Chapter 681: If You Wish To Have One Of Your Hands Crippled, I Can Satisfy Your Wish

Everyone saw how the glass in Ye Li'er's hand flew towards Lu Jingye.

In the next second, Lu Jingye moved his feet and dodged the wine that was splashed in his direction.

At the same time, he dodged Ye Li'er, who had pounced over in his direction.

"AH-!"

Ye Li'er had never expected that Lu Jingye would dodge and seeing that she was about to fall down in the most embarrassing manner, she was so frightened that she started screaming without a care for her image.

The second before she fell to the ground, someone caught her by the wrist; and at the same time, a powerful force pulled her up.

By the time she returned to her senses, she was already pressed against Rick's broad and strong chest.

"Miss Ye Li'er, are you alright?"

Ye Li'er suddenly felt her heart beating rapidly. In particular, when she felt Rick's heartbeat. Her face turned red in an instant, not knowing if it was due to fright or embarrassment.

The scene of a hero rescuing a damsel in distress was originally a beautiful scene. However, at that moment, an untimely scoffing sound was heard. "What a great drama. Tsk tsk. Sure enough, I didn't come here for nothing today."

Ye Li'er's complexion instantly paled at his words.

She was the daughter of a prince and not only did the person she fancy disregard her, but even a businessman also dared to make a joke out of her.

Ye Li'er's tears streamed down her face in an instant.

Dan Wei flew into a rage. He strode towards Bu Di in large strides. When he arrived at where Bu Di was standing, he raised one of his feet and gave him a violent kick.

Before Bu Di managed to react, he had been pulled back by his arm and a tall body blocked the attack by standing in front of him. After the loud kicking sound was heard, Sang Bo asked, "Has Young Master Dan Wei managed to release his anger?"

Bu Di did not expect Sang Bo to block the kick on his behalf. He got angry and anxious at the same time. "Sang Bo, who told you to block that for me?!"

Sang Bo looked at him with a stern gaze. "Keep your mouth closed."

Was Dan Wei someone they could afford to offend?

Bu Di had noticed Sang Bo's gaze. Even though he was angry, he still kept his mouth shut.

“Hmph!” Dan Wei was very angry right now and he was unable to take it out on Lu Jingye. Since these two had sent themselves knocking at his door, why shouldn’t he unleash his anger on them? “Bu Di, who gave you such courage to be disrespectful to the royal family?”

Em Country had a strict hierarchy and if Dan Wei really planned to punish Bu Di for his actions, he could put him behind bars.

Bu Di did not mind. At most he could just leave Em Country, but he could not disregard Sang Bo.

Just as he was about to speak, Sang Bo stopped him. “Bu Di, keep quiet.”

The words Bu Di wanted to say were stuck in his throat. He looked at Sang Bo and became even more anxious.

Sang Bo did not look at him and his attention was on Dan Wei. “How can we make Young Master Dan Wei less angry?”

Dan Wei glanced at Lu Jingye who was standing there with an indifferent gaze. A cruel smile curved up on his lips. “If you let me kick you ten times, today’s incident shall pass just like that. Otherwise...”

Speaking up to here, he looked at Sang Bo’s eyes and pointed at Bu Di. “I’ll make him disappear from the face of the Earth.”

“You-”

“Bu Di!” Sang Bo shouted and Bu Di stopped. However, in the next second, he said with reddened eyes, “If he dares to kick you, I’ll kill him!”

“You dare!” Dan Wei shouted at him.

1

“Let’s see if I dare to do it or not!” Bu Di shouted even louder.

Sang Bo looked at Bu Di with a headache. He very much wanted to knock Bu Di out right now and bring him away. Now that the situation had escalated to such an extent, it was impossible to resolve. He subconsciously looked at Lu Jingye.

He felt that only he was capable of helping him at this moment.

Just then, Lu Jingye walked over.

Dan Wei looked at Lu Jingye who walked over and he asked coldly, “You want to help them?”

Lu Jingye looked at Bu Di whose face turned red from anger and he nodded. “Yes.”

Dan Wei sneered. “Then you had better think it over first.”

Lu Jingye looked at him and asked straightforwardly, “If I bring them away today, how do you intend to deal with me?”

“I will make it so that you can never leave Country Em.”

Lu Jingye smiled. His smile was faint and gentle, but the words he said almost made Dan Wei boil in rage, "You don't have that ability."

Having said that, he tapped on his wrist and said, "Yiyi, we're going back."

He then turned to Dan Wei who was so angry and looked as if he wanted to eat him alive. Lu Jingye continued to speak, "You might not know of it yet, but I'm the imperial merchant appointed by my country. If anything were to happen to me here, do you think the prince will protect you?"

"You-"

"Also." Lu Jingye glanced in Ye Li'er's direction and said, "I'm already married and I love my wife very much. I hope that you can refrain from doing anything that would make my wife misunderstand."

Ye Li'er felt ashamed and resentful and she wailed even louder.

"Lu Jingye!" Dan Wei was furious and he raised his fist and brandished it towards Lu Jingye.

Everyone looked at Dan Wei's ruthless fist and they felt cold sweat for Lu Jingye at the same time.

Yet, an even faster burst of wind rocketed towards Dan Wei.

BAM

"Ugh..."

Looking at a marble that had deflected Dan Wei's fist, his expression changed due to pain.

Everyone subconsciously turned to look at the person who shot out the marble.

Zi Yi came over from the second hall and did not even bother to look at Dan Wei or the others. She went to pick up the marble which had rolled far away and said with an indifferent expression, "Apologies, I saw someone bullying my husband the moment I came in and this is just a conditioned reflex."

"You-"

"Shut up." Zi Yi gave Dan Wei a cold smile and she deliberately played around with the marble. "If you wish to have one of your hands crippled, I can satisfy your wish."

"You are a-"

"You had better not complete your sentence."

Lu Jingye spoke in a cold tone. "We are not from Country Em and so don't bother to use your authority to scare us."

Having said that, Lu Jingye walked over to Zi Yi and held her hand as he asked, "Did you have fun?"

Zi Yi pouted. "It was so boring. A group of women trying all sorts of means to act like fools in front of me. How boring."

The group of women who entered the hall just so happened to hear her remark and their expressions turned ugly.

When they headed to the garden earlier, Zi Yi had remained silent for the whole time. Everyone thought that she was unaware of their little tricks but as it turns out, Zi Yi knew everything

Lu Jingye nodded and said, "If you don't like it, we won't attend such banquets again in the future."

He then held her hand and made his way toward Sang Bo and Bu Di. "Are you leaving?"

Sang Bo said, "Let's go."

Thus the four of them took their leave without even bothering to bid farewell as everyone looked at them.

After the four of them left, everyone subconsciously looked at Dan Wei, only to be startled by how frightening the expression on his face was.

The mayor dared not come forward to speak up at this point in time.

Just then, Rick spoke. "Dan Wei, we still have a long way to go in the future. Don't get angry because of such a small thing."

Dan Wei looked at Rick who had a fierce emotion within his eyes.

He had somehow seen through Rick's thoughts.

He came over to Ye Li'er and patted her shoulder. "Sister, let's go. You are the most esteemed lady in our Country Em and there is no need to shed tears for a man whose heart is not with you."

Chapter 682: Does My Wife Fancy My Appearance Too?

Ye Li'er had been embarrassed to such an extent and not to mention, Lu Jingye did not even bother to look back at her when he left while holding Zi Yi's hand. This caused her to feel resentful deep down. She nodded and left with Rick and Dan Wei, leaving behind a group of guests and the mayor who were at a loss on what to do.

After Zi Yi's group left the mayor's house, Bu Di who had been unhappy all along, suddenly asked Sang Bo, "Why did you accept Dan Wei's threat? We don't have to be afraid of him, right?"

Sang Bo looked ahead and spoke in a deep voice. "Dan Wei is a very revengeful person. I'm not afraid that he might retaliate against me, I'm just afraid that he would do something underhanded and hurt you."

Bu Di was momentarily stunned at his words and in the next second, he held his hand with a touched expression. "I... I didn't imagine you would have such thoughts."

Sang Bo glanced at Lu Jingye and Zi Yi. When he noticed that they did not reveal any uncomfortable reactions to their intimacy, he clenched Bu Di's hand tighter.

Just then, Lu Jingye asked, "What are your future plans?"

Dan Wei would certainly take revenge, this was without a doubt.

Bu Di snorted. "I care about Sang Bo the most and I am his only family member left. We who have nothing to lose and do not fear those in power. If they were to drive us to a dead end, we'll at most perish together. If they do not manage to get rid of us, we'll send them to hell."

Zi Yi heard what Bu Di said and asked, "Since the both of you only have each other, why don't you leave Country Em?"

Bu Di said, "We have a jadeite mine here and we can't possibly bring it with us. Otherwise we would have already gone to another country that accepts our relationship. Who would want to stay here and get looked down on by others?"

"You can sell the mine."

Speaking of this, Zi Yi suddenly turned to look at Lu Jingye.

Lu Jingye raised his hand and touched her forehead. He then nodded and agreed with her. "What Yiyi says makes sense. If you wish to leave here, you can sell your jadeite mine."

Sang Bo and Bu Di never had such thoughts before and now that Zi Yi brought it up, they started contemplating it.

Lu Jingye said, "It just so happens that it is an opportune time right now and you'll be able to sell the mine at a better price than expected. You can consider this option."

Sang Bo and Lu Jingye have a cooperative relationship together and Sang Bo had always admired Lu Jingye's vision and skills in the business world. Now that Lu Jingye had mentioned this, he nodded his head. "I will think about it."

On the other hand, Bu Di found Zi Yi and Lu Jingye's suggestion to be a good one. "What's there to think about? With so many people in the country right now, they are clearly here to compete with Lu. What Lu said is right, we can take out those mines and put them up for auction."

Speaking of this, he added. "We can sell the mines to Lu and make it so that those people can only stare at us helplessly."

"No need." Lu Jingye rejected his offer but he did not mention the reason behind it.

Lu Jingye's car was closer to the mayor's main gate compared to Bu Di's car. The four of them headed over to Lu Jingye's car and stopped to talk.

Lu Jingye said, "Pay attention to your safety."

His words were a reminder for them to pay attention to Dan Wei.

Sang Bo nodded his head and held Bu Di's hand as they strode forward.

Bu Di turned around while walking and said, "Zi, I'll come to find you to have a chat tomorrow. Ask that family member of yours not to stop me at the door next time."

Zi Yi did not respond and instead, she glanced at Lu Jingye. She laughed when she saw the speechless expression on his face.

After they got in the car, Zi Yi asked what had happened in the main hall.

In fact, she had managed to guess the gist of it without even asking.

Lu Jingye told her about the situation in a narrative tone.

After Zi Yi knew the whole story, she snorted with displeasure. "It's no wonder that group of women were trying to increase their sense of presence before me. As it turns out, Ye Li'er deliberately had it planned out."

However, at the thought that there were women who fancied her husband everywhere he went, she muttered, "Say, you are such a boring person, so why did those women fall for you?"

1

"Perhaps it's due to my identity."

He was one of the Young Masters of the eight aristocratic families in the capital, coupled with his previous position as the President of the Lu Group, the top-ranked company worldwide. With such an identity, it was normal for him to have suitors everywhere he went.

This was what Lu Jingye thought.

Zi Yi looked at him with a bright gaze and said, "Don't you think that your face accounts for half of the reason too?"

Lu Jingye's lips curved up and he asked, "Does my wife fancy my appearance too?"

Zi Yi nodded honestly. "Yes, I like it."

She then tilted her head and held his face in her hands before she gave him a deep kiss.

After she finished with the kiss, she moved back and smiled at him.

Lu Jingye could not deal with her and ended up holding her hands instead.

Zi Yi leaned her head on his shoulder and said, "Should we send a robot to help Bu Di?"

Even though this was their first meeting, Zi Yi felt that they were worth befriending.

"No need," Lu Jingye said, "Sang Bo is not a kind person. The reason he compromised is because Bu Di was involved."

Zi Yi thought about it for a moment and did not bring this up again anymore. She then changed the topic. "The detector I brought with me today did not detect Rick carrying any item that could interfere with my detectors. Shadow III and Shadow IV also did not manage to detect any suspicious people or special magnetic fields."

Speaking of this, she looked up at Lu Jingye. "Say, could it be that the person behind him did not come and is still at the Bermuda Triangle?"

"That should be the case, otherwise Yunxiao would have come over too."

Zi Yi leaned her head on his shoulder once again. "There's another possibility that they are trying to separate us on purpose."

"Mmh." Lu Jingye had also guessed this. "If they have indeed divided themselves into two batches, we'll resolve both sides."

Zi Yi nodded her head.

Sure enough, Dan Wei had taken action very soon. At around 12 a.m., Lu Jingye's phone suddenly rang. He checked his phone and intended to get out of the bed without waking Zi Yi up.

However, she had woken up the moment he moved. She groggily asked, "Ah Jing, what's wrong?"

Lu Jingye's tone was very calm. "Someone is planning to break into our villa."

Zi Yi merely gave a nod and said, "Don't go down, let Shadow and the rest take care of them."

"Those people are also headed to where my subordinates are staying."

Lu Jingye's subordinates were staying somewhere near their villa.

Zi Yi wanted to tag along but Lu Jingye pressed down on her shoulders. "Don't get up, I'll return soon."

Zi Yi had just fallen asleep and she indeed did not wish to get up. Therefore, she responded with an affirmative before going back to sleep.

Lu Jingye got down from the bed, got dressed, and went out.

At that moment, Zi Yi's invisible robots were all standing in the courtyard.

"Master."

Lu Jingye nodded his head and asked, "Where are those people?"

A screen appeared before Shadow and reflected on the screen were the locations of those people.

Lu Jingye glanced at the screen and said, "Take care of them."

He then called out his personal invisible robots and said, "Go protect my subordinates."

1

The robots responded and immediately left.

Lu Jingye did not leave. He stood in the courtyard and waited for some time before he heard screams from outside.

The sounds of the screams lasted for quite some time before they finally stopped. Lu Jingye took out his phone and said to the bodyguards he brought along, "Throw these people to where Rick is staying and give him a return gift."

Chapter 683: What The Hell?! What Did We Just See?!

On the other side.

When Bu Di and Sang Bo returned to their villa, Sang Bo called for all the bodyguards and gave an order. "Be on alert tonight. If anyone approaches, take care of them."

In the middle of the night, Sang Bo heard sounds of movements and he bounced up from the bed.

Bu Di had also sat up.

Sang Bo quickly got dressed and headed outside with a weapon. Before he left, he said to Bu Di, "Stay here and don't follow me."

"Tsk." Bu Di was unhappy with that. "Are you treating me like a woman that needs your protection?"

Sang Bo revealed a stiff expression. What he disliked the most was Bu Di saying such words.

Bu Di saw him standing there without moving and managed to guess his thoughts. He then said with a smile, "I was only joking with you, why take it so seriously?"

He then quickly changed his clothes and got down from the bed before coming over to Sang Bo's side. "Don't always treat me like the one that needs to be protected, sweetheart."

Bu Di even copped a touch of Sang Bo's stiff face, before he retracted his hand and looked into his eyes.

Sang Bo narrowed his eyes for two seconds and following that, he put the gun in Bu Di's hands. "You'd better pay attention to your safety."

He then made his way out.

Bu Di smiled and played around with the gun in his hands, before he then went out shortly after.

There were many assailants and their number was at least twenty or so.

By the time Sang Bo and Bu Di went out, both sides were already in a confrontation.

Sang Bo grabbed a heavy-duty weapon when he went out. He looked at those assailants who were rushing over like mad dogs with a hardened expression.

Bu Di stood next to him and coldly glanced at the group as he clicked his tongue. "Dan Wei thinks that we're easy to bully, that's why he sent so many men?"

Sang Bo did not answer. His gaze was fixed on the two groups of people in a fight. Sometime later, he said to Bu Di, "Protect yourself well."

Having said that, he joined in the fight.

Bu Di originally planned to follow him, but he keenly noticed a flash of red light on the roof of a villa near them. He snorted and shouted at Sang Bo, "Sweetheart, pay attention to the roof of the building on our left."

Sang Bo had quick reactions. The moment Bu Di reminded him, the gun in his hands aimed at the roof.

Amongst the sounds of gunfire, Sang Bo quickly nodded to the side, and at the same time, he shouted at Bu Di, "Hide!"

Bu Di answered him and hid behind the corner of the wall. At the same time, he quickly shot the assailants who were fighting with their bodyguards.

The fight lasted for nearly half an hour. On the assailant's side, there were those who were injured and those who met their maker.

Sang Bo and Bu Di stood in an open space.

"These bodies must be disposed of right away." Sang Bo immediately ordered his bodyguards. "Drive a bread van over and bring them away."

There were bodyguards who went to fetch a bread van and two other bodyguards remained to look after the bodies. Bu Di said, "It turns out that Dan Wei's men are so weak."

Sang Bo's expression looked off. "It's possible that we have fallen into a trap."

As soon as he said that, there were faint police sirens from a certain distance away.

Both their expressions changed and they softly cursed.

"Motherf*cker. Dan Wei is thinking of getting us arrested!"

Sang Bo grabbed Bu Di's wrist and said, "Leave first."

Bu Di looked at him with displeasure. "Do you think I will leave you alone?"

Sang Bo's expression sank. "Don't be willful."

The sounds of the police siren were getting louder.

Just as Bu Di was about to speak, a few people appeared before them out of thin air.

Bu Di and Sang Bo immediately aimed their guns at them.

Those people did not even bother to look at them. They quickly took out a few bottles of liquid and poured them over the corpses.

In less than ten seconds, the corpses had turned into powder and disappeared. At the same time, they poured the liquid over the blood on the floor, and similarly, the blood disappeared without a trace.

After they were finished, they disappeared into thin air, just like how they had appeared.

After a few seconds of strange silence, Bu Di swallowed his saliva and spoke with great difficulty. "What the hell?! What did we just see?!"

However, Sang Bo managed to react very quickly as he said to Bu Di, "Let's go in quickly."

He then pulled Bu Di and ran to the front door of their villa. The bodyguards had also tagged along.

The second they closed the front door to their villa, the police cars turned from around the corner and they all stopped at the open space outside of their villa.

Upon hearing the noise outside, just as Bu Di wanted to speak, Sang Bo motioned for all the bodyguards to disperse. At the same time, he quietly pulled Bu Di inside the villa.

They walked into the living room and quickly changed into sleeping attire. They then pretended that they had just woken up.

At the same time, there was a loud knocking sound on their door.

Sang Bo patted Bu Di's shoulders. "Go upstairs first."

Bu Di knew that they were safe right now and was relieved. He nodded his head and Sang Bo opened the door as he headed to the courtyard.

The housekeeper had opened the front gate and he was currently conversing with some people outside.

Sang Bo walked over and asked, "What happened?"

The housekeeper quickly made way for him. Sang Bo looked at the group of policemen standing outside and asked, "I wonder why you are visiting my house at this time?"

One of the officers spoke up with a serious expression. "We received a report earlier that there is a murder case here."

"We didn't hear anything."

The officer's expression looked more serious than before. "Then let us in to search."

"Search? Sure, take out the search warrant first."

"Mr. Sang, please cooperate."

"I am being very cooperative right now. But I will not let people search my home for no reason."

"I have said it before. Someone reported that a murder happened here."

Sang Bo who was nearly two meters tall had easily looked past the group of policemen and he scanned left and right outside. "Where's the murder case?"

The officer choked. If he was able to find any traces outside, would he still be knocking on his door? He would have already immediately taken his men away.

This person offended someone up there and he had to bring them away tonight.

What's more, he believed that they would be able to find clues if they were to search the villa.

"For the safety of nearby residents, we must search door to door. Unless you can guarantee the safety of all the nearby residents."

"I'll let you in if you have a search warrant."

"You-" The officer could not take it anymore. He took out his gun and pointed it at Sang Bo's head. "If you don't cooperate, believe it or not, I'll shoot you."

Sang Bo looked at the gun in the officer's hand and remained calm. However, he did not say anything else.

The officer said to his men, "Search!"

A group of policemen rushed in at once. Before long, a pissed-off angry shout could be heard, “You f*ckers are you here to search or to rob people? Don’t you dare take away that Emperor Green jadeite of mine or I’ll expose you right away!”

“F*ck! I’m naked and I dare you to lift the quilt. AHHHH- molester!”

Sang Bo’s expression turned chilly. “Don’t blame me for being impolite for your people having touched my man.”

The officer felt his forehead throbbing as his expression was as dark as the bottom of a pot.

Who the hell would want to touch that pervert?!

The search lasted for nearly half an hour and Bu Di had also shouted for half an hour.

When the group of policemen finally came down, Bu Di had also followed them downstairs while dressed in baggy pajamas and he had an angry expression on his face.

Chapter 684: Little Loli Asks: Master, Did You Turn Off My System?

The group of policemen informed their officer. “Reporting, nothing suspicious was found.”

Bu Di sneered. “If I hadn’t been watching over you people, you would have even taken away the safe! Not to mention, you dared to molest me! Your skills in blatant robbery are really superb!”

The chief officer put away his gun with a dark expression and said, “Sorry to have disturbed you.” Following that, he left with the group of police officers.

Looking at the car that drove away, Bu Di smiled. When Sang Bo came over, he asked, “Say, those people who appeared suddenly, who do you think they belong to?”

Sang Bo said with certainty, “They are Lu’s men.”

The both of them headed inside together.

“It seems like we owe him a favor now.”

“Mmm, yes.”

Early the next morning.

By the time Zi Yi woke up, Lu Jingye had already left the bedroom.

The window was slightly open and a cooling breeze blew in, causing the curtains to flutter around, which made the room feel rather pleasant.

Zi Yi remained in the bed for two minutes or so before she got up to wash herself, before heading downstairs. Before she even reached the staircase, she heard Bu Di’s surprised voice.

“That group of policemen must have been sent by Dan Wei. He clearly planned to have me and Sang Bo arrested... and it’s all thanks to the men you sent which prevented us from falling into his trap. However, I’m really surprised. How did your men manage that feat? They disappeared without a trace!”

When Zi Yi arrived at the top of the stairs, Lu Jingye just happened to look up.

The moment Lu Jingye raised his head, Sang Bo and Bu Di sitting next to him had also looked up.

“Hi~ Zi.”

Bu Di waved at Zi Yi enthusiastically.

Zi Yi walked down the stairs and sat down next to Lu Jingye, before she asked Bu Di, “What are you two doing here at such an early time?”

“We’re here to express our thanks.”

Bu Di briefly told her about what happened last night.

After Zi Yi heard what he said, she sneered. “Dan Wei did not manage to succeed on both sides last night. Say, do you think he will find some ridiculous excuses to find fault?”

“Since he dares to send his men, we will continue counteracting all his plots.”

After Sang Bo made the cool remark, he said to Lu Jingye, “Since he has taken action against us first, there’s no need for us to wait and see anymore.”

Lu Jingye nodded his head. “What are your plans?”

“I plan to release news that I will be selling a few mines. You only have to cooperate with me, and that will do.”

Subsequently, Sang Bo explained his plan.

While the two men started to discuss the specifics, Zi Yi became a little hungry and she looked toward the dining area.

Lu Jingye had been paying attention to her and he managed to discern her thoughts. He stopped the conversation and said, “There’s bread in the oven, porridge in the pot, eggs in the egg cooker, and a few dishes on the stove. If you’re hungry, you can eat first.”

Before Zi Yi could respond, Bu Di’s eyes brightened and he said without the slightest reservation, “We haven’t eaten breakfast either. Can we have breakfast together first before talking about other things?”

Bu Di: “...”

Zi Yi looked at Bu Di’s speechless expression and laughed. She then stood up and headed toward the dining area.

Subsequently, she heard Lu Jingye’s voice and he was clearly talking to Shadow next to him. “Head to the villa next to us and ask if there is extra breakfast. If there is, bring two portions over.”

Bu Di hastily added. “My sweetheart has a big appetite. Take more, or else it won’t be enough.”

Zi Yi: “...”

Since Shadow left to get more breakfast, Zi Yi waited.

When Shadow returned with the additional breakfast, the four of them sat down at the dining table and ate breakfast.

The breakfast from the other villa was bread, milk, and sandwiches. Bu Di ate what he had in his hands but his eyes were fixed on the porridge Zi Yi had. "Zi, your porridge looks delicious, what's added inside?"

"Preserved egg and lean meat." Zi Yi responded and ate a mouthful.

Bu Di salivated as he looked at her, and Sang Bo who was seated next to him could not take it anymore.

He gave Bu Di a slap on his head. "Wipe away your saliva."

Bu Di subconsciously touched the corner of his mouth and realized that he was really salivating. However, he did not find it embarrassing, and instead, he said confidently, "Who told you not to feed me such delicious porridge?"

Bu Di then looked at Zi Yi and asked, "Who made this porridge?"

"Ah Jing."

"..."

"What's wrong?"

"Lu can cook?" Bu Di looked at Lu Jingye in disbelief. The next second, he looked at Sang Bo with a discontented gaze. "Look at other people's men. They can nail social events and also the kitchen! You..."

Sang Bo gave him a cold look and Bu Di quickly changed tune. "You're pretty good too."

Only then did Sang Bo look away and continue eating.

After breakfast, the four of them returned to the sofa and sat down.

The three men discussed their plans, while Zi Yi grabbed a tablet and sat there.

Sang Bo and Bu Di remained at their place for around two hours or so before they left.

Not long after they left, Lu Jingye received another dinner banquet invitation.

It was a businessman from Country Em who had sent him the invitation.

Lu Jingye did not even bother to open the invitation and look inside. Instead he said to Shadow, "Tell the person who sent the invitation that I'm not free tonight."

Shadow went out to pass on the message.

Zi Yi raised her head and said, "I thought that after last night's incident, at the very least, those people would not send you an invitation again tonight."

Speaking of this, she shifted the tablet to Lu Jingye. "The invitations have also been sent to Dan Wei and Rick's place... what are these businessmen thinking? Do they think that they can touch you now that you are no longer the Lu Group's president?"

“Dan Wei instigated them to do so,” Lu Jingye said with certainty, “Everyone here will try their best to please Dan Wei.”

Zi Yi scoffed and felt disdain. She changed the subject and said, “Little Loli will arrive today. When she arrives, get her to stay here and send Shadow III to monitor Rick.”

“Ok.”

Little Loli arrived at around noon.

“Master, I miss you so much!”

The moment Little Loli saw Zi Yi, she pounced over in her direction.

Zi Yi switched her off the second before Little Loli managed to reach her.

Subsequently, Zi Yi shifted Little Loli to the side before switching her back on.

BAM!

Looking at Little Loli who was buried in the sofa, Zi Yi laughed without the slightest reservation.

She patted Little Loli’s shoulders.

Little Loli turned around and looked at Zi Yi who was sitting next to her with a dazed expression. Little Loli only managed to react two seconds later. “Master, did you turn off my system?”

Zi Yi quirked her eyebrow and refused to admit it. “Nope. It’s because you were too excited, so your system turned off by itself.”

“Really?” Little Loli immediately put on a sad face. “In that case, if A comes back, whenever I wish to kiss him, hug him or do embarrassing things, wouldn’t my system crash?! HUUURRR, I don’t want that to happen~”

Zi Yi was speechless for a moment. “...Little Loli, you are a robot.”

She actually had plans to do such embarrassing things?

“Even though you can communicate internally through electrical waves, A might not be willing.”

“Why would he be unwilling?” Little Loli acted like tears were streaming out of her eyes. “Wuuuu... If he is unwilling, I’ll cry in his face.”

Zi Yi resisted the urge to rub her forehead and changed the subject. “What did you find at the Bermuda Triangle?”

Chapter 685: Why Are You Helping Me?

Little Loli, who was supposedly crying, had immediately stopped, as she turned serious.

“Master told me to find a way to approach Rick, and haven’t I been unable to do so? Subsequently, you sent another robot and he did manage to get close either, but he was soon discovered. Moreover, the other party possessed something powerful that could melt our parts.”

“What is it?” Zi Yi furrowed her brows.

Little Loli brought up a screen and showed the ingredients of the liquid to Zi Yi.

Zi Yi nodded her head after she read through the list. “Okay I understand.”

Having said that, she asked, “How many people tagged along with Rick?”

“Half of them.”

“Where are they currently at?”

Little Loli told her a few coordinates.

After Zi Yi heard her, she took the tablet, searched up the coordinates, and more or less knew where they were at. She planned to discuss it with Lu Jingye later.

Little Loli leaned on Zi Yi’s arm and looked at the tablet. She impatiently asked, “Master, you said you were going to upgrade me, when will you do so?”

Zi Yi tilted her head and looked at her.

Little Loli acted coquettishly and made a request. “Master, can you remove my bug too when you do the upgrade for me? I don’t want my system to crash the moment I see A when he comes back.”

Zi Yi was silent for some time before she asked, “What aspects of A do you like?”

Zi Yi knew that all the robots she created were beautiful and handsome. The configuration of Robot A was of an indifferent businessman and he was also one of the more backward versions. Why was Little Loli so fixated on him?

Little Loli unexpectedly revealed a slight blush. She played around with her fingers and said, “A is from the same batch as me and moreover, he treats me indifferently. I love his manly personality.”

Having said that, Little Loli even cupped her cheeks and acted star-struck.

Zi Yi: “...”

To think that she had created a robot that was a masochist... Could it be that her skills in making robots had deteriorated ever since she arrived at Ancient Earth, thus resulting in such a big bug?

1

She did not contemplate this question for long. She planned to upgrade Little Loli first.

Zi Yi already had plans to do an upgrade for Little Loli when she came to Country Em. Therefore, she had brought along all the tools she needed.

The moment she started getting busy, a few hours had passed.

At around 3 p.m., Shadow suddenly came in and said to Zi Yi, “Master, a madam is outside and she is requesting to meet you.”

“Who is it?”

“She said that she is Mrs. Delin, and her husband owns a jewelry-making company in Country T.”

“Did she say why she is looking for me?”

“She said that she would like to befriend Master.”

Zi Yi thought about it for a moment. Right now, there were only two possibilities for why those people wanted to befriend her. One of them was to spy on her husband’s situation, and the other was that they were being used by Dan Wei and had other plans.

Zi Yi did not wish to interact with those snakes at all and said, “Tell her that I’m busy and I have no time to meet her.”

When Mrs. Delin heard that Zi Yi refused to meet her, she revealed an expression of disbelief. Her tone of voice unconsciously contained traces of dissatisfaction. “Didn’t you tell your Madam that I wish to befriend her?”

Shadow repeated the same thing. “Mrs. Delin, my Madam is very busy and she has no time to meet you.”

Mrs. Delin was even more unhappy, but she did not express how she felt openly. “Alright then, inform your Madam that I only wish to have a chat with her. After all, both our families are in the same business and I would often tag along with my husband to various events. Thus, I would know more in that aspect too.”

“I will convey your words to my Madam.”

Mrs. Delin saw that Zi Yi really had no intentions to meet her and she could not possibly force her way inside either. In the end, she could only take her leave.

After the car drove away for some distance, Mrs. Delin took out her phone and dialed a string of numbers. When the other party answered the call, she hastily switched to a flattering tone. “Miss Ge Danni, she refuses to meet me.”

The other party said something and Mrs. Delin’s expression eased a little.

On the other side.

After Ge Danni received Mrs. Delin’s phone call, she immediately informed Ye Li’er of this.

Ye Li’er was currently playing the piano and when she heard what she said, she said coldly, “My Brother will send someone to deal with her, just let her be arrogant for a few more days.”

However, Ge Danni did not think the same way. “Other than her appearance, which aspect can that woman possibly compare with you? Your piano skills have reached the master level and perhaps that woman doesn’t even know how to play the piano. She’s not even worthy of competing with you.”

1

Ye Li’er said with displeasure, “Don’t just use any random trash to compare with me.”

Speaking of which, she quickly pressed a string of notes on the piano and said, "But they embarrassed me last night and I will repay this favor double fold!"

"Since Miss Ye Li'er has this thought, why don't you take action right away?"

The two ladies looked at Rick who made his way over.

Ge Danni's heart rate sped up unconsciously after she saw Rick. She greeted Rick with a blush. "Mr. Rick, you're here."

Ye Li'er glanced at Ge Danni then shifted her gaze to Rick and asked, "What do you mean by that?"

Rick looked at Ye Li'er's hands and said, "Weren't you thinking of embarrassing Zi Yi? I have a way that can embarrass her and at the same time, increase your fame in the music industry"

Ye Li'er pursed her lips. She did not immediately ask him the method and instead, she asked, "Why are you helping me?"

Rick looked at Ye Li'er with those deep blue eyes of his until Ye Li'er felt shy from his gaze. He then curved his lips into a smile and said, "Because I wish to help you."

His words were a straight bullet that immediately caused Ye Li'er to blush.

Rick had a handsome appearance, was a noble, and was rich. Not to mention, he had an aura similar to that of a large beast that was ready to pounce on his prey, and as long as he wanted to, he was capable of making many women go crazy about him.

Lu Jingye was the object of Ye Li'er's crush but after last night's events, she started feeling resentful toward him. In addition, there was a perfect man like Rick next to her that served as a comparison. As a result, her heart had somehow shifted.

Before she realized it, she had already asked what was in her mind, "Will you help me?"

Rick did not immediately answer. His eyes that were looking at her made Ye Li'er blush and he said, "What do you think?"

Ye Li'er could not stand his aggressive gaze anymore and hastily asked, "How do you intend to help me?"

"You should have heard that Zi Yi is very famous among university students."

"Yes... what does this have to do with you helping me?"

"If you wish to embarrass her, the first thing you must do is to separate her from Lu Jingye. The best way to separate them is to get the university here to send her an invitation."

"Her?" Before Ye Li'er could speak, Ge Danni who was standing next to them and who had been ignored by them had expressed her disdain. "She's only famous in M.Uni and it's not that she's internationally famous. Is Mr. Rick sure that A.Uni will invite her? What's more, what could they possibly invite her for?"

Ye Li'er had the same thoughts as Ge Danni.

Chapter 686: Don't You Know You Will End Up Miserable If You Interrupt Others' Good Time?

The smile on Rick's lips deepened. "The two ladies might have not paid much attention to Zi Yi before but she excels in several subjects and in particular, Chemistry. Not only did she win first place in the recent International Chemistry Competition, but she had also done something that attracted the attention of the whole Chemistry Department."

Ye Li'er and Ge Danni made eye contact.

Ye Li'er planned to check up on Zi Yi later and she said to Rick, "I will think about it."

Rick nodded his head and even specially reminded her. "There are still three days before the jadeite mines are open to the public. It's best that you make up your mind beforehand. After all, you can humiliate Zi Yi before the event and at the same time, distract Lu Jingye... Don't you wish to see Lu Jingye distracted due to Zi Yi's affairs and get attacked from all sides, making him end up with nothing?"

When Rick mentioned the last sentence, the aura around his body turned sinister and Ye Li'er and Ge Danni were both startled.

Rick intended to let Ye Li'er think about it and he timely took his leave. "I still have something that I need to do, you two ladies can slowly think about it."

After Rick left, he took out an earpiece from his pocket and said with a solemn tone, "Speak."

The other party said something and the corner of his lips curved up. "As long as you find a way to lure away the robots around her, I'll take care of the rest... Don't worry, I have already thought of a brilliant idea."

After the call ended, Rick clenched his cell phone and stared at a fixed point in front of him. His whole body was radiating a murderous aura.

Sometime later, he muttered with a twisted expression, "Lu Jingye, I will make you experience the pain of losing your loved one."

...

When Zi Yi received a phone call from A.Uni of the city she was in, she got a surprise.

The Deputy Headmaster warmly extended her an invite. "Student Zi, you have shown all the students and teachers of our Chemistry Department your skills in the previous competition. We heard that you have arrived in City A, and on behalf of the Chemistry Department, I would like to sincerely invite you over as a guest.

"Of course, we hope that you can also come over as a guest speaker and show a public experiment to our students."

Zi Yi did not immediately answer or accept the invite.

In the previous competition, from Country Em, there was a student from A.Uni. Even though the student did not manage to enter the practical experiment round, they did not mock M.Uni like the others.

The Deputy Headmaster also said over the phone, "When I heard the news of your arrival in City A, I even called up M.Uni's Dean of the School of Chemistry. Your Dean is also supportive of you opening a practical experiment class in our school."

Zi Yi said, "I will think about it."

The Deputy Headmaster replied, "Alright, I hope that Student Zi can give us an answer as soon as possible, so that we can make the arrangements."

Zi Yi responded with an ok and hung up the phone.

Unexpectedly, she received a call from M.Uni's Dean of the School of Chemistry right after she hung up the phone.

The Dean laughed over the phone and said, "Little Zi, I believe you should have received a call from the Deputy Headmaster of A.Uni?"

Zi Yi responded. "Yes."

"Little Zi, as you know, even though our M.Uni is one of the top ten famous universities around the world, our reputation is lacking compared to the top universities in Country A, Country D, Country E, Country Y, Country F, and Country R. However, it's not that our university is inferior. It's just that we have always been lacking an opportunity.

"Since A.Uni has extended an invitation, we hope that you can agree to it. This would be very beneficial to both you and our M.Uni's reputation."

Zi Yi was silent for several seconds before she said, "Alright, I understand."

Shortly after, Zi Yi agreed to A.Uni's Deputy Headmaster's invitation.

Both of them discussed the time of the class and Zi Yi hung up the phone afterwards.

Subsequently, she headed to the study room.

She intended to inform Lu Jingye about this.

Lu Jingye was currently working and he looked over when he heard sounds of knocking.

"Ah Jing, I received a call from the Deputy Headmaster of A.Uni. He invited me to hold a practical experiment class tomorrow at nine in the morning."

Lu Jingye thought about it and stood up to make his way over. With an apologetic tone, he said, "Sang Bo and I will be heading over to his jadeite mine tomorrow and I'm afraid I can't accompany you."

Zi Yi did not mind it at all. "In that case, I'll head over alone."

Lu Jingye was a little worried. "Rick and the rest will surely find a way to deal with you then."

"Hmph! I should be the one worrying that they wouldn't do anything to me. In that case, it saves me the trouble of luring out the person behind Rick."

Lu Jingye lowered his eyes and thought for a while. "Bring along your robots with you tomorrow and I'll also send a few bodyguards to tag along."

"I don't want bodyguards," Zi Yi said. "It's troublesome to bring bodyguards. Perhaps I might even have to rescue them when the time comes."

Lu Jingye thought about it and found what she said reasonable. "Immediately give me a call when something happens."

Looking at the man who was worried about her, Zi Yi put her arms around his neck and said, "Don't worry, nobody can deal with me with all the good stuff I have on hand. What's more, you should also pay attention to whether Rick would make mischief during your trip to the jadeite mines tomorrow."

"Okay." Lu Jingye held her waist and said, "We are well prepared."

Just then, the sound of the door opening could be heard and Little Loli's cutesy voice sounded. "I didn't see anything, you can continue."

Zi Yi did not let go of Lu Jingye either. She turned around and looked at Little Loli who covered her face but was peeping through the cracks of her fingers. "Don't you know you will end up miserable if you interrupt others' good time?"

Little Loli hastily tried to flatter Zi Yi. "Master, I didn't mean to do it. I will definitely knock on the door first next time."

"What are you here for?" Zi Yi could not be bothered to lecture her anymore.

Little Loli immediately said, "Master, I wish to go out and test my new abilities."

Ever since Little Loli had an upgrade, she had constantly wanted to go out and test out her new abilities.

As such, she was looking all over the place for Zi Yi and when she did not manage to catch any glimpse of her Master, she guessed that her Master would be here.

Zi Yi thought about it for a moment and agreed. "Then head over to Ye Li'er's place and test it out."

"Does Master want me to spy on her?"

"Shadow III is also watching over there. If you have nothing to do, you can join him."

"I'm free!"

Little Loli was about to leave after she said that, when Zi Yi called out to her, "You're only allowed to monitor her, don't do anything else."

Little Loli had tons of ideas and Zi Yi did not want Little Loli to ruin her plans.

"Got it."

Little Loli happily left the room.

Zi Yi turned back and looked at Lu Jingye and acted coquettishly. "Ah Jing, are you done with your work?"

Lu Jingye said with a straight face, "I'm done."

Since his wife had asked, it clearly meant that she wanted him to accompany her. He would certainly satisfy her wish.

Zi Yi smiled in response. She let go of his neck and pulled him outside. "I got Shadow II to purchase a cutting machine. Let's go out and have fun cutting the stones."

"Alright."

The cutting machine was placed on the left side of the courtyard's wall. A canopy was set up there and the stones they had purchased previously were all piled up at the side.

At that moment, Shadow II and Shadow IV were currently making preparations for cutting the stones.

After Zi Yi came over, Shadow said to them, "Masters, all preparations are complete."

Zi Yi tilted her head and looked at Lu Jingye as she said, "When I upgraded Little Loli yesterday, I also made something in passing. This can accurately cut the stones, let's give it a try."

Having said that, she threw out one of the circular balls in her hands.

Chapter 687: Getting Reported

The circular ball transformed into something like a searchlight.

It floated over the stones and released a red light.

The light shone on one of the stones and not long later, the light disappeared and the circular ball transformed into something like a pen. It quickly flew around the stone and started drawing lines on top of the stone.

The lines were fully drawn on it very soon. Zi Yi put away the circular ball after it was done and turned to look at Lu Jingye.

He asked, "Can this circular ball draw lines for stones that are several tons heavy?"

Zi Yi nodded her head. "Yes."

Having said that, she handed the circular ball to Lu Jingye. "You can bring this along with you tomorrow. I've also set up a system that can detect the elements inside the stone. When you arrive there, you can bring back any type of jadeite you like."

Lu Jingye looked at the small circular ball in his hand and chuckled. He didn't expect there would be a day where he had such a cheat-like item.

He put the ball in his pocket and caressed Zi Yi's head. "Since the lines are drawn, do we do the cutting ourselves?"

Having said that, he planned to roll up his sleeves to do the cutting.

Zi Yi pulled his hand and said, "No need, let Shadow II and Shadow IV do the work."

Lu Jingye: "..."

Oh well. Since his wife likes to use advanced robots as manual labor, he had no reason to voice a contrary opinion.

1

With the guiding lines, cutting the stone was very fast. When something that was as transparent as that of glass appeared before their sights, Zi Yi said, "If this gem is made into accessories, it should reap profits of around a billion dollars."

"Yes."

Lu Jingye said, "I'll get people to make them into small ornaments and have it placed at home instead of making commodities to be sold."

Zi Yi did not have an opinion on that.

Just as Shadow II and Shadow IV finished cutting the stones, knocking sounds could be heard from the gates near the courtyard.

Shadow II and Shadow IV stopped their work and covered the raw stones and jadeite with a piece of cloth. Only then did Shadow head over to open the door.

Soon, an inquiring voice could be heard from outside. "Excuse me, is this the residence of Mr. Lu from China?"

"Yes, and who are you?"

"Hello, I am a courier from XX Express. There's a delivery for Mr. Lu, please sign for this."

Zi Yi tilted her head and looked at Lu Jingye. "Ah Jing, what did you buy?"

"I didn't buy anything."

Lu Jingye headed to the courtyard as soon as he said that.

Zi Yi quickly tagged along.

Just then, Shadow said, "Please hold on for a moment. I'll check with the owner."

The courier was clearly feeling impatient. "It's the same as if you signed for the delivery. I have to rush to deliver the next delivery."

"This is not my package."

When Lu Jingye spoke up, Shadow made way for him.

The courier looked at the man making his way over. He was startled by the strong aura Lu Jingye radiated and swallowed his saliva. However, at the thought of the task on hand, he said in a loud voice, "The address written here is this place and it's addressed to Mr. Lu. Aren't you Mr. Lu?"

Lu Jingye looked at the courier for a few seconds. When cold sweat started emerging from the courier's forehead, Lu Jingye motioned to Shadow. "Sign for it."

Shadow went over and signed for the package

The courier took the receipt, turned around, and drove away.

Looking at the large parcel placed outside the gates, Zi Yi got Shadow to scan what was inside.

Shadow placed his hand on the parcel. He then stood up and said, "There's a person inside. They are in an unconscious state."

Zi Yi somehow thought of the incident Bu Di and Sang Bo experienced last night and said to Lu Jingye, "Ah Jing, do you think Dan Wei got someone to send this here on purpose? There might be police officers arriving to arrest us later."

Lu Jingye's expression turned cold. "Yiyi, change all the surveillance around here."

"Alright."

Zi Yi took out her phone and quickly operated it.

Lu Jingye said to Shadow, "Take care of this parcel, don't leave any evidence."

"I understand, Master."

Shadow's speed in taking care of the parcel was very quick. He was done in less than a minute.

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye could not be bothered to look at the person inside the parcel.

Sometime later, Zi Yi said to Lu Jingye, "Sure enough, the police are here."

They went back in and closed the gate. Lu Jingye then rolled up his sleeves and personally operated the cutting machine.

Zi Yi stood next to him and acted as an assistant.

Around five to six minutes later, sounds of police sirens could be heard from outside. In the end, the police cars were parked outside their gates.

Bam! Bam! bam!

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye stopped working at the sound of the knocking.

Lu Jingye motioned to Shadow. "Go open the gate."

Shadow walked over, opened the gate, and asked, "What can I do for you?"

A stern-sounding voice could be heard. "We received a report that the owner of this villa kidnapped the daughter of the Yale Family. This is a search warrant, please cooperate with us."

Shadow did not get flustered and said, "Please hold on, I'll go and get the owner of the villa."

"Are you trying to tip off the owner?" The voice sounded even sterner than before. "You had best cooperate, or else don't blame us for arresting all of you."

"Since that's the case, please allow me to call the Chinese Embassy first. We are not citizens of Country Em and even if you wish to arrest us, it seems like you should not have skipped past the authority of the embassy."

The other party was clearly speechless. A few seconds later, the man ordered. "Surround this villa, no one is allowed to enter or leave."

"Yes!"

Shadow took out a phone and dialed the number of the Chinese Embassy.

After he was done with the call, the other party said, "Call your owner to come out."

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye made eye contact. Lu Jingye washed his hands and headed outside in large strides.

Zi Yi followed along.

There was an officer and a number of policemen standing by the door. Those policemen were even equipped with guns.

Zi Yi grabbed Lu Jingye's hand and hid behind him as she spoke in a frightened tone. "Ah Jing, what are they trying to do? They look so scary."

Lu Jingye furrowed his brows and pulled her into his embrace. His sharp gaze turned to look at the officer standing outside.

"What's the matter?"

The young man standing opposite of him was clearly around his age, but the officer felt his heart palpitating. He tried calming himself down and spoke in a particularly harsh tone to cover up his nervousness. "Someone reported that you kidnapped the daughter of a businessman from our country..."

"Who made the report? Where's the evidence?"

"Ugh..."

Lu Jingye's voice was too oppressive and even though the officer was interrupted by him, he dared not flare up at him. In particular, at the thought that Lu Jingye was from one of the eight great aristocratic families, he dared not barge in despite the higher-ups ordering him to search the place without any worry for repercussions.

"Cough..." The officer cleared his throat and tried to remain stern. "We cannot reveal the one who reported it, but there is irrefutable evidence."

Having said that, he turned around and ordered his men. "Bring the witness."

Soon, the courier who came over previously was brought over.

The courtier looked at the three with a frightened expression. "I personally saw them dragging in the box that had a person inside."

"Box? What box?" Lu Jingye looked at Shadow.

Shadow answered in a serious tone, "Young Master, we did not receive any boxes today, not to mention bringing any boxes inside."

Chapter 688: You Might Not Be Able To Successfully Plot Against Him

“How is that possible?!”

The courier widened his eyes and his voice raised several octaves higher. “I clearly saw you bringing the box with Miss Ma Fei inside the gates!”

“Eh?” Zi Yi asked curiously. “Since it’s a box that contains a person, it should be sealed. How did you know that there’s a person inside or that was who it is?”

“I...” The courier wanted to refute.

Zi Yi snorted. “You’re saying that we brought in a box and even let you see that there’s a person inside? Are you trying to say that we had blatantly defied the laws of Country Em or are you unable to think of a way to frame us and so, made up this lie?”

“I...” The courier was eager to explain.

Lu Jingye looked at the courier sharply and the courier dared not speak up anymore.

Lu Jingye looked at the officer and asked, “Can you bear the consequences of going in and searching my house?”

The officer’s body stiffened.

He could not bear the consequences.

The young man before him was from the Lu Family, one of the eight aristocratic families of the capital. He dared not go in to search unless he was one hundred percent confident. Even the Prince could not bear the consequences, not to mention him.

Lu Jingye said, “Since he’s an eyewitness, go and bring up the surveillance of the streets around here to prove that he has been here and that he has seen the box.”

“Yes, that’s right. The surveillance will show that I really came here before.”

“What did you come here for? To send the box you mentioned?” The moment Zi Yi asked that question, the courier also detected something amiss and his complexion instantly paled.

The officer’s heart sped up. When the higher-ups sent him out to search Mr. Lu’s residence, he knew that things would not proceed so smoothly. However, he did not expect that the so-called witness would look as if he was lying.

The officer’s hands clenched tight and he sternly commanded his subordinates. “Bring the surveillance records right away.”

When his subordinates were pulling out the surveillance, a few cars approached them.

Soon, the cars drove to where they were and stopped.

The individuals who alighted from the car quickly made their way toward Lu Jingye and a few of them reached out their hands.

“Second Young Master Lu, nice to meet you.”

Lu Jingye also returned their handshakes and said, “Hello.”

The few individuals went to greet Zi Yi and all of them praised how she had increased the reputation of M.Uni.

After exchanging a few words of pleasantries, Ambassador Xiang turned to look at the officer and said in a serious tone, “We have more or less understood the situation here. Second Young Master Lu is from the capital and even if something did happen, please inform the Chinese Embassy first.”

The officer opened his mouth, but he knew that no excuses could be made and he ended up not saying anything to refute them.

Lu Jingye said, “Since the ambassadors have arrived, let us settle this matter today. My wife and I are willing to cooperate with this officer, but if you are unable to find anything in our residence, please get your immediate superior to apologize.”

The officer got a fright and was about to speak.

Ambassador Xiang spoke up in an even more serious tone. “The Lu Family is a military family and since you are unable to find any evidence, it proves that it is a deliberate framing against the Second Young Master Lu. If you enter his residence, we’ll go through the diplomatic procedures.”

The officer’s expression changed.

He clenched his fist even tighter. Just then, his subordinate’s voice sounded from the side. “Boss, the surveillance did not show anything amiss. The courier has never been here at all.”

After the courier heard what the police officer said, his legs went soft and he instantly fell to the ground.

Everyone turned to look at him.

The courier’s mind went blank and he said with trembling lips, “How could that be?! I clearly delivered that box here!”

Ambassador Xiang snorted. “I believe there’s no need to search anymore, unless you think that there’s still a need to search?”

The officer swallowed his saliva with great difficulty, as he felt like he was at the end of the road.

In particular, Lu Jingye said something that threw him into the depths of an ice cellar.

“Ambassador Xiang, since this eyewitness that the officer brought along claimed that I had abducted someone’s daughter, then let’s get the mayor and the family members to come over.”

Zi Yi chimed in. “Ah Jing. Right now you are the country’s imperial merchant and coupled with the Lu Family background you have, can the mayor resolve this issue?”

Lu Jingye looked at the officer who was covered in a cold sweat and said, “In that case, get the highest official in City A.”

Zi Yi said, "The highest official in City A right now seems to be Dan Wei. After all, he is the Prince's son and he should be able to speak on behalf of the Prince."

Ambassador Xiang replied, "That's the only way, or else I'll immediately have to report this issue to our country and get the officials to step forward and communicate with Country Em to resolve this issue."

The officer's legs went soft and he staggered; he nearly fell down.

...

On the other side.

Dan Wei was currently having a celebratory drink with Rick at the moment.

Dan Wei said with a cheerful expression, "The good show is going to end soon. Say, how many days should I let Lu Jingye stay behind bars?"

Rick lowered his eyes and looked at the red wine in his glass. "You might not be able to successfully plot against him."

"How is that possible? I got my men to abduct the daughter of the Yale Family and her father is a wealthy businessman in City A. I had also arranged for an eyewitness. When the time comes, as long as Lu Jingye is taken to the station and the Yale Family causes a commotion, he would lose all face even if he can come out in a few days. Haha..."

After Dan Wei had his fill of laughing, he suddenly stopped and said fiercely, "Those who dare to offend me, no matter who they are, they won't be able to have a good life in Country Em."

Rick felt that Lu Jingye would soon resolve this problem, but he did not tell Dan Wei of it. He merely said, "If he manages to get out of the situation, it's best that you refrain from proceeding to the next step. Otherwise..."

Dan Wei's phone suddenly rang and Rick stopped talking.

Dan Wei answered the call.

When he heard the report, Dan Wei's expression sank and he furrowed his brow as he asked, "He really invited the ambassadors of the Chinese Embassy over? The surveillance was also changed?"

As soon as Rick heard what Dan Wei said, he knew that Lu Jingye had resolved this issue. He looked at Dan Wei and shook his head deep down.

This person was not smart enough.

After Dan Wei hung up the call, he suddenly stood up from his seat and paced back and forth for several seconds. His expression became increasingly turbulent.

Rick put down the glass and asked knowingly, "What happened?"

Dan Wei stopped pacing around and said with a frown, "Lu Jingye called the Chinese Embassy and they dispatched several ambassadors over. Sh*t! They are asking for my presence or else they will report this incident back to their country and get them to go through the official diplomatic procedures."

The more Dan Wei spoke, the angrier he got. However, he had no choice but to step out at this point in time. Otherwise, if this matter were to spread to his father's ears, he would be in trouble.

At the thought of this, he stepped outside.

Rick did not tag along and continued drinking the red wine. Subsequently, he took out his phone and dialed a number.

After the other party answered the call, Rick said, "Dan Wei's plan has failed."

He hung up the call immediately afterwards.

However, as soon as he hung up the call, he felt something amiss.

Just then, the string of beads on his wrist suddenly lit up.

Chapter 689: Sure Enough, This Item Is Able To Deal With Those Robots Of Zi Yi's

Rick's expression changed and he took out a bottle of liquid and looked at his surroundings warily. He then shouted, "Show yourself!"

Sometime later.

Nothing appeared before him.

Rick sneered. "You want to use invisible robots to deal with me? Hmph, that'll depend on if your robots have the ability to do so first!"

Having said that, he pressed one of the beads on his bracelet, and in the next second, his surroundings seemed to have been shrouded in an invisible barrier.

Sometime later, the light on the bead dimmed.

Rick laughed wildly.

He then caressed the beads on his wrist. "Sure enough, this item is able to deal with those robots of Zi Yi's."

1

...

Zi Yi and the rest waited for Dan Wei to arrive and around an hour or so had passed by then.

Dan Wei alighted from the car and checked out the people who were standing outside the villa. "What happened here? Who dared to frame Mr. Lu?"

The officer had already been standing outside for around an hour and at the sight of Dan Wei, he finally felt at ease. He quickly recounted what happened earlier to Dan Wei.

After Dan Wei heard about the situation, he did not take it seriously. "This was clearly done by Mr. Lu's competitor. As long as the culprit who deliberately framed Mr. Lu is caught, everything will be settled. Was there a need to call me over specifically?"

His words clearly expressed his dissatisfaction with Lu Jingye making a mountain out of a molehill.

As soon as Dan Wei said that, he headed to the entrance and said to the officer, "Since you caught a person, bring him back to the station and interrogate him thoroughly. Don't always claim that you don't know how to resolve this incident. Otherwise, what's the need for people like you in the police station?"

The officer opened his mouth and he very much wanted to say: "If the situation was as simple as what you described, would there even be a need for me to call you over?"

However, he did not dare to reveal these thoughts out loud.

Dan Wei walked to the door and was somewhat displeased. "Where's Lu Jingye and the rest? Since they called me over, let's settle things quickly. I am a busy man!"

The officer said in a complicated tone, "Young Master Dan Wei, Mr. Lu mentioned earlier that you can call for him outside when you arrive."

"What do you mean that I can call for him outside when I arrive?!" Dan Wei's expression sank. He was the son of the Prince and even though his status was similar to that of Lu Jingye, they were in Country Em right now.

Since they were in Country Em, he was the most authoritative one. Yet, Lu Jingye did not personally come out and welcome him?

Dan Wei stood outside the door and refused to enter.

The officer quickly walked to his side and said respectfully, "Young Master Dan Wei, I'll call for the people inside on your behalf."

"Why should you call?" Shouldn't they be the ones coming out to welcome him?

"The ambassadors of their country are all here. They mentioned that if you do not wish to come over, they will directly contact the Prince."

Dan Wei took a deep breath and cursed internally! He gnashed his teeth and said, "Shout for them."

The officer quickly shouted towards the courtyard, "Mr. Lu, Young Master Dan Wei has arrived."

Half a minute or so later, Lu Jingye and the ambassadors walked out of the doorway.

Dan Wei tried his best to suppress his displeasure and faked his courtesy. "I heard that Mr. Lu was framed. Exactly who has the courage to dare to frame Mr. Lu?!"

Lu Jingye glanced at Dan Wei who was talking strangely and nodded towards the ambassadors.

Ambassador Xiang spoke up. "Young Master Dan Wei, we have just investigated and found out that the courier had your subordinate's contact number. I would like to ask why your subordinate is in contact with the courier? Could it be that they are acquainted?"

The moment Dan Wei heard the question, he exploded. "What do you mean? Are you suspecting that I was the one who ordered people to frame Mr. Lu?"

"I didn't say that. I was only asking a question. After all, the courier had made a false claim and through our investigation, we found out that the Young Miss of the Yale Family had met with one of your subordinates. Moreover, it just so happens that the subordinate of yours has had contact with the courier."

Ambassador Xiang had reason and evidence on his side. Dan Wei was internally cursing the eighteen generations of that subordinate of his. However, he could not remain neutral at this point in time. Otherwise, if this matter were to spread to his father, he would be in deep trouble.

Dan Wei held in his anger and revealed an expression of disbelief. "Why don't I know anything about this?!"

He muttered a curse and looked at Lu Jingye. "I will give you an explanation for this matter."

Having said that, he turned around and headed for his car.

He was going back to beat that subordinate of his to death!

Motherf*cker! That bastard can't seem to do anything right!

To think that he had left behind such a weakness!

Sh*t, Lu Jingye! Count yourself lucky this time.

"Is Young Master Dan Wei planning to leave just like that?" A calm voice sounded from behind him, but the voice seemed to contain a powerful pressure.

Dan Wei stopped walking. He had no choice but to do so. He tried his very best to suppress his anger and turned around and spoke to Lu Jingye in a polite tone. "Mr. Lu, how should we resolve this matter then?"

"I feel that we should inform the Prince about this and get him to resolve it. After all..." Speaking of this, Lu Jingye looked at Dan Wei with those abyss-deep eyes of his. "Right now no one can confirm if you are involved in his incident or not."

"What do you mean?" Dan Wei exploded.

"I meant what I said." Lu Jingye walked to where Dan Wei was. With every step he took, he radiated a strong aura. "Unless you can produce strong evidence that you have nothing to do with this incident... Oh, I forgot to tell you that I have a group of computer experts who are better than hackers. It's a very simple thing to check your phone records."

"You dare to do so?" Dan Wei had never been threatened like that throughout his entire life.

The more he thought about it, the more furious he got. However, he could not do anything to Lu Jingye.

In the end, Dan Wei thought deep down inside, "Lu Jingye, just you wait. When the day comes when you are penniless, let's see how I will deal with you!"

On the surface, he tried his best to appear sincere. "To express my sincerity, I'll have the men you mentioned arrested right away and handed over to you to personally handle. Would that suffice?"

Lu Jingye made eye contact with Dan Wei and his expression seemed unpredictable.

The two of them maintained eye contact for a minute before Lu Jingye nodded. "Sure."

Dan Wei had unexpectedly breathed a sigh of relief.

In the next second, he got even angrier at his own behavior!

SH*T!

Dan Wei called for his men to bring over the subordinate in question. That subordinate took the blame for the whole incident and after Lu Jingye extorted a large sum of mental and reputational damages from him, the matter was finally solved on the surface.

Looking at Dan Wei who left while fuming in anger, Zi Yi smiled and said to Lu Jingye, "Dan Wei will definitely be jumping around in anger when he returns."

However, as to whether he would really do that when he went back, it was none of their business at all.

However, this incident was soon spread around. Zi Yi had even exaggerated the incident and uploaded the news online. At the same time, she added a question: Could Young Master Dan Wei really know nothing about this incident?

For a moment, almost everyone was secretly discussing and speculating what really happened.

"Isn't it a joke that he doesn't know what his subordinate has done?"

"Shh... Some things are better left unspoken. All of us know the truth and there's no need to explicitly mention it. Otherwise, you might get sent a parcel out of revenge."

For a period of time, the words [Sending A Parcel For Revenge] had trended on the internet.

As for Dan Wei's reaction after this, only he himself knew it best.

Chapter 690: Zi Yi Holding a Lecture In A.Uni

After this incident came to a close, Zi Yi and Lu Jingye had a meal with the ambassadors of the Chinese embassy at a hotel.

Before the dinner ended, Lu Jingye suddenly received a phone call.

Subsequently, he said to Zi Yi, "Dan Wei contacted one of the influential figures at the Bermuda Triangle. They will come and deal with us tonight."

The phone call was from Lu Yunxiao.

Zi Yi took out her phone and quickly swiped around, while she asked, "The villa we're staying in doesn't have a security system. Where shall we stay tonight?"

Lu Jingye pondered for a moment and said, "We can stay at the embassy tonight."

Zi Yi smiled at his answer. "Sure, let's head over and stay at the embassy for the night."

After they finished dinner, Zi Yi and Lu Jingye followed the ambassadors in a low-profile manner and headed to the embassy.

On the other side.

Dan Wei, who had nearly torn the house apart when he came back, had finally eased a little after Rick's persuasion.

However, the thought that he was led around by the nose by Lu Jingye made him feel like killing him.

"I have underestimated that guy," Dan Wei said in a deep voice, "Not only did I fail to teach him a lesson, I even had to lose a competent subordinate."

"Why the need to get so angry? It's just a subordinate." Rick did not think of it as anything of concern. "After today's incident, everyone would think that we would not dare to do anything else to Lu Jingye. You can make use of this opportunity."

"How?"

"Contact those from the Bermuda Triangle to deal with him. Those people do not fear death at all. Also, don't step out yourself to deal with Lu Jingye and Zi Yi. We'll just have to sit back and look at the show."

Dan Wei's eyes brightened. "Why haven't I thought of this before?"

Country Em wasn't located too far away from the Bermuda Triangle and Dan Wei also had acquaintances there. He would be able to call people over with a single phone call.

After he finished making the call, Dan Wei felt at ease. "Even if they don't manage to kill him tonight, he will be suffering from some injuries."

"That's right. We can just wait for the opening of the jadeite mine and play around with him."

"Hahahaha..."

The next morning, the news outlet of City A reported:

[The residence of Mr. Lu from the capital was attacked in the middle of the night and there were heavy casualties.]

When Ye Li'er saw that piece of news, she quickly went to look for Dan Wei.

"Brother, is Lu Jingye dead?" Ye Li'er asked in a complicated tone. She felt upset and a little happy at the same time.

"Is his wife dead too?"

Dan Wei sat there and drank his coffee with a grim face. He was so angry that he did not feel like talking.

It was Rick who explained the situation to her. "They stayed over at the embassy last night and they were not affected at all. The casualties were those who infiltrated their villa."

"Is that so?"

Ye Li'er was very disappointed when she heard that Zi Yi was still alive. She looked at Dan Wei who had an ugly expression and said, "Brother, I'll head over to A.Uni today to take a walk."

Dan Wei was not in the mood to listen to her and he only said, "Pay attention to your safety and bring a few more bodyguards with you."

"I understand."

Ye Li'er turned around and headed outside through the doorway.

Not long after she left, there were footsteps that chased after her from behind.

"Miss Ye Li'er."

Ye Li'er stopped, turned around, and looked at Rick who made his way over.

Rick asked, "How does Miss Ye Li'er intend to make things difficult for Zi Yi?"

Zi Yi made eye contact with him and found out that his eyes were particularly deep and charming. She felt a little embarrassed and lowered her eyes as she said, "I'll compete with her in piano."

1

"What if she can't play the piano?"

Ye Li'er sneered deep down. "If she can't play the piano, I can step on her even more!"

1

Rick seemed to have seen through her thoughts. He softened his voice subconsciously and said, "Ye Li'er, if you were to ask to compete with her just like that and she claims that she doesn't know how to play the piano, it would end up as if you are deliberately using your status to pressure her. Not to mention, she will definitely gain a large number of admirers after she gives a lecture in A.Uni."

Ye Li'er furrowed her brows.

Rick spoke up again. "I have an idea."

...

When Zi Yi arrived at A.Uni, the Deputy Headmaster and the Dean of the Chemistry Department personally received her at the entrance.

"Student Zi, welcome."

The three exchanged handshakes and the Deputy Headmaster said, "I have already prepared the laboratory room for Student Zi. We'll bring you straight over when the time comes."

The Dean chimed in. "The participants of the lecture will be a group of Professors teaching Undergraduate students and a group of graduate students. Is that alright with you Student Zi?"

"It's not a problem."

A.Uni was comparatively smaller than M.Uni, but it was still a long walk from the entrance to the laboratory building of the Chemistry Department. As a result, the three of them traveled there by car.

When the car stopped outside the building, there was already a large group of students waiting there.

As soon as the door opened, the student's excited screams immediately sounded.

"Oh my... M.Uni's Student Zi is here at our A.Uni!"

"Student Zi is so pretty!"

"AHHHHH... a goddess!"

In the face of everyone's enthusiasm, the Deputy Headmaster smiled and made a joke. "Student Zi, you are so popular as soon as you step foot in A.Uni, why don't you come over to our school for an exchange the next semester?"

Zi Yi's lips curled up and she said, "An exchange would be unlikely, I have many things to do next year."

"Haha... I understand. Student Zi, you are your country's treasure and when I called the Dean of the Chemistry Department, he had repeatedly reminded me to take care of you."

The Dean also joked and said, "It seems like we have a great responsibility upon us today."

The three of them soon walked into the crowd.

The group of students became even more excited.

Seeing that the students were about to have them surrounded, the Deputy Headmaster and the Dean quickly stood next to Zi Yi and protected her by keeping her between them.

At the same time, the Dean had a fierce expression on his face and got everyone to make way.

Someone screamed. "AHHHH... the goddess is here to open a lecture, so why aren't we allowed inside?!"

The Dean immediately answered, "You don't understand the chemistry experiment Student Zi is going to demonstrate. If you really wish to learn, buck up on your studies, and you can also look at the video recording in the future."

After the three of them walked some distance, a few male students came over and formed a barricade.

Only then did Zi Yi successfully enter the laboratory building.

Looking at Zi Yi making her way inside the building, Ge Danni who was seated in a car behind the crowd snorted. "These people must have been gathered by A.Uni to liven up the atmosphere. She's just a student and not some celebrity. With such a commotion, I even feel embarrassed on her behalf."

Ye Li'er, who was seated next to her and wearing sunglasses, looked away. She had a cold expression on her face. "Since she likes getting worshiped so much, make a larger scene later."

Ge Danni assured Ye Li'er. "Ye Li'er, don't you worry. I have already told them in advance and they will make Zi Yi accept the invitation to compete with you later."

“That had better be the case.” Ye Li’er said to the driver, “Head over to the School of Music.”

When Zi Yi was holding the lecture, a few posts suddenly appeared on A.Uni’s school forum.

[I heard that Student Zi from M.Uni is not only an outstanding student in the Chemistry Department. She is also very gifted in music.]

[The whole of A.Uni would like to see Student Zi playing a song here.]

[I heard that the goddess of piano, Miss Ye Li’er is also here. I wonder if Zi Yi dares to step out and compete with Miss Ye Li’er.]

[Zi Yi has agreed to compete with Miss Ye Li’er. Here’s a video with the proof. <Video Attached>]
