Chapter 991 Country D's Best Racer

Zi Yi took a step back and looked intently at the tall man in front of her. Even though she could not recognize his face, his eyes looked very familiar.

She thought about where she could have possibly seen him.

The man in front of her glanced at her, veered his eyes away, and proceeded to walk past her.

When he walked over, Zi Yi reached her hand out to block him.

"Miss Zi, please give way."

The man had a deep husky voice making him sound very sexy and attractive.

Zi Yi looked at his profile in an attempt to establish whether he was wearing a mask or not.

She asked casually, "You must be Country D's trump card, right?"

The man looked at her with his head slightly lowered, but there was hardly any expression on his face. "That's right."

Zi Yi did not pull her hand back and give way. Instead, she commented, "You look a little familiar."

"Miss Zi, you are mistaken. It is my first time in the country."

"Hmph! I might have found you familiar, but I didn't say anything about seeing you here, right?"

The man looked at Zi Yi. It was clear from his expression he felt she was being unreasonable. "No, I have never seen you before."

The moment he finished his sentence, he went around Zi Yi's outreached hand and walked off.

Zi Yi turned around and looked at him from behind. She suddenly said, "Runge."

The man did not stop and seemed as though he did not hear her. After entering the room, the door closed with a thud.

Zi Yi pondered standing there. She retrieved her phone and called the lounge belonging to Country D. Also, she happened to see one more team member enter the room.

"Senna, where have you been?"

"The bathroom."

"I see. We have 30 minutes more before the race starts. Very soon, people will start placing bets. We were talking about who people might place bets on."

Someone else said, "I think Miss Zi's husband will place a bet on her club to win. When the time comes, we just need to do the same for our team. I'm confident we'll get champion this time around."

Senna said nothing. He walked to the corner, sat down, took out his phone, and started playing with it.

Zi Yi accessed his phone and discovered he was surprisingly playing video games.

The game was quite a hit in Europe recently. Zi Yi took a look at the game. He had shockingly cleared 99 levels out of 100.

“From the looks of it, I was overthinking it. Runge would never play video games,” Zi Yi muttered to herself as she put away her phone and continued walking.

Shortly after, her phone rang.

A manager from Country L was calling her.

The manager cut to the chase asking where she was and saying that he wanted to talk to her.

Zi Yi’s lips curved upward. She knew the manager from Country L wanted to work with her.

After giving the manager a location to meet her at, she placed her phone into her pocket and turned to head there.

When she got to Team D’s lounge area, the door opened.

Senna surprisingly stepped out.

The moment he saw Zi Yi, he looked at her expressionlessly.

Zi Yi glanced at him and said in annoyance, “Why are you looking at me that way? I was just passing by.”

Zi Yi left after she said her piece.

The robot had already brought the manager from Country L to a secluded location. When she got there, she said casually, “Why did you want to see me?”

The manager looked at her with complicated emotions running through his heart. He asked, “Miss Zi, does your previous offer still stand? If we agree to come in last during the race, will you give us the car modification tech?”

Zi Yi nodded. “Yes, the offer still stands.”

The manager exhaled in relief. He promptly smiled with his pearly white teeth showing. “In that case, my team would like to take up the offer.”

“Your team? Did they agree to this?” Zi Yi reminded him. “Your word alone doesn’t count for much. You need full consensus from everyone. I don’t want anyone threatening to rat me out.”

“Don’t worry, Miss Zi. Everyone on my team has agreed to it. Everyone is just here to watch your team race really. We know we’re not going to win anyway. Since we can’t get the title of champion, it doesn’t hurt to come in last.”

Zi Yi suddenly felt a little impressed by the team. She smiled and said, “In that case, let them know if they can come in last, you will be the first people that I share knowledge about the car modification technology with. Also, I won’t charge you for it.”

The manager from Country L nodded in delight. “Okay then. I will let them know right away.”

The manager from Country L then turned and left.

Zi Yi stood where she was and smiled. She took out her phone and called Lu Jingye.

After Lu Jingye answered the phone, she said quickly, "Ah Jing, we need to make a bet for Country L to come in last in a minute."

The moment he heard what she said, Lu Jingye smiled and asked, "What did you do?"

Zi Yi giggled and said, "Wouldn't this make things more interesting? If everyone bets on my team, it would be so boring, right?"

Lu Jingye agreed with her. "Ok."

After hanging up the phone, Zi Yi received a text message from Shadow. [Master, the man from earlier is following you.]

Zi Yi put away her phone. She slowly walked off in the direction Shadow had mentioned. When she got to the spot, sure enough, the man was standing there motionlessly.

"Were you eavesdropping on my conversation?" Zi Yi narrowed her eyes looking at the man.

Senna said with a stiff expression on his face. "I didn't expect Boss Zi to be blatantly involved in shady deals."

Zi Yi laughed. After laughing, she raised her hand and pointed it at him. "See this in my hand?"

The man looked at the silver needle in her hand and looked a little intimidated. "What are you trying to do?"

"Kill you so that you can't tell anyone about my plans. Isn't it obvious enough?"

The moment she finished her sentence, Zi Yi fired a silver needle at him at the flick of her wrist.

Senna was unexpectedly faster than her and managed to dodge the silver needle shooting at him.

A gleam swept across Zi Yi's eyes as she looked at him.

With a flick of her wrist, she threw lots of silver needles at him.

This time, Senna bent backward, supporting himself with his hands. He proceeded to jump hard and came back up again.

He surprisingly managed to avoid every single attack.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

Zi Yi clapped her hands and smiled as she said, "Not bad. Not bad at all. From the looks of it, you're Country D's trump card."

She walked up in front of him and looked into his stern eyes. "Why don't we make a bet? If you come in first, I'll accede to a single request. If you lose... Hmmm... I don't know what I want yet, so let's wait and see."

“Deal.”

“Deal.”

“Ok.”

Senna turned and left.

Zi Yi said from behind, “You are not allowed to tell anyone about Country L coming in last.”

The man acknowledged her after walking five to six meters away before he quickened his pace and walked off.

Zi Yi looked at him from behind. She took out her phone and sent Lu Jingye a text message.

Zi Yi: [Ah Jing, set up a bet for Senna from Team D as well. Bet for him to win.]

Lu Jingye: [Ok.]

After some mysterious bigshot posted a bet online, the internet exploded.

“Sure enough, you can do anything you want as long as you have money. The guy posted bets for a hundred million each.”

“What’s more, one of the bets is for the person coming in first while the other is for the one coming in last.”

“Who else would come in first, right? I am sure it will be Miss Zi’s Team; Futuristic.”

Chapter 992 He Was Already Intelligent, But Ended Up Being Even Smarter

Everyone was certain Zi Yi’s Team [Futuristic] would come in as the champions. After all, all the cars in the club were specially modified, so they were two times faster than normal sportscars.

Lots of people placed their bets on her club.

People started talking about which team would come in last.

“Probably Team H. I think it has the weakest team members.”

“Not really. Gill from Team H is good at driving with short bursts of speed. He stands a good chance of turning around the race right at the end.”

“Maybe Team B then. Team B doesn’t have anyone who can do that.”

“Impossible. Team B came with two of their best racers this time. I think they might even come in the top three.”

...

Everyone kept speculating about the results. Every single team had their best racers, so it was impossible to figure out which one would come out on top.

Someone said, “Just follow the house. I’m sure it’s Miss Zi’s husband, Mr. Lu. She is brilliant, so it’s clear her team will come in first.”

“What if they randomly picked a team? Miss Zi’s man is very wealthy, so he doesn’t care about money.”

...

People waited and waited as they watched the bets until someone followed one of the bets. Shortly after, someone put money on the other bet.

This only served to affirm the fact that the house did not care about money.

A minute prior to the race, huge bets were placed on the teams from Country D and Country L.

Lots of powerful characters quietly watching the race wanted to follow the bets. But sadly, the bets had closed and it was too late.

The international racing competition officially started at nine in the morning.

When all the racers stood beside their cars, the crowd was turbulent with excitement.

The people in the grandstands consisted of each team’s fans. They had traveled long distances to get to the country to support their teams and were clearly wealthy people. Their cheering was very animated and loud, and thankfully, the race course was capable of withstanding all the activity. Otherwise, because the wild cheering was so great, it could probably make the grandstand collapse.

The moment the race commenced, people online went into a furor.

The cars from Zi Yi’s club were very high-tech and fully automated. The moment people saw the tech for her cars, people kept calling her until her phone nearly wanted to explode as she watched the race from backstage.

She could not be bothered answering the phone right now. So she transferred all her calls to the robot so that it could take care of them.

She was having a virtual call with Lu Jingye who was at home.

“Ah Jing, do you think he’s Runge?”

When Zi Yi tried to sound out the man, Lu Jingye guessed as much. He said with certainty, “Yes, he is.”

Zi Yi grinned. “I didn’t expect Runge to be such a good racer. Do you think he previously trained as a racer?”

“Probably not.” Lu Jingye investigated Runge. “He’s always been a prodigy. Regardless of the field, he was always good. When he was 15 years old, he forcibly activated his left brain, so he’s better than the rest.”

“Hmmm?” Zi Yi was a little surprised. “I thought he was a genius right from the start.”

Lu Jingye was tickled by her words. “He was already very intelligent, but he ended up being even smarter.”

“Ok then.” Zi Yi nodded. “Judging from his driving skills, it’s probably impossible to achieve it using his brains alone if he only started practicing recently.”

Also, Runge's greatest edge was his strong body.

"One thing I don't understand. Why did he show up as a racer?"

Zi Yi tilted her head and thought for a while. A notion suddenly emerged in her mind and she said, "Do you think he's trying to get into my aviation research base by using another identity? He must have known I would choose people to enter outer space from all over the world."

"Uh huh." Lu Jingye agreed with her speculation. However, he genuinely did not like the man, so he said, "No matter what, it has nothing to do with us. You can let my brother handle things."

Zi Yi could see how he felt about Runge, so she smiled and nodded. "Ok."

She craned her neck and said, "Can you go closer? I want to see the babies."

Lu Jingye went closer to the nutrient solution container just like she had asked.

He had been there since the morning.

Mrs. Lu had asked a master to select an auspicious time for the babies to come out of the nutrient solution. Since the time chosen was in the afternoon, Zi Yi went to the club on her own, leaving Lu Jingye and Mrs. Lu at home.

Other than Zi Yi, and the ones watching the international racing competition live at the race track, everyone else from the Dou family had gathered at the residence. They were all downstairs in the living room, with Mrs. Lu and Second Master Lu hosting them.

The babies seemed to sense they could come out of the nutrient solution today, as they moved a lot more than usual in the solution and looked excited.

Zi Yi laughed and said, "I'm sure they will be very good at swimming. Look at their long legs."

Lu Jingye smiled while looking at them with complete indulgence in his eyes.

The two of them looked at the babies for a while before turning their attention to the race course.

The cars had already gotten to the hardest part of the race track.

Initially, Team [Futuristic] kept taking the lead. When they got to this part of the racetrack, people started pursuing them.

On the race track, it was completely legitimate to do something underhanded as long as it did not get out of hand.

"Wow! So many other racers are trying to block Team [Futuristic]'s car."

"Even though Team [Futuristic] was a lap ahead of them, the other teams finally ran into them. Do you think the other teams can block Team [Futuristic] successfully?"

"Who knows? It really depends on whether Team [Futuristic] has the skills to do it."

"Team [Futuristic] consists of rookies only. At a time like this, they might make mistakes."

...

As people talked about the race, the thunderous sound of a collision could be heard.

Everyone broke out in cold sweat watching the car fly out.

The car spun in mid-air before falling on the side of the race track on its side.

“AHHH!”

“Oh gosh. Isn’t that Country L’s car?”

“I wonder if the driver is okay.”

“I recall the best racer from Country L was in the car, right? If he gets hurt, this is going to hurt them.”

...

As everyone speculated, a robot carried the racer out of the car.

Everyone felt relieved to see him.

“Is the racer okay?”

The commentator said, “Don’t worry everyone. The racer was only injured slightly on his arm. Other than that, he’s perfectly fine. However, he won’t be able to continue with the race.”

Everyone was stunned.

“Sure enough, Miss Zi possesses the most mind-blowing tech out there. Even after such a major collision, the car doesn’t seem badly damaged. This must be some kind of special safety feature, right?”

“I think so too. If the rest of the people in the trade were as smart as Miss Zi, no one would have to worry for their lives.”

“Oh wow! Check that out. They managed to block all the racers from Team [Futuristic].”

“Worse still, someone is accelerating and going straight for them.”

“Isn’t that car from Team D? Are my eyes playing tricks on me? Why do I have a feeling that the car is equally fast? I’m sure it’s far more advanced than normal sportscars.”

“Do you think Team D’s car was also modified by Miss Zi?”

“Oh gosh! I recall someone placing a five billion bet for Team D to win right before the bets were closed!”

Chapter 993 Give Them a Couple of Days To Get Over This Team [Futuristic] clearly lost their cool when they saw Team D’s racing car almost catching up with them.

The team wanted to forcibly charge through the race cars boxing them in.

Zi Yi tutted and said on seeing this, “They lost their cool. If they composed themselves, they would definitely win.”

As she spoke, the sound of someone knocking on the door could be heard from behind.

When Zi Yi turned to look over, the door had already opened and Zhou Shiyu was standing there.

“Boss,” said Zhou Shiyu as he walked through the door.

Zi Yi nodded and asked, “I thought you wanted to watch the race live. What brings you here?”

Zhou Shiyu pushed his glasses up his nose, looking at the large monitor behind Zi Yi. He said, “I don’t think Little Jin and the others can come in as champions for the race.”

“Huh?” Zi Yi was a little surprised by his keen observation skills. She did not tell him what she thought about the race. Instead, she asked, “Why do you think that way?”

“Based on observation, Country D has a very good racer among them. The guy is so good at this that no other racer can compare to him.”

Zhou Shiyu paused and contemplated. He hesitated for over ten seconds before he explained. “After working in [Futuristic Technology Group] for some time, I see things differently. I can tell one of Team D’s cars was modified as well. Also, the technology is as good as our cars.”

“You are right.”

Zi Yi thought to herself. The car was modified by a national research establishment from Country D, so it could definitely outperform her casual modifications.

Zhou Shiyu went quiet on hearing this.

Zi Yi knew his concerns, so she said, “Don’t worry about Zhou Shijin and the others. It doesn’t matter what ranking they get. The important thing is experience. With this experience, we can come in first next time.”

Zhou Shiyu scrutinized Zi Yi’s face and could tell she meant what she said.

Doubts emerged in his mind.

“Boss, did you already know Little Jin and the others won’t win the race?”

Zi Yi would never admit it. She simply said, “I used to think my team would win, but just like you, I’ve lost confidence. As you mentioned, Team D is far better than expected.”

The moment she finished her sentence, the two of them turned to look at the monitor.

Team D’s car accelerated even more. It had already caught up with Team [Futuristic]’s number of laps and surpassed them.

“More importantly, this racer is far better at racing than Team [Futuristic].”

Zi Yi turned her head slightly and saw Zhou Shiyu frowning. She said, “I’m sure they’ll feel defeated about this. I have some important personal matters to attend to later, so I don’t have time to console them. You have to help me talk to them later.”

She pondered and said, “I will give all of you access to [Futuristic Bar] tonight. You can go drinking later.”

Zhou Shiyu nodded. "Sure thing."

Zi Yi had already guessed the results of the race.

Team D came in first and Team L came in last thanks to Team D's trump card.

Lu Jingye and Zi Yi made a killing thanks to this.

After the race ended, Zi Yi and Zhou Shiyu went over to see Team [Futuristic].

The team looked crushed and defeated.

Zi Yi said angrily, "That was just one race, but you're already so defeated. Does this mean you'll never race again?"

Zi Yi did not console them and even spoke harshly. The racers could not help feeling worse.

Zi Yi glanced at their faces. She was about to say something, but she paused and reworded herself. "Never mind. I will give you two days to get over this. I'm going back now."

Zhou Shijin promptly exploded. "What kind of boss are you? Your team did not come in champion. Shouldn't you be feeling sadder than us?"

"You're already feeling sad on my account, so I don't see why I should be upset."

Everyone was stunned by the way her mind worked.

Three men from the Dou family had come over looking for Zi Yi and were instantly tickled by her words.

Dou Zerui could not suppress himself and said, "Can't you be more serious at a time like this?"

She should take a tip from him. Even though he already knew the results and made a killing, he did not get cocky and show it on his face.

Zi Yi glanced at him before looking at Zhou Shijin. She did her utmost to calm her voice and spoke sternly. "I was confident that our team would win the race initially, but Team D unexpectedly had a trump card. His car was modified and could go equally fast as ours. Also, the guy was a better racer than you. With those factors combined, it's no surprise that we lost."

After saying this, the team felt a little better.

Now that they looked calmer, Zi Yi continued, "People lose and you can't win all the time. You shouldn't feel so competitive. Moreover, your car is only slightly faster than normal. If you use my car, I promise you'll win every race in the future."

The five of them went quiet and felt their boss was just joking about this.

Considering the speed of Zi Yi's car, it was no different from flying.

Were they capable of driving it?

Zhou Shiyu smiled and said, "In that case, why don't we just move on? You've already come in second and it's quite the feat. Now, it's time to relax. The boss is buying you drinks at [Futuristic Bar] tonight. Why don't we go and enjoy ourselves?"

Zhou Shijin glanced at his older brother and went quiet.

Zi Yi went to speak to the other managers. She offered to make arrangements to show them around the sights of the city before preparing to go home.

Someone called her back, "Miss Zi, didn't we agree? The champion has to buy us dinner. You have to come tonight."

"I'm not free tonight." Zi Yi said no promptly. "I probably won't be free from now on. If you want to dine together, I will have to send my subordinate."

They did not like hearing this, but Zi Yi did not care about their feelings. Once she was done, she left the place through a private corridor with the three men from the Dou family.

Shortly after walking, a deep voice came from behind her. "When are you going to make good on your promise?"

The four of them halted and looked at the man standing behind them.

Dou Zerui looked at Zi Yi in surprise. "Do you know this racer from Country D?"

Zi Yi looked at the man's expressionless face and stern eyes. She said, "No, I don't."

She said to the man, "Even though we have made a deal, we didn't discuss when I have to make good on my promise. I'm going to be very busy for the next few days. In a few days, I will talk to you."

The man promptly frowned with intense coldness radiating from him.

The men from the Dou family automatically trembled inside.

Zi Yi did not feel intimidated by his cold aura. Instead, she called the guys and walked inside the corridor.

Chapter 994 A Thing For Dissecting Good-Looking Men

Dou Zerui asked after they walked out, "Do you really not know him?"

Zi Yi replied, "You've already asked me about it several times."

Dou Zerui shrugged with his hands up. "I am just shocked, okay? That guy was a dark horse in the race and he was the talk of the town. More importantly, he has never raced officially before. The moment he did, it was mind-blowing. Finally, if you didn't know him at all, why would you tell us to place bets on Team D to come in as champion?"

This was his most vital observation.

Dou Zerui was not alone. Even Dou Yunhao and Dou MUYANG felt Zi Yi knew the man.

Dou MUYANG said, "After looking at him up close, I could sense his powerful aura. He doesn't resemble a racer at all. He was more like a..." He pondered and his eyes lit up. "...Soldier."

"Uh huh. I feel the same way," said Dou Zerui.

Dou Yunhao felt puzzled about something, so he asked, "I thought soldiers can't take part in recreational activities such as car racing, right?"

Dou Zerui and Dou Muiyang paused briefly before realizing he, Dou Yunhao, was right.

The three of them looked at Zi Yi in unison.

Zi Yi answered, "Well, you can stop guessing. I'm also suspicious about his identity. Once I have proof, I will update you."

She quickened her steps. "No matter who he is, he's just an outsider to me. I just want to get home as soon as possible now."

The three of them smiled on hearing this and quickly followed behind her as well.

When they were nearly at the car, Dou Yunhao asked, "Isn't Yurui here? Didn't she give you a call after the race ended?"

They shook their heads. Zi Yi said, "I'll give her a call and ask her about it."

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Dou Yurui had come over to watch the race with her colleagues.

Since she did not have a lot of cases recently, she bought a few tickets from [Futuristic Racing Club] when the race tickets were released online a few days ago.

Dou Yurui was a tomboy who dealt with dead bodies all the time. Her preferences were naturally different in comparison to other women.

After the race was over, she discussed the race with her colleagues excitedly.

Unfortunately, she had a stomach ache shortly after walking.

Judging from the pain, it was clearly a menstrual cramp and her period was coming.

She told her colleagues, "Why don't you go ahead? I need the bathroom, so you don't have to wait for me. I'll call my brothers and leave with them."

The moment she finished her sentence, she ran to the bathroom swiftly.

When she got there, lots of people were queuing up for the bathroom but after she came out, the place was rather empty.

She clutched her belly and walked out of the bathroom. It was very quiet outside right now.

Dou Yurui nonchalantly headed to the entrance quickly.

After taking a few steps, she heard someone talking on the phone at the corner up ahead.

The man had a sexy voice and Dou Yurui had a thing for nice voices. She slowed down and listened to the voice.

She could hear the man saying helplessly, "Mom, I really don't have time to go on blind dates."

The person on the other end of the line said something and he hurriedly coaxed her. "My bad. You have my word. Once I'm done with all my work, I will take a leave. When the time comes, I promise to find you a future daughter-in-law."

The moment she heard what he said, Dou Yurui felt a little sympathetic toward him.

Her family had kept telling her to get married recently too.

She thought about Zi Yi's babies coming out of the nutrient solution container today and suddenly smiled happily.

Just when she was about to walk off, the man on the phone suddenly put away the phone and walked in her direction.

They made eye contact for a few seconds. The man then frowned and remarked, "Miss, it's one thing for you to eavesdrop, but you certainly didn't have to gloat, right?"

Dou Yurui, "..."

When did she gloat?

Dou Yurui refused to get pushed around. She crossed her arms and laughed coldly. "Sir, since when did I gloat?"

As she spoke, she walked up in front of him, raised her hand to pull his tie pulling him closer toward her. She looked into his eyes and said mockingly, "Sir, you might look decent, but you're too cocky for your own good. No wonder no one wants to date you."

The man did not expect her to react this way and was briefly caught by surprise. After snapping out of his astonishment, he pushed her hand aside, straightened his body and adjusted his tie in annoyance. "You don't look half bad yourself. Sadly, you have an irritating mouth. From the looks of it, no one wants to date you either, right?"

Dou Yurui was completely triggered by his words. She raised her hands and pushed him against the wall that was behind him.

But in a split second, the two of them traded positions.

The man looked at her with fire spewing from his eyes. He said deeply, "I don't fight women."

Dou Yurui smiled coldly as she looked at him and said, "I have a thing for dissecting good-looking men."

The man went speechless.

Seeing the man in shock, Dou Yurui raised her hand to touch the man's face and scare him.

But moments after she raised her hand in mid-air, a large hand grabbed her wrist.

The man said sternly, "Let's see if you have the ability to dissect me then."

He let go of her hand, squeezed her chin, and leaned down toward her.

Dou Yurui's heart inexplicably skipped a beat. In a split second, she looked at him with her dark beautiful eyes and smiled brightly.

When she caught the man stunned, she raised her knee.

"Ugh..."

Dou Xiangling smiled arrogantly and walked off as she watched the man clutch his private parts.

After the wave of pain passed, a cunning smile emerged on his face.

In a split second, he took out his phone and made a call.

After the call went through, he said, "Mom, I already have a girlfriend, so stop introducing women to me. Don't worry. I mean it this time. It's Headmaster Dou's granddaughter."

The moment he finished his sentence, he hung up the phone and strode toward the door calmly.

...

When Dou Yurui got to the entrance, she received a call from Zi Yi.

She said to Zi Yi, "I'll be right over."

After hanging up the phone, she went over to the spot Zi Yi had mentioned.

The four of them waited for Dou Yurui to get there before they got into the car and headed to the Lu residence.

The people from the Dou family were here along with Third Master Lu's family.

Everyone had gathered in the living room talking about the babies getting taken out of the nutrient solution.

Third Master Lu asked Zi Yi, "Little Yi, will they be able to walk the moment they come out?"

His question promptly made people burst out laughing.

Mrs. Lu said, "Third Brother, do you think my grandchildren are gods? How could they walk the moment they come out?"

Third Master Lu felt embarrassed and smiled sheepishly. "I was just curious about babies who are raised in a nutrient solution, okay?"

He asked Zi Yi, "Little Yi, by letting the babies grow in the nutrient solution, is it better than normal pregnancy?"

"Uh huh. The babies will be healthier and the nutrient solution will help increase their immunity, so they won't fall sick like normal children."

Chapter 995 Zi Yi Feeds the Babies

Everyone watched expectantly as the babies were removed from the nutrient solution.

When the babies cried loudly, everyone smiled excitedly.

“Our babies certainly are beautiful.”

Second Master Lu always looked calm and composed. However, he was so happy that he wanted to tell the whole world about his grandchildren.

Mrs. Lu beamed from ear to ear. Mrs. Lu and Zi Yi’s eldest aunt each dressed one of the babies. As they dressed the babies, they told the youngsters around them. “When you dress the babies, you have to watch your strength. They are very young and their bones are not yet fully developed. If you aren’t careful, you’re going to hurt them.”

Elders Aunt smiled and said, “I have been practicing for over a month waiting for this day to come. But I’m still so worried about hurting the babies.”

The other elders surrounded the babies.

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye were new parents, but they were made completely redundant.

The two of them got squeezed aside and could only stand at the back.

Zi Yi was puzzled. “Are they not our babies? Why didn’t we even get the chance to touch them?”

Lu Jingye smiled as he held her hand and comforted her. “Don’t worry. Once they get tired of taking care of the babies, they will be ours tonight.”

Zi Yi felt what he said made sense and she felt happier.

Everyone looked at the babies for some time after they got dressed. When they were done, they left them to their parents and went to the living room.

Second Master Lu said sternly, “Now that the babies are born, let’s go with Lu Yuxuan for the boy and Lu Lingyao for the girl as discussed. Their nicknames are Tangtang and Guoguo respectively. Any objections?”

Third Master Lu said, “Lu Yuxuan and Lu Lingyao. They sound perfect. Let’s go with that.”

Elder Dou came up with their names while Zi Yi decided on the nicknames. Since no one had any objections, their names were settled.

After dinner, everyone from the Dou family spent a little more time at the Lu residence before leaving reluctantly.

Zi Yi and Lu Jingye could finally see their babies after everyone had left the room.

Since the babies were still very young, they were sleeping.

Zi Yi looked at the tiny babies in amazement and said, “They are tiny. Do you think they will accidentally slip through our arms when we hold them?”

The moment Zi Yi finished her sentence, Guoguo opened her eyes.

Zi Yi looked at her and felt inexplicably nervous.

In a split second, Guoguo pouted and wailed.

Zi Yi was startled and automatically retreated.

Lu Jingye was tickled by Zi Yi's reaction. He walked up to Guoguo and carried her. He checked if Guoguo was hungry or if she had wet herself and said to Zi Yi, "Can you get a diaper?"

Zi Yi was caught by surprise. "How did you know Guoguo wet herself?"

"Just touch the diaper."

An image of Lu Jingye touching the babies' bottoms after they passed motion emerged in her mind. She promptly trembled at the notion.

She said in concern, "This doesn't sound scientific at all."

Lu Jingye looked at her face and promptly knew what she was thinking. He spoke feeling very tickled, "In a few days, they'll be able to have expressions of their own. As a parent, how could you dislike your children?"

Zi Yi nodded. "Yes. Of course, I do."

The moment she finished her sentence, Guoguo suddenly wailed.

Lu Jingye watched as Zi Yi retreated two more steps. He changed Guoguo's diaper deftly as he coaxed her. "Don't cry. Your mother was just joking."

Zi Yi watched as Lu Jingye changed the diaper deftly and coaxed the baby. She could not help feeling astonished.

"Ah Jing, why are you so good with kids?"

If they were not married and had not slept together, she would have assumed he had babies of his own previously.

Lu Jingye glanced at her. After veering his eyes away, he coaxed Guoguo to sleep before walking toward Zi Yi.

Zi Yi stood where she was looking at him not knowing what he wanted to do.

Lu Jingye walked up in front of her, moved his arms, and lifted her into his arms.

Zi Yi hurriedly hugged him by the neck and asked, "What are you doing?"

Lu Jingye smiled at her seductively making Zi Yi nearly have a nosebleed as he said, "Didn't you say you wanted to breastfeed the children? Tangtang is going to wake up soon. Go over and feed him."

The moment he finished his sentence, Lu Jingye saw Tangtang moving with his face frowning.

Zi Yi looked at Tangtang intently and automatically swallowed her saliva. "I think... I think..."

She kept stammering. Lu Jingye turned and walked with and placed her on the bed before she was able to finish her sentence.

"Hmm?"

Lu Jingye sat her down on the bed, then carried Tangtang over, and put him in her arms.

The moment she sensed the baby in her arms, Zi Yi froze.

Lu Jingye deliberately said softly by her ear, "Hold him tightly. Otherwise, Tangtang might fall."

Zi Yi promptly carried the baby firmly with her stiff arms.

Tangtang did not like the way Zi Yi was holding him, so he frowned.

Zi Yi was at a loss. "Ah Jing, what should I do now?"

Lu Jingye smiled teasingly and reminded her. "Lift up your clothes and feed him."

"Okay... But..."

Zi Yi was carrying Tangtang with both hands, so she was unable to lift her top.

Lu Jingye undid her bra and helped her lift her top up.

Zi Yi lowered her head to look at her breasts and her face flushed crimson.

Lu Jingye wanted to laugh when he saw her reaction. He deliberately came close to her ear and asked in a husky tone, "Need my help?"

Zi Yi turned to look at him and cast him a look.

How was he going to help?

Lu Jingye circled her from behind, held the baby's food source with one hand, and said, "Hold Tangtang a little higher."

When he held her breast, Zi Yi could sense tingles running through her skin. On hearing his words, she promptly composed herself and carried Tangtang a little higher.

Lu Jingye continued speaking softly in her ear, "Now move his mouth closer."

Zi Yi did as he said.

When Tangtang's mouth came close to her breast, he automatically opened his mouth and sucked it.

"Ow!"

In a split second, Zi Yi nearly flung the baby aside.

Fortunately, Lu Jingye was prepared and quickly held Zi Yi and Tangtang tightly.

Zi Yi looked at him in annoyance. "That hurt."

Lu Jingye took Tangtang carrying him with one arm while he comforted Zi Yi with the other. "It will only hurt at the beginning. As time progresses, you'll be fine."

He asked, "Do you still want to breastfeed them?"

“No way...” Zi Yi hastily shook her head. “I think the milk powder I made for them is probably more nutritious.”

She snapped her fingers. Before long, a robot came over with a milk bottle.

Lu Jingye took the milk bottle and fed Tangtang. After he was done, he put down the baby and turned around to look at Zi Yi. She was starting to really doubt herself.

He reached his hand out to embrace her and sat her on his lap. He laughed softly and said, “Do you have to be so scared?”

“Who says I’m scared? I’m just... I’m just... it really hurts.”

Lu Jingye laughed in a deep mellow tone beside her ear.

Zi Yi elbowed his chest in annoyance. She turned around to hug him by the neck and whimpered, “Help me rub my breast.”

Just as Lu Jingye was about to put his hand on her breast, Guoguo gurgled.

Chapter 996 Two Hundred Million a Night

Ever since the babies were born, the sound of laughter could always be heard in the villa.

The people from the Dou family came over to visit whenever they had the time. Even Elder Dou came over to see the babies everyone now and then.

Before long, news about Master Lu’s two grandchildren got out. Everyone felt puzzled and curious about when Zi Yi had gotten pregnant.

Five days later, Zi Yi and a few renowned figures in the local medical scene held a press conference.

Zi Yi announced the existence and application of her nutrient solution.

The announcement took the world by storm.

“If the fetus can be removed from the mother’s belly to develop in the nutrient solution, women don’t have to suffer for ten months bearing the children or worry about the pain of childbirth. Also, the pregnancy won’t affect her work. This is brilliant.”

“More importantly, the babies can develop extremely well in the nutrient solution. Even if they have any congenital problems, this can be rectified when the babies are in the nutrient solution. The babies won’t have to keep visiting the hospital and require long-term medical attention after birth.”

“People with congenital illnesses don’t have to worry about passing it to their children.”

“Wake up guys. Even if the nutrient solution is good, normal families can’t afford to use it. Didn’t you hear what Miss Zi said? It can’t be made so that it’s widely available for now. Without money and power, you can dream on about using it.”

...

Diverse views about the nutrient solution flooded the internet.

After the press conference, lots of people all over the world kept trying to get a hold of Zi Yi for some time.

Zi Yi transferred all unknown calls to the robot, so she did not get disturbed by the calls.

A few days later, Lu Yunxiao told Zi Yi, "Over 100 potential candidates have signed up for the second wave of testing."

These potential candidates were the crème de la crème from over a dozen countries and all of them had secretly entered the capital.

Lu Yunxiao asked, "What arrangements are you making for them?"

Zi Yi pondered and said, "Let them spend a few days in the city. Can you secretly find out more about their characters? In a few days, I will bring them over to the base."

"Ok."

Lu Yunxiao promptly made arrangements.

Zi Yi spent the rest of her days at home learning to take care of the babies from Lu Jingye.

Lu Jingye was a good husband and father. He was a natural at caring for the children. From the very first day, he was very good with the children.

Zi Yi became a dangerous figure in the family. Whenever she tried to carry one of the babies, Lu Jingye, Mrs. Lu and Anya would look at her cautiously.

They were worried she might accidentally drop the kids.

"Oh gosh. My dear grandson." Mrs. Lu felt her heart nearly stop and she took Tangtang from Zi Yi. "Yiyi, why don't you start carrying them after they get a little bigger? Otherwise, I don't think my heart can take it."

Zi Yi felt she was innocent. "I think I'm very good at carrying them now."

She looked at Lu Jingye who was feeding milk to Guoguo.

Lu Jingye defended her and said, "Mom, she has already gotten better at it."

On the first night, she nearly flung their son aside, but now she no longer made such mistakes.

Zi Yi smiled happily and felt blindly confident. "I think I've made a vast improvement as well."

She reached her hand out and placed her finger in Guoguo's tightly clenched fist.

When Guoguo held her tightly, the smile on her face deepened.

She turned her head to look at Anya who was sitting there and raised an eyebrow. "Anya, what do you think?"

Anya and Zi Yi were in a similar situation. Since she was new to childrearing, she automatically sat by the side and watched them carry the babies.

When Zi Yi raised the question, she did not have the heart to hurt her feelings, so she nodded. "I agree that you've improved a lot too."

Mrs. Lu smiled. She carried Tangtang and sat down beside Anya. "Anya, did your family say when they would arrive in the capital?"

Mrs. Lu wanted to prepare early.

Anya said to Mrs. Lu, "My older brother needs a couple of days to settle business first. As for the others, they need more time."

Mrs. Lu nodded. She already had an inkling about what arrangements to make. She turned to ask Zi Yi, "Yiyi, when will training for Yunxiao start?"

"It has already started." Zi Yi knew what her concerns were and said, "Don't worry, Mom. The training won't clash with his big day."

Mrs. Lu felt relieved to hear this. She smiled and nodded. "That's perfect."

News about the birth of Lu Jingye and Zi Yi's twins quickly reached Elder Lu's ears through a friend.

Elder Lu and Eldest Master Lu were both staying at the National Sanatorium. He felt upset thinking about the things that had happened to his eldest son and his family.

When he found out his second son's grandchildren were born, he kept waiting for them to take him home to see his great-grandchildren.

He kept waiting expectantly, but after a week, he did not hear from his second son at all. He could not help feeling upset.

He went to his eldest son and told him angrily, "Call your second brother. Ask him if I am still his father."

Eldest Master Lu managed to survive the stabbing incident, but he was mentally traumatized. During this time, he had lost a lot of weight and was as thin as paper. The moment he heard his father's angry tone, he looked at him and said, "Dad, since Second Brother didn't bring it up, why don't you pretend you know nothing?"

"What do you mean pretend I know nothing? Two children were born in the family. As an elder, shouldn't they come personally to tell me about it?"

The more he thought about it, the more annoyed he felt. "Absolutely unfilial!"

Eldest Master Lu pretended not to hear his father and turned to look out the window.

He had been bedridden recently and spent his time thinking about a lot of things. He felt he was such a failure and felt depressed.

Elder Lu felt angry just looking at him. He raised his foot and kicked his son's hospital bed. He gritted his teeth and said in annoyance, "Just look at you. Look at the sordid state you're in. If I had a gun, I would shoot you now."

Eldest Master Lu continued looking outside the window. He wondered how his son was doing in the northwest region. He wondered if his son had cried because it was too hard for him.

Elder Lu kept complaining about this, but Eldest Master Lu ignored him, so he could only leave huffily.

...

The business at [Futuristic Bar] was doing particularly well recently.

Whenever important people came to the capital from all over the world, most of them would stay at [Futuristic Bar]. Every day, Zi Yi would encounter unusual requests from customers.

The same went for today. Shortly after eating dinner, Zi Yi and Lu Jingye strolled around inside the nursery pushing the babies around, when she received a call from Little Loli.

Little Loli said, "Sister, someone made an unusual request again."

Zi Yi asked casually, "What is it?"

Little Loli replied, "They want us to send the other guests out and change the place to a Star Wars theme."

Zi Yi scoffed. "Tell them if they want to book out the entire place, it's going to cost two hundred million per night. Also, they need to do the booking in advance."

Little Loli went about happily replying to the customer.

Zi Yi thought for a while and then said to Lu Jingye, "I should go to the bar and take a look."

Chapter 997 Young People Should Go Out and Have Some Nightlife

Zi Yi then turned to leave, but Lu Jingye held her hand and said, "I want to come along."

Zi Yi glanced at the twins and asked, "What about Tangtang and Guoguo?"

"Mom can take care of them."

Lu Jingye gestured and said, "Mom is downstairs. Why don't you go tell her about it?"

Zi Yi nodded. She walked out to the corridor on the second floor and looked down to see Mrs. Lu talking to Anya as they sat on the couch. She said, "Mom, Ah Jing, and I are heading out. Can you help take care of Tangtang and Guoguo?"

Mrs. Lu agreed to her request and replied, "Sure thing."

Mrs. Lu and Anya walked up to them.

Mrs. Lu looked at her grandchildren. They had just eaten but had not gone to sleep yet. She smiled and said, "If you are going to stay out late, Tangtang and Guoguo can sleep with me for the night."

Zi Yi replied casually, "Okay then."

Lu Jingye wanted to say he would pick up the babies later but since Zi Yi had agreed to it without hesitation, he did not say it out loud.

The two of them headed out of the residence.

When Zi Yi walked past Anya, she asked, "Anya, we are going to the bar. Do you want to join us?"

Before Anya was able to speak, Mrs. Lu said in agreement, "Anya, you should go. Young people should go out and have some nightlife."

She added, "Call Yunxiao and tell him to pick you up. Tell him to go out and enjoy himself like a normal youngster."

Zi Yi and Anya could not resist laughing on hearing this.

Anya nodded. "Yes, Mother."

The three of them then went downstairs together.

It was still early in the evening. It was slightly past six o'clock and it was summertime. A sunset glow could be seen in the background.

Zi Yi asked Anya, "Is Ange already in town?"

"I think so." Anya was not entirely sure. "He didn't really stay in touch with me after I contacted him about it. He simply said he would spend a few days exploring the city for a few days first before looking for me."

Zi Yi smiled. "Why do I have a feeling Ange's up to something? I wonder if he's secretly trying to do business with someone. Why else would he not come and see you?"

Anya shrugged. She had the same suspicions.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

In a private room inside a luxury club.

A handsome man with an elegant posture and holding a wine glass, sat in the middle of a bunch of men as they smoked. Even though they were at a club, he appeared as though he was attending some royal banquet.

"Mr. Ange." Someone suddenly leaned forward and flicked some cigarette ash into an ashtray. After he was done, he straightened his back and looked at Ange. "What do you think about my club?"

Ange lowered his eyes as he swirled the contents of his wine glass looking completely calm. "Not bad."

The moment he heard Ange's words, he smiled and continued speaking, "In that case, what do you think about accepting the club as a gift? If you help to open a back door for me in the Golden Triangle, consider it yours."

"Oh really?" Ange looked up at the man sitting across from him.

The man had a square-shaped face with deep features. His eyes looked especially intimidating and it was clear he was not to be trifled with.

Ange knew the man. The new four families were now in power and he was related to one of them. His name was Wang Hongyi. He was capable and had the brains to get what he wanted. His only problem was that he could get cocky.

Ange preferred to take strong measures against people like him.

His lips curved up as he said, "Sounds good, but why do I have a feeling it isn't as good as it sounds?"

Before Wang Hongyi was able to speak, someone sitting beside him got angry.

"Mr. Ange, Brother Hongyi just needs you to do him a small favor and this huge luxury club will be yours. Do you have anything to lose?"

He nearly wanted to say out loud that Ange should really stop pretending he was not happy about getting the club.

Ange looked at the people sitting across from him. He shook his head in disappointment. "You don't even understand the situation there. Mr. Wang, you must be kidding, right?"

Wang Hongyi did not like Ange's attitude at all. "Just give it to me straight and tell me whether you're in or out, Mr. Ange. Let me make things clear, even if you refuse to work with me, let's not forget you're not the only operator in the Golden Triangle."

Ange put the wine glass down on the coffee table nonchalantly and stood up. "In that case, why don't you go work with someone else? Why bother calling me over? Isn't this just a waste of our time?"

"You..."

Wang Hongyi raised his hand to stop his men. He watched as Ange headed for the door with an angry and cunning look in his eyes.

He said, "Mr. Ange, now that you are here, let me remind you that you are no longer in the Golden Triangle. You aren't allowed to make trouble here. From now on, you should be careful. Otherwise, you might get thrown into jail anytime."

Ange halted and turned when he got to the door. He glanced at "Mr. Wang, you really don't have to worry about me. I was able to come here effortlessly and I can leave just the same."

The moment he finished his sentence, he walked out of the room.

After he was gone, Wang Hongyi's face turned dark.

"Brother Hongyi, what shall we do about him?"

Wang Hongyi pondered and said to one of the men, "Get someone to follow him. Since he's in the capital, I'm sure lots of people are looking for him. When the time comes, create some problems for him and help him settle them. I'm sure he won't say no to us then."

"Sure thing, Brother Hongyi."

The other man asked quizzically, "I recall it's Ange's first time in town. Why do you think he's here anyway?"

Wang Hongyi contemplated briefly before a knowing look appeared on his face. "I'm sure he's either here to see Second Young Master Lu or Miss Zi and work with them."

Everyone promptly laughed out loud.

"If he shows his face to anyone from the Lu family, Second Master Lu will throw him in jail right away."

"That's right. He's from the Golden Triangle. How could he show his face in front of them?"

...

Ange left the club and got into the car. He said to the chauffeur, "Take me to the [Futuristic Bar]."

After he was done, he proceeded to rest his eyes.

When the car got to [Futuristic Bar]'s entrance, Ange looked at the entrance which was quite different from the rest of the bars on the street. He smiled and said to himself, "Looks very impressive. I think it would be nice if there was one in the Golden Triangle as well."

The moment he finished his sentence, he opened the car door and got out of the car.

There were neither any staff nor robots at the door to handle customers. Ange was a little puzzled but he decided to walk right in. However, when he was a meter from the door, he was blocked by an invisible barrier.

A mechanical voice said, "Please produce your ticket or ID."

Ange felt puzzled. "Ticket? This is a bar, but it's asking me for a ticket?"

Someone standing behind Ange heard his remark. He smiled and said, "Dude, you must be from out of town, right?"

Ange looked at the man behind him.

The man clarified. "If you want to enter the [Futuristic Bar], you need to make reservations a week ahead of time. Once you have a reservation, a ticket linked to your ID will be generated. You can only enter the bar with a ticket."

After the man was done explaining, he walked passed Ange. When he got to the door, he produced a ticket and promptly gained entry to the bar.

Ange stood there looking at the door, his hand against his chin. He wondered how he could enter the bar without letting Zi Yi and the others find out.

Chapter 998 Little Loli, What Happened?

Ever since [Futuristic Bar] bought over the neighboring bar, it became the largest bar establishment on the street.

The bar was going for a dark theme today. The moment customers entered the place, the faces inside looked dark and blurry.

When Zi Yi, Lu Jingye, and Anya got to the bar, Zi Yi decided not to work for once since it was Anya's first time at the place. She said to Lu Jingye, "Ah Jing, can you go see those people? Anya and I will hang out in the main hall."

Lu Jingye certainly would not have any objections.

Before he went off, he said to Zi Yi, "I don't mind if you go have fun, but you have to promise not to drink too much or bully anyone."

Before Zi Yi was able to say a word, Anya standing beside them could not resist laughing.

Zi Yi tilted her head and glared at her. After veering her eyes away, she promised Lu Jingye. "I won't bully anyone for no good reason and I won't drink too much either."

Lu Jingye finally felt assured and left with the manager robot.

After he was gone, Zi Yi looked at Anya with gleaming eyes. "Anya, the bar recently received a new batch of wine. I hear its texture is excellent. Let's try some."

As she spoke, she led Anya to the bartender.

The moment they sat down, someone sat down beside them.

The man gave off a dangerous vibe and made the people around him automatically retreat.

Anya leaned toward Zi Yi and asked softly, "Zi Yi, do you know him?"

Zi Yi glanced over at the man using the corner of her eye. She found his aura very familiar, but the man did not look over at them. She said in a soft tone, "I might know him, but I don't think he has noticed us."

Anya could tell Zi Yi seemed to know the guy as well and nodded.

Zi Yi pulled Anya and moved two seats away from the man.

From the looks of it, they seemed like ordinary girls who got intimidated by his powerful aura.

The man sat at the bar and tapped on the table. One of the bartenders walked over and asked, "Sir, what would you like to drink?"

"Vodka, please."

The bartender nodded. He walked over to pour a glass of vodka and placed it in front of the customer.

Zi Yi muttered to herself, "If he wants to drink hard liquor, he should drink Laobaigan instead. It's local and super strong."

She asked Anya, "Anya, want to go have some fun or dance?"

The dance floor was packed right now.

The dancing robots on the stage looked hot and seductive making the people dancing below the stage feel exhilarated.

Anya glanced over and said firmly, "I don't like dancing."

Zi Yi did not like dancing either, so the two of them sat there without moving.

Meanwhile, two people suddenly walked up behind the man sitting alone at the bar.

No one knew what the man could have possibly done, but those men shoved him the moment they got to him.

Zi Yi and Anya were sitting nearby and happened to hear one of the men shouting furiously, "What the f*ck are you doing hiding here? No wonder we couldn't find you anywhere. The boss wants you to come back now. Otherwise, don't blame me for resorting to violence."

The man did not move at all and did not even bother turning his head. He acted as though the men were nothing but air.

The two men looked even more infuriated.

One of them raised his hand and hacked at his neck. "Since you refuse to leave peacefully, don't blame me for doing it the hard way."

When the man raised his hand, the other guy moved slightly so that no one else in the bar could see what was going on over there. They wanted to take the man away quietly.

Unexpectedly as his hand went toward the man, another hand beat him to it and held his hand tightly.

In a split second, Zi Yi and Anya could hear the sound of bones snapping.

"OWWW!"

The man sitting at the bar finally turned around to look at the two men standing behind him.

The moment they saw the man's face, their faces looked scared.

The other man hurriedly tried to wrest his friend's hand free of the man's grasp as he said cautiously, "My bad. We're sorry. We got the wrong guy. Sir, can you let go? Otherwise, my friend is going to lose his hand for good."

As he spoke, he tried to quietly reach for his knife to take care of the man sitting at the bar.

"Zi Yi, aren't you going to stop them?" asked Anya when she saw the scene.

Zi Yi watched them like a nosy onlooker and gave a very good excuse. "Ah Jing told me not to make trouble, so I can't do anything about it."

As Anya went quiet, the man sitting at the bar noticed the other man trying to reach for a knife. He promptly loosened his grip on the hand and pushed the first man. As the first man fell, he picked up a wine glass from the glass counter and smashed it on the second man's head.

BAM!

Blood trickled down the head of the knife-wielding man. He seemed at a loss and stood there without moving at all.

In a split second, he fell backward.

“AHHH! He killed the guy...”

“Someone got killed!”

A lot of women were standing nearby. The moment they saw someone fall to the ground with his head bleeding profusely, they instantly darted off in all directions screaming.

A and Little Loli quickly walked over.

A used an invisible barrier to cordon off the two men lying on the ground along with the man sitting at the bar. No one else was able to come closer.

A looked at the man at the bar who looked completely composed and said, “You’ve made trouble at [Futuristic Bar]. According to the rules, you’re banned from ever entering.”

A watched as Little Loli leaned her hand against her cheek looking infatuated. “Oh gosh. He looks so cool. He’s totally my type.”

In a split second, she was lifted up by her back collar.

Little Loli kept struggling in A’s hands nonstop. “A, what are you doing?”

“Since you’re here to make trouble, then just leave.”

Little Loli got thrown aside promptly.

Little Loli was thrown out of the invisible barrier and leaning prone on it like an abandoned puppy. Zi Yi covered her eyes and could not bear to watch.

Anya pushed Zi Yi and said, “Zi Yi, my older brother is here.”

Zi Yi put down her hand as she watched Ange walk up to the invisible barrier wondering what he planned on doing.

Little Loli was leaning prone on the invisible barrier. The moment she spotted Ange, she went over.

“Aren’t you Brother Ange?”

Ange was looking at the scene curiously. When he heard a familiar voice, he promptly turned his head and looked over.

The moment he saw Little Loli, he smiled as he raised her chin, and asked, “Little Loli, what happened here?”

Stars appeared in Little Loli’s eyes when Ange smiled at her. She promptly explained the situation like a completely excited fangirl.

When she was done, Ange let go of her, but Little Loli grabbed his wrist.

Little Loli continued looking at Ange with stars in her eyes. “Brother Ange, can you keep lifting my chin? I want to know what it feels like to be the female lead.”

Anya was completely speechless. She asked Zi Yi, "Why is this robot so... unusual?"

Zi Yi shrugged. "Who knows? Maybe she watched some stupid idol dramas recently."

As they chatted, the man inside the invisible barrier started fighting with A.

Chapter 999 Zi Yi, Aren't You Going To Do Anything About It?

A was the robot in charge of the bar. The moment a fight broke out, bodyguard robots swarmed over.

They wanted to use their high-technology weapons to stop the man.

However, Zi Yi took out her phone and quickly tapped on it. All the robots promptly received her order to let them continue fighting.

Before long, the robots retreated and the invisible barrier was removed.

As they fought, the robot and man moved outside.

Lots of customers were terrified and screamed as they ran off in all directions.

Zi Yi tapped on her phone again and the customers disappeared from the room altogether.

Ange was standing beside Little Loli. He promptly looked around and asked Little Loli, who had suddenly become very well-behaved, "Little Loli, what happened? Where are the customers?"

Little Loli replied only a few seconds later, "They were sent to another space."

Ange was astounded. "I can't believe the bar is capable of doing this."

"Uh huh." Little Loli looked around as she spoke. When she saw Zi Yi sitting in the dark, she smiled sweetly and said to Ange, "Brother Ange, why don't you leave first?"

Ange looked at the two people fighting before he touched his chin and asked Little Loli, "If I help the man fight A, do you think there's a chance of A losing?"

Little Loli surprisingly did not try to stop him. Instead, she said excitedly, "Why don't you try then?"

Ange had never encountered such an exciting fight. Also, he was very curious about the man's fighting techniques. The moment he heard what Little Loli said, he took off his coat, threw it to Little Loli, and said, "Help me hold it."

He walked toward the man and robot.

Little Loli caught Ange's coat. She smelled the coat and said lewdly, "Brother Ange, your coat smells super manly!"

Zi Yi and Anya were sitting in the dark watching everything. They went speechless.

When Ange went over, the man fighting A glanced at Ange briefly.

Ange smiled with his pearly white teeth showing as he popped his knuckles. He said, "Dude, if you don't mind, I'd like to get some exercise too."

The man veered his eyes and continued fighting A. He had no intention of acknowledging Ange.

Ange did not get upset and instead, he attacked A.

The two of them were both excellent fighters, but they were no match for the robots Zi Yi had created.

After lots of things in the space were damaged, A finally defeated them.

Little Loli ran up in front of A from the side and said in an infatuated tone, "A, sure enough, you rock. I love you so much I could kiss you."

A glanced at Little Loli. He then turned to look at Ange and the man as they got up and sat on the ground. An electric current could be seen running through him as he walked towards them.

"Zi Yi, aren't you going to do anything about it?" One of them was Anya's older brother, so she was naturally worried.

Zi Yi wanted to say that A knew what he was doing and no one would die from this.

However, she pondered before raising her hand to snap her fingers.

A promptly stopped walking.

Zi Yi walked into the light.

The two men looked at her.

Little Loli ran up in front of her promptly and asked happily, "Sister, are the babies out? I really want to see them."

Zi Yi nodded. "Yes, they are. When you have the time, you're welcome to see them."

"Yay!"

Zi Yi looked at the two men looking at her intently and smiled.

"I'm very impressed by your fighting skills."

Ange was about to get up, but he lay back down on the ground. He acted as though he was an incompetent fighter and badly injured. "Oh gosh. I'm hurt. I think I even have internal injuries. I can't get up anymore."

Anya was about to go over and help Ange up. But the moment Anya heard what he said, she halted and stood behind Zi Yi without saying a word.

The other man jumped up. He looked intently at Zi Yi and asked, "When are you going to make good on your promise?"

Zi Yi crossed her arms looking annoyed. "That can wait. Aren't you going to explain why you're making trouble at my bar?"

Zi Yi pointed at the broken objects around them. "You've damaged so many things, so you have to pay."

"Sure." The man did not even flinch in the slightest. "How much?"

Zi Yi gestured to A. "A, calculate our losses."

Before long, A was done calculating the damage. "Master, these dozens of items adding up to 85 million were damaged."

Zi Yi looked at the man. "There's a rule at my bar. When people deliberately damage any property, they have to compensate for ten times its street value. This means you owe me 850 million. Pay up, please."

The man said nothing as his face turned stiff.

Ange was still lying on the ground pretending to be injured. He promptly cursed inside.

This woman was incredibly unscrupulous and even more cunning than him!

No one said a word and the atmosphere suddenly felt tense.

Just when Ange and Anya felt the man would try to get away with it, he said, "Fine. Now, can you make good on your promise?"

"That can wait."

Zi Yi looked at Ange lying on the ground.

Ange detected her looking at him and said hurriedly, "I am already suffering from internal injuries. I don't have money. Don't bother asking."

"Hmph! Both of you were involved in damaging my property. Don't even think about shirking responsibility."

Ange was stunned. He stopped lying on the ground and jumped up looking at Zi Yi cautiously. "I don't have money."

"If you don't have money, you can always use your body."

Ange hugged his chest and looked scared. "What do you want to do to me?"

Zi Yi looked at him in disdain. "Since you're here, I'm sure lots of people want to work with you. If I tell them about you, I might stand to make a little windfall, won't I?"

Ange wanted to vomit blood. "Zi Yi, are you still human? Your husband is the richest man on earth. This is considered spare change to you, right? I don't know why you bother."

"Do you have a problem with making more money?"

"..."

Ange surprisingly did not know what to say.

He continued saying the same thing, "I don't have money."

"If you don't have money, go get some."

Zi Yi said to A, "Chase them out now. They will come tomorrow with the money!"

A walked up in front of them and said politely, "Please leave."

"Hey..."

Ange was about to express his dissatisfaction, but the other man had already turned to walk off.

Ange glanced at him briefly before following behind him.

The two of them walked out and stood in the street as people stared at them. Ange asked the man, who had a cold look on his face, "Are you really going to pay over 800 million?"

If he really forked out the money, it only proved he was nuts.

The man simply glanced at Ange coolly and turned to leave.

Ange automatically followed behind him. "Hey. Are you really going to get the money? 800 million is no small amount. Even if you had the money, wouldn't you much prefer spending it on yourself?"

Ange had already made up his mind to ask his little sister to beg Zi Yi to forgive the debt.

Whatever it was, he did not have the money.

Chapter 1000 Zi Yi, Are You Really Going to Make Him Pay?

Within the bar.

Anya was also stunned by the astronomical sum of money Zi Yi was demanding.

"Zi Yi, are you really going to make him cough up all that money?"

"Uh huh." Zi Yi did not feel she was asking for too much. Instead, she said to Anya, "The guy clearly looks rich. If I don't demand more money, how will he ever learn about the serious consequences of making trouble in my bar?"

"Perhaps we're mistaken." In Anya's opinion, the man did not seem the sort to make trouble.

Zi Yi shrugged nonchalantly. "I don't care. As long as he damages my property, he has to pay."

Zi Yi said to A, "Restore the place to its original state."

A quickly executed a few commands and the place reverted back to normal.

Anya: "..."

This meant the place did not suffer any damage at all.

The space went back to its normal state. The customers who had disappeared also reappeared; they looked a little lost.

Little Loli stepped forward and smiled brightly as she explained, "Everyone, you can continue having fun. Someone tried to cause trouble in the bar, but we've already taken care of him."

Everyone made eye contact with each other.

They were very impressed by [Futuristic Bar].

Zi Yi and Anya had already sat back down at the bar.

As people talked, the atmosphere at the bar livened up and went back to normal as well.

Zi Yi raised her glass at Anya and said, "Come on. I made a killing today. We should celebrate."

Anya raised her own wine glass and clinked glasses with Zi Yi.

After drinking briefly, Anya's phone rang. She took out her phone to check it and said to Zi Yi, "It's my brother calling me."

Zi Yi smiled. "He's probably still outside. You should go catch up with him."

Anya felt the same way. She set her wine glass down on the bar table and got up to walk out of the bar.

Zi Yi sat by herself drinking wine.

Not before long, she detected a familiar scent.

Zi Yi leaned against the man's belly and giggled as she said, "Ah Jing, you just missed a good show."

She pulled his hand and made him sit down beside her.

Lu Jingye sat down beside Zi Yi. He had already heard about the incident from Little Loli, so he did not continue with the subject. Instead, he talked about the people he had seen.

"We've already agreed on a number. If they want to book the place, it's going to cost them 200 million a night."

Zi Yi smiled and hurriedly asked, "Then are they taking the offer?"

"Uh huh."

"Heehee. Not bad. We made a killing again. Perfect timing. I can probably do some maintenance on the robots at the bar in a couple of days."

As she spoke, she raised her glass to take another sip.

However, Lu Jingye held her by the wrist.

Lu Jingye took the glass from her and downed the entire glass. He said, "Try not to drink too much."

Zi Yi smiled. "I'm just drinking cocktails with low alcohol content and I didn't drink much."

"The babies are still young, so the smell of alcohol will be very overpowering for them."

Zi Yi felt he made sense, so she told the robot to send the two of them two glasses of freshly squeezed juice."

She said, "After your younger brother is done sounding out those people's characters, I will send them over. When the time comes, I might have to stay over for a few days."

The moment she finished her sentence, she leaned against his shoulder unhappily. "I really don't want to go."

Lu Jingye raised his hand and stroked her head.

Zi Yi continued speaking, "The male worm is wreaking havoc on the other planet. If we don't save the people taken by him soon, they might end up being killed by him."

“Uh huh.”

Lu Jingye held her by the shoulder and said, “When you miss the babies, we can do video calls.”

Zi Yi looked up at him and said with a straight face, “I need to sleep with you at night. Otherwise, I have trouble sleeping.”

Lu Jingye lowered his head looking at her as his arm tightened around her shoulders.

Zi Yi was just joking. She also knew he would never respond to her about this. She simply leaned against his shoulder and talked to him about the first spaceship.

“When the material I have ordered reaches me, I can build the spaceship. Since Runge is in town, I can ask him to send over some material from Country D as well.”

Zi Yi did not think twice when it came to extorting Runge.

She felt by doing this, her man would no longer feel jealous.

Lu Jingye smiled looking at her beautiful face.

After sitting for a while at the bar, Zi Yi received a call from Anya.

Anya said, “Zi Yi, Ange, and I are making a move. You can go back with Big Brother Lu by yourself. Don’t bother waiting for us.”

Zi Yi acknowledged her and hung up the phone.

Meanwhile, outside the bar.

By the time Anya walked out of the bar, Runge was already gone leaving only Ange waiting for her.

The moment Ange saw Anya, he wanted to give her a bear hug.

Anya ducked slightly and walked away from under his arms.

Ange turned to look at her. He said huffily, “Sister, you’re so uncute. Does this mean you can’t let your own brother hug you?”

“Uh huh.” Anya said bluntly as usual, “We don’t resemble each other at all. I don’t want people to misunderstand.”

Ange looked European while Anya looked Asian. Other than their eyes, there was nothing alike about them.

However, they genuinely shared the same parents.

Ange put on a vulnerable look. “You don’t love me anymore.”

“I never did.”

“...”

Anya asked, “Why did you call me over?”

Ange was about to speak, but Anya continued speaking, "I'm not going to help you talk to Zi Yi and get what you want. I suggest you think twice before you speak."

"..."

Ange raised his hand and rubbed her head hard. "Then what's the point of asking to see you?"

He got desperate and said, "I don't care. If you refuse to help and get Zi Yi to forgive the debt, I'll leave immediately. When you get married, no one will be around to give you a piggyback."

Anya cast a look of disdain. He was simply shameless.

Ange grinned at her smugly.

A stiff expression emerged on Anya's face as she said, "Fine then. See you."

"..."

Ange asked, "Are you still my sister?"

"Nope, not anymore."

"..."

Ange inhaled deeply. His eyes glinted cunningly as a thought emerged in his mind. He smiled coldly at Anya and sneered. "Since you refuse to help, don't blame me for being heartless."

He took out his phone and dialed a number as Anya looked at him coldly.

When the call went through, he said, "Hello, Brother-in-law? I recall as a part of your local customs, betrothal gifts are expected. Where are you now? Why don't we meet up and talk about it?"

No one knew what Lu Yunxiao said over the phone, but Ange looked at Anya cockily and said, "See? Someone is coming to hand over money."

Anya did not know what to say about her older brother. "...You're simply shameless!"

"Why thank you! I think so too."

When Lu Yunxiao got there, the three of them went to a café near the bar. They then sat down and started discussing the matter of betrothal gifts.
