Chapter 69: With A Father Like You, I'd Be Better Off Without One

Zi Xu pointed at Zi Yi's nose and yelled at her the moment she opened her door, "You're a disappointment. I didn't ask you to come with us so you could cause trouble for me. What else are you capable of besides spending my money to eat, drink and fool around?"

Fourth Young Master He has taken a liking to you with great difficulty and you actually ended things instead? Let me tell you, you're so useless and you had better work in the company after you return!"

Zi Yi looked at the livid Zi Xu and guessed that He Fei should have come to his senses. However, this father of hers was honestly too much to push all the blame onto her.

When Zi Xu mentioned Zi Yi working in the company, Li Peirong spoke up with an expression that implied she was concerned for Zi Yi. "Ah Xu, why don't we let Yiyi study abroad? Everyone knows that we were supposedly in marriage discussions with the He family and if we return like that, how would the high society in S City look at Yiyi? At that time, her reputation would be ruined."

"That's what she deserves!" Zi Xu snorted coldly. "If she were the slightest bit useful, would the He family suddenly change their mind?"

The more he talked, the angrier he was. "I pampered you too much in the past. Pack your things immediately when we return. I'll let my secretary contact international schools. If I hear any more rumors about you causing trouble there, you don't have to come back."

Zi Yi calmly asked a question, "What if I refuse?"

"You dare? Have you not embarrassed me enough? If you refuse, I will not care about you in the future!"

"Don't forget, you're the one who said this." Zi Yi's lips pursed. "With a father like you, I'd be better off without one."

"You... You..."

Zi Xu raised his hand with the intention of giving her a slap.

Zi Yi grabbed his wrist.

Zi Xu discovered that his eldest daughter's strength was terrifying. He could not free his hand and suddenly gasped in anger. "Zi Yi, you dare to fight back? It seems like I have pampered you too much!"

"I didn't fight back." Zi Yi stared into his eyes and said with indifference, "Because you're my father, I have not fought back. But your behavior has greatly disappointed me... Remember your words and leave me alone in the future."

"Yiyi!"

After that, she released his wrists, took her backpack from the room, and went out the door.

“Yiyi!”

“Yiyi...”

“Don’t call for her. If she walks out the door today, I’ll treat it as if I don’t have a daughter like her!”

Zi Yi did not turn back in the slightest.

Zi Xu was angered by her behavior and directly shouted, “Leave as you wish. Return the bank card. I’d like to see where you can go without money!”

Zi Yi stopped in her tracks, took out the original owner’s credit card. She flicked her finger and the card landed on the table. Following this, she continued to walk out.

Her actions nearly caused Zi Xu to faint from anger.

Zi Yi remained in the Zi Family because they were the original owner’s family. As an interstellar trooper, it was common for their family members to disappear in the universe and so, everyone had attached great importance to family ties.

When she came to Earth, Zi Yi was greatly disappointed.

She was not someone who could let herself be wronged. Since the owner’s family was trash, then she’ll just throw them into the bin.

It was ten in the morning when she walked out of the hotel building, with people walking to and fro on the streets and cars flooding the roads.

Zi Yi flagged a cab and said, “To XX road.”

Originally, she planned to move to the villa after all the formalities were completed. Right now, she had no choice but to push her plans ahead of time.

This was for the best and she could also reform her courtyard earlier.

However, when the car arrived at the city center, it was suddenly met with a traffic jam.

They were stuck for almost half an hour. Zi Yi checked out what had happened and came to realize that someone important had arrived from abroad. Therefore, the road ahead was closed.

After she paid the fare, she alighted and walked towards the crowd.
