "The exam rules state that one can only hand in their papers after half an hour. I followed the rules."

When the two teachers heard her, they looked at each other and a flash of surprise appeared in their eyes.

The other teacher asked, "You mean that you can complete the papers in less than half an hour?"

"That's right."

After a moment of silence, the spectacled teacher controlled his excitement, pushed his glasses back up his nose and asked, "If we allow you to take the remaining two papers right now, can you complete them?"

Zi Yi nodded. "Yes."

"Okay, follow us."

With the guidance of the two teachers, Zi Yi directly went into an office to continue with the rest of the exams.

When Zi Yi had not appeared in the examination room for the second exam, all the candidates were unable to remain calm.

"Could she have been found to be cheating?"

"It's highly possible. People without real skills who still join the Metropolis University recruitment examination are simply overestimating their capabilities."

"Unfortunately, I can't continue enjoying my visual feast anymore."

The girl seated behind Zi Yi felt satisfied deep down.

As expected, a girl that beautiful must have been a kept mistress. She relied on her supporter's wealth and influence to enter through the back door. Does she think that the Metropolis University is a place the rich and powerful can enter as they wish?

Unaffected by what the other students were thinking, after completing the two examinations in advance, she visited the real estate agency.

The manager immediately greeted her warmly as soon as he saw her enter.

"Miss Zi, I hadn't expected you to come at this time. Please come in."

Zi Yi followed his lead and sat down, she took out the contents in her backpack, and handed them to him. "I've brought everything. When will the formalities of the transfer be completed?"

The manager took the documents with both hands and subconsciously flipped through her household register. Unexpectedly, she was the only one listed.

He looked at her in surprise. He had not slept well all night, as he was busy guessing her identity. Never did he imagine a situation where she was capable of opening a household register on her own.

The manager felt that his eyes had always been sharp, and was capable of identifying who were the rich and powerful individuals. Now that he looked at her, the more he felt that she was a young miss of an influential family.

Within the capital, there were many young misses and young masters who purchased villas under their names.

Because he misunderstood her identity, the manager hastily promised her and said, "Miss Zi, I will complete all the formalities for you as soon as possible."
