Chapter 2 Former Genius, Once Fallen

Tianyuan City.

The capital of the Tianyuan Dynasty, where there are many aristocratic families and scattered sects.

The Ye family is one of the four major families in Tianyuan City, and its strength is extremely powerful.

"Today is the day for the Ye family to test their strength, right?"

"Yes, speaking of it, Ye Qiubai will also participate?"

"It's really a pity for Ye Qiubai. Back then, he strayed into the forbidden area of the sword master's inheritance and was attacked by the supreme sword energy. Although he saved his life, it's a pity that his cultivation was lost, his meridians were destroyed, and his talent also plummeted."

"Ye Qiubai, it is embarrassing that the number one genius in Tianyuan City has been reduced to this level now."

"That's right... Ye Qiubai's character is too straightforward, and he offended many powerful people at the beginning, but now he has lost his cultivation, and the Ye family has abandoned him. I don't know if Ye Qiubai can survive this test..."

Ye family.

In front of the ancestral hall.

Many people gathered under a high platform.

And on the high platform, there is a stone that can test the strength of talent.

"Next, Ye Qiubai!"

Ye Qiubai in the corner held a sword in his arms, got up silently, and walked slowly towards the Tongtian Stone.

People around looked at Ye Qiubai, some sighed and regretted, and some had jokes on their faces.

After all, no matter how high a person stands at the beginning, then... when he falls off the altar, how badly he will fall.

On the high platform, there were three people sitting on it, and the head of them was the head of the Ye family, Ye Qing, who was also Ye Qiubai's father.

Looking at Ye Qiubai who was silent with his sword in his arms, Ye Qing sighed softly. Why is the fate of his son so rough?

Beside Ye Qing, there stood a gorgeously dressed woman with a cold face, watching this scene with an indifferent expression.

Come to Tongtian Stone.

The elder on the side said coldly: "Ye Qiubai, put your hand on the Tongtian Stone."

Ye Qiubai glanced at the elder who had greeted him with a smile before, then raised his head, looked up, his eyes fell on the cold woman, and a sense of amazement flashed in his eyes.

When they were young, the two were childhood sweethearts.

Practice together, explore treasures together, and eat together.

After growing up, the two families directly engaged in a marriage contract because they belonged in the same family.

And now, after losing all her cultivation, the marriage contract was abandoned and the marriage certificate was destroyed.

The little girl who used to be is now so strange.

Withdrawing his gaze, he put his hand on the Tongtian Stone.

Soon, a ray of light flickered on the Tongtian Stone.

The elder saw this, sneered and reported: "Ye Qiubai, the third level of Qi refining, the talent is inferior."

"Sure enough, Ye Qiubai must have known it in his heart, why bother to make a fool of himself again?"

"Maybe I'm used to being a genius, and I don't want to be a mortal, so I want to try again."

"However, Ye Qiubai offended so many people before, I'm afraid he won't have a good life in the future."

"No matter what, from now on, the Ye family... no, there is no place for Ye Qiubai in the entire Tianyuan City."

Ye Qing above looked at this scene with an extremely ugly expression.

The woman seemed to have known the result a long time ago, so she turned around and left without saying anything.

She came here, it seems, just to verify whether Ye Qiubai has really lost his cultivation.

Ye Qiubai couldn't help laughing miserably when he heard the ridicule around him.
yes.

I no longer have a place in Ye Family.

The Ye family is one of the four major families of the Tianyuan Dynasty, and it is a top family.

How could he accept a trash who lost all his cultivation?

It is a disgrace to spread this out!

Looking at the sword in his arms, he glanced at the back of the departing woman.

Suddenly, as if he had figured something out, he said loudly to the top: "Father, I will leave the Ye family today and travel alone. I hope father will agree!"

Staying in the Ye family will also suffer humiliation, and moreover, it will cause troubles for the father. Instead of this, it is better to go out and venture out alone, maybe there will be some chances?

Ye Qing naturally knew what Ye Qiubai was thinking, so he could only sigh: "You...have you thought it through?"

Ye Qiubai nodded with firm eyes, and only by going out and looking for opportunities can he have a chance to recover his cultivation!

Although this chance is pitifully small, it is almost impossible...

Seeing this, Ye Qing had no choice but to nod. As the head of the family, he had no choice but to let his son go out on his own instead of letting his son stay in the Ye family and suffer humiliation.

What's more, how could those elders let Ye Qiubai, who had lost his cultivation base, stay in the Ye family?

Ye Qiubai bowed, turned around and left the Ye family.

After leaving Tianyuan City, there is a dense forest.

In the dense forest, Ye Qiubai stopped suddenly, looked at the three men in black in front of him, seemed to have guessed it a long time ago, with a calm face, and said with a smile: "After following for so long, can you finally bear it? "

The enmity that was formed before has finally broken out now.

One of them said with a smile: "Ye Qiubai, if I knew today, why bother?"

Ye Qiubai smiled and said: "Even if I go back in time, I will still do this."

While speaking, Ye Qiubai had already pinched a jade pendant in his hand.

He knew that someone would come after him, but that didn't mean he would be foolish and not make any preparations!

"However, I would like to ask, who is eager to get rid of me?"

As soon as he left Tianyuan City, there were killers following him. Although he no longer had the status he used to, he was still the son of the head of the Ye family.

It can be seen how much the other party hates himself.

The man in black sneered, "So what if you know, anyway, you have no chance of revenge.

What's more, you have offended so many people in the past few years, so what's the point of asking? "

"Not always..."

Ye Qiubai tightened the jade pendant in his hand.

This is the only thing he brought out from the Land of Juggernaut Inheritance. There is a set of formations in it. Once released, these three people cannot resist it.

However, with his current strength, he might not be able to withstand the backlash from the formation, but there is no other choice now.

"In this case..."

The first person raised his sword and slashed towards Ye Qiubai!

There is a light shining on the long sword, sweeping Ye Qiubai with power!

The opponent didn't even think about keeping his hand, and the shot was full force, just wanting to kill with one blow!

Ye Qiubai's face tightened, and when he was about to throw out the jade pendant, a figure in blue shirt appeared in front of him.

With one finger stretched out, the sword landed on the fingertips of the man in green shirt, unable to advance an inch!

The sword light was chopped on the finger, as if a mud cow had entered the sea, there was no movement at all!

"I can't let you kill him, he is dead, where can I find an apprentice?"

"Who are you?"

The man in black was startled, and immediately drew his sword back!

"Me?" The man in the blue shirt shook his head, pointing out with his fingertips.

Suddenly, a blood hole appeared between the eyebrows of two of them.

The remaining one has already froze in place.

The man in the green shirt looked at Ye Qiubai behind him, and said with a smile, "There is only one person left, do you want to ask who wants to kill you?"
